

KING EMMA REBEL GIVES $200,000 RULER OF ITALY DOES MUCH TO AID SUFFERERS

ONLY ONE HOUSE IN MESSINA REPORTED HABITABLE

Additional Statistics Are Sent Out by Correspondent Who Has Traveled Over Much of Earthquake Zone

ROME, Jan. 7.—A correspondent who has traveled over much of the earthquake zone sends the following additional statistics:

Seminara, 2000 inhabitants, 700 dead, 500 houses destroyed, same church which stood for 1300 years now in fragments.

Santanna, 700 inhabitants, 15 dead, 150 houses destroyed.

Menfilia, 3000 inhabitants, three dead, 25 seriously injured, 50 houses destroyed.

San Procopio, 1300 inhabitants, 60 dead, 500 wounded, 350 houses destroyed.

San Eufemia and Aspromote, 50 per cent of the inhabitants dead or injured, all the houses completely destroyed.

In addition to his former donations, besides putting the royal palaces at the disposal of the injured refugees, the king has given the relief fund, donating half of this amount to the Red Cross society and half to the national relief committee, instituted by himself.

Speaking to the Associated Press today, Premier Giolitti summarized the work accomplished by the government.

"It is difficult to realize the extent of the catastrophe," he said. "Perhaps a better idea can be had from a report by Minister of Public Works Bartolini.

Writing from Messina, Bartolini says only one house in Messina is habitable. It was constructed by a reputed eccentric who for years has been strengthening the residence with iron bars and other ingenious devices in order to make it strong enough to resist an earthquake.

The rescuers during the first week accomplished prodigies of endurance. They saved 12,000 persons, some wounded and others uninjured, from the ruins, and the same number of survivors, the total running up into the tens of thousands, have been moved away."

ARCHBISHOP PRESIDES AT FUNERAL HELD AT GRAVE CONTAINING 1300 BODIES

MESSINA, Jan. 7.—A most impressive funeral ceremony was witnessed near here today, when Archbishop Barigo made his way through the ruins of the city to the cemetery at Metre Grosso and blessed a grave 100 feet wide and thirty feet deep, containing 1300 bodies.

The grave was filled with one on top of the other, and the bodies covered with quicklime. The prelate was followed to the cemetery by a large gathering of survivors, whose lamentations mingled with the Latin words of the service.

Subsequently the archbishop walked through the ruins and blessed the military college, the military barracks and the archbishop's house, considering these wrecked edifices as so many cemeteries.

Under them were the corpses of soldiers, students, policemen and monks. All the valuables found among the ruins are being taken on board the steamer Duca di Genova in the bay. Yesterday currency to the amount of $2,000,000, including the contents of the safe of the Sicilian American bank, was transferred to the vessel.

A banker named Mastroratti, who was one of the richest residents in the city, yesterday went to the authorities barefooted and half clothed and asked for a pair of shoes and an overcoat.

With the exception of St. Andrea Avellino, all the churches in Messina have been burned.

SICILIAN PASSENGERS ON STEAMER LEARN FOR FIRST TIME OF QUAKE

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—Four hundred Sicilian steamer passengers on the steamer Germania, which arrived today from Naples, were stricken with grief when they learned of the disaster in Messina for the first time. A reporter told them through an interpreter the news when the vessel reached the dock.

At first they seemed to be incredulous and seemed not to realize that any of them were concerned until one of the passengers from Messina asked whether the earthquake had damaged that city.

"Messina is wiped out," was the reply. "My whole family is there!" shrieked the passenger. "My poor wife and children; they are all dead."

The Sicilian threw himself on the deck and though his fellow passengers crowded around him, he continued to weep. Others thronged about the interpreter and questioned him frantically about the disaster and each new detail those coming from the earthquake region wept and wrung their hands or ran shrieking about the decks. So distressing did the scene become that the captain ordered the music to be played to continue his tale until the Sicilians had left the ship.

AMERICAN RELIEF PARTY IS BOUND FOR MESSINA

ROME, Jan. 7.—A special train left here this morning for Civita Vecchia with the American relief party, headed by Ambassador Griscom, on board. They will sail for Messina on board the steamer Bayern, chartered to convey the American relief to the south.

The party included William Hopper of Boston, Nelson Gann of Boston, John Elliott, Wilfrid Thompson and a score of other Americans, including doctors and nurses. Mrs. Griscom, Mrs. Gay and Mrs. Elliott accompany the relief workers as far as Civita Vecchia.

The ambassador is going only as far as the Straits of Messina, where he will start the Bayern on its work of relief. He will meet Admiral Sperry, who is coming from Port Said on board the flagship Connecticut, in the strait, and return with the Connecticut to Naples. The American relief party, following the Connecticut, will be placed at the disposal of the Italian authorities.

Bayard Cutting, Jr., and Winthrop Chandler are to be sent to Taormina to continue the search for missing Americans.

To Transport Relief Goods Free PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 7.—The Pennsylvania Railroad company has instructed its agents to transport free to New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore all shipments of relief goods for the Italian earthquake sufferers which are consigned to American consuls, civic authorities or authorized relief committees.

FOUR BURN TO DEATH: FATHER CARRIES WIFE AND 2 OTHERS IN ARMS

RICE LAKE, Wis., Jan. 7.—Four boys, whose ages range from 8 to 16 years, sons of Christian Lee, near here, were burned to death in a fire early today that destroyed the home of Mr. Lee.

With the thermometer registering 22 below zero, Mr. Lee, his wife and two small children who escaped from the fire, started for the nearest village, a mile distant, clad only in their night clothes and with bare feet.

Mr. Lee and two of the children collapsed when a quarter of a mile from the burning home. The husband was compelled to carry the three. The third child walked and reached the house in a few minutes.

DECARES HAINS INSANE AUG. 15

SAYS CAPTAIN HAD IMPULSIVE DEMENTIA ADMITS SLAYER OF ANNIS WAS SANE WHEN LAST SEEN

FLUSHING, N. Y., Jan. 7.—The trial of Thornton J. Hains passed on today to the stage frequent in homicide cases where testimony is developed from medical experts and alienists.

Hains' attorneys introduced Dr. Samuel Manson, an alienist, who after listening to a hypothetical question regarding Hains' sanity, declared that August 15, when Capt. Hains shot William E. Annis, he was suffering from impulsive insanity.

The long cross-examination of Thornton J. Hains was concluded at the morning session and the defense began the presentation of expert testimony to prove the insanity of Capt. Hains. The witness physician was not permitted to tell his opinion of Capt. Hains' sanity, and it looked as if the defense would be unable to get the alienist's testimony before the jury.

Dr. Manson said he had not treated Capt. Hains as his patient but had seen him in a hospital. Then a hypothetical question was asked regarding an hour and fifteen minutes, was read to the alienist.

Dr. Manson stated Hains suffered from impulsive insanity, a condition which is an improvement. Before an objection could be entertained to an interrogatory, the alienist stated Capt. Hains was sane when he shot Annis.

The cross-examination of Dr. Manson was under way when court adjourned until tomorrow.

Hains Excused as Witness After many hours on the witness stand, where his story of the killing of William E. Annis was probed in its minutest detail, Thornton J. Hains was excused today from further examination by counsel for both sides.

Hains showed signs of great depression as he took the stand beside counsel on leaving the stand.

Hains today asserted his belief that next week would find him a free man. "I've told only the truth to the jury," he said, "and Dr. Manson has not forced me to deviate from it. When I remember the smaller details—a broken sentence, an insignificant action—I have frankly summed up the facts in the material points is unshaken and will be believed."

The defense will call its medical experts today and propound its hypothetical question, containing all the facts regarding Capt. Hains' sanity.

Justice Crane insists all the evidence in the case must be in by Saturday night. The district attorney and the jury will probably retire for its deliberation Wednesday.

When court opened today, the witness was shown a newspaper clipping, and he stated he had made some of the statements contained in the article.

The district attorney read from the newspaper clipping, and asked the witness if he had not said that on their motorboat trips he and his brother had made many such statements.
