LONG BEACH, Nov. 13.—The government is planning to develop water on the Santa Manuel reservation, beyond Highland, for the use of the Indians. Government Engineer W. E.
Van Slyke has gone to Mexico, and it is expected he will secure the game. A former trip made was at the wrong time of year to be successful. Preparations for the second trip were made quietly, and among those especially interested in making the project a success is Senator H. M. Willis.

Riverside members of the San Bernardino council of Knights of Columbus are planning on organizing a council of their own, the council having become strong enough to make it possible to have a council in each city.
