Mass Meeting at Night at Turner Hall Will Be Last Opportunity to Hear Eloquent Californian

Theodore A. Bell, the new leader of the California Democracy, will arrive in Los Angeles this morning and at 2 o'clock will confer with county central committee in executive session at Turner hall on Main street. About sixty-five or seventy leading Democrats will be present in this conference, practically all of them from Los Angeles county.

In the evening Mr. Bell will speak to the people of Los Angeles, and his message will be repeated in the evening of the national Democrats at Denver and the state Democrats at Stockton. Thomas E. Gibbon will preside at the evening meeting.

Chairman Albert M. Norton of the county committee had no direct advice from Mr. Bell yesterday, but a delegation will meet the Owl morning train at the Arcade to escort the lion of Napa to his headquarters at the Holbeck hotel.

Yesterday Mr. Bell spoke at Bakersfield, and he expects to remain in Southern California long enough to speak at San Diego and at San Bernardino and confer with local leaders before going east on a lengthy stump tour for Bryan.

Mr. Bell's visit and the meeting of the county committee will be followed by immediate and systematic organization of precinct clubs in every section in Southern California.

Mr. Bell favors an aggressive campaign to get the stay-at-homes and the lukewarm Republicans who admire the Democrats' stand on anti-race legislation, letting the voters settle the woman's suffrage question, on the bank deposit guarantee question, on the anti-railroad features of the campaign.

Friends of Joseph Call are still trying to persuade him to take the nomination, though he has told some that he felt he was not justified in giving up his law practice before he had acquired a comfortable estate. In other words, that he was not wealthy enough to run for congress.

ARRANGING DEBATE BEFORE OLD HICKORY DEMOCRATS

On September 24 the Old Hickory Democratic club will have a debate at Wood hall, Highland Park, that will set the first ward talking.

Against Free Textbooks

The Los Angeles council of the American Federation of Catholic Societies at a meeting held at St. Vincent's college Sunday passed a resolution condemning the plank in the Democratic state platform providing for free textbooks in the public schools, holding that it is "socialist in its tendency and one of the entering wedges by the use of which it is intended to overthrow our present form of government and substitute another for it, which would be neither Democratic nor Republican."
