

ORDINATION OF PASTOR HONORED CATHOLICS PAY TRIBUTE TO FATHER RAPHAEL

Twenty-fifth Anniversary of His Priesthood Three Days' Celebration Opens with Beautiful Ceremonies and Solemn Mass—Procession an Impressive Feature

Catholics of Los Angeles turned out in large numbers yesterday to honor Rev. Raphael Fuhr, O. F. M., pastor of St. Joseph's church, who observed the twenty-fifth anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood of the Roman Catholic church, which opened with a three days' celebration in honor of the event.

Father Raphael, as he is lovingly known far beyond the confines of his parish, is one of the most prominent priests of the diocese, although he has been stationed at St. Joseph's church but four years. Protestants as well as Catholics joined in the celebration yesterday, doing honor to the popular pastor.

Beginning yesterday morning solemn mass was celebrated in St. Joseph's church, which was largely attended by priests and laymen. The offertory of church interior was made still more beautiful with many potted plants and cut flowers. A procession was formed headed by the church socialites and so-called altar boys, priests, the jubilant and lastly Bishop Conaty in his imposing robes.

Bishop Conaty preached the sermon commemorative of the twenty-five years of zealous service in the work of the church. The bishop took for his text the prophecy of Isaiah, "Behold my servant whom I have chosen, my beloved in whom my soul hath been well pleased." He said in part:

Bishop's Address "Priests and people are gathered to honor the beloved jubilarian and wish him many years of service to his God in the holy priesthood which he has honored by the service of his life. It is joy for his friends of the clergy to gather round the altar and offer the holy sacrifice in thanksgiving to God for all that God has done for his friend as a priest and for the people who have profited by his priestly ministrations.

"The priesthood of the Catholic church has its place in the regeneration of society. The sublime dignity of the Christian priesthood, the special vocation from God, the years of anxious preparation, the solemnity of the religious vows, the constancy of service in the interests of God and of the people prevail. The priest is prominent in the history of mankind from the very beginning of the world. All people have felt their duty to religion and have realized the necessity of a sacrifice, an altar and a priesthood. The old law honored the priest as a special representative of God and determined the character of the sacrifice and vested him with the authority of religion. Aaron and Melchizedek were the perfect priest, and their sacrifices were but figures of the perfect sacrifice which he offered on Calvary.

Christ Founder of Religion "Christ is the founder of true religion, and he outlined in his life his purposes of redemption which was to be brought to the lives of men through the priesthood which he had established in the apostles. The last supper was the institution of the mystic sacrament in the bread and wine of the Eucharist, and the establishment of the priesthood, which was to commemorate until the end of time what he had done for them. This was to be the 'clean oblation' spoken of by the prophet, not only a sacrifice, but a sacrament. Christ made his priesthood the teacher of truth and sent it forth to all the nations, that by it men might know the truth of redemption, and live brought to their lives the blessings of the precious blood with which Christ had redeemed the world. "The priest is the one to offer sacrifice, to dispense the sacraments and to teach the law of God. The priest is called to be a man of God and a man of the people, the light of the world, salt of the earth, apostle of the higher life, minister of reconciliation, and head of the church, vicar of the charity of Christ, the man of the supernatural who stands in the world for authority, the authority of God, who preaches Jesus Christ crucified, insists upon obedience to God's law, and brings by his ministrations salvation to mankind."

Ovation at Night Again last night Father Raphael was given a touching ovation in the form of a reception tendered in the school auditorium, which was filled with an audience that taxed its seating capacity.

As at the morning service, a large number of the clergy of the diocese were in attendance to do honor to their brother priest who had reached the silver milestone in his churchly labors. Isidore B. Schwab, acting as chairman of the evening. The program was opened with Gounod's "Pontificale" march, followed by introductory remarks by Mr. Dockweiler. St. Joseph's church choir rendered a song of greetings. Joseph Scott and Gustave Risse then gave addresses in English and German, respectively, followed by the jubilee hymn in German. John Roeder made an address in behalf of the Catholic Order of Foresters. Adam Traybert spoke in German and Miss Mary Maukenhaupt spoke in behalf of the Christian Mothers' society.

Monsignor Harnett, V. G., made an eloquent address, in which he paid a high tribute to the priestly work of Father Raphael, tendering him congratulations on the part of the priests of the diocese.

Mayor Harper was prevented from being present and in his place David McGarry made an address in behalf of the mayor. The audience then sang "A Tribute to Our Jubilarian," which was followed by an eloquent address by Bishop Conaty, who spoke in glowing terms for a second time of the life and work of Father Raphael.

Greeted with Applause Following a selection by the church choir Father Raphael was called to the front of the platform and was greeted with prolonged applause. He made a few brief remarks of thanks for the many beautiful courtesies extended him on his anniversary and closed in asking God's blessing on those participating as well as himself. The program closed with the audience singing "Holy God We Praise Thy Name."

The program was followed by an informal reception tendered by the Young Ladies' sodality, of which Miss Mary Singer is the president.

Beginning a week ago the various church societies have been giving affairs in honor of Father Raphael, and each society has made a presentation to the jubilarian.

Today's exercises will be participated in largely by the children, with a solemn mass at 9 o'clock in the church, at which the children's choir will sing the hymns. This evening the children will present a program in the school hall.

LOS ANGELES MAN GIVES HIS VOTE TO DETROITERS

Decides Convention Place Tie Ballot by Voting Against Seattle—Was Only Angeleno at Real Estate Meeting

Whether the next meeting of the recently organized National Board of Real Estate Men, made up of local boards, should meet at Seattle or at Detroit, Mich., next year was decided by the only Los Angeles man in attendance at the convention, which was held in Chicago.

This man was Leonard Merrill, a prominent real estate man and broker of Los Angeles, who lives at 956 Menlo avenue.

The convention, which was held at the auditorium of the Chicago Y. M. C. A., was trying to determine between Detroit and Seattle for the next meeting. Five times the ballots were cast, and the vote sought eight to eight each time. Finally on the last balloting Merrill cast his vote for Detroit.

"I was the only Los Angeles man there the first two days of the convention," remarked Mr. Merrill when seen last night. "But the third day I ran across W. B. Merwin of Los Angeles. That made two of us from Los Angeles—for persuaded him to attend the gathering."

"Twenty cities from fifteen states were represented, the idea being to form a national board of real estate men of the country, made up from the local boards. This was done."

"In fact this was a sort of organization meeting. There was nothing of 'how to boom a town' brought up for discussion; that will be left for next year and the conventions following."

"We discussed such legal matters as the uniform deed, the uniform jurat on deed, uniform tax laws for the entire country and uniform mortgage laws."

"Seattle had a good sized delegation there, and they did not seem to relish the way I voted."

BARBERS' UNION GIVES INTERESTING PROGRAM

Enthusiasm Marks Gathering, and Joe Cassey and George Mitchell Prove Fast Boxers in Five-Round Bout

Enthusiasm marked the gathering of the Los Angeles barbers' local union No. 295 at 517 South Broadway last night. The varied and interesting program included the following numbers:

Four five-round boxing contests, the star bout being that in which Joe Cassey was knocked out in the third round by George Mitchell.

This was one of the fastest boxing contests seen in the city, it is said, for a long time.

Four hundred people and over were in attendance and they all enjoyed the speeches which were made by J. E. Timmons of the building trades council, Ed Garrity of the bricklayers' union, Ben Mendelsohn of the Palace barber shop and Stanley Wilson, editor of the Citizen.

The latter brought tears and smiles to the faces of his auditors as he drew pictures of sorrow and mirth alternately.

Young Master Brown, the boy soprano, sang "The Holy City" and was encored four times, being accompanied on the piano by Prof. Davis. The piano solo by Baby Zuniga was encored repeatedly, while the singing of the Campbell brothers' duet was highly appreciated.

Everybody enjoyed the occasion immensely and it is planned to have the occasion repeated soon. The union gained several new members at last night's gathering.

PALATIAL WAGONS LEAVE FOR TOUR OF YOSEMITE

Largest of Vehicles Carrying Los Angeles Party is Wonderful Vehicle. Has All but Electric Lights

With everything but electric lights in it to make it comfortable the largest of a train of three "palace wagons" to be used on a trip through the Yosemite valley by a party of Los Angeles people who left in it yesterday morning is a wonderful contrivance. E. H. Stage planned and built it all save the running gear. Loaded with freight and passengers it weighs less than 2400 pounds.

The party will spend four months on the trip of several hundred miles, spending one month at the Yosemite valley and returning by way of San Francisco, San Jose and Paso Robles.

Besides E. H. Stage, retired capitalist, and three members of his family the party was composed of the following: Phillip W. Holler of 4979 Pasadena avenue and six friends and Paul Adkinson, son of a presiding elder of the Methodist Episcopal church. Others will join later, making a dozen in all.

WOMAN DIES JUST AFTER GOING TO WORK IN STORE

Mrs. Lena Twitchell of 221 Rosemont street died at the city receiving hospital last night at 8:55 o'clock of uremic poisoning. The body was sent to Pierce Bros. morgue.

Mrs. Twitchell was employed yesterday morning as a saleswoman in the Fifth Street store, and late yesterday afternoon dropped to the floor behind the counter in a faint. She was removed to the receiving hospital, where she died several hours later. The surgeons in charge diagnosed her case as one of kidney trouble.

CARPENTER OUT OF WORK ARRESTED ON SUSPICION

A. D. Leon, a carpenter out of work, was arrested at Fifth and Commonwealth streets last night by Special Officer Wyatt and booked at the central station on suspicion. It is alleged he was detected in an attempt to rob a number of carpenters' chests of tools in a building being erected at that point.

By Associated Press. CHICAGO, May 20.—The retail furniture store of John A. Colby & Sons was badly wrecked today, one woman fatally injured and several others slightly hurt by an explosion of gas.

Mrs. Fannie Goller of 1012 Milwaukee avenue, who was passing the store, was blown into the street, striking against a temporary car track, raised about a foot above the level. EVERY MENTION OF BRYAN CALLS FORTH APPLAUSE

Missouri Instructs Its Thirty-six Delegates to Vote First, Last and All the Time for Commoner

By Associated Press. JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., May 20.—Vociferously applauding every mention of William J. Bryan's name the delegates to the Democratic state convention here today instructed Missouri's thirty-six delegates to the national convention to vote as a unit for the nomination of the Nebraskan for president.

The greatest harmony marked the delegates from the congressional districts were selected by the convention delegates at sixteen district caucuses, whose selections were subject to the convention's approval, and the approval was unanimous.

The convention also re-elected William Rothwell national committeeman, declared for deep waterways and voted down a resolution to disfranchise ignorant and vicious negroes.

Reed of Kansas City and David R. Francis of St. Louis were selected as delegates at large to the national convention.

THOUSANDS VIEW WARSHIPS FROM SHORES OF OREGON

By Associated Press. ASTORIA, Ore., May 20.—This was battleship day at the mouth of the Columbia river. Thousands of people not only from this vicinity but from distant land and interior points in both Oregon and Washington coming by special trains and boats to view the great battleship fleet as it passed on its way to the sound.

The weather conditions were all that could be desired. As early as 5 o'clock this morning a fleet of thirty gasoline launches and steamers belonging to the local mosquito fleet, each carrying 150 full quota of passengers, and fully 150 fishing boats started across the river for Fort Canby, whence the people went to Cape Disappointment and North head and other vantage points from where an excellent view of the passing warships was obtained.

As the fleet rounded Tillamook head in single file, with the flagship Connecticut in the lead, it swung inshore and cruised within two miles of the breakers, affording a magnificent view for the thousands who thronged the jetties at the mouth of the river to Tillamook head.

A number of excursion steamers steamed some distance down the coast, where they met and saluted Admiral Sperry's flagship and each vessel of his fleet, and then swinging into line abreast and keeping within speaking distance of the flagship, sailed along with them for nearly two hours.

While the warships made no stops, wireless communication was maintained during the entire time, and many messages of felicitation were passed.

W. Dunn, with 153 votes, as delegate to the International Typographical union convention to be held in Boston next August. Mr. Dunn's opponent was H. J. Harper, who received 95 votes.

The greatest harmony marked the election, and despite the strong work done by those supporting the different candidates, no personal conflicts marked the campaign or election, and satisfaction is enthusiastically expressed at the outcome, as both candidates in this feature of the contest are considered exceptionally able representatives of the local union.

PROSECUTOR CONVINCED THOMPSON IS PARANOIAC

Present Case on Theory That Mental Disease is Incurable, and Slayer of Judge Meade is Still Dangerous

By Associated Press. TACOMA, Wash., May 20.—When the third day of inquiry as to the present mental condition of Chester Thompson, slayer of Judge Emory Meade, closed this afternoon Prosecutor Rowland was satisfied that he had laid the foundation showing that Thompson is a paranoiac and that another brain storm might overtake him again if there was an excitable cause to bring it on.

Thompson was led over the many delusions he had had during the four years previous to the tragedy. The state based its questions upon the transcript of evidence given by the petitioner's father, and the latter's opening and closing address to the jury when he defended young Thompson against the murder charge a year ago and acquitted him.

The state maintains that Chester Thompson is still a victim of paranoia or a form of dementia precox. On the witness stand Thompson made a good showing in his own behalf and appears strong mentally and physically. He now denies that he believes in his former delusions.

Thompson minutely described his hallucinations. The state contends that paranoia is incurable and once a sufferer that person is hopelessly insane.

It will be ten days before the inquiry is finished and the case given to the jury.
