

VAST CROWDS CHEER LOUDLY BRYAN'S NAME DEMOCRATIC PARADE ABLAZE WITH ENTHUSIASM COUNTRY CLUBS ARE PRESENT IN FULL FORCE

Shouts and Cries for Ticket and Platform Drown Music of the Bands, Excitement Being Irrespressible

"A million cheers for Bill Bryan" chanted one enthusiast as the big ratification parade swung into Fifth street from Broadway on its way to the Auditorium last night. It takes a long time to give a million cheers for anybody, but the crowd did the best it could and kept on cheering till the very tail end of the procession, the last transparency and the last man with the red fire had halted in front of the Auditorium. Then the mass of people crowded in after them till the Auditorium could hold no more. They spoke and sang and cheered for Bryan and Kern, and all the Democratic leaders. Such enthusiasm seldom has been witnessed at a political gathering in Los Angeles. The nominees chosen at Denver and the platform on which Bryan expects to be elected were "ratified," cheered and cheered again. It seemed as though almost every inhabitant of Los Angeles and its suburbs occupied sidewalk space last night on Spring street and Broadway. From Seventh and Main streets, where the parade started, to First and Spring, and then across to Broadway, down to Fifth and to the Auditorium every foot of pavement that afforded sufficient space on which to rest a pair of shoes was occupied. It is estimated that there were 1200 men in the parade. The number of people who witnessed the demonstration can only be guessed at, but it was doubtless a large percentage of the latest census of Los Angeles. A representative of The Herald attempted to estimate the number by blocks, but that method of calculation only resulted in mental chaos. While the parade was scheduled to leave Seventh and Main streets at 7 o'clock, like most parades it was an hour later before all were in line and Capt. George Calkins, marshal, gave the signal to advance. Doyle Leads Procession First in line was Judge R. G. Doyle, who in a red shirt and a red bandana about his neck rode at the head of Bryanites mounted on mules. By his side rode Charles Wellborn, son of Judge Wellborn. Then came Porter's Catalina Island band, in its big band wagon, and the automobile of Judge J. E. McGarthy, president of the Pioneer Investment and Trust company. In it were Mr. McCarthy, chairman of the ratification celebration; J. H. Brown, a member of the committee; Anthony Schwamm, chairman of the local committee, and Senator R. F. Del Valle. Tom Ratto's automobile followed, with J. A. Craig, chairman of the finance committee, and Nathan Ward Fitzgerald, who ran for governor of Virginia on the Democratic ticket in 1896. Forty members of the Orange County Bryan and Kern club, led by Dr. Corley, followed. The Monroe Duarte Bryan club, with seventy-five members, came next, and was followed by the Old Hickory club, with a hundred more. The Schoenbrunn-Band, a band of negro delegation led by G. W. Chivis and the Los Angeles G. A. R. Five and Drum corps came next. The Santa Ana Bryan club, with its own band, followed, and numerous other clubs and a miscellaneous gathering of Bryan admirers who insisted on joining in though they were not attached to any organization. Interspersed at various points in the parade were wagons from which red fire was hurled, causing the faces of Antonio Apache's Indians, who rode in the wagons and were attired in their native costumes. No police marched in front, but a squad of six men under Sergeant Long of central station was stationed at Seventh and Main streets to regulate traffic and preserve order. The parade was stationed at the entrance to the Auditorium, where the crowd was thickest. During the march up Spring street and down Broadway Marshal Calkins and his aides rode up and down the line, directing the march. The marshal was assisted by J. E. Martin, Jr., C. Sandgren, Charles Grider, M. Munoz and B. F. Moore. Shouts Drown the Music There was not a quiet moment during the time the parade was in progress. When the bands ceased playing for a moment the crowds broke out in renewed cheers, and when the bands played the cheers burst into Kern almost drowned the music. A popular yell was "B-R-Y-A-N," spelled out very slowly and given in stentorian tones. Then the bands played "Cheer Up, Mary" and "There'll Be a Hot Time in the Old Town Tonight." Some of the transparencies bore such inscriptions as "No Child Labor," "For Postal Savings Banks," "Let the People Rule" and "It's a Democratic Year." A short-lived panic occurred in front of the Palace cafe on Spring street, near First, when one of the mules threw its rider. For a moment there was a stampede and the procession came to a halt. The mule was finally subdued and the march continued. The greatest crowd was at the corner of Fifth street and Broadway, where people were wedged in so closely that the police with difficulty kept the lines apart for a procession to enter the auditorium. The desire to see the parade and be sure of a seat in the Auditorium at the same time made the street almost impassible. (Continued on Page Two)

JAMES COFFROTH ACCUSED OF USING DEADLY WEAPON SAN FRANCISCO, July 18.—James W. Coffroth, the local fight promoter, was arrested today on a warrant charging him with assault with a deadly weapon on Charles W. Dixon, time keeper for Nelson, at the Gaus-Nelson bout here on July 4. Dixon swore that on the night of the fight Coffroth assaulted him with a knife, cutting him about the head, as a result of a quarrel over the counting safe receipts. Coffroth denies the allegation that he used a knife. He was released on a cash bail of $200.

MERE CHILDREN PLIGHT ROTH'S HUSBAND AND WIFE AT SWEET SIXTEEN Warner L. Brown and Ruth C. Easley, Both Members of Prominent Families, Misrepresent Ages and Wed at San Bernardino Special to The Herald. SAN BERNARDINO, July 18.—Ruth Catherine Easley and Warner L. Brown of Glendora, each 16 years of age, were married this afternoon by Justice C. L. Thomas, after they had secured a marriage license by representing themselves to be 18 and 21 years of age. The bride wore a dress above her shoulders. They gave their residence as Riverside. Shortly after the knot was tied and the couple had taken a train for Los Angeles a telephone message came to refuse a license and prevent the marriage if possible, but Cupid had outwitted the parents. The bride is a daughter of Stephen Easley, a wealthy orange grower of Glendora, while the groom's father is L. H. Brown, a retired merchant. The young woman this morning told her mother she was going out for an automobile ride, but the non-appearing of both young people caused an investigation. Steps will probably be taken to annul the marriage, owing to the tender age of the participants.

LOSES $10,000 SUIT AGAINST GOVERNMENT Alameda County Citizen Loses Case in Which He Sought to Recover Damages Resulting from Diversion of Creek SAN FRANCISCO, July 18.—In the suit of Emil Gibbons Cohen against the United States, begun in the circuit court January 29, 1904, to recover $10,000 damages resulting from the diversion of Sausal creek in Alameda county, Judge Morrow handed down a decision today that the petitioner is not entitled to recover and the action is dismissed. The petitioner was the owner of 110 acres of land lying along the south side of a canal and along Sausal creek, and claimed that before the government work began each tide brought onto the land silt, gravel and alluvial earth, all of which was of benefit to the petitioner in the measure of dollars and cents. In his opinion Judge Morrow said: "The riparian owner, having no vested right in future accretions, cannot maintain an action for damages against one who lawfully obstructs or diverts a stream carrying such accretions so that such deposits are no longer formed adjacent to the premises."

PLANS CAMPAIGN ON MANY INSECT PESTS BERKELEY, July 18.—H. J. Quayle, assistant professor of entomology of the university, who is an authority on insect pests, left this city yesterday where he will take charge of the campaign against the insect pests on the citrus fruits. Quayle will make his headquarters at the southern laboratory at Berkeley, from which the campaign of extermination of the destroyers of the orange and lemon groves will be waged. A number of the entomologists of the university will assist Quayle in the work. The investigations will be carried on not only among the citrus fruit growers but also among the growers of other crops, particularly in the southern part of the state, where the growers' interests are large.

KILLS HER CHILDREN; LATER TAKES POISON BUFFALO, N. Y., July 18.—Mrs. Isabelle Sahlen fed poison to her three small children today and then strangled each with a handkerchief to make her work doubly sure. She then sent to the grocery for more poison, which she took herself. The three children were dead when their mother was discovered and Mrs. Sahlen was dying. Physicians did what they could for her, but it is thought she cannot survive. In a statement which Mrs. Sahlen made to the police and the medical examiner the woman blamed her sister-in-law, who she said caused her much domestic unhappiness.

LOSES MONEY PLACED IN BANK; COMMITS SUICIDE SAN JOSE, July 18.—Worry over the loss of money deposited with the California Safe Deposit and Trust company in San Francisco was said at the inquest tonight to have been the cause of the death of Mrs. Olive Cudworth of San Francisco, who hung herself at a sanatorium at Santa Clara late in the afternoon. She used a rope taken from her trunk. She tied to a rung of a ladder in a closet adjoining her room.

AUDITORIUM IS PACKED FROM FLOOR TO CEILING THE GREATEST INDOOR POLITICAL ASSEMBLAGE EVER GATHERED IN LOS ANGELES MASSED LAST NIGHT IN THE TEMPLE AUDITORIUM. FROM STAGE TO CEILING THE SEATS WERE BANKED WITH CHEERING DEMOCRATS. IT WAS ESSENTIALLY A BRYAN CROWD. THE ENTIRE GATHERING BURST INTO A FLAME OF ENTHUSIASM AT THE MERE MENTION OF THE NAME OF THE GREAT COMRADE.

LONG DISTANCE SWIMMER DIES IN 2-MILE RACE SIX OTHERS ARE SEIZED WITH CRAMPS WATERS OF CHICAGO RIVER TOO COLD One Hundred and Fifty Thousand Persons See Participants in Marathon Swim Battle for Their Lives By Associated Press. CHICAGO, July 18.—One contestant was drowned, half a dozen were seized with cramps and rescued with difficulty and two spectators were thrown into the river when a tug collided with their row boat during the first annual Marathon swim of the New Illinois Athletic club in the Chicago river today. The water proved far too cold for the swimmers as only seventeen of a field of sixty or more managed to finish the two-mile course. The list of accidents follows: A. G. Freeze, aged 55, seized with cramps and drowned near Madison street bridge in view of thousands of spectators. H. J. Handy, Chicago's premier swimmer, seized with cramps at Rush street, and hauled aboard a tug in a semi-conscious state. Joe Basseo of Mexico City; Annie Harris, Chicago; J. H. Merriman, Chicago; J. Stuart, Bellevue, Iowa, all seized with cramps at various stages of the race. The race was won by S. C. Jensen of the New Illinois Athletic club. His official time was 44 minutes, 41 2-5 seconds. Anton Jaeger and G. A. Johnson of the same club were second and third respectively. None of the out of town contestants finished.

Did Not Train Freeze sank when he was out two-thirds of the course. He was the oldest contestant in the race and is said to have confessed to the younger swimmers before the start that he had no special preparation for the race. He has been noted as a distance swimmer at the local beaches, but evidently found the strain of a long race too great for his advanced age. Fully 150,000 people watched the race, lining the banks and crowding the bridges from the start, at the lifesaving station at the mouth of the river, to the Twelfth street viaduct on the south branch of the stream, where the course ended. Although several men plunged for help, only one, a young man, Harold Christiansen, a 17-year-old boy, dove repeatedly for the body before the rescue assistance was summoned for him, after he had been placed aboard a fire tug. The others who were stricken as a result of the cold water had less thrilling experiences. Miss Harris, the only woman in the race, became exhausted just after she crossed the finish line in sixteen minutes. A line of row boats blocked the stream and she was unable to reach the bank. She sank once, but was seized then by one of several men who jumped into the water. She was taken to the hospital and died.

Has Narrow Escape Handy had a narrow escape at Rush street. He was leading by 100 yards when he suddenly turned on his back and called for aid. A launch hurried to him, but when he was taken aboard he was so badly cramped that his finger nails had sunk into the flesh of his hands and his eyeballs were rolled far back. Medical assistance was summoned for him, after he had been placed aboard a fire tug. The others who were stricken as a result of the cold water had less thrilling experiences. Miss Harris, the only woman in the race, became exhausted just after she crossed the finish line in sixteen minutes. A line of row boats blocked the stream and she was unable to reach the bank. GIL WELL FLAMES SHOOT INTO THE AIR 250 FEET MEXICO CITY, July 18.—The oil gusher fire at ampic is still raging, but the flames have been confined to the one well by high embankments of earth recently thrown up. An effort will be made as soon as the material can be accumulated to smother the fire by hauling a drag net made of sheet iron and made of riveted, twelve 50-horsepower boilers will also help to smother the blaze. At present the flames are shooting up into the air at the 250 feet. Great crowds of people are continually arriving to witness the spectacle.

LOS ANGELES MAN DIES BY LIVE WIRE IN NORTH SAN FRANCISCO, July 18.—Roy Hinman, an electrician in the employ of the city, was electrocuted today while working in a manhole at the corner of Golden Gate avenue and Hyde street. Hinman was repairing some underground wires when he accidentally grasped a live wire and was killed instantly. He was 30 years old. Roy Hinman was the son of J. C. Hinman of 1202 Jasmine street, and was well known here. He was a graduate of the local high school. The body will be brought to Los Angeles as soon as the inquest is held in San Francisco. No arrangements have been made for the funeral.

WATCHES A BALL GAME; FALLS; FRACTURES SKULL CHICAGO, July 18.—Willie Hudson, 14 years old, was watching the crucial struggle between the Chicago and New York National league teams at the West Side baseball park yesterday from the roof of a building nearby. In the fifth inning Tinker, the Chicago shortstop, batter the ball far into center field. The Hudson boy jumped up in his excitement and stepped forward, forgetting that he already was standing on the edge of the roof. He fell head foremost to the ground just as the Chicago player completed the circuit of the bases. The police carried Hudson to the county hospital, where it was found his skull had been fractured.

BRYAN INTERESTS SCHOOL 'MARM'S' COMMONER DELIVERS IMPORTANT ADDRESS Nebraska Declares Society Has Not Given the Producer His Equitable Reward and Remedy Is Needed By Associated Press. FAIRVIEW, LINCOLN, Neb., July 18.—Declaring that society has not given the producer his equitable reward and that the administration of the government should be changed to remedy this condition, William J. Bryan today from the lawn of his home delivered one of his most important utterances in the last several years. The occasion was the visit of several hundred teachers and students of the Fremont, Neb., normal school. Mr. Bryan said: "One of our complaints against present conditions is that the rewards of society are not equitably distributed. Take, for instance, your occupation or profession. It is one of the most important we have. Whether our children are a comfort to us, a pride to us, a source of helplessness to us, depends very largely upon what the teacher does, for he cooperates with the parent in the development of the child. Now this is your work. It could not be more important work and yet what is your remuneration? I am sure I will not abuse any of you when I tell you I think the teacher of this country is not overpaid. I am sure you will not accuse me of flattery when I say you earn all you are worth. Compare compensation and your work with the compensation and work of those who have secured privileged and favoritism. Compare your reward with that of those who have secured control of some great industry and who, by means of this control, are able to reach the hands into the pockets of 80,000,000 people, and by fixing arbitrarily the price of that which they sell and of which the people must have, are able to get a reward larger than they earn. "The Democratic party is not expecting to bring the millennium through a Democratic administration. Those who are in power understand that governments are administered by human hands, and that all things that man's hands touch do not attain to perfection. But we do not expect our nation will be free from fault when it is intrusted in the hands of those who call themselves Democrats. "But it is the purpose of those who are called Democrats to secure a better adjustment of rewards of service, and they believe that this can be done by restoring the government to the ancient doctrines. They believe it can be done by making it more responsive to the will of the people, and if you will read that platform through you will find there are several reforms that are asked for. "Our aim is to adjust the rewards of society to the people honestly, and so that every one will feel that there is something to strive for. The best way to make people strive is to assure them that their rewards will be proportionate to their services, and we are anxious that the American people shall have the highest possible inspiration to great endeavor."

FAIL TO FIND W. COCHRANE MYSTERIOUS OWNER OF DIVES EVADES SEEKERS "He Truels a Good Deal," Says Man Who May Be Relative—Signer of Affidavit Not Located Efforts to locate "W. Cochrane," declared in an affidavit made by Police Commissioner Charles H. Fuller, to be the lessee of the dives on North Alameda street, which the police commissioner has accused of owning, have failed. Although it was stated "Cochrane" lives in Fresno, newspaper reporters in the Raisin city have not been able to find him. A. D. Laughlin, the notary who executed the affidavit, says he was under the impression "Cochrane" resides in Riverside county. The mysterious individual who collected the rents from the Alameda street brothels is causing no end of talk by his failure to put in an appearance. It is believed Prosecutor Thomas Woodruff might have something to say to him regarding the law that has been violated. Others are eager to ask him what connection he has with the Pioneer Truck company, in whose name media straddles are assessed and whose president is Police Commissioner Fuller. There is a "W. F. Cochrane," former man of the Fuller rink at Corona, who declares he is not the man who signed the affidavit, but says he has a brother, "W. Cochrane," who "travels a great deal." In the meantime six dives have been closed by the police at the request of the "owners." Any possible action tending to question Charles H. Fuller's fitness to serve as a police commissioner will be delayed until Mayor Harper returns from the east.

O. A. HALE ESTATE SUES FOR FORTY THOUSAND SAN JOSE, July 18.—James W. Rea, a local realty dealer, better known for his connection with politics, is defendant in a suit for $41,000 filed in the superior court today by attorneys for James M. Hale, representing the O. A. Hale estate. The sum sued for is alleged to be the balance due on a promissory note, on which bonds of the Interurban Railroad company, recently auctioned for $75,000, were given as security. The cash result of the auction sale was applied on the note. A payment of $10,000 had been made and the estate asks judgment for the remainder of a $25,000 loan, with interest.

AUSTRALIAN SENTIMENT AROUSES MINISTER'S IRE SYDNEY, N. S. W., July 18.—Alfred Deakin, the Australian prime minister, in commenting on Australian sentiment toward the American fleet as expressed in some quarters, said: "Our looking for support to the United States instead of to the empire is too silly for words."

TELLS HOW CALIFORNIA'S IDEAL CLIMATE IS MADE PACIFIC GROVE, Cal., July 18.—Chautauquians from all California gathered at their usual assembly hall here this morning to learn from M. J. McConnell, "How Weather is Made." Mr. McConnell derided the idea that California's equable climate is due to the Japan current, or any current of only 100 miles in width. He attributed it to the fact that prevailing westerly winds sweep over thousands of miles of the Pacific ocean and thus acquire their genial temperature. In the afternoon Dr. Ira D. Landrih addressed the assembly on "Level Best Living."

The machine was destroyed. The six bodies were scattered along the track for 100 feet and all were badly mangled. Skulls were fractured, arms and legs broken, chests crushed and clothing was stripped from the dead. The locomotive of the passenger train was derailed, but was replaced on the tracks without aid of a wrecking train. The daughters of Mr. King were Katherine, aged 16, and Josephine, aged 12. Miss Bradshaw was 16 and the beautiful daughter of Robert F. Bradshaw, general agent of a range company at Fort Wayne.

EXPENSIVE NAVY CAUSE OF WORRY IN JAPAN A REMARKABLE INTERVIEW WITH THE JAPANESE MINISTERS OF COMMUNICATIONS BY DEPUTATION FROM JOINT JAPANESE CHAMBERS OF COMMERCE IS GIVEN IN MAIL ADVICES FROM JAPAN. THE DELEGATION CRITICIZED THE ABNORMAL MILITARY EXPENDITURES AND FINANCIAL ARRANGEMENTS WHICH THEY SAID CAUSED THE GREAT FINANCIAL DEPRESSION. THE MINISTER OF FINANCE SAID EXISTING ARMS AND EQUIPMENT COULD NOT BE REDUCED AND REGRETTED THAT JAPAN HAD NOT TWO MORE DIVISIONS DURING THE RECENT WAR. THIS WOULD HAVE ENABLED THE JAPANESE TO CRUSH THE RUSSIANS AT MUKDEN AND TO SECURE A LARGE INDEMNITY. THE DEPUTATION SAID ECONOMY WAS NECESSARY AND THE MINISTER PROMISED THAT TAXATION WOULD NOT BE FURTHER INCREASED, ALTHOUGH EXISTING TAXATION WOULD BE MAINTAINED.
