

FOX TERRIER FINEST DOG IN EXHIBIT

JOHN BRADSHAW'S SABINE RINGER GETS PRIZE

SILKWOOD BEN ALI RECEIVES RESERVE RIBBON

Cups to be Presented Winners Today and Other Features Will Mark Closing of Successful Show

Canine aristocracy was shook—plain ordinary plebeian shock—to its very family traditions last night when John Bradshaw's fox terrier, Sabine Ringer, was awarded the Conservative Life Insurance challenge cup for the best dog of any breed in the show.

The uninitiated who were barely able to distinguish a dog from a Belgian hare had paid no attention to the little animal of mediocre looks but elongated pedigree and those who recognized him at a thought he was in the ring to catch the surplus mice. But whenever John Bradshaw is willing to put his backing behind a pup it may be depended upon to place some of the money, regardless of looks or reputation.

Judge Shortall's Silkwood Ben Ali was presented with the reserve card, and the champion of the show was a prime favorite with the crowd from the time he mounted the platform. In support of his spry looks Ben Ali has family tree which would admit him to the most elite circles of dogdom.

After exhibiting in Stockton, Pasadena, Burlingame, Del Monte, San Francisco and Los Angeles he has brought home his owner thirty-five blue ribbons besides fourteen firsts out of a possible fifteen at Burlingame on September 8. In addition he started his career by winning the breeders' cup at Stockton for the best 6-month-old puppy born the previous year. Ben Ali's sister, Silkwood Brassie, was another of the best animals in the show for her class. The dogs were sired by Crocydon Czar out of dam Silkwood Peggy.

G. B. Kirkpatrick stayed until the last two dogs were chosen, with C. J. Morrison's Rover, the beautiful English setter, which took several firsts in his class entries. Mr. Kirkpatrick received many congratulations for his handling of the animal. Mr. Kirkpatrick, Boston terriers, dachshunds, setters in Madison Square garden, New York, and in Boston, Philadelphia, Chicago and in the various shows, and one time was one of the best known setter breeders and trainers in the east.

Such interest was taken in the inconspicuous parade of thoroughbreds which trooped in for the cup awarded to the best dog owned and exhibited by a lady. The entries included bulldogs, St. Bernards, black dogs, tan toy terriers, Boston terriers, dachshunds, setters, pointers and poodles. When the assembly had gotten nicely fixed on the platform for the prize poodle suddenly jumped up and tweaked a large setter by the nose and the arrangement was completely demoralized.

However, before the anger of the bull could bubble the toy was pulled back by his owner and the poodle proudly took his place, evincing a mistress who termed him cute. The cup was won by Mrs. George E. Montell's bull terrier, Judy Monte.

Today is the last and biggest day of the show, and special features will be offered by the management. The different cups awarded yesterday will be presented to the winners today in the judging ring. All of the best dogs are still on the bench, although some of the puppies were affected by the high life and had to be taken home to recuperate.

Special prizes awarded yesterday were as follows: Arthur Letts challenge cup, offered for the best dog or bitch of any breed, shown by a member of the Southwestern Kennel club. This cup to be won twice by the same member before complete ownership is given. (Doner not to compete.) Won by James Ewin's Boston Bar None, bull dog.

The Cafe Bristol cup for best Pacific coast bred dog or bitch, any breed. Won by Judge E. P. Shortall's Silkwood Ben Ali, bull terrier.

Cash prize of $20 to handler entering and handling greatest number of dogs from Southern California. Note: Handler's name must appear on entry blank. Won by A. L. Stewart.

BAT MOVES TO SEASIDE

TAKES UP QUARTERS IN SAN PEDRO CLUB

Will Add Johnson and Menney to Trainers—Britt Goes on Road, Despite Condition of Highways

No more will Arcadia be the training ground of Oscar Matthew Battling Nelson. The Dane, afraid that too much work in the open would have ill effects on his conditioning for the mill with Britt, packed bag and gloves yesterday and hied himself to San Pedro.

Nelson found his new quarters much to his liking and went to work in the San Pedro Athletic club's gymnasium with a will. The place is well equipped with everything Bat needs, and with Dalton and the Turk to rough it with Nelson intends to get in perfect trim for his engagement a week from Tuesday.

But will make two additions to his staff this week. Battling Johnson, the big longshoreman who is trying to get a fight with J. Flynn, will be taken on to rough it with Nelson, and Eddie Menney has signed up for the fast tussle with the gloves. This gives Bat a nice bunch to labor with, and he ought to get good action on all his time.

Jimmy Britt did not let the sloppy going stop him from taking the usual run over the road yesterday morning, and humped off a pound of meat by the operation. Webster and Kid Colson were slammed around for three rounds each after lunch, and when it was all over James Edward stated that he weighed 139 pounds.

Britt has telegraphed for Tiv Kreling, and when he gets here the show at the East Side club will be worth watching. Tiv has worked with Britt for years, and with a big pillow to catch the blows is a valuable adjunct to the staff. Kreling is also a wrestler of note, and he and Jimmy go some on the mat every day.

Brother Willis will put on a tryout of the moving pictures tonight if he can get a house, and if they are all to the good he will spring them on the public via the screen. Bill sure has some ideas as to the value of letting the dear public know what wares he is peddling, and will get busy in earnest Sunday and begin his boosting.

Bill is getting together a stable of fighters, and last night signed one that will do for Battling Johnson any time Willis wants it to start. No other name than Johnny has been found for the 187 pounder, but for size the newcomer has anything but Jeffries skinned to a false tooth.

CHICAGO AND NEW YORK BOWLERS WILL MEET

By Associated Press.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 21.—A match between Greater New York and Greater Chicago bowlers, for which $500 has been posted, was practically arranged today and will probably be played Sunday.

For Chicago the five-man team managed by J. C. Schneck and known as the Mineralites will play, while New York's team includes Jimmy Smith, Alec Dunbar, William Wingarth, Jas. Watt, and Leo Johnson.

Play this morning was in the individual scoring contest. T. Thill of Columbus, Ohio, with 668, and Paddy King of Wheeling, W. Va., with 653, having the high scores of the first three shifts.

PREPS MEET HIGHLANDERS

Occidental and High School ON TRACK AT 10 O'CLOCK

Individuals Will be Closely Watched. Owen Bird and Rubio Expected to Make Time in Hundred

Unless Jupiter Pluvius sees fit to stop the proceedings with some more little drops of water, Occidental college and Los Angeles high school will mingle on the cinder path for their first meet of the season together at 10 o'clock this morning on the Occidental field.

Unusual interest centers around the contest as it will give ample chance for the statistic fiends to compound more dope on the relative merits of the Presbyterians and the University of Southern California, who will not argue this year, but are attentively watched by those who keep posted on collegiate athletics.

Several individuals will be tabbed pretty closely by the owl committee. Probably the most prominent of these will be Owen Bird and Rubio, who are expected to be hated rivals for the century sprint this season. Next to Charlie Parsons, Bird is perhaps the most widely known of Southern sprinters and his upholding of the Occidental colors against the phenomenal Mexican is the cause for much speculation.

Rubio, in one short appearance before the speed-making public, outgrew the limits of the ward school class in which he started his career and is now ranked with the best of local amateur runners. He was credited with .10 flat on the Jefferson institution's course and although failing to maintain the pace in high school, he ran his first 100 yards for the blue and white in .10-4-5.

Bird's steady gait has hovered around the ten-second notch for the past few years, but on account of an injured knee he has not done better than .10-8-5 in the preliminary work up to date. This time was made in a no-competition home meet, and it is safe to say that the big sophomore can at least equal it against Rubio.

The academic space annihilator temporarily set aside Birdie Thomson, the Holmes pipe dream, tipped off as a three-star Hennessy, in .10 flat, when he had done scarcely better than .10-4-5. All this press work never did the Methodist coach any good. Another sample of funny attempts by Holmes to register some melodrama advertising was a steer given out last Saturday that Charlie Richardson had vaulted ten feet of nine feet six inches in the U. S. C. high school meet.

In the 220-yard dash this morning Coleman, Bird and Blee will be watching. Coleman will bear hands down against Thompson last week and what he will do against Bird and Blee is another interesting item that will be settled by noon today. Stevenson of Occidental would also have looked well in this division, but he has been in bed and on crutches since the interclass events at home.

Someone carelessly went on and left one of their spikes sticking in his foot, and the inconvenience the Highland junior suffered may put him out of the gallop for the remainder of the year. Manager Crane has consented to let the high school boys have the twelve-pound shot against the sixteen-pound that the collegians will have to heave so that the weight division will be considerably evened up. Fred Thompson has been working overtime in an effort to add a few inches to his preliminary mark for the season and is expected to outclass Gelsler. If Kenneth Gordon can repeat his ten feet against the academics the scaling honors also appear to be coming to the Goheen students.

Entries for today are: 100-yard dash—Bird, Brewer and Collins. 220-yard dash—Bird, Highstreet and Brewer. 440-yard dash—Bird, Bush, Blue, Bradbeer. 880-yard run—Spring, Patterson and Salsbury. Mile run—Patterson, Carver and Douglas. 320-yard hurdles—Wieman, Thompson and Johnson.

320-yard high hurdles—Bradbeer, Wieman and Thompson. Hammer throw—Marshall, Wieman and Thompson. Pole vault—B. Merrill, Lowery and K. Gordon. Shot put—Wieman, Collins, Thompson and Conra. Broad jump—Brewer, Spring, Thomas. High jump—K. Gordon and Lowery.

LOS ANGELES HIGH SCHOOL. 100-yard dash—Coleman, Craig and Rubio. 440-yard dash—Carter, Craigs, McClure and Webb. 880-yard run—Secombe, Clark and Hunisberger. Mile run—Morgan and Simpson. 220-yard hurdles—Williams, Bristol and Peterson. 440-yard hurdles—P. Harrigan, Webb and Waldeck.

Hammer throw—Walbridge and Gelsler. Pole vault—Hall, Fottor, Williams and Cobb. Shot put—Walbridge, Al Franks, M. Black. Broad jump—Coleman and Decus. High jump—Marrady, Burke, Davies and Peterson.

The officials are: H. Donnell, starter; George Brand, referee; Lowesly, Van Cleve and Wyckoff, judges.

SUTTONS PLAY IN FINAL OF TOURNEY

SAN DIEGO, Feb. 21.—The greatest interest in the tennis tournament at the Coronado Country club courts today centered in the unfinished semifinals in the women's singles, in which Florence Sutton of Pasadena won a set from Miss Hazel Hotchkiss, 10 to 8, and had lost another, 5 to 7. The third set was unfinished last night.

This morning they commenced it from the start, and Miss Florence won, 6 to 2. This left the finals to be played between Miss Florence Sutton and Mrs. B. O. Bruce, who was a Sutton before her marriage.

Mrs. Bruce won, 9-7, 6-4, and will have to play against her other sister, Miss May Sutton, tomorrow for the trophy which Miss May has won twice already.

In the finals of the men's single Sinsabaugh defeated Hopper, 6-2, 6-2, 6-2. He will tomorrow meet T. C. Bundy, the holder of the men's cup.

The other results were: Ladies' single special: Miss Rowan defeated Miss Fenton, 6-0, 6-4. Miss L. Balch is to play Miss Mannix and the winner will play Miss Rowan.

Men's doubles: Bundy and Seithaus drew a bye. Hopper and Woodbury beat Deitrich and Seithaus, 6-4, 5-7, 6-4. Salsbury and Armstrong defeated Grant and Carlton, 6-8, 6-4, 6-4. Way and Bumiller defeated Hotchkiss and Palmer, 8-6, 6-3.

KETCHELL IS THE CHOICE

Special to The Herald.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 21.—Stanley Ketchell rules a pronounced favorite over Mike Twin Sullivan tonight for their twenty-round fight tomorrow afternoon at Manager Jim Coffroth's arena on the Mission road, just across the line in San Mateo county.

The bulk of the wagering is on the number of rounds, the fight will last. It is scheduled to go twenty-five rounds, but the Ketchell backers are betting the Montana man will win inside of twenty rounds. This proposition is attractive to the backers of Sullivan and a lot of money is being placed.

Both fighters have been under the required weight of 154 pounds for two days, during which time they have done only enough work to keep them in condition. They came to the city tonight in order to be on hand for the official weighing, which takes place at 10:15 tomorrow morning. Billy Roche will referee.

LEWIS AND GARDNER TO FIGHT FOR COFFROTH

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—Jimmy Gardner and Harry Lewis have been matched to fight for the welterweight championship of the world at Colma on the afternoon of March 17. Jim Coffroth secured the men's signatures to a set of articles for a long contest and they will weigh in at 142 pounds.

Billy Roche has been agreed upon as referee. Lewis will leave for the coast February 25.

SNAKE DROPS OUT OF SPIGOT INTO WASH BASIN

Los Angeles Woman Surprised When She Attempts to Draw Drinking Water from Faucet

Attracted by the cries for help of a woman boarder in his rooming house at 913 Maple avenue, Warren Doyle, a fire dispatch patrolman, rushed into the room yesterday afternoon to find a small snake wriggling and darting round in a basin of water just drawn from the spigot.

The reptile, which measured exactly thirteen inches, had come through the spigot when the woman went to draw the water. She noticed what she supposed to be a piece of twine coming out of the spigot, pulled the obstacle out, when it immediately wound itself around her finger, much to her dismay.

She began to scream for help and luried the reptile into the basin. The snake was the size of a heavy cord, while its mouth could be seen with the naked eye. It is probably harmless, as Doyle took it in his hand and placed it in a bottle of water.

"It is of a brown color, somewhat like a hair snake, as they call them," he said, "and exceedingly vivacious. It only shows what stuff we get in our drinking water these days."

POLYTECHNIC LECTURE POSTPONED FOUR WEEKS

Two Large Transformers to Be Used in Illustrating Scientific Discourse Broken in Experiment

Owing to the fact that two of the large transformers to be used in illustrating a scientific lecture on "Wireless Telegraphy and High Frequency Electricity" were broken during experiments, Prof. H. La V. Twining of the Polytechnic high school was compelled to announce to the audience at the school assembly hall last evening that the discourse would be postponed until March 20, when all tickets would be good which had been sold for last night.

Principal Francis of the Polytechnic high school also made a brief address, as Prof. Twining could not speak long on account of a severe cold. This lecture is the first by a series to be given under the auspices of the student board of control of the Polytechnic high school.
