STANLEY FAY SEEMS TO BE BEST ON FIGURES

SANTA ANITA FORM TODAY

FIRST RACE—Ravaria, Bitter Sir, Tim O'Toole. SECOND RACE—Homecrest, Enfield, Osorine. THIRD RACE—Smirker, Husky, Col. White. FOURTH RACE—Stanley Fay, Miss Lida, Vox Populi. FIFTH RACE—Bellnickler, Nattie Bumpo, Janeta. SIXTH RACE—Lord Nelson, Belle of Iroquois, La Gloria.

Best Form Today—Stanley Fay. Best Long Shot—Hilgert.

BY JAY DAVIDSON

Owing to the fact that the Pomona handicap was run Thursday afternoon there will be no stake event to feature the Santa Anita card today. Instead, the Mount Wilson handicap for 3-year-olds and upward, at one and one-eighths miles, will be the feature offering. This will be a $500 purse affair and five starters are named to go to the post. The remainder of the card is of good class and quite an improvement over the Friday offering.

Stanley Fay seems to stand out as pounds the best in the handicap, taking the dope furnished by the race of this good one in the Pomona last Thursday, when he came from nowhere, after a lot of interference, and was running a winning race at the finish. He has two pounds off that race and should show some improvement by reason of the good effects that are sure to follow his efforts at that time. Miss Lida is the most dangerous one for Stanley Fay to take care of, and if the Reppess racer is on edge and ready she will make Stanley hustle some. Her best bet, Vox Populi, in such a small field, should show form good enough to finish inside the money, but may find Lotus Eater a surprisingly good one. Lotus Eater is a rank outsider with only a rank outside chance. The form of the race is Stanley Fay, Miss Lida, Vox Populi.

Ravaria in Soft Spot

Ravaria seems to have been dropped into a soft spot in the first race, a five and one-half furlong race. This one is some horse and with such an ordinary lot opposed to her, she should find it easy to win her meal ticket without trouble. She just breezed six furlongs in 1:12 3/4 her last out at Seattle, beating Anna May, Eye Bye II, Luretta and other good ones that will be odds-on favorites in here. Bitter Sir figures second in the race. He is in good condition to run near to his real form, as he has been at the track long enough to get right and has been working nicely. Tim O'Toole is a fair shot at a place and he is doing fairly well down east all summer. He should about cop the show money. The indications are that the finish will be Ravaria, Bitter Sir, Tim O'Toole.

Homecrest is Good One

Walter House seems to have a most excellent chance to break into the winning owners' claim with Homecrest in the second race and probably will get a fair price on him, as Enfield will be the public choice, undoubtedly. Homecrest is a good horse and is doing so nicely that he should find it easy to dispose of all contenders. Enfield probably will be benefited by his race a few days ago, and should show improvement. If he runs his race he will be no worse than second. Osorine is another good one that may prove very dangerous. She ran some corking good races at Seattle and has such a burst of early speed that she hardly can be overlooked. Tom Reid was scratched yesterday and may find a softer spot here, but he must overcome figures that are not so bright as are: Homecrest, Enfield, Osorine.

Smirker Should Run

Smirker stands out all alone in the third event, a journey of one mile, and if Frank Regan has him in fit condition this early, which is probable, he will gallop over this field and oppose him Smirker, when ready, is a hard one to beat and prefers a route to a sprint. He is not a quick breaker, although not unusually slow in getting away from the post, and he is doing well. However, Husky is such a hardy goes the better he becomes. Husky will be the choice of the "intelligent" ones and cannot be denied a good chance. However, Husky is such a fearfully slow beginner that he hardly will be able to dispose of Smirker if the latter is ready. Smirker has been working nicely and is presumed to be ready. Col. White seems to be better than right now and he is keyed up to his best race. He will be right there all the time and should get a slice of the purse, even if he is ready to go out and win. The others figure only on suspicion. The finish may be Bellnickler, Nattie Bumpo, Janeta.

Bellnickler Looks Good

The fifth figures like a two-horse race between Bellnickler and Nattie Bumpo. The former is a better and more dependable racer than the latter, and as both are right on edge they should finish in the order named. Janeta also is a dangerous one in here, but hardly can be expected to do any better than run third to the other two. Janeta has been working well and is fit. Ampegio does not call for much now and Dutch is ready to go out and win. The others figure only on suspicion. The finish may be Bellnickler, Nattie Bumpo, Janeta.

Lord Nelson is Best

There is a heap of speed in the sixth race and any one of a half a dozen has a chance, but Lord Nelson seems to have the edge on all of them when it comes right down to real figures. He is fit and ready and no La Gloria can make him quit, while he can go with any of the ordinary ones in a pinch. Belle of Iroquois is so good now that she must be considered the second best, at least, with a good chance to win. Belle is a speed marvel and is fit, also. La Gloria is such a quick breaker and has such a fine turn of speed that she will give all of them a merry race for a while, but she is inclined to quit when collared and does not like to be forced to maul a hot pace. She should be third, anyway. The result should be Lord Nelson, Belle of Iroquois, La Gloria.

NEWS AND NOTES OF THE DIAMOND

BY RED PERKINS

THE faculty and students of Polytechnic high school are unable to find among the 1000 students a suitable pitcher for their baseball team for the series of the County High School league which opens in January. At the present time there are two candidates in the race for pitching honors—Brooks Tompkins and George Carlisle. Rumors have it that Tompkins is the best man, as he has had more experience than Carlisle and would be the best student to fill the place of Sam Lafferty, who is under suspension by the A. A. U. Polytechnic has played several practice games during the past six or eight weeks, and the pitching of Tompkins has been as good as expected under the present conditions, but in the County High School league some fast pitchers will go upon the mound for their respective teams, and as for class Polytechnic will have a rough road to climb to capture the South Side Athletic diamond. There was some talk of placing Harry Lee, the only Chinese student playing baseball in Southern California, but it has been ascertained that he is a post graduate and cannot play on the team.

Baseball is the topic of conversation at Calexico these days, and from the class of ball being put up by the clubs of the Desert League and with the professional ball players from Los Angeles and San Francisco the race is between El Centro, Imperial and Calexico.

Considerable trouble was manifested among the players of the Salt Lake and McCormick clubs last Sunday over the fact that Umpire Alex Hoag benched Homer McCormick on the field. According to the information given out yesterday the different umpires handling the game were Umpire Harry Lealand regarding the disputing of the decisions of the umpires.

Handsome Bill Goodman of the Hoegge team will use Jack Simons to pitch against Sam Ferraris of the Malar club when they meet tomorrow afternoon on the South Side Athletic diamond. Goodman and Bill Palmer of the San Diego team met yesterday and settled on Christmas as the day to play off a tenning tie game.

Manager Palmer has registered a complaint against Umpire Taylor, and stated that he never would take part in a game that Taylor has anything to do with.

Coats, who pitched for the McCormicks "Thanksgiving" day against the Salt Lake team on the South Side Athletic park diamond, has a fine record in the California State League, according to the official report in the 1908 baseball guide. Out of 39 games he has won 19, and has a percentage of .487, which was considered fair in class B league. His grand percentage is .884. He was signed by Plake, who played with him in the east.

Captain Sears of the Salt Lake team wishes to contradict the statement in a morning paper that his team lost to the McCormicks by the score of 2 to 0. He said: "It was just the opposite way, and furthermore, the game on Thanksgiving day was a regular league game."

Player Sullivan, who is connected with the McCormick team, will depart for the Imperial valley shortly to play with El Centro in the Desert League.

Rumor had it yesterday that Oscar Chavez would manage the El Centro team in the Imperial League.

McCormick of the McCormick club has secured Dickman, who formerly played with the Woodhill-Hulse club. Dick is fast on his feet.

Ed Reed, the former Christopher-Levy player, is expected to arrive in Los Angeles from San Jose soon, and

Because of the big fight between Al Kaufmann and Jim Barry, which will be pulled off at Jeffries' Vernon arena on New Year's eve, and which will tend to attract the attention of the majority of members, the officials of the club have postponed their annual smoker until a later date in January. Although the proposed bout between Cliff Reuman and one of Burke's "finest" will not be of the same class as that between Kaufmann and Barry, it no doubt will attract as much local attention. Burke has repeatedly claimed that his Norwalk fighter can lick Cliff. Cliff has repeatedly smiled and merely replied "All right, bring him on." As Burke is an unusually quiet fellow and rarely talks about his misfortunes, it is simply up to the fellows to assume any one of a hundred reasons why Burke should have it in for his Norwalk champion to the extent of howling for a match with Cliff. What Burke cannot do personally he generally gets someone else to do for him. Go to it, Cliff.

Now that the rowing regatta is over the members will turn their attention in all probability will be seen in the uniform of the Pasadena club. Pitcher Clarence Marshall, who formerly was connected with the Pasadena team, will depart the first of next week to Imperial and will play on the Imperial team with Ted Easterly.

The Echo Park Playground team will play the Santa Anita ball club this afternoon on the Echo park playground. Manager Dutch desires to hear from Player Laprevote sometime this morning in regard to playing with his team.

Catcher Myers of the San Diego team yesterday afternoon sustained an injury to his hand while playing with the San Diego club against the All-Stars on the Joy park diamond.

George M. Ward, secretary of the California League, met with a painful accident yesterday afternoon while at work at the Edison Electric company store room by running a nail through his left foot. Ward was requested to go to a local hospital, as it is feared that blood poison may set in, but instead went to his home at Hollywood.

There will be no game between the Edison club and the Pasadena team Sunday on account of the Pasadena diamond not being ready. Ward telephoned the Herald last night to the effect that his players need not report to him.

There will be a meeting of the California Winter League directors some time next week at Los Angeles.

The Union avenue ball team desires a game for tomorrow afternoon. Call Hess at 52361 between 6 and 7 o'clock for further information.

The last game of the series between the Glants and the San Diego club will be played off this afternoon on the Joy park diamond. The double umpire system will be used. Ike Butler will go in the box for the southern team, while Myers will do the catching. Clark Hunt and Slater will be in the points for the Glants. Following is the lineup of both teams:

Lineup of teams: SAN DIEGO: Slater, catcher; Butler-Hosp, pitcher; Brown-McClain, 1b; Downing, 2b; Hawkins, 3b; McCarthy, 4b; Hunt, 5b; Stoval, 6b; Oakes, 7b; Kelleckey, 8b; Umpire—Hosp and Taylor.

Tomorrow afternoon the McCormicks play the Glants for a side bet of $200. The second game will be between the University Merchants and the Pioneer Stars. Taylor will umpire.

Following is the schedule of games in the various leagues and miscellaneous games for tomorrow afternoon:

There already are more entries to this race than there were to the first race, which was run last September, and without doubt it will prove to be one of the classic affairs that will be pulled off in California. The first eight to finish the race will be presented with gold medals which are to be donated by the club. Training for this event should begin immediately.

Coach Al Treloar is not disheartened over the result of the Thanksgiving day regatta and yesterday stated that he would endeavor to have a winning crew for the next race, which probably will be pulled off during the Elks' carnival next July. Undoubtedly the next regatta for the championship of California will be held at San Pedro and certainly there will be a larger crowd of spectators, no matter where the race is held.

The committee in charge of the minstrel show is going ahead with the preliminary arrangements and request that all members who desire to take part in the show report to one of the members of the committee any day next week as the program will by that time have been completed. SANTA ANA TO PLAY L. A. HIGH

CRACK PREP SCHOOL TEAMS MEET TODAY

LOCAL ELEVEN IN FINE SHAPE TO WIN

Hill Boys Will Meet Alameda High School Next Saturday for State Championship at Fiesta Park

One of the classic football games of the season should be witnessed this afternoon at Fiesta park when the Los Angeles high school eleven meets the crack Santa Ana high school team. This game will be litapaly for the championship of the Southern California high school teams, as both aggregations are recognized as the leading exponents of football in the Southern California prep school class. It also will be the first interscholastic game played this year by the Los Angeles high school. The all boys expect to win, although they realize that they will have a hard struggle.

Santa Ana has a strong eleven, and despite a defeat by the Harvard Military academy eleven they expect to put it all over the local team. The Santa Ana boys were to play the Los Angeles high school several weeks ago, but called the game off because they practically were assured that the Los Angeles team was too fast for them. However, upon learning of the defeat of the Santa Ana boys immediately issued a challenge to the Los Angeles high school, which was accepted.

Some of the players of the Santa Ana team who were unable to attend to their duties for the past week, nevertheless the team has had its usual daily practice under the supervision of Capt. Louis Cass and Manager Stan Mitchell.

It is up to the Los Angeles team to win, as they are to play the Alameda high school team at Fiesta park December 5 for the high school championship of California. Alameda won the title of northern champions last Saturday when they defeated the crack high school team of San Francisco, Coach Noble of the Los Angeles team received a letter yesterday from the northern team in which they stated that they would accept the challenge of the local team and would come to Los Angeles to play for the high school championship of the state. The lineup of the Santa Ana team will be the same as was used against Occidental.

BIG ROOSEVELT HUNT ALL ON BRITISH SOIL

King Edward's Officers in Africa Will Lend Assistance to Expedition, Which Has Uganda as Objective Point

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—While President Roosevelt's plans for his African hunting trip have not been entirely completed and will not be fully determined upon for several months, a general idea of his expedition has been gained from Bishop Joseph C. Hartzell, for twelve years in charge of the Methodist church in Africa, who spent some time with the president and talked over the hunting trip in addition to discussing the work of the missionaries in that country.

The general route to be taken by the president when he reaches Africa will be from Alexandria by steamer, probably of the German East African line, through the Suez canal, the Red sea and the Gulf of Aden, to the port of Mombasa, the capital of British East Africa.

At Mombasa the outfit of the expedition, which has been purchased in London, will be assembled and shipped by rail to Lake Victoria Nyanza. The president and his party will make his trip to Lake Victoria Nyanza by rail, stopping off at various points along the route to make hunting excursions into the interior, away from the railway. The country traversed by the railway is of the wildest sort and all kinds of big game can be found along the line.

Big Game About Uganda The real work of the expedition will not begin, however, until the party reaches the plateau of Uganda, after crossing Lake Victoria Nyanza, where abundance game to be found nowhere else in the world. It is not known exactly how long the president will remain in this region. When the homeward trip begins the party will strike Nile river, following the stream down to Khartoum and thence to Cairo.

The president's party is to consist of his son, Kermit, who is to be the official photographer of the expedition, and two naturalists from the national museum. No other persons will be taken from this country. When he reaches Africa Roosevelt will employ the services of natives and guides. A caravan will be organized for the trip from the railway terminus in Uganda to the Nile. The naturalists will prepare such specimens as it is thought the national museum will want, and these will be shipped immediately to the United States.

Whether Mrs. Roosevelt will meet the party at Khartoum will not be definitely decided until the trip is begun.

In British Territory

During the entire trip the president will be on English territory and the English officials along the route will do everything in their power to assist him. The president has had correspondence with some of these officials, who have given him valuable information and advice. It was decided yet what route the president will take in crossing the Atlantic.

Bishop Hartzell said the president expressed the greatest interest in the work being done by the American missionaries in Africa. The president promised that during his trip he would give as many of the mission stations as possible, and would use his influence in the interest of the work.

The bishop was asked whether he had invited the president to do some missionary work while he was on his hunting expedition. He replied that he would like to see the president doing such work, but he had not made the proposal to him.

A Rummage Sale

The women of the U. C. M. A. club were to be entertained at Blank's. Each member received a card telling her to bring with her something which she had no use for but which was too good to throw away. They all brought their husbands—Success Magazine.

What is peonage? "I have always called it marriage," replied the senator.—Success Magazine.

ARMY AND NAVY BATTLE TODAY

BOTH TEAMS RECEIVE ROUSING SENDOFF

TWO ANNAPOLIS PLAYERS IN POOR CONDITION

Largest Crowd That Ever Saw a Football Game in Philadelphia Expected to Witness This Afternoon's Contest

[By Associated Press.] WEST POINT, N. Y., Nov. 27.—With the cheers and songs of the entire battalion of cadets ringing in their ears as their train pulled out of the depot, the army football team left today for Philadelphia to meet the navy eleven in their annual game on Franklin field tomorrow.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Nov. 27.—The navy football squad left today for Philadelphia, there to make the supreme test of the season against the army cadets on Franklin field tomorrow. The party was given a rousing sendoff.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 27.—In prime condition and anxious for the fray tomorrow, the army and navy football teams arrived here today. The players spent part of the afternoon in light practice.

The midshipmen had the first use of the field, and later the cadets were given possession of the gridiron. For fear that the "enemy" might be watching, the teams did not indulge in any new formations on the open field, but reserved these drills for the secrecy of the large hotel rooms.

The largest crowd that ever saw a football game on Franklin field is expected to witness tomorrow's contest. It would be a record for the city, for he will be unable to attend. The president's daughters, Mrs. Longworth and Miss Ethel Roosevelt, will represent the high school of the city. Secretary of War Wright and Assistant Secretary of the Navy Newberry will also be here.

Some friction developed over the selection of an umpire. This was compromised this afternoon when the navy officials suggested that Evans of Williams college, who has served as umpire by the army for umpire, be made referee, and that Al Sharp of Yale, who had previously been agreed upon by the president's party, be made umpire. This was accepted by the army.

HINTS FOR TYPEWRITER LADIES

- 1. Never dust the typewriter. You accepted a position to operate it only. They might as well expect you to clean the office or the building. 2. Should you drop the machine on the floor and batter in one side of it, be sure to drop it on the other side. Nothing looks worse than a typewriter with only one side banged in. 3. Save yourself work by letting the type fill up. The paper receiving your letters must read them slowly and will take longer to answer them. If you can make the letters quite undecipherable they will never be sent. This saves troublesome filing and tedious future correspondence. 4. Do not oil the machine. You will only risk spoiling your hands if you are in business. Furthermore, you cannot buy new bands, while the firm can buy new typewriters. 5. Never trouble to cover the machine when you leave at night. Real estate won't hurt it much, and the employer who expects you to be as good a guardian of his property would be unreasonable enough to expect you to be punctual. 6. If you have any personal business, callers, postpone the office work. Business letters are dry and can wait. Besides, the less the machine is used the longer it will last. 7. Good sense and logic and should console the boss on the days when you don't care to come down town. Time was made for slaves; always remember that you are no slave.—Puck.

You can confer a lasting favor on the children of your acquaintance by telling them about the Herald Junior issued every Sunday for the boys and girls of Los Angeles and Southern California. TODAY'S GAME CLOSES SEASON

NEW FOOTBALL RULES BENEFITED MINOR COLLEGES

PRESENT CONTEST MORE INTERESTING TO SPECTATORS

Harvard Ranked First Among Eastern Gridiron Elevens, with Pennsylvania Second—Neither Team Scored on This Year

[By Associated Press.] NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—With the annual game between the Army and Navy at Philadelphia tomorrow the football season of 1908 is brought to a close, leaving the ranking of the teams and the selection of the various all-American elevens to occupy the following of the sport.

Perhaps the chief thing demonstrated by this year's contests was that the so-called minor colleges are no longer to be despised. The Navy tied Harvard, and Brown held the Crimson to a 6-to-2 score this fall. Dartmouth defeated Princeton, while Syracuse and West Point held the men from New Jersey to a 0-to-0 tie, and Yale was able to score one touchdown only against both Syracuse and the Army.

Another fact as brought out is that "new football" has come to stay. As now played, the game is far more open and hence more interesting to the spectator and less harmful to the players. Punting, field goal kicking and trick play hardly can be said that the revised game has reached as high a development in the west as in the east. Michigan, which for years had one of the strongest gridiron teams in the country under the former rules, has recently suffered successive defeats by eastern colleges, being decisively whipped this year by both Pennsylvania and Syracuse.

Chicago held Cornell to a tie this season, but Cornell was easily defeated by Princeton two weeks later. Minnesota took the Indians into camp by a score of 11 to 6, but Carls had already been beaten, 17 to 0, by Harvard. Then, the Indians are notoriously erratic, and they are said to have not played up to their standard at Minneapolis.

The ranking of the teams this year, as always, is difficult and largely a matter of personal opinion. There can be little dispute, however, that the choice of the nation's best eleven lies between Pennsylvania and Harvard, both of which went through the season undefeated. Probably most critics will rank as the six leading teams in the east: Harvard, Pennsylvania, Yale, Dartmouth, Brown and Princeton, in the order named.

In the west there is no question of Chicago's leadership. She has won every game played against an eastern college—Cornell. Next probably would come Wisconsin, then Minnesota.
