ALTHOUGH Christmas is almost a month away plans for Christmas and Christmas entertaining are taking precedence of all else. All the college boys and girls will be home for the holidays, and many will bring their chums, and this will mean not only many pleasant affairs, both formal and informal, here in Los Angeles, but these young people will also be made the motif for delightful house parties galore at the beach and mountain bungalows.

Zeta Beta chapter of Gamma Eta Kappa fraternity will hold the district convocation in Los Angeles about Christmas week, and for these G. E. Ks. Beta chapter of the Lambda Theta Phi sorority are planning a dance that is foredoomed to a success. Another of the pretty holiday affairs will be the dancing party that Miss Mary Foy will give at the Annandale club house, her guests to be members of the younger social set.

The Marlborough sorority will be hostesses at a dance the night after Christmas, and as usual this will be one of the exclusive and brilliant events of the season. Among the many young people who will pass the Christmas holidays in Los Angeles are the two daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Letts, who will come on from the east, and plans are afoot to celebrate their home coming. Miss Ethel Lockhart is to be one of the hostesses at a large card party, and other social events of importance are being planned for this time that are not yet ready for announcement.

Among the good times that are being anticipated in the immediate future is the collation that the faculty of the Westlake school is to give for the members of the collegiate department and for the graduates the night of December 13 and the dance for the Huntington Hall girls, for which no date has been set. And these are only a few of the good things in a social way that are being prepared for these dear young folk.

Annual Ball
Ladies of Los Angeles give No. 1. L. O. T. M., will give their annual ball and whist party in Burbank hall, 542 South Main street, December 11.

Theater Party at Orpheum
Miss Winifred Bleeker of West Twenty-fifth street entertained a jolly box party at the Orpheum Friday night, the company numbering sixteen. Miss Bleeker's hospitality was partly reminiscent of the Horton lawn fete given only a short time ago, when the members of her party gave a reproduction of "Mrs. Jarley's Wax Works."

After the play the party adjourned to Levy's, where they gathered around a big table and partook of a chafing dish supper. The guests were Mrs. Telfair Creighton and her house guest, Mrs. Murray Ennis of San Francisco; Misses Barnetta Norton, Marion Churchill, Alice Smith, Stuthard, Dorothy Parry-Jones, and A. J. Cope, Horace King, Charles F. Patterson, Rob Smith, Fenton Knight, Count Alex. Wachsmeister and Wyclis Taylor of Riverside.

Henderson-Larson
Miss Dorothy Larson and George W. Henderson were married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Henderson, 1301 Essex street, Thursday evening, Rev. Mr. Miller officiating.
Miss Velma Henderson, a niece of the groom, assisted as maid of honor, and the bride's brother, Edwin Larson, acted as best man.
Miss Larson wore a tan silk gown trimmed with lace and carried a bouquet of bride roses.

The parlor was tastefully decorated with roses, chrysanthemums, amylax and potted plants, and the chandelier was festooned with asparagus ferns.
A wedding supper was served, after which Miss Idell King entertained with piano music and Edwin Larson, accompanied by Miss King, gave whistling solos.
The groom is from Bowling Green, Mo., and the bride came here two years ago with her parents from Wisconsin.

The wedding guests included Messrs. and Mrs. R. E. Henderson, John Henderson, J. W. King, Mrs. J. M. King, Misses Velma Henderson, Chlois Henderson, Nellie King, Idell King and Edwin Larson.

To Reorganize
The members of the Independent Whist club are planning to reorganize and change to an afternoon Five Hundred club. The first meeting of the season will take place next Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. August Marquis, Arlington avenue and Twenty-first street.

To Hold Bazaar
The ladies of the First Congregational church will hold a bazaar Friday, December 6, at the home of Mrs. E. P. Bosbyshell, 1121 Ingraham street. Mrs. B. F. Sanborn has charge of the affair. One of the most attractive features of the bazaar is to be the Japanese tea garden, of which Mrs. D. A. Judd and Mrs. S. W. Mudd have charge. Fancy articles of all sorts will be on sale.

Lecture on Indians
Antonio Apache, who has returned recently from Mexico, lectured before the child study circle of the Main street school last Wednesday evening. The subject of his lecture was "Indians and Their Customs." Instrumental music and a ceremonial song by some of Mr. Apache's Indians formed the rest of the program. Flags and greenery were used in decorating. Over 400 were present.

Games and Music
Wilfred H. and Roy E. Perry and Miss Mary Power gave a "Dutch" party and entertainment to a number of their friends at the family residence, 131 West Thirty-fifth street, Monday evening.
The house was handsomely decorated throughout, the Dutch color scheme prevailing, while the center of the refreshment table was occupied by a faithful representation of an old Dutch windmill. The evening was devoted to games, music, etc., followed by refreshments on a most lavish scale. Places at the table were designated by miniature "steins" for the gentlemen and by bonbons for the ladies.
Those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Perry, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Brain, Messrs. Black, F. Ferris, E. Ferris, B. Cohn, W. Cohn, West, I. Randolph, Hollingsworth, Egan, Hawksford, Wilfred H. Perry and Roy E. Perry.

Picnic for Orphans
Mrs. J. C. Ferrall, assisted by Miss Fay Ferrall, Mrs. Orville Woodruff, Mrs. Fannie Stanton and Mrs. Minnie Potter, the representatives of the P. E. O. club chaperoned forty orphans from the Christian orphanage to a picnic and Thanksgiving dinner at Lebo park Friday afternoon.

Party to Santa Anita Canyon
A party of twelve made the trip to Santa Anita canyon for the day Saturday in two seven-passenger machines. Those who enjoyed the outing were Mesdames J. C. Ferrall, E. J. Stanton, Frank Woodruff, Hutchins of Alhambra, Sexton, Misses Fay Ferrall, Lillian Stanton, Louise and Margaret Sexton and Fay Ashley of Alhambra.

To Dance at Kramer's
The students of the Los Angeles business college will give a dance at Kramer's Tuesday evening. Arend's orchestra will furnish music.

Dinner and Cards
Mrs. W. A. Idor of 1408 West Fourth street entertained at dinner Thanksgiving day. Covers were laid for eight. The house was tastefully decorated with red and green. Cards were the feature of the evening.

Church Bazaar
The Ladies Aid society of the Westlake Presbyterian church are arranging for a bazaar which will be held the afternoon and evening of December 6 and 7, in their temporary headquarters on

Grandview street, between Ninth and Tenth streets. A musical program will be given each evening, and a large variety of fancy articles, food, home made candles, etc., are being prepared.

For Russian Peasants
Mrs. Florence Collins Porter, assisted by Madame Vera de Blumenthal, Miss Fanny Willis and Mrs. Clara W. Griese, will open her home, 1141 Fair Oaks avenue, corner Monterey road, South Pasadena, Tuesday, December 3, for an exhibit and sale of lacos, drawn work and carved wood, for the benefit of the peasant workers in Russia. The exhibit will continue a week. On the opening day Russian tea will be served and Madame de Blumenthal will talk on the progress of the work in Russia and in this country in aiding the Russian peasants in the preservation and development of their lace making industry.

Eclectic College Social
The Eclectic business college graduation exercises and social will be held Wednesday at the college building, 1013 South Broadway, 1013 South Main street.
Those expected to deliver addresses are C. Muebel, city auditor, H. J. Gouge and members of the faculty. A first class program of music, both vocal and instrumental, will be given by the students, and music, dancing and refreshments will wind up the social.

Here for the Holidays
Miss Mabel Brundage of 1003 West Thirtieth street is entertaining as her house guest, Miss Edna E. Taylor of Zanesville, Ohio, who will remain in Los Angeles until after the New Year. Miss Brundage is planning several card parties and a musical to be given in Miss Taylor's honor.
