CREATIONS FOR INDIVIDUALS Beach His Own Designer Sole Object to Please

As regularly as come the first days of autumn, so comes the showing of beautiful fall millinery.

One of the show places of Los Angeles for exquisite creations is Beach's, 346 South Broadway. The chief feature of Beach's hats is that they are distinctly Beach.

Every hat that Beach sends out is eminently becoming to the wearer and compels admiration. Why? Because he studies the face of the individual, culture and gown, and creates accordingly.

In other words, "individuality" is the Beach hallmark. Beach hats are popular because they never fail in dressing up a hat to suit the taste of the most fastidious.

Countless stunning hats are being made every day by Beach, who is his own designer and whose main effort is to please.

Beach has many exceedingly natty hats on hand. While we might say the styles for this season are eccentric, yet they vary from the most modest proportions to the exaggerated shapes. No one for each face as long as Beach can build a hat for you.

Some of the brilliant effects are trimmed in gold—gold pulled in to be so extensively used on costumes it must necessarily be used considerably for the hats. The extreme director's hats still command much attention.

Most exquisite are the shades and colorings. Do not fail to call and see Beach.

Diamonds, Pearls, and Other Precious Gems

A flawless Diamond of fine blue-white color is always a good investment. A pure Gem represents real worth, thus making an investment of this kind very attractive.

There is no Department in this store that we have given so much thought to, or in which we exercised so great care in the selection of the display as in this one of Precious Gems.

There is doubtless no purchase made that calls for greater care than the selection of a Diamond, Pearl, Ruby or other precious Gem. Our showing in this Department is not equaled by any other on this coast and by few throughout the country.

There is always ONE store in every community that stands FIRST—that is BEST—best in the character of goods they handle, best in their treatment of customers. There are a great many who have found our store to be that ONE. We want a great many more to get acquainted with us.

We desire, first of all, your confidence, realizing that when we have that your patronage will follow in a perfectly natural manner. We want you to feel, whether you buy a little inexpensive article or one of our most expensive Diamond pieces, that you are SAFE, that you will never have cause to regret your purchase or be disappointed.

A diamond ring from Brock & Feagans means more to the recipient than if it came from an unknown store. Our stamp will always be a guarantee of quality.
