CLEAR, CRISP AND CLEAN

FREE MEALS

FREE food headquarters have been established at the Alhambra restaurant, 116 West Second street. The proprietor will not feed drunken or dissolute persons, but sober, respectable, poor people will get square meals.

Some years ago an inquisitive young Scotsman asked Andrew Carnegie what was his object in founding free libraries and making other benefactions. "I am buying my soul," replied the ironmaster.

NEEDS INVESTIGATION

THE New York anti-gambling race track bill is not dead. It is only in a condition of suspended animation. When it is revived the influences that have triumphed temporarily will find it is the liveliest sample of dynamics that was ever mistaken for a corpse.

ACTOR-COLLECTOR

WILTON LACKAYE, a well known actor, stopped the play in which he was starring at San Jose, in the midst of stage affairs, when the fates of the characters were bristling with interrogation points and the audience was quivering with excitement.

JURY SYSTEM

DISTRICT ATTORNEY J. D. FREDERICKS told the Bar association that the jury system in the criminal courts is almost altogether bad. He would not say he would at once abandon the jury method, but he let it be understood that that would be the best way out.

DISASTER AVERTED

FROM time to time the public is reminded sharply of the urgent necessity of making every school building in the United States SAFE; not partially safe, but SAFE beyond reasonable doubt. Here is some plain English.

THROWING A SCARE

IT must be admitted that the naval and coast defense program of the government does not suggest piping times of peace. On the contrary we might be justified in believing that in time of peace we were preparing for war.

NEEDS INVESTIGATION

Heat, says Dr. Park of Chicago, is impalpable ether, that is to say, ether that cannot be weighed. Therefore the Bad Place must be ethereal. This is in conflict with opinions handed down to us by our fathers.

SORROW OVER STATESMAN'S RETIREMENT

TRUSTS DESERTED

THE news that Senator Aldrich will retire has caused consternation among the trusts. Who will now be their tried and trusty servant and defender in the councils of the nation?

THROWING A SCARE

IT must be admitted that the naval and coast defense program of the government does not suggest piping times of peace. On the contrary we might be justified in believing that in time of peace we were preparing for war.

BIKES AND BARBARISM

OICHI! OICHI! The eighth battalion of the Black Watch, the famous Scotch regiment which retains kilt, dirk, sporran, skene dhu, feather-bonnet, plaid, and all the other elegant relics of barbarism on which Caledonians pride themselves, is to be mounted on bicycles.

SPARKS FROM A LIVE WIRE

Hearts Afire

Colegrove's schoolhouse was on fire yesterday and Hollywood was asked to go to the rescue. The city by the hills responded most magnanimously by sending over a load of peaches.

Journalism Down to Date

Monday—The new Orpheum theater will be erected on the east-west corner of Fifth and Main streets.

When Willyum Hunts

"If you were traveling abroad and met a man wearing a coat and cape of pale blue, trimmed with green, red trousers, high patent leather boots with gold spurs, a green leather belt containing a gold-handled hunting knife and a green felt hat with a feather in the side, what would you think?"

REFORMED SPELLING AGAIN

Captain Harry Graham, the witty Englishman, whose verses have long tickled the American, as well as the English sense of humor, takes a fling as President Roosevelt and simplified spelling in a little book called "Familiar Facts."

OF WORLDWIDE INTEREST POLITICS IN JAPAN BY FREDERIC J. HASKIN

OKIO—Japan is on fire with politics from one end to the other, for this is a great campaign year in the Land of the Rising Sun, just as it is in the United States. A new diet is to be elected in June, and for the first time in the eighteen years that Japan has had a parliamentary government, there is a red-hot issue of principle at stake.

The chambers of commerce of the country recently organized a united chambers and memorialized the government in opposition to the increase of taxes contemplated by the diet. In this protest they were joined by the labor organizations.

Political parties as they are known in the United States do not exist here, but they probably will be called into being by this very campaign. When the parliamentary government was first granted the necessity for standing together for the new form of administration made party divisions dangerous.

These so-called parties have no existence in fact outside of the lower house of the diet. The members are not chosen from the various districts for one reason or another, and their party alignment is fixed after they get to Tokyo.

This interest is being aroused by the commercial movement and by the newspapers, so that in the elections this summer candidates will declare their party affiliations in a much more distinct fashion than has been done heretofore.
