WILL COMMEMORATE BIRTH OF JEFFERSON

INVITATIONS ARE ISSUED FOR BANQUET APRIL 13

Members of Club and Public Men Are to Make Addresses in Keeping with the Day

The Jefferson club's secretary, Henry M. McDonald, is sending invitations to Democrats and Republicans to attend the banquet given to commemorate the anniversary of the birth of Thomas Jefferson, April 13.

The officers of the club have arranged the following program for the evening: "The Jefferson Club," Isidor B. Dockweiler, president of the club; "Jefferson Day," John W. Mitchell, toastmaster at the banquet; "Life and Character of Thomas Jefferson," Theodore A. Bell; "Practical Democracy," George W. Cartwright; "The Future of the Democratic Party," Col. W. E. Shepherd; "The Democratic League," Robert G. Loucks; "The Old Hickory Club," Prof. Thomas E. Kirk; "The Utility of an Aggressive Minority," Jud R. Rush; "The Absolute Necessity of Strict Adherence to Party Principles," Albert P. Rittenhouse; "The Desirability of Party Organization," W. Ona Morton.

Letters expressing their best wishes to the Jefferson club have been received from William Jennings Bryan, John W. Kern, Benjamin F. Shively and other eminent Democrats, and these will be read at the banquet by Secretary McDonald.

The letter of invitation issued by the secretary is as follows: "I take pleasure in extending you in behalf of the Jefferson club a cordial invitation to attend a Jefferson day banquet to be given on Jefferson's birthday, as per enclosed program. The celebration of the anniversary of the birth of Jefferson, like that of Lincoln, has become an almost entirely non-partisan occasion.

"Whether you are a Republican or a Democrat, you are therefore well justified in honoring the Jefferson club with your presence at its Jefferson day banquet, and at the same time stimulating your patriotism by paying a tribute of respect to Thomas Jefferson, the author of the declaration of independence.

"We should also be pleased to have you extend an invitation to your friends to be present. Tickets may be procured at all downtown hotels and at the stores of Cunningham, Custiss & Welch Co., 252 South Spring street, and the Neuner company, 715 South Broadway, or if you prefer you can order a ticket or tickets by telephoning A921 or Main 770."

The officers and directors of the Jefferson club are Isidor B. Dockweiler, president; Albert Chappelle, vice president; H. J. Woolcott, vice president; W. Ona Morton, treasurer; H. M. McDonald, secretary; Albert Lee Stephens, J. Ross Clark, H. C. Dillon, Charles Wellborn, Tom C. Thornton, Mattie B. Jones, T. Craig, Hugh Glassell, D. M. Hammack, R. F. Del Valle, Timothy Spellacy, Jeff E. Chandler, James W. Miller, William F. Palmer, O. E. Fench, all of Los Angeles; Frank P. Fryer, Pomona; Walter F. Dunn, Monrovia; Dr. Z. T. Malsby, Pasadena; Stephen G. Long, Long Beach; Dr. J. M. White, Ocean Park.

Teeth Teeth Teeth WITHOUT A PLATE

Many of you need only a FEW TEETH SUPPLIED. For such cases I can (without the aid of any sort of a plate) fill such vacancies with teeth that are equal to "nature's own." They look natural, feel natural, and, in fact, by comparison, stand the CRITICAL TEST of the most perfect teeth. None are handiwork. I am doing business on the square, and if, after a careful examination, I find it impossible to give you a lasting piece of work, I will not take your case. MONEY HAS NO VALUE when nothing is given in exchange for it.

MY COMBINATION PLATE is a trifle more expensive than the ordinary plate, but less than either Bridgework or Alveolar work. An ordinary plate depends alone upon suction to hold it in place. Bridgework is dependent upon the teeth. A COMBINATION PLATE USES BOTH suction and one, two or three teeth (whatever happens to be left in your mouth). Positively, this plate will hold tightly in place; no loosening when eating or laughing. ASK YOUR MIRROR whether you need one of my RESTORATION PLATES. They knock years from a prematurely old mouth. Beats a beauty doctor. You are cheating yourself if you longer put off having a consultation with me—its free.

Hads for Haddists. FASHION'S KEYNOTE By ARABELLA. THE arrival of the mocking bird and the robin announces that Spring is here; also Easter. The day for lilies, jonquils and the proper date for donning of Spring flower or fruit basket hats. The day of all days for the children to hunt the rabbits that laid the bright Easter eggs. Here's hoping that we may all enjoy a full measure of peace and happiness.

One had to but glance at the Whiteley Jewelry company's window to know the reason for the success here. In their south window they have carried out the Easter decoration in a very symbolic way. A large cross with purple background, and myriads of amethyst crosses, some plain, others gem studded, are surely artistically displayed.

To meet every requirement of fashion is again convincingly demonstrated at their store by a very superior character of their stock. In a case to the left of the store as you enter you find such gorgeous novelties as heavy gold braided watch fobs, bracelets with tiny fringe dangling from the ends, watch chains, the new French longnettes, solid gold toilet set (which is a beauty), child's set of knife, fork and spoon, and many other pretty things. Take time to look at them.

I wonder if illlady is going to hall with delight the incoming of the bangs, or as the hairdresser terms them, "French fringe." Weaver-Jackson sends forth the edict that woman to be strictly stylish, must bang her hair. So watch for the lady with the "French fringe."

The Dutch collar has lacked a finish. At last it has been found. It is called the Dutch Collar Pin. Looks best like a belt or old fashioned slipper buckle; but it is merely a large pin. So detrimental to the promenade has the Directoire gown that clings about the feet proved that hidden plaits are being inserted at the hem of such dresses, so that there is plenty of swing and comfort permissible for the wearer.

Narrow patent leather belts in all fashionable colors and white are very smart. The combination white and black patent leather belts are also shown. Many of the imported gowns are trimmed with silk-covered cord that is very effective and necessarily somewhat exclusive, since it cannot be bought in the shops. The ankle-strap pump is likely to have a wide vogue, particularly among young women. It has an alluring effect of youthfulness. Fruit hat a fad. They are really very charming and have the advantage of not being perishable, as the more easily fading flowers. Calling cards for women are nearly square. Should be engraved in Old English or Roman block letters. Polka dot silk parasols for this summer will be very smart. There is nothing so delightfully fetching as the poke bonnet with the fringe in voluminous lacey beauty. Beach says it's saucy and captivating.

OCEAN PARK

THE Breakers' club held its annual election of officers this week. The following were elected: President, H. R. Gage; vice president (chairman membership committee), James Chalmers; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Bertha Nelson; recording secretary, H. P. Schofield; recording secretary, Miss Hazel Webster.

Mrs. H. R. Gage was chosen chairman of the social committee, Mrs. A. R. Fraser was put at the head of the house committee; James Chalmers, press committee; C. H. Davis, auditing committee, and C. B. Griffin, program committee.

One of the pleasing events of the week was the luncheon given by Mrs. Whitaker in honor of Mrs. Pliny Mungler of Chicago. The color scheme was carried out in yellow and green effects, California poppies predominating. Those who were present are Mrs. Charles Post, Mrs. Carrie Hill, Mrs. Stoddard, Mrs. T. S. Norton, Mrs. Garretson, Mrs. Malvern, Mrs. R. A. Phillips, Mrs. Hies and Mrs. Mungler.

The semi-monthly woman's night at the Country club Wednesday evening was one of the most successful ever attempted by the club. The interior furnishings of the club house, which have been newly renovated, add to the beautiful decoration scheme originated by the women of the club, made a charming display.

An elaborate luncheon was served between the sessions at the card tables. The following were noted among those present: Mr. and Mrs. Whitaker, Mr. and Mrs. Carr, Miss Carr, Miss Grace Carr, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Williams, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Caster, Mr. and Mrs. Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. Lacey, Miss Lacey, Mr. and Mrs. Sterritt, Mr. and Mrs. Frisvold, and Mrs. Groesbeck, Mr. and Mrs. Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Phillips, H. Lee Blackmore, Miss Blackmore, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison, Mrs. MacCoy, Dr. J. M. White, Dr. MacCoy, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence.

LONG BEACH

A ROMANCE which began in Michigan culminated here last Saturday night when Miss Marie B. Tice of this city became the bride of Verner J. Malmee of San Diego. The ceremony took place at the home of the Rev. E. M. Rogers, who officiated. After the groom went to San Diego to live the parents of the bride came to Long Beach to spend the winter. They returned to their eastern home the day following the wedding. The wedding will make their home in San Diego.

The following young people enjoyed a house party at Avalon, Santa Catalina island, during the spring vacation: Mrs. C. E. Rounds, chaperone; Misses Maude Smith, Antoinette Lieder, Edna Lockridge, J. Margaret Eason, Ethel Welch, Russell Williams, Alan Montgomery, Freeland Putnam and Howard Thompson.

The Ebell club elected the following officers Monday afternoon to take effect throughout the coming year: President, Mrs. George Barndollar; vice president, Mrs. B. P. Dayman; second vice president, Mrs. J. A. Miller; recording secretary, Miss Anna Barber; corresponding secretary, Miss Elizabeth Woodville; treasurer, Miss Jessie Benton; member

DON'T BE BALD

One of Our Readers Tells How She Obtained a Marvelous Growth of New Hair by the Use of a Simple Home Remedy After Hair Specialists and Tonics Had All Failed

I had what most people would call a beautiful head of golden hair. I prized it most highly, as I considered it my chief attraction. Suddenly it began to come out very rapidly, and at times I had intense itching of the scalp. Physicians and hair specialists said my case was one of dandruff germs, hair microbes, etc., but nothing that they gave me did the slightest good. On the contrary, my hair seemed to come out even faster, and I was now fearful lest I should become entirely bald. In my despair a friend told me of an Ecuador herb which he said would positively grow hair on any head where the hair roots were not entirely gone, and he said the natives of the country where it grew were famous for their beautiful long hair. Upon medical advice I combined this herb with Bay Rum and Menthol Crystals and immediately began its use. In three applications it entirely stopped the intense itching of my scalp and in a very short time it not only stopped my falling hair, but I noticed an abundance of new hair coming in. In less than one month my hair was longer, thicker and more beautiful than ever. All due to this marvelous hair growing herb. A lady to whom I gave the formula used it on her daughter, and she says it made her hair grow five inches in less than a month. Doctors to whom I have shown it say it is the only thing which will actually grow new hair, therefore I think the public ought to have it. At first I thought I would keep it a secret and sell the secret, but when I think how I suffered and how badly I needed it, and how hundreds of others must need it the same as I did, I feel I ought to give it to the world.

Therefore, I authorize this paper to publish the formula, which is as follows: Bay Rum 1 oz., Lavone de Composee 2 oz., Menthol Crystals 1 dr., Tolu-Kalon Perfume one to two teaspoonfuls. Ask your druggist for an 8 oz. bottle containing 6 oz. of Bay Rum, then put in the Menthol Crystals and the Perfume. Next add one-half of the bottle of Lavone de Composee, let it stand six to eight hours and add the remainder of the Lavone de Composee. Always buy the Lavone de Composee in a two-oz. sealed bottle, as this preparation contains the juice of the Ecuador herb mentioned above, and it loses its strength if unsealed.

Apply the preparation night and morning and rub well into the scalp. If properly used it will soon produce most astonishing results. Be careful not to get it on the face or any part of the body where you do not want to produce hair.

CHILDREN TO GIVE BIG FAIRY PLAY

One Hundred and Fifty Boys and Girls Will Be in the Cast as Fairies and Elves

"Princess Patience," a fairy play, will be given by 150 children for the benefit of Brownson House, settlement and day nursery at the Mason opera house April 23 and 24. It is a charming adaptation of the fascinating old fairy story of the "Seven Swans." There will be a real king, a cruel witch queen, five chivalrous princes and their sister, a lovely and loving suffering little princess, who wins at last in the conflict with the witch because of her goodness and patience. A prince in disguise adds the romantic touch and in the end all the evil spells are broken and every one lives happily ever after, and the brothers, who are changed into frogs by the wicked witch, are restored to their own. Even the witch's spell is broken and she experiences a change of heart. The scene is in the garden of a fairy palace. Living flowers are in bloom and bees and butterflies are seen. Beautiful court ladies tread in rhythmic measure and fairies and witches dance in elish fashion. Accompaniments of beautiful music will be provided. Many special features will be introduced. Besides the many beautiful flower and fairy dances there will be some wonderful performances of the five frogs, the singing of a magic nightingale and a doll dance by eight little living dolls, imported directly from fairyland. The play is, in two acts. The following is the cast: King Constantine, Harvey Higgins, Jr.; Queen Jorgonola, Miss Ellen Gilpin; Princess Eloise, Mildred Jones; Sylvaine, Peter Hiriart; Vivian, Dominic Hiriart; Jocos, Louis Roques; Pollio, Martin Forrest; Featherhead, George Firmin; a minstrel, Albert Stocker; Prince Narcissus, Carl Rothfuss; Susanna, Helen Neal; Nora, Bertha Rothfuss; fairy, Lottie Pryor; fairies, court ladies, doves, butterflies, rosebuds, jonquils, daisies, pansies, poinsettias, dolls.

Miss Williams Wilkes, who wrote the play, is conducting the rehearsals, and Miss Hogan is training the dancers. Miss Gertrude Workman is general manager. The dances are chaperoned by Meses. Allen, Shafer, Delany, Carpenter, Wilson, Bergin and McGarry and Misses Turner, Desmond, Dodd and Workman.

What Weather? April was a frost last year. Raw and slow. May was desolate and drear like the snow. Even June was somewhat queer. As you know.
