Decorated Booths Already Line the Streets, and Arrangements for the Entire Program Are Now Complete

Special to The Herald.

LONG BEACH, Aug. 30.—The last touches of preparation for the grand opening of the Long Beach Festival of the Sea are being made, and as the date approaches prospects for the full success of the carnival grow steadily brighter.

At 8 o'clock that night the queen, Mrs. H. S. Callahan, will be escorted to her throne on the seashell stage in front of the great grand stand, with the blare of trumpets and amid a blaze of light.

At 8 o'clock Wednesday morning the street fair will open formally. Many decorated booths already line Pine avenue and other streets.

At 10 o'clock daily, except Thursday, there will be a balloon ascension at 1:30 p. m. there will be band concerts in Pacific park.

On the beach every afternoon between 2:30 and 4:30 o'clock there will be all kinds of water sports, including horseback swimming races around the queen's throne.

The industrial parade, baby parade and auto parade will be given Thursday, Friday and Saturday, respectively, at 10:30. Prizes will be awarded.

At 8 o'clock Friday night the burlesque beauty show will be given in the auditorium. In this show more prominent business men will "make up" in imitation of the famous beauties of the day, using paint and powder by the barrel. This will be a side-splitter.

At 8:15 Wednesday and Thursday nights the combined bands will give concerts in the auditorium, and at 10 o'clock Wednesday night the festival ball will be given at the Majestic pavilion.

LIFE GUARDS ONCE MORE RENDER TIMELY SERVICE

Elder Refuses to Desert Younger Brother and Both Become Exhausted While Struggling Against Tides

Special to The Herald.

LONG BEACH, Aug. 30.—John Armstrong, 29 years old, and his brother Robert, aged 19, were caught in a tidal rip this afternoon 100 feet beyond the end of the lifeline in front of the bath house, and were unable to escape from its clutches without aid by Guards Fella and Fraser, who went out to them in the lifeboat.

John Armstrong was completely exhausted and could not have survived many minutes longer. He told the guards that his brother, who is a stronger swimmer, had refused to swim to shallower water when he advised him to do so.

The older man went into the lookout house, where he rested for a half hour before going to the bath house to dress. His brother, however, soon returned to the water. Al D. Rietzhammer, a tourist, gave the guards good assistance in running out the lifeboat.

DROPS DEAD ON THE BEACH WHILE LISTENING TO BAND

LONG BEACH, Aug. 30.—Stricken with heart failure, R. C. Davy, 70 years old, for many years a mail carrier in Omaha, Neb., dropped dead on the sand this afternoon, falling from a bench on which he was sitting while listening to the Municipal band playing a patriotic air.

Early this morning a youth named Ashington was helped from the water by the guards, who swam out to him. Ashington was beyond his depth and became frightened.

POLICE COMMISSIONER SLATED FOR BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS

LONG BEACH, Aug. 30.—The resignation of Lewis Bixby from the board of public works will result in other changes, as W. E. Hinshaw of the police commission is slated for Bixby's place.

There are several rumors afloat regarding Hinshaw's successor, but none of them was confirmed today by Mayor Windham. Hinshaw was a Lincoln Roosevelt candidate before the Republican county convention for the nomination as supervisor from this district.

OFFICERS SEARCHING FOR HARRY SCOFIELD

YOUTH'S ABSENCE IS MOST MYSTERIOUS

Had No Baggage and Little Money When He Left Hotel Maryland Cottage Last Friday Morning

Special to The Herald.

PASADENA, Aug. 30.—Nothing has been heard of Harry Scofield, the young man who disappeared from one of the Hotel Maryland cottages Friday morning. The police of all the cities in Southern California have been notified to keep a lookout for him, and friends and relatives here are anxiously waiting for news.

Friday morning Scofield told his aunt, who was with him, "I'm going to get out of here for awhile." No attention was paid to his remark, and its significance did not come to her until the afternoon, when she found he had disappeared, apparently without making the least provision for doing so.

It is thought that he took no baggage of any kind with him, and it is even certain that he was wearing a coat when he left.

He is known to have had very little money in his possession at the time, so it is certain that he could not have planned a trip anywhere. His closest friends can offer no conjecture as to his whereabouts.

Scofield, who is 19 years but looks younger, and is stoutly built, with gray eyes and hair almost black, is thought to have been wearing a gray cap, brown trousers and probably a gray coat.

He is the son of C. B. Scofield, a wealthy Chicago manufacturer. His aunt, Mrs. Scofield, has recently purchased a residence on South Orange Grove avenue in Long Beach, while waiting for it to be put in order. Harry was staying with friends at the Maryland and apparently in the best of spirits.

HOTEL GREEN LESSEE LOOKS FOR LIVELY WINTER SEASON

PASADENA, Aug. 30.—J. H. Holmes, lessee of the Hotel Green, returned today from a month's trip to Lake Tahoe and San Francisco.

"I am astonished at the number of letters I found on my desk," said Mr. Holmes today. "Most of them are reservations of rooms and I should judge from their tenor that financial stringency in the east is a thing of the past."

For the past two years, for instance, there has been a marked diminution in the number of private car parties coming here. I believe that they will be much increased during the coming season.

"With the large number of bookings holding over from last year I look for a most successful winter season. We shall begin at once to renovate the hotel, and plan to do over completely nearly 300 rooms, tinting and painting them."

Dr. Hale Feels No Alarm

PASADENA, Aug. 30.—No alarm is felt by Dr. George E. Hale, director of the Carnegie solar observatory on Mount Wilson, over the reported fact that Professor Wood of Johns Hopkins university has invented a telescope which will make his own look like pygmies.

The new instrument is described by the inventor as consisting of a "flat circular basin filled with mercury and set in motion by an electric motor. The varying speed of the motor determines the focal length of the telescope."

ROMANCE OF YEARS REACHES CULMINATION IN MARRIAGE

SAN BERNARDINO, Aug. 30.—A romance of several years standing culminated yesterday when Attorney William Lewis of Los Angeles and Mrs. Alice M. Prescott of Michigan were married at the Roanoke hotel by Rev. Mark E. Shaw.

The bride arrived yesterday from the east and was met by Mr. Lewis, who had been in town since the previous evening actively arranging for the nuptials.

NOTES OF CURRENT EVENTS

SAN BERNARDINO, Aug. 30.—George Gardner, well known Los Angeles and Hesperia man, is suing Amy Gardner for divorce. The suit was instituted at Santa Ana some time ago, and Saturday Attorney J. W. Stephenson filed for the wife her answer and cross-complaint.

Plute Pete was landed in the county jail Saturday by Deputy Sheriff Charles Ward as a witness in the Baldwin murder case. He was captured at Banning. At first he vehemently denied that he was in this city the early part of the week, but has since admitted the fact.

Frank Casanese is being sought by the office, a who have a bench warrant for his arrest, issued out of the court of Justice of the Peace C. L. Thomas. He is complaining witnesses against the police and Jules Zimmerman, charged with highway robbery. Either he has met with foul play or has been handsomely paid to skip out. He was under subpoena.

Mrs. John M. Love, who has attracted considerable local attention by her sweet voice, aspires to shine in opera, and has just closed a contract to appear in the rendition of "The Frog," a comic opera, which is to be staged at Los Angeles about November 1. She will take the role of "The Princess." Mrs. Love has a strong, evenly balanced soprano voice. She is of Italian parentage, her maiden name being Gazzolo, and in her family are several noted vocalists.

Assistant District Attorney W. E. Byrne Saturday filed with the justice court his answer to the complaint of Constable Stuchberry, who is suing the county for mileage and meals furnished in bringing prisoners from Barstow to the county jail. The answer denies that the expenses set forth by Stuchberry, with the exception of those for meals, were really incurred and alleges that he brought his prisoners to the jail on free transportation.

Officials of Pasadena Labor Day Association

SETTLING PLANS FOR PASADENA LABOR DAY

SPECIAL ASSOCIATION HAS WORK IN HAND

Morning Rally to Be Succeeded by Addresses, and Festivities Will End with Program of Sports and Ball

Special to The Herald.

PASADENA, Aug. 30.—Composed of a few years ago when it was first organized of only five representatives from each of the four bodies of organized labor in the city, the Pasadena Labor Day association has so adjusted itself to changed conditions that it now includes representatives from twenty labor organizations.

Its objects are to relieve the Central council of the burden of details accompanying the successful celebration of Labor day, and in the words of its constitution, "to promote and cultivate a closer feeling of fraternity among the laboring people and their friends; to provide annually on this day for their pastime and amusement; to meet together for better acquaintanceship and to promote the growth of organized labor."

The officers and members of the executive committee are at present as follows: Clarence W. Dean, president; Charles Dix, vice president; W. H. Korstian, treasurer; E. H. Quinn, secretary; J. W. Hart, assistant secretary; P. M. Shutt, marshal; Frank Foster, Fred Hopkins, Harry Ward, J. E. Morganthaler, Hubert H. Parker, H. A. Huff, C. H. Smith, J. W. Rice, L. Klopfer, L. E. Canfield and D. Ward.

This year the association has departed temporarily from precedent by omitting the usual parade and has substituted for it a morning rally, which will be held in Library park at 10 a. m.

Mayor Earley will deliver an address of welcome and Attorney Fred J. Spring of Los Angeles will speak on the Organized Labor of Our Purpose. Rev. S. G. Dunham of Pasadena will talk on "What I Think of Present Industrial Conditions."

The Crown City band, reorganized under the leadership of Hubert H. Parker, will give a number of selections, including "Under the Wire," a march written by Miss Florence McPherson of Pasadena. A number of prizes are also to be awarded at this time.

In the afternoon an attractive program of sporting events will be held at Tournament park, admission to which will be free. More than $200 worth of prizes for these events have been donated by merchants of the city.

Under the supervision of Clarence W. Dean a forty-page program has been printed for the occasion. Besides giving the official list of the day's events it devotes to boasting Pasadena, which it does in a dozen different ways. A historical sketch of Labor day and several pages of items interesting to the people of the city, particularly complete, while the art and typographical work is worthy of the union label it bears.

The program is concluded with a grand Labor day ball in Woodmen's hall, at which Bland's orchestra will officiate. Four prizes are offered for waltzes.

BARBER FALLS HEIR TO RICH ESTATE AT FRESNO

Property Valued at $87,500 Comes to Him as the Result of Mother Grubstaking Her Brother in Early Days

Special to The Herald.

REPLANDS, Aug. 30.—T. C. Carter, a barber of this city, has fallen heir to an estate valued at $87,500, through the death of an uncle at Fresno three years ago. The uncle, George Oliver, had been grubstaked by his sister, Mrs. Martha Carter, in 1859 as he was starting out from Kansas City to California. T. C. Carter is her son.

Carter left home sixteen years ago. His mother died and left her eastern estate to her children who had remained at home, stipulating in her will that her roving son, T. C. Carter, should inherit whatever estate she should have in California. An agreement with her brother was that she should have half of his estate. It developed when he died that he had left an estate at Fresno valued at $175,000. Carter contested for the whole amount, but has finally compromised for $87,500 and will now retire from the barber's business forever.

The office was ordered established some months ago, but on account of delay in the receipt of supplies the opening has only just taken place.

SANTA MONICA OCEAN PARK

GOOD TEMPLARS MEET AND ELECT THEIR OFFICERS

Eleven Lodges from Los Angeles and Orange Counties, with About One Hundred Delegates, Are Represented

Special to The Herald.

SANTA MONICA, Aug. 30.—The ninety-fourth district lodge of the Independent Order of Good Templars of Los Angeles and Orange counties convened here Saturday. Eleven lodges were represented by about 100 delegates.

Routine work occupied the morning session, which was presided over by District Templar J. Alec Cate.

The annual election of officers took place in the afternoon and the following were chosen and installed in office: District templar, C. R. Berger, Pasadena; district vice-templar, Emma Kliddell, Burbank; district counselor, Robert Taylor, Tropic; district secretary, Rose Burness, Los Angeles; district treasurer, F. L. McKibbin, Los Angeles; district electoral superintendent, J. H. Dobbins, Los Angeles; district marshal, Bell Glascock, Ocean Park; district guard, H. A. Thornton, Artesia; district sentinel, J. H. Menz, Santa Monica; district messenger, Arthur Menz, Santa Monica; past district templar, J. Alec Cate, Rivera.

It was decided to hold the next session at Artesia in November. An oratorical contest between representatives of the various lodges took place in the evening.

ITALIAN MUSICIANS TOO PARTIAL TO THE LADIES

OCEAN PARK, Aug. 30.—Charges of a peculiar nature against the Gregory orchestra, which plays Italian music daily at the Plaza, between Pier avenue and Marine street, have been thoroughly sifted by the band committee. By some it is believed that much that is said against the band is due to race prejudice, but complaints have been made by several women and the husbands of other women that certain of the musicians have been offensively aggressive in showing their attention which the women did not court.

George W. Brown, chairman of the band committee, says: "We have investigated these complaints. There are women who will write a uniform of any kind, and some of the Italian musicians may not have carefully discriminated always between this class and the more sensible women. We have had bands before, and it seems to go with the musical temperament that breaches of etiquette are inevitable. I can say that this Italian band is no worse than any we have had before. Whether it will remain through the winter is another matter and one mainly of finances."

OCEAN PARK, Aug. 30.—Police Sergeant Murray Bowers has placed his resignation in the hands of City Marshal Simpson. It will take effect September 1. The retirement of Bowers is entirely voluntary. LIFE CREW GO TO RESCUE BUT SEARCH IS IN VAIN

Women Declare They Saw a Man Drowning, and Ocean Is Being Netted from Venice to Playa del Rey

Special to The Herald.

VENICE, Aug. 30.—The members of the life-saving crew at about 7:30 Saturday morning were notified by Mrs. R. MacDonald and Mrs. Mary MacDonald, who reside at 1321 Omaha street, Los Angeles, that they had seen a man go down in the surf between the Windward avenue and the Center street piers and were sure he had drowned.

The crew, accompanied by Jake Cox and George Freeth, expert divers, made a thorough search of the ocean between the two piers, but were unable to find a body or anything that would indicate that a person had drowned. Both the women, however, say they are certain a man disappeared in the water between the two piers.

Confirmatory evidence in the nature of a statement by another woman, who was sitting on the sand a short distance south of the Windward pier, was obtained. She stated that she noticed a man bathing in the surf there, but did not see him come ashore. The beach is being searched from Venice to Playa del Rey and a net is being used in an endeavor to verify the statements of the women.
