

LATE NEWS FROM FOUR HOME STATE

ILLINOIS

CHICAGO, Dec. 15.—Traveling seventy-two miles a day to and from his office, John B. McNeil, a member of the Chicago wholesale grocery firm of McNeil & Higgins, has covered during the thirty-five years he has lived in Elgin and come to Chicago something like 756,000 miles.

DECATUR—Mrs. Margie Cochran has filed a bill for divorce. Eva Hilbrant, a 17-year-old girl, was sent to the school for girls at Geneva, Ill.

F. A. Garlick, national president of the Gideons, was in Decatur today to address a meeting. Charles Clark of the Decatur fire department has gone to Panama to take position in the government fire department.

The affairs of the Decatur Chair company, which went into bankruptcy over a year ago, are being wound up. The creditors will receive about 5 per cent of their money.

C. S. Batcher of Warrensburg won the blue ribbon at the international stock show in Chicago on Herefords 1 year old, and under 2. This makes the second time in succession that he has carried off this prize.

Mrs. W. L. Shellabarger is entertaining old schoolmates at St. Mary's. They are Mesdames Ferdinand Luthy of Chicago, Harry E. Smith of Monmouth, Virginia Curry of Mount Vernon, Frank Greene of Chicago and William Dighton of Monticello. A luncheon will be given in their honor Wednesday.

Francis Parkhurst is asking for a divorce.

CARBONDALE—The fiftieth anniversary of the instituting of Shekhan lodge, A. F. and A. M., in this city will be celebrated Tuesday night. Several hundred invitations have been issued.

The Missouri Athletic club basketball team of St. Louis has a game scheduled in this city Friday night with the "Maroons" of the State Normal university.

Rev. C. E. J. Tate, who resigned his pastorate of the Carbondale Baptist church, has taken up the work of evangelist for the new Baptist State association and is now conducting meetings at Anna.

W. C. A. of Illinois, spent several days the past week visiting the association at the State Normal at this place.

M. Buck of the faculty of the Southern Illinois State normal here closed her forty-second year as a school teacher last week. Of this period for thirty-three years she has been a member of the normal faculty. During the week M. Buck was presented by her pupils with a handsome diamond pin.

NEBRASKA

ST. PAUL, Neb., Dec. 15.—Dwight E. Williams of Cushing and Miss Rae Covey of this city were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Covey, Rev. George A. Ray, pastor of the Presbyterian church, officiating.

NEBRASKA CITY—C. F. Collins, publisher of the Dundee Review and owner of the works at Dunbar, is suffering from the financial flurry, as four suits were filed against him in the county court. The aggregate of the suits is about $700.

BEATRICE—Earl Carson, a 17-year-old boy, was brought here from Barneston and lodged in jail on the charge of stealing $6 from James Gallagher. His parents live at Oketo, Kas. He will probably be sent to the reform school.

WALTHILL—Lenora Springer Baxter died here at the home of her son-in-law, Omaha Indian woman and is the mother of a large family. She was well known in Nebraska, having lived here and at Bellevue all her life.

PAPILLION—The water company is having trouble with its well. At the depth of thirty-two feet the workmen struck sand, which runs in under the well as fast as they take it out with the steam dredge. They are now driving two-inch planks outside the wall to stop the flow of sand.

GRAND ISLAND—The new high school building is practically completed and will be ready for occupancy immediately after the Christmas holidays. The furniture is now being installed. There is some objection to the same as not coming up to the samples and the contract.

AINSWORTH—The residence of A. L. Sisson was burned with nearly all of its contents. The damage, he says, is about $2000, and no insurance. He owns on his farm five miles northwest and is in town purchasing material to rebuild. A defective fire caused the fire.

TECUMSEH—Rev. John N. Funk of this city has received a call to the pastorate of the Baptist church at Carroll, Wayne county, and he will begin his duties there the first of the year. The gentleman was at Carroll over last Sunday, filling the pulpit in the church mentioned.

UTAH

BINGHAM, Utah, Dec. 15.—George Wynes, a carpenter on the new Boarding building, fell from the scaffold about 100 feet high and was rendered unconscious. He was carried to the office of Dr. N. C. Ray, when it was found that his back was injured and the thumb of his left hand nearly severed. It is not thought that the injuries will result seriously.

COALVILLE—William Chattle, an old settler of Summit county, and prominent in civic and church affairs at Coalville, died at the age of 71. Mr. Chattle fell from a tree which he was repairing last August and received injuries on his head from which he had apparently recovered.

PROVO—Frank Mason, 25 years old, and Herman Atwood, 16 years old, were arrested here and are now in the county jail awaiting transfer to Salt Lake. They are wanted by the Salt Lake police on a charge of obtaining goods and money under false pretenses.

Marriage licenses were issued to Edwin J. Smith and Mary A. Mayberry, both of Provo; Clinton Hills and Lillie Kimber, both of Provo Bench; William J. Keetch and Laura E. Fage, both of Lindon.

WOMAN IN TRANCE LOCATES DROWNED GIRL

BOSTON, Mass., Dec. 15.—Miss Bertha Huse was drowned in the deep black water of Lake Mascoma at Enfield, N. H., where her home was. A diver and over 150 townspeople vainly searched for her body for three days. Then Mrs. Nellie M. Titus of Lebanon, in a trance, saw Miss Huse's body lying in eight feet of water. Mrs. Titus described the exact spot to the diver, and there he found the body.

Prof. William James, who for more than twenty years has been chief of the department of philosophy at Harvard university, has investigated all the facts in this remarkable case, and sets them forth in the proceedings of the American Society of Psychological Research, just published. Professor James adds: "My own view of the Titus case is that it is a decidedly solid document in favor of the admission of supernormal faculty of seership, whatever precise meaning may come to be attached to such phrases."

COLORADO

PUEBLO, Colo., Dec. 15.—District Judge Rizer sentenced Joe Tripolo to three to four years in the penitentiary on a charge of assault to rob. Before passing sentence he overruled a motion for arrest of judgment which had been filed by Tripolo's attorneys, who claim that the man was given a preliminary hearing on one charge and tried in district court on another.

TRINIDAD, Colo., Dec. 15.—The Eagles held a smoker and banquet in honor of Theodore A. Bell, grand worthy president of the order, who stopped here on his way to San Francisco to Denver. Mr. Bell delivered an address.

LITTLETON—Walter Williams, arrested a few days ago at Petersburg for violating the liquor laws, was convicted in the county court and was granted five days to prepare a motion for a new trial.

BOULDER—Curator Henderson of the university museum has sent a collection of fossils found in the mountains of Colorado to Dr. T. W. Stanton of the United States geological survey at Washington for identification. The collection contains a number of specimens never before found in Colorado.

PUEBLO—Lillie Anderson, who has been hovering between life and death for nearly a week as the result of a beating at the hands of her husband, John, is slightly better and hopes are entertained for her recovery. Her husband is in jail charged with an assault to murder.

GREELEY—Escaping an attack of whooping cough for seventy-one years, E. J. Carver, who was a personal friend of Horace Greely, died at his home in Greeley. He was 83 years old. The founder of Greeley, and for thirty years publisher of the Greeley Tribune, is coughing as though he were a lad of 30. Mr. Carver and his wife will remove to Riverside, Cal.

WRAY—Charles Fincher, a young man residing in the northern part of this county, became violently insane last week and was arraigned before County Judge Hendrie and ordered taken to the Pueblo asylum. The young man is in a critical condition physically and mentally and may not live to make the trip.

CANON CITY—The county commissioners have awarded a contract to the Pueblo Bridge company for the erection of a steel bridge across the Arkansas river at Texas creek, forty miles west of here. It will cost $1700 and must be completed by March 1, 1908. The new sixteen foot bridge crosses the Arkansas river in Fremont county which cost $40,000.

CRIPPLE CREEK—Direct information was sworn out in the district court charge, William Grubbs, a prominent saloon man and wholesale liquor dealer, with allowing a room in his establishment to be used for gambling. Burnside gave bonds and was released. Later he and five others were arraigned before Justice Denny on somewhat similar charges and released on bonds.

BLACK HAWK—News leaked out of the marriage of Emmett Morris and Miss Frances Thompson, two popular young people of this county, last spring, and of which not even the parents of the couple had been told. The groom is a well known mining engineer, son of pioneer parents, while the bride is the eldest daughter of County Assessor J. V. Thompson.

RIVERTON, Wyo., Dec. 15.—The extremes to which a coyote will go and the torture he will endure to escape capture were illustrated a few days ago when J. A. Delfelder, president of the Wyoming Wool Growers' association, and a friend were driving and ran across a coyote in a trap. The animal jumped along with the trap trailing until it caught in a clump of sagebrush. Instantly the friends of the dog rolled it over and over until it had twisted its imprisoned leg loose from the trap, when it ran away.

CHEYENNE—A meeting of the stockholders of the Big Horn railway, a Burlington company, was held here. It is the intention of the company to build a line from Francon to the Toluca-Cody line, to Fromberg, Mont. Work is to be started in the spring. This will give the Burlington a direct outlet to the North west for the Gebu and other Big Horn county coals. This line will in time be a part of the railway now building southeast from the Toluca-Cody line to Thermopolis.

Arthur Belcher, a farmer, was killed at Badger, near Wheatland, when his team ran away and he was thrown into a washout. His horse landed on top of him and his life was crushed out before Frank Baker, a companion, could render assistance.

A large number of zealous hunters and fishing parties have been in the hills near Cheyenne the past few days, and all report large catches of trout and good bags of ducks.

In the case of the United States versus the Diamond Coal and Coke company for timber trespass, the jury in the United States court awarded damages to the government of $7122.50.

RAWLINS—Local attorneys have been advised that in the coal land contest case of Angier and Darling on Snake river, in this county, the secretary of the interior has reversed the decision of the general land office. Angier filed on a piece of coal land. Later President Roosevelt withdrawing Angier's filing. Later the land was restored to entry and Mrs. Darling filed on Angier's tract. Angier contested. The case was taken to the local land office, where a decision was rendered against Mrs. Darling.

WATER TOWN, Wis., Dec. 15.—William Flacher of Palmyra is in custody here charged by P. H. Casey, chief of detectives of the Milwaukee road, with setting fire to the depot at Palmyra on November 28. The prisoner claims to have discovered the fire at 2 a. m., but the circumstances surrounding the case seemed sufficient to warrant his arrest.

HUDSON, Dec. 15.—Mayor Frank Maguire, aged 52 years, died here from heart failure. He had been mayor of Hudson three terms. A widow and family survive him.

SCHOFIELD—A water famine seems to be imminent, as the wells in this vicinity are becoming dry.

KENOSHA—Chief of Police O'Hare has put his entire force to the work of investigating the alleged practice of a chapter of the Black Hand in Kenosha and all of the people alleged to have been assaulted were visited by the officers. Not one of the men would admit that he had been assaulted or had received threatening letters. However, the police have learned that most of the alleged assaults were committed.

LA CROSSE—At a meeting of the board of education the action of Prof. Benoit of the high school in dismissing from school six students whose average standing in four studies were less than 65 per cent, was approved. President William Luenning put himself on record as being strongly opposed to public entertainment by the schools as a means of raising money to beautify school grounds and buildings.

EAST TROY—Today was a great day for East Troy. T. M. E. R. and L. C. finished the laying of rails on the line from Milwaukee to this village and there was great satisfaction over the prospect that the road will be running cars to this village by Christmas time.

BELOIT—Congressman Cooper has introduced a bill for a $75,000 postoffice building for Beloit, and a site costing $20,000 has been purchased, but there are many who think $75,000 insufficient to meet the needs of this growing town and a movement may be made to ask for at least $100,000.

APPLETON—A deal was consummated here by which C. Tillman, a Milwaukee real estate dealer came into possession of the Briggs hotel, buying the hotel from Lester Tilton for $40,000. The Briggs house is one of the oldest hotels in Appleton. Mr. Tillman has taken actual possession and Mr. Tilton will return to his former home at Neillsville.

MARSHFIELD—Quarantine regulations to a certain extent are said to prevail at the Younger farm at Eckes settlement, a hamlet north of this city. William Younger, a fifteen-year-old boy, killed a family of twelve pinyon skuats in his house in a hollow stump near his home. He has not been very sociable since.

MARINETTE—Mrs. Anna Parrish committed suicide at her home in Peshigo after she had locked herself in her bedroom. She was found by her husband, and a physician who had been summoned earlier in the day to treat her for a nervous illness which she was subject to. The woman had taken carbolic acid.

BLANCHARDVILLE—One fatal and one serious hunting accident took place here. William Grubbs accidentally discharged a shotgun, and the contents of the choke barrel blew the top off the head of his companion, Oscar Nygaard. Degmund Gerber, manager of the Blanchardville Cheese company, accidentally shot himself in the thigh.

DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 15.—Mrs. James E. Griffith and Dr. James Attridge, principals in the mysterious shooting in the Roycroft apartments, made ante-mortem statements to Prosecuting Attorney Yerkes, from whom it was learned that the woman's husband, who had been discarded, tried to make the doctor wed her.

The physician, however, says it was a plot on the part of Griffith to blackmail him. Some credence is given Attridge's alleged blackmail story, as it has developed that Mrs. Griffith had hired an attorney to bring suit against Attridge and that the doctor also had engaged counsel.

Both the victims of the shooting are in a precarious condition.

KALAMAZOO—Mayor Thompson has issued an order that all of the theaters here close Sundays. The order prohibits "entertainment or any other form of amusement."

BUSINESS MEN will find space taken in THE HERALD CHRISTMAS EDITION a profitable investment. Phone in for a solicitor—he will tell you all about it.

CIRCULATION COUNTS!

TENNESSEE

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Dec. 15.—Six months in the county workhouse and $50 fine is the disposition of the first bootlegging case in the criminal court since the open saloons went out. Julius Ellis, a negro, was arrested on the charge of bootlegging by the police and fined $50 in the city court and bound to the criminal court on the state case, which resulted as above.

EVANSVILLE—Mrs. J. E. Story has returned to her home in Oakdale. Miss Golube Paine is visiting in Dayton this week.

Dr. and Mrs. R. C. Miller spent Sunday in Creuk. Misses Beulah Clark and Bess McPherson of Spring City were here Friday.

Miss Bonnie Blevins of Decatur was visiting Miss Dixie Robinson this week. Mrs. Louise Warner has returned home after a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Clyde Carpenter, in Dayton.

J. T. Darwin has returned from Chattanooga.

BRISTOL—As a result of a crusade against indecent pictures in penny arcades, L. Mack Mantz, proprietor of the "German village," an amusement place on State street, between Fifth and Sixth, was fined $25 for exhibiting obscene pictures and ordered to forthwith remove the objectionable scenes.

WARRENSBURG—Mrs. Fox has been very sick for the past week. Miss Fairie De Bush spent Wednesday and Thursday nights with Mrs. Hal Herring.

Miss Estella Ayres was the guest of Miss Hazel Jones of Beach Bottoms. Miss Sallie Kidwell went to New York this week as a delegate from the Home Mission institute, which is in session there.

CONNECTICUT

WINSTEAD, Conn., Dec. 15.—George Sweet, a practical farmer living north of Canaan, is making his automobile pay for its keep this winter. It operates a circular saw and reduces cordwood to stove lengths.

NEW HAVEN—Frank F. Tyler, president of the Southern New England Telephone company, died from a stroke of apoplexy. He was about 80 years old and had been at the head of the telephone company for twenty-five years. Mr. Tyler was treasurer of Yale from the inauguration of President Hadley in 1899 till four years ago, when he retired.

HARTFORD—Public service corporations in Connecticut will be called upon to pay $1,625,432 in taxes based on the valuation placed upon their business by the state board of equalization, as returned to Tax Commissioner William H. Corbin. The New York, New Haven & Hartford company will pay $1,132,548.

WATERBURY—Miss Mary Bergin, principal of the Park road school, put the district committee to shame by shutting up school and at the head of her young pupils going into the woods for fuel. The school has been like an iceberg for a month. After gathering a supply of dead branches teacher and children returned to the schoolhouse, where soon there was a rousing blaze in the fireplace.

MICHIGAN

DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 15.—Mrs. James E. Griffith and Dr. James Attridge, principals in the mysterious shooting in the Roycroft apartments, made ante-mortem statements to Prosecuting Attorney Yerkes, from whom it was learned that the woman's husband, who had been discarded, tried to make the doctor wed her.

The physician, however, says it was a plot on the part of Griffith to blackmail him. Some credence is given Attridge's alleged blackmail story, as it has developed that Mrs. Griffith had hired an attorney to bring suit against Attridge and that the doctor also had engaged counsel.

Both the victims of the shooting are in a precarious condition.

KALAMAZOO—Mayor Thompson has issued an order that all of the theaters here close Sundays. The order prohibits "entertainment or any other form of amusement."

BUSINESS MEN will find space taken in THE HERALD CHRISTMAS EDITION a profitable investment. Phone in for a solicitor—he will tell you all about it.

CIRCULATION COUNTS!

UNION POTATOES NOW ON SALE IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Ill., Dec. 15.—Union potatoes are on sale in Chicago. The Chicago Federation of Labor by W. W. Scott, local manager of the Farmers' union.

Whether the union variety is better or worse than the non-union product Mr. Scott did not say in his letter. "Now is the time to buy union potatoes," the letter announces.

"We will see to it that the union label is on every package that leaves our hands."

The farmers urge union men to assist them in their fight against the middleman by insisting on having their grocerymer buy union farm products.

TEXAS

HOUSTON, Tex., Dec. 15.—The International & Great Northern has a large crew of men engaged this week rebuilding its bridge across the bayou. New piling is being driven and it is stated that the bridge, when completed, will be one of the most substantial on the system.

CENTER, Sheby county—Actual work was begun on the northern extension of the Santa Fe. The right of way contract was let to different parties and the whole force went to work. The grading outfit has been ordered and will arrive in a few days, beginning work as soon as it arrives.

HOUSTON—The Missouri, Kansas & Texas railway, according to statements made, is enjoying an increase of trade and business is rushing on that line. The farmers along the line of the Katy have decided to turn their cotton loose at the present prices, and as a result the road is doing an unexpectedly large business, having hauled to Houston and Galveston this week something like 3000 bales of the fleecy staple.

BEAUMONT—Percy Hewitt and A. S. Foote, in charge of the telegraph and line service of the Texas & New Orleans, were in the city for a few hours, paying a short visit to Port Arthur, whither they went to look over the loop that had been cut into Port Arthur from West Port Arthur. The extra gang that did the work was disbanded by the officials and paid off. The Texas & New Orleans now has a line service into Port Arthur and an operator has been installed there.

LOCKHART, Caldwell county—The Lockhart fire department met and elected officers for the ensuing year as follows: E. B. Coopwood, chief; J. T. Connelly, assistant chief; M. C. Kelly, secretary and treasurer; Miss Mabel Denney, queen. Lockhart's fire department is not only one of the most effective in the state, but has in the fourteen years of its organization accumulated about $500 worth of property.

INDIANA

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 15.—Prof. A. C. Pohlman of Indiana university read a paper before the Indiana Academy of Science meeting held here.

"Parents make a mistake when they say 'Johnny, stop looking cross-eyed, or I'll immediately slit up his team of four horses and take a drive. The horses ran away, throwing Clendaniel into a ditch and completely demolishing the carriage."

GEORGETOWN—When Willard Clendaniel of Lincoln City received a handsome new carriage he was so elated that he immediately slit up his team of four horses and took a drive. The horses ran away, throwing Clendaniel into a ditch and completely demolishing the carriage.

GEORGETOWN—Rising her own life, Mrs. Mary Conway succeeded last night in extinguishing the flames that enveloped her 4-year-old niece, Sara Shane, but before the child was so badly burned that physicians can give but small hopes of its recovery.

WASHINGTON

SPOKANE, Wash., Dec. 15.—J. J. White, receiver for the Washington Home company, reported that the defalcation of E. E. Martin, former secretary of the company, is more than $3000.

EVERETT—Mayor James appointed under the new city charter Frank A. Pendleton and A. G. Collins, Republicans, and J. B. Fogarty and T. E. Skaggs, Democrats.

NORTH YAKIMA—After twenty years of service as cashier of the Yakima National bank, J. D. Cornett has resigned to get needed rest. He will tour Europe. His resignation was presented with $1000 by the directors.

BELLINGHAM—County Attorney Peninger says if the new administration falls through the county will be completely closed to close theaters, saloons and public rooms on Sunday.

Testimony was presented at the trial of Harry Watts, who is charged with the killing of Addie Roper at Blaine last January. The case is proceeding rapidly. William Allen Dell was convicted of the crime some time ago and sentenced to life imprisonment. Watts is charged jointly with Dell with having committed the crime.

GEORGIA

ATLANTA, Ga., Dec. 15.—Following J. A. Manier, a former sergeant, was shot and instantly killed by Andrew Johnson, a negro, whom the officer was attempting to arrest. Johnson escaped, but was later captured. A large crowd quickly gathered when it was learned that the negro had been captured, but trouble was averted by the timely arrival of police reserves.

MACON—The new Episcopal diocese was organized here under the name of the diocese of Atlanta. Diocesan officers were elected as follows: Rhodes Brown, Columbus, treasurer; W. N. Hawkes, Atlanta, registrar; R. C. Alston, Atlanta, chancellor. Standing committee: Revs. C. B. Williams, C. T. A. Pise, T. N. George and Messrs. A. R. Tinsley, Luther Williams and Z. D. Harrison.

ATLANTA—Bishop H. M. Turner of the African Methodist church was married here to Laura P. Lemon. The bride was formerly the bishop's secretary and had secured a divorce from her husband, Rev. Powell, last May. At the time the divorce was obtained it was reported that the bishop contemplated making Laura Lemon his wife. Bishop Gaines brought the matter to the attention of the council of bishops at its meeting in June. After an investigation Bishop Turner was notified by the council that such a marriage would not be countenanced by the African Methodist church. Nothing further is heard of the matter, until the announcement of the marriage.

PENNSYLVANIA

MEDIA, Pa., Dec. 15.—William Singler, aged 21, of Chester, was convicted of attempting to burn the building of the Fuller Manley Hose company in this city last month. Sentence was suspended, pending argument for a new trial.

NORISTOWN, Pa., Dec. 15.—Frederick and Samuel Strong of Ambler were convicted in criminal court here of the larceny of a sum of money from a box at the engine house of the Wissabickon fire company. They were sentenced to three months in jail. The defendants were members of the fire company, and marked money, which had been taken from a pool box, was found in their possession.

STRAFFORD—The Chester Valley Hunt club had as its special guests members of the Whitmarsh Valley Hunt, of which Mr. Walsh Strawbridge of Germantown is master of hounds, but the heavy snow prevented an enjoyable fox chase.

HARRISBURG—Congressman John G. Henry of the Missouri-Columbia-Northumberland district has reapportioned his private secretary, George D. Herbert, a well known Harrisburg newspaper man and resident secretary of the Democratic county committee.

NORRISTOWN—C. J. Buckley, who was recently elected sheriff on the Republican ticket, filed his expense account here. It cost Mr. Buckley $178.13. Of that amount $300 was paid to the Republican county committee.

SHAMOKIN—Anthony Bobchek met a horrible death at the Enterprise Colliery when he was cut in half in the cog wheels on a scraper line while oiling a journal in full view of horrified workmen.

PINE GROVE—The coldest weather for this season prevailed this morning. The thermometer dropping to 12 degrees above zero, skating is enjoyed.

HAMBURG—This morning was the coldest of the season, the thermometer at six o'clock registering eighteen degrees.

LEBANON—After a duration of four days, the strike of the chain workers employed at the Lebanon and West End Chain works here has ended. The men will return to work Monday at the old scale of wages. They had refused to accept a ten per cent advance, claiming the condition of the business did not warrant it.

HAZLETON—The vestrymen of St. Peter's Episcopal church received word that Rev. Malcolm Shilley of Philadelphia had accepted the call to become pastor of the local congregation to succeed Rev. Frances Yarnall, who has gone to Birdsboro, Pa.

READING—Joseph E. Whitman of this city has a goose bone which indicates that the winter weather will not be severe until about the latter part of February, but from that time on the weather will be severe.

BANGOR—Rev. I. M. Beaver, for nine years pastor of St. John's Reformed church, has accepted a call to the pastorate of a Reading church, succeeding Rev. H. Jerome Lennbach. He will also replace the Reformed Church Record.

KANSAS

WICHITA, Kas., Dec. 15.—It was officially announced from the office of A. H. Webb, superintendent of the Missouri Pacific railroad, that eight passenger trains will be discontinued. These trains run between Sedalia, Mo., Conway Springs, Kan., Larned, Kan., and Wichita. It is said that the trains are taken off to cut down operating expenses. The necessity for economy, it is said, is caused by the 2-cent fare.

LAWRENCE—William Yates, for fifty years a resident of this city, died of congestion of the brain. He has been a guest of honor at state Masonic meetings the last ten years by virtue of being the oldest Mason in the state.

LEAVENWORTH—Charles D. Shuckers, assistant attorney general, swore to complaints and closed four more "joints" here. When the sheriff raided the "joints" no liquor was found, but fixtures were seized in each place and the sheriff locked the buildings.

The Servant Problem Solved
A Real want ad will supply your needs. Direct communication between the employer and the worker. Cost a mere trifle. Rates 10¢ per line per week. Phone Home "Herald," 4545 "Press" 11.

FOR RENT FURNISHED ROOMS APPLY WITHIN

Why not take down that sign? Few see it, in fact only your neighbors and the few people that chance to pass your door. Herald classified ads are before the eyes of thousands every day. Doesn't it occur to you that a "FOR RENT ADV." would fill your rooms? DO IT NOW!

Phone Home "Herald" Sunset "Press" 11.

3 Lines for 3 Days Will Cost You 25 Cents

Moles, Red Veins Scars, Birthmarks, hair on the female face and on men's cheeks above the beard line; pimples, freckles, skin and scalp diseases cured and removed. WORK GUARANTEED. Personal attention of physician. Over 20 years' experience in electrolysis. No pain or scar. TRY AN EXPERT. Free consultation. Suite 309, 309 SOUTH BROADWAY.

The Royal Cleaning Works Kinnison & Willburz Dry cleaning a specialty. Goods called for and delivered. The work guaranteed. 647 1/2 Maple avenue. Main 2656.

ON THE OCEAN BLUE. Saltman—Kind of sad isn't it to lose sight of the land of your birth? Cheyanne—No, it isn't. It's losing sight of everything you have ever eaten since your birth that's worrying me!

NATURALLY. He—Do you always take your dog with you when you go driving? She—No; only when I go in the dog cart.

HER CHANCE. Mr. Shyboz (out horseback riding)—Shall we take the bridal path? Miss Oldgirl—Oh my, Mr. Shyboz; this is so sudden!

A BUSINESS PROPOSITION. Wifey (gobbling)—I think it's mean. You might give me the money and let I don't think you care for me at all. Hubby—My dear, I care more for you than all the money in the world. You're worth your weight in gold, and I care for you more than you give me credit for what I'm worth!

HARD EATING. Mrs. Jinks (at breakfast)—That is a new egg. Mr. Jinks—It ought to be healthy. No germ with any sense would try to live on it.

ON THE OCEAN BLUE. Saltman—Kind of sad isn't it to lose sight of the land of your birth? Cheyanne—No, it isn't. It's losing sight of everything you have ever eaten since your birth that's worrying me!

