

Herald Juniors Prove to Be Poets in Limerick Contest

(First Prize)

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat
While my chum down the street
Is spinning his top with my string.
DARREL TURNMIRE,
Grade B3, McKinley, Santa Monica. Age 8 years.

(Honorable Mention)

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat
While my chum down the street
Is toiling at some other thing.
JACK NICHOLS,
Box 478, Monrovia. Orange avenue school, 5th grade.

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat,
While my chum down the street,
Says she hasn't got clothes to wring.
—GRACE DAVIS,
Sawtelle school; 6th year.

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat,
While my chum down the street,
Thought herself as smart as a king.
MARJORIE COURTRIGHT,
Sawtelle school; 6th year.

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat,
While my chum down the street,
A bee was about to sting.
HAROLD SOULE,
Sawtelle school; 6th year.

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat,
While my chum down the street,
Holds a bird by the wing.
LAUREN STOWELL,
Sawtelle school; 6th grade.

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat,
While my chum down the street,
Rules o'er us all like a king.
NETTIE ROYCE,
214 W. Colton avenue, Redlands.

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat,
While my chum down the street,
Was listening to the bells ring.
CHARLES IRWIN,
Sawtelle city school; sixth grade.

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat,
While my chum down the street,
Can hear the small school bell ring.
ADDIS SHORT,

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat,
While my chum down the street,
Is always on the go, like a bird on the wing.
RUTH COX,
Sawtelle city school; sixth grade.

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat,
While my chum down the street,
Is tying up a bird's wing.
RICHARD DOYLE,
Sawtelle city school; sixth grade.

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat,
While my chum down the street,
I'll have her give me my ring.
GRACE PRUDEN,
Sawtelle city school; sixth grade.

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat,
While my chum down the street,
A row of beads he will string.
DOUGLAS MONTGOMERY,
Sawtelle city school; sixth grade.

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat,
While my chum down the street,
Was springing along as the bell did ring.
LENA BELL,
Sawtelle city school; sixth grade.

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat,
While my chum down the street,
Is doing the very same thing.
CECILIA D. PIERSON,
Sixteenth street school, B5 grade; Thirteenth street, San Pedro.

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat,
While my chum down the street,
Is free as a bird.
LENA E. COLEMAN,
Colegrove school; age 10 years.

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat,
While my chum down the street,
Is enjoying herself in the swing.
KITTY CARLSON,
Hooper avenue school, A3 grade; 921 East Fifty-fourth street.

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat,
While my chum down the street,
Was whistling a tune so sweet.
FRANCES DRUMM,
San Dimas public school, 4th grade; age 9.

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat,
While my chum down the street,
Is enjoying himself in a swing.
GLEN RICE,
Manchester avenue school; age 9 years.

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat,
While my chum down the street,
Just caught a bird by the wing.
GLADYS WATERBURY,
Sawtelle school; 6th grade.

LIMERICK CONTEST

PRIZES are handsome books, one for best completed limerick submitted by Los Angeles writer and one for best completed limerick sent in by writer from outside the city limits.

Fill in the last line, making it rhyme with the first two and have the same meter.

Papers in this contest must be signed with name and address and name of school and grade.

All contributions for this contest must be addressed AUNT LAURIE, Herald Junior, care The Herald, Los Angeles.

When mother bakes cookies and cakes
Oh, my! what a good smell it makes!
She keeps us outside
But the doors open wide,

This limerick must be completed and received at this office not later than Thursday, May 13—for publication May 23.

My doggie can do lots of tricks,
He jumps through a hoop and brings sticks.
He'll bark through the night
But never will bite;

This limerick must be completed and received at this office not later than Thursday May 20—for publication May 30.

(Honorable Mention)

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat
While my chum down the street
Is fixing a new kite string.
GLENN MOORE,
R. F. D. No. 2, Box 55, Whittier.

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat,
While my chum down the street,
Said, "After you get through come over and swing."
RUBY LANDON,
Sawtelle school; 6th grade.

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat,
While my chum down the street,
Will have many beads to string.
MYRTLE LARSON,
Sawtelle school; 6th grade.

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat,
While my chum down the street,
Listens to the bells going ding dong ding.
LENA EDMONDS,
Sawtelle school; 6th grade.

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat,
While my chum down the street,
Sits down like a little king.
HAZEL SCHULTZ,
1315 N. Main street; grade A3, Ann street school.

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat,
While my chum down the street,
Is enjoying himself in a swing.
HAZEL DUNCAN,
Age 9; Hoover street school, grade B4; 738 Rampart street.

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat,
While my chum down the street,
Will play in his swing.
FRANK LACELL,
Sawtelle.

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat,
While my chum down the street,
Is making his anvil ring.
REX TURNMIRE,
Age 9 years; grade B4, McKinley school, Santa Monica.

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat,
While my chum down the street,
Sails to and fro in her swing.
LOUIS CONNOR,
Age 9; grade A4, McKinley avenue school; 947 East Forty-eighth street.

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat,
While my chum down the street,
Is doing the very same thing.
GLENN MOORE,
R. F. D. No. 2, box 55, Whittier; grade 7, Los Nietos school; age 12.

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat,
While my chum down the street,
Is lazy, does not a thing.
MADGE FLANSBURG,
Age 9 years; 719 Echandia street, Boyle Heights.

(Honorable Mention)

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat
While my chum down the street
Is busy with wrappings and string.
JESSIE CLAUDINO,
663 West 36th place, Jefferson street school, A3, 8 years.

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat,
While my chum down the street,
Is enjoying a ride in her swing.
FLOYD BENSEN,
Sawtelle school; 6th grade.

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat,
While my chum down the street,
Will fix an old bell that won't ring.
LOYD MOAR,
Sawtelle school; 6th grade.

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat,
While my chum down the street,
Is doing the very same thing.
ZYLPHA DISMUKES,
Box 125, Watts; age 13; 8th grade.

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat,
While my chum down the street,
Is not working or doing a thing.
R. OLIVE MILHOUS,
R. F. D. No. 1, Whittier; age 14.

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat,
While my chum down the street,
Does nothing; no, not a thing.
JULIE H. G. FLANSBURG,
719 Echandia street, Boyle Heights.

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat,
While my chum down the street,
Says she has new news to bring.
JOSEPHINE DES NOYES,
1361 South Flower street; age 14.

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat,
While my chum down the street,
Isn't doing a thing.
BEN S. VIRDEN,
Age 8; grade 3; 343 C street, Oxnard.

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat,
While my chum down the street,
The church bell doth ring.
MAY MATHWELL,
Box 16, Seligman, Ariz.

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat,
While my chum down the street,
Is playing, and not doing a thing.
HELEN MARIE BURGE,
Age 8; grade B3, Washington street, Ocean Park.

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat,
While my chum down the street,
Is dancing a gay old fling.
JOHNNY CLAUDINO,
663 W. Thirty-sixth place; 7 years; A2 grade.

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat,
While my chum down the street,
Is enjoying himself while sitting in the swing.
GLADYS GERVAIS,
Age 13, grade 7, Anaheim grammar school.

(First Prize)

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat
While my chum down the street
Is trying to make him a swing.
LOUIS SMITH,
417 Ulysses street, Loreto street school. Age 12.

(Honorable Mention)

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat
While my chum down the street
Is taking a nap in his swing.
LEROY REESE,
Grade A4, McKinley avenue school. Age 10.

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat,
While my chum down the street,
Is buying her a brand new hat for the spring.
WILDA HAYES,
540 Euclid avenue; grade B6, Euclid avenue school; age 12.

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat,
While my chum down the street,
Is nursing a small bee sting.
ALAN NICHOLS,
Box 478, Monrovia; 7th grade Orange avenue school.

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat,
While my chum down the street,
Lays sound asleep.
MIRIAM LEWIS,
12 years old; 2393 Budlong avenue; Harper school.

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat,
While my chum down the street,
For the first time hears the church bell ring.
ELSIE McWILLIAMS,
Age 12; grade 7, Centralia school, Buena Park.

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat,
While my chum down the street,
Is teaching his dog to jump through a ring.
ARTHUR NOBLES,
Twenty-eighth street school, grade A7, age 13 years, 824 E. Twenty-seventh street.

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat,
While my chum down the street,
Is swinging away in her swing.
GLADYS TURNMIRE,
Age 11; grade A5, McKinley school, Santa Monica.

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat,
While my chum down the street,
Isn't doing a thing.
HAROLD BECK,
Age 8 years; 3A grade, Oxnard grammar school, Oxnard.

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat,
While my chum down the street,
Isn't doing a thing.
ALBERTA PEASGOOD,
Grade B6, Grant school, Santa Monica.

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat,
While my chum down the street,
Is whistling his dog from his fast retreat.
HARRY HANEY,
Age 12; grade A6; 5919 Denver avenue.

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat,
While my chum down the street,
Wasn't doing anything.
LESTER REBBECK,
Machado district, 7th grade; Palms.

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat,
While my chum down the street,
Is having a joyful swing.
LINDLEY ABEL,
East Whittier school, grade 5.

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat,
While my chum down the street,
Is playing a banjo with only one string.
CHARLES ROACH,
1046 New Hampshire; grade B6, Berendo street school.

The lambkins skip in the spring,
The birds all chatter and sing,
And the carpets I beat,
While my chum down the street,
The breakfast bell will ring.
BERTHA WARDELL,
Sentous street school; age 12; B8 grade; 1309 Rich street.

(Continued on Page Seven)

THE AFTERNOON TEA

Mary and Mag and Polly and Prue
Are busy as they can be.
They're tidying up their little playhouse,
For company's coming to tea.

There's raisin cakes and lots of things
All spread on china new.
The little maids are in their best frocks,
And the tea's to be given at two.

Kodaks

Photo Supplies
Artists' Materials
Framing, Developing
Printing and Enlarging.

Howland & Dewey Co.

510 South Broadway.