MISS KATE MACOMBER, A CHARMING SOCIETY GIRL OF DES MOINES, WHO IS PASSING THE WINTER IN SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA AND IS HONORED GUEST AT MANY FUNCTIONS

MRS. WALTER STORY, who is staying at the Hayward, has as her guest her mother, Mrs. Cliff Benson Curtis of Portland, Ore., who arrived three weeks ago for an extended visit.

Other women present were Meses, Carl Kurtz, H. J. Woolcut, Matthew Robertson, George Walker, Sidney I. Darrin, William L. Hollingsworth, Erasmus Wilson, Edward L. Doheny, Powell, R. V. Day, Richard Bronson, Powers, Frank King, Wills, George King, Walsh, Hattie Maloy, Don Lee, W. J. Gardiner, Leonard.

Several informal affairs have been given for Mrs. Curtis by other friends, among them being a card matinee at Hotel Woodward, given by Mrs. Thomas Stewart of Portland, who is passing the winter here.

For Miss Macomber Mrs. Frank Pixley of New York entertained at the Alexandria Thursday with an elaborately appointed luncheon given in compliment to Miss Kate Macomber, the popular Des Moines girl who is passing the winter with relatives in Southern California, and is at present the guest of her brother and his wife, Mrs. and Mrs. John Kingsley Macomber, Jr., of West Twenty-third street.

Many novel features characterized the luncheon, and the favors, inscribed with verses from some of the best known of Mr. Pixley's librettos, were hidden beneath tiny serpents and toads.

The guests included Mrs. John Kingsley Macomber, Miss Marion MacGillivray of Pasadena, Mrs. Earl Sargent and Mrs. Cosmo Morgan.

In the afternoon the party occupied boxes at the Belasco.

Luncheon and Cards Mrs. William S. Cross of 1124 West Twenty-ninth street, has issued invitations for a buffet luncheon and cards the afternoon of February 22.

The Gamut Club Following an established precedent, the management of the Gamut club will entertain with one of the smartest of the week's functions Tuesday evening. The regular dinner of Wednesday has been set about twenty-four hours, and Tuesday evening the club will have as dinner guests the principals in the "Madam Butterfly" cast.

For Miss Denis Mrs. Patton catinon to Altamira yesterday afternoon to entertain a party of young woman friends whom she had asked to be her guests at a box party at the Belasco. The affair was given for Miss Alberta Denis, after the play Miss Patton entertained with a tea at the Copper Kettle tea rooms.

Wedding Anniversary Mr. and Mrs. William Van Loemen will celebrate their crystal wedding anniversary at their home, 2322 West Ninth street, Monday evening.

Informal Tea Miss Gertrude King was hostess Friday afternoon at an informal tea given at her home, 903 Westlake avenue, in compliment to Miss Mabel Horn of St. Paul, Minn., who is visiting Miss Grace Melius and for Miss Ethel Monypenny of Columbus, Ohio, who is the guest of Miss Sarah Both of South Pasadena, and whose marriage with Earl Y. Loothe has been set for February 26.

Miss King was assisted by a bevy of young woman friends, and the pretty affair was attended by nearly a hundred guests.

Monday of next week in the roof garden of Hotel Green. Preceding the luncheon at 12 o'clock there will be a half hour reception in the Turkish and Moorish rooms at Hotel Green, the Pasadena members receiving with the guests of honor, of whom there will be several well known women.

Members are as usual expected to bring guests, and it is hoped that the attendance on this occasion will be large.

The Pasadena members who are expected to be present and assist the guests of honor in receiving are Mrs. Una Nixon Hopkins, Miss Ada Trotter, Miss Martha Dietrichson, Miss Grace Hortense Tower, Mrs. S. D. P. Randolph, Miss Vera de Blumenthal, Mrs. C. W. Coman, Gussie Packard Du Bois, Miss Neally Stevens.

Woman's Press Club at Pasadena Among the charmingly appointed affairs of the week was the tea given by Mrs. Z. D. Mathuss of 1129 West Seventh street, who entertained for her niece, Miss Grace Uhl, who is here from Chicago for the winter. Mrs. Mathuss was assisted in receiving and entertaining by Mrs. E. H. Talbot, Mrs. A. W. Jallard, Dr. W. C. Uhl, Miss Elsie Bosbyshel, Miss Helen Kemper, Miss Mabel Clute, Miss Rose Smith, Miss Bert Bosbyshel, Miss Helen Salisbury, Miss Marie Crow, Miss Bertha Lebus, Miss Pearl Powers, Miss Helen Clinton and Miss Katherine Kemper.

For Miss Uhl Mrs. George H. Wadleigh and Miss Wadleigh were hostesses Thursday afternoon at the monthly social meeting of the Puskian Art club, entertaining at the Wadleigh home, 145 South Hope street. As the time was so near the anniversary of Ruskin's birth, a short program was given with "Ruskin" as the central thought. Mrs. W. J. Saunders gave interesting reminiscences of her own and her mother's concerning the great author, and read extracts from letters written by Ruskin to her aunt and which are in the possession of her mother. Mrs. W. J. Saunders also read extracts from Ruskin's writings. Mrs. Harrie Myers showed a fine collection of bird photographs which she had taken herself, and gave an interesting account of her methods in making friends with the feathered songsters.

A pleasant feature of the afternoon was the picture gallery which had been arranged in one of the rooms on the second floor, where were shown a dozen or more pictures by Carl Oscar Borg. Tea was served from a teapot formerly owned by Ruskin's mother and now in the possession of Mrs. Saunders.

The hostesses were assisted by Mrs. Frank Gibson, Mrs. W. J. Chambers, Mrs. Herman Smith, Miss Lucille Dixon, Miss Adele Donovan, Miss Ruth Hutchinson and Miss Eleanor Wall. Over sixty guests enjoyed the afternoon.

At the Los Angeles A party that occupied a box at the Los Angeles Friday evening to see "Rabbits" included Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jones and Miss Lindsay.

Returning to Kansas Among the eastern visitors to Los Angeles this fall and winter none have been more popular than Miss Ethelwyn Harrison, a charming young woman from Ottawa, Kas., who left Tuesday for San Francisco, en route to her home. Miss Harrison, who spent three months in Los Angeles, and made many friends, is a young woman of unusual charm of manner and a talented pianist. Previous to coming to Los Angeles she spent a year in Europe, studying with the best teachers. It is whispered that Miss Harrison's marriage is to take place this spring, perhaps within a few weeks, and that her home afterward will be in South America.

Complimentary Tea Mrs. William Monroe Lewis is to be hostess at one of the pretty affairs of the week, having issued invitations for a tea to be given at her residence, 2616 Figueroa street, Friday afternoon, the guests being asked to meet Mrs. Hill Hastings, a recent bride, and Mrs. E. W. Small of Chicago.

The Woodhead Reception One of the most elaborately appointed private functions of the winter was the reception given last evening by Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Woodhead at their residence, 3025 Vermont avenue. A large number of invitations had been issued and the guests responding numbered several hundred.

Mrs. John Mitchell Jones provided a program of harp music. The entire first floor was converted into a big reception room and gaily decorated with poinsettias and ferns.

Receiving with the hostess were Mesdames Phila Everidge, E. R. Bradley, Walter Lindley, Clarence Hall, Robert Wankowski, Madge Connel, J. W. Hendrick, C. C. Wright, A. M. Davison, R. M. Widney, M.
