PAT PHILLIPS PILOTS ANGELS TO VICTORY

CHICAGOANS PLAY ERRORLESS GAME IN VAIN

Young College Recruit Holds Veteran Sluggers to Three Hits for Five Sensational Innings

At last the Angels took a smile of the wont-come-or-variety at the expense of the White Sox yesterday and after nine big league innings of strictly pitched battle laughed loud and long while the tourists retired to their dressing rooms disgraced with a 2 to 0 shutout.

The victory first, last and all the time belonged to Pat Phillips, the 18-year-old St. Vincent's college twirler, who made his debut in his recently adopted uniform made by Hen Berry's tailor.

After more than a month in the hospital the ex-Saint climbed into the puzzle pagoda and held the heavy hitting Yankigans for his five innings with no runs and but three safe solutions of his tantalizing sliver ball.

Only the emphatic commands of Captain Dillon kept the proud boy from remaining in action to personally usher the Chicagoans to the clubhouse.

Freeman duplicated Phillips' record of economy until Happy Hogan discovered his secret in the last of the fourth.

The next act was a repetition of the previous one and in the ninth run column. The same goes for the Chicagoans' half of the sixth and after desperate efforts to offset the pleasing appearance of the Angels' pitcher.

Immediately upon his ascension to the mound, however, the scoreboard battered to the new patch in the center field fence by Brashear for a two-fielder. Smith then forgot the account charged against him on Hank O'Day's indicator and while trying to sacrifice Kitty to the triangle cushion bunted the third strike.

Ellis trotted along to help Anderson hold down the initial bag on free transportation but was unable to keep the ball from the guinea while Delmas expired in Fien's mit.

Easterly brought the legal tender jingle back into the local money with a cookstove drive which scored the second and Osterly loped in to clang the second bell for his banquetless owner.

The Angels' seventh inning rabbit foot stayed away when it scolded the right fielder Oakes distinguished himself with a harvest of a liner from Fien's battering stick, which almost set his 110 pounds of weight on the turf and when his turn came to grasp the ramrod doubled to the scoreboy's chair.

PRETENSION WINSFEATURE

BEATS COLONEL BOB BY A NOSE

Victorine Hannon and Silverskin Are Made the Medium of a Big Killing and Reward Their Backers

BY IRVING B. CLEMENT

Victorine Hannon and Silverskin are the winners of the Pretension race yesterday, as only two came in as winners.

There was a large crowd present, as Secretary Smith had a nice program arranged, with the El Campo handicap as the feature event.

The race was between the two all the way and Harry F had little contention for the show.

A good thing was put over in the opening race of the day, when Victorine Hannon, played from 15 to 10 to 1, came in an easy winner.

The latter tired chasing the winner, Lady Powell was almost put over the rail right after the start; but for this would probably have won.

Gallivant Wins Easily Gallivant had a cakewalk in the third race and won as his rider pleased.

Daruma ran right back to her former race by making the pace all the way in the fifth and winning easily.

She was a split favorite with Chalfonte, Smirker was outrun till the stretch, where he finished like a shot and got up in time to take second money from the fast tiring Chalfonte.

Silverskin rewarded his backers in the sixth race, and after the start never left the result in doubt, as Musgrave lay behind the leaders with him until the far turn, then he hit down and he won handsly.

In a drive Red Reynard beat Orcaena a head for the place. Friar of Elgin was weakly handled, as Goldstein rode him all over the track and was of no help at the finish.

LONG SHOT GALLOPS IN SAN FRANCISCO, March 19.—Wing Ting proved a surprise at Emeryville today when she captured the Benicia handicap without trouble.

She was well played and closed at 25 to 1. Peter Sterling disappointed his backers and had to be driven out to get the place from Import. Logistilla was strong at the finish.
