

TWENTY-FOUR TURKS HANGED

MUTINEERS EXECUTED BEFORE PUBLIC GAZE

FEARFUL OUTRAGES REPORTED FROM SMALL TOWNS

Details of Awful Slaughter of American and Armenian Missionaries Revealed by Travelers and Refugees

CONSTANTINOPLE, May 12.—Constantinople witnessed another batch of executions this morning when twenty-four mutineers of the army and navy were hanged publicly in the city.

This makes a total of 38 executions within the capital since the revolution of April 13.

Four of the men today were hanged near the sultan's palace, eight at the Marine barracks, eight at the Djinn Metan quarters of Stamboul and four at the war office.

Several of the courts martial that sent these men to death explained the effect of public hangings by saying that mutineers fighting in the city of Constantinople that had the hangings not been public, the people would have thought the condemned men had saved themselves by bribing officials.

Dr. Christy, in a letter dated Tarsus, May 4, says no Turks were killed in Tarsus or Constantinople by the soldiers fighting among themselves, but in Adana about 150 Turks, including fifteen soldiers, were killed. The feeling there is still bitter.

"The second massacre at Adana," writes Dr. Christy, "as I now learn, was much worse than the first. It is reported to have lasted two days. The Gregorian school among the Armenians was set on fire. Those who tried to make their escape, were shot down like rabbits.

"The rest of those in the school, including more than 100 wounded from the first massacre, were burned to death. Only eight persons survived to tell the story."

Djevad Bey, the dismissed governor general of Adana, will be tried by court martial, charged with inciting the disorders.

Most of the villages in the vicinity of Larash have been destroyed by the fanatical Mohammedans, and the villagers are flocking here.

Party Publicly Butchered Seven Armenian preachers, two delegates and three Armenian women passed through the city on their way to the yearly synodal meeting at Adana the day after the fighting began at that place. They stopped over night in the village of Haghi Bey, and the others with another of the leading men of the village, Haghi Bey.

The next day a party of Mohammedans took the travelers from the houses where they spent the night and, gathering together a number of Armenians living in Haghi Gachad, until they had ninety-two in all, butchered them, and the unfortunate in the streets of the village. The women were treated violently.

The wife of the governor watched the killing from the balcony of her house. The bodies of the dead were carried out to the country and thrown over a cliff. The Armenian pastor of the church at Feike, although left for dead, was still alive. He recovered his senses and made his way to Sis, where he related the foregoing. He had to crawl, wounded, through the fields and woods. It has been learned that Rev. George H. Kennedy of the Irish church mission at Alexandretta is the man who raised the siege at Deurlyun. He persuaded the military commander to allow 500 soldiers to go with him and relieve the place.

The beleaguers were quickly dispersed by the military commander, Mr. Kennedy. All the surrounding villages have been burned. There are 3600 destitute refugees in Deurlyun and 2000 here.

There are a large number of Armenian refugees in Antioch. They are all women and children, not one Armenian man having been left alive.

A special dispatch from Salonika says that Talsat Bey, vice president of the chamber of deputies, who was sent there to arrange with Abdul Hamid for the transfer of his fortunes to the government, succeeded in obtaining the signature of the former sultan for the withdrawal of funds from foreign banks, but that Abdul Hamid resolutely refused to deliver up the keys to two iron rooms in the Yildiz kiosk, which had resisted all efforts at forcible entrance.

After Talsat Bey's departure, the dispatch says, officers of the guard, furious at the former sultan's refusal to comply with the demand, rushed into the room and forced him to surrender the keys without further parley.

STEAMER REPORTS SEVERE EARTHQUAKE IN FORMOSA

Many Villages Destroyed and Great Loss of Life Results from Temblor

VICTORIA, B. C., May 12.—The French steamer Admiral Hamel, arriving today from Havre via the orient, brought news of a severe earthquake in Formosa causing large loss of life, chiefly in the northern part.

The center of the disturbance appears to be in the sea off Keelung and Girau. Many villages collapsed in the northern part of Formosa, and reports were coming in from resident governors at Taipei and Keelung of much loss of life in the various districts.

The tremor, which was both horizontal and vertical, lasted about three minutes.

New Trolley Tunnel Will Shorten Route to Residential Districts of Suburbs

PHOTOGRAPH SHOWING EXCAVATION WORK ON SOUTHERN END OF BIG BORE

WORK is progressing rapidly on the Los Angeles-Pacific railway trolley tunnel, between First and Temple streets. The big steam shovel is tearing into the heart of the hill, taking out from 600 to 800 cubic yards of earth per day. Daylight probably will break through the big bore by the end of this week. The tunnel, which will connect the downtown terminus with the second Hollywood road, materially shortening the time and the distance to that suburb, also will greatly benefit Colegrove and other residence districts along the new route.

line. It was announced yesterday that the tunnel will be opened June 20, two weeks in advance of the date set for the arrival of the Elks, Hollywood and Colegrove citizens already are planning a celebration on the day when the cars are first sent over the new route.

TELLS OF LOAN TO COUNCILMAN

TRIAL OF CITY OFFICIAL AT OAKLAND ENLIVENED

STAR WITNESS SAYS HE HATED TO GIVE MONEY

Important Testimony Brought Out Reveals Nature of Transactions Between Official and Corporation

[By Associated Press.] STOCKTON, May 12.—In the trial of City Councilman W. T. Shepard, who is charged with malfeasance in office, the prosecution apparently made little progress this morning. C. D. Clark, manager of the California Navigation and Improvement company, a corporation which Shepard is alleged to have coerced into buying a share of worthless stock in a company in which he was largely interested, remained the stand as the first witness of the day. He was cross-examined briefly by counsel for the accused and referred to as the star witness of the prosecution.

The cross-examination did not elicit any additional facts. On redirect examination the district attorney drew pointedly from the witness the statement that when he loaned Shepard $100 last September the transaction was distasteful to him.

Both denied that their company had any interest in the share of stock. It was brought out by the prosecution that notwithstanding the $100 paid Shepard by Clark was in the nature of a loan, the amount had not been withheld by Clark from money paid Shepard for work performed for the navigation company.

A. P. Frazer, secretary of the navigation company, explained his failure to enter up the amount at the time the party is still in camp near Machokos. The demands of the Japanese, couched in excessively polite language, were again presented to the plantation owners today, but they firmly refused to grant them.

Roosevelt's Luck Continues

NAIROBI, British East Africa, May 12.—Theodore Roosevelt's hunting luck continues. The former president on his last expedition shot a leopard and captured the animal's two cubs. A buffalo and two giraffes also have been captured by the expedition. No further cases of smallpox have developed among the porters of the expedition.

Japanese Demands Refused

HONOLULU, May 12.—All the plantation owners have agreed to stand together in refusing the demands of the Japanese laborers who went on strike several days ago for increased wages. The demands of the Japanese, couched in excessively polite language, were again presented to the plantation owners today, but they firmly refused to grant them.

Play Fire Destroys Home

REDDING, May 12.—In order to make the playing of firecrackers seem realistic two children of Mrs. Mary West set fire to a doghouse in their yard last night and then went to work to put out the blaze. To their horror the fire spread to their home, and before real firemen arrived the house and contents were enveloped in flames. Loss $1500.

POMONA GREETES W.C.T.U. GUESTS

ANNUAL CONVENTION OPENS WITH 300 DELEGATES

VISITORS ARE WELCOMED BY ELOQUENT SPEAKERS

Scope and Field Work of Temperance Association in Southern California Reviewed by President and Others

POMONA, May 12.—The First Presbyterian church was crowded to the doors last night when the first evening session of the annual W. C. T. U. convention for Southern California was called to order. Devotionals were led by Rev. T. C. Creswell. Mayor Frank P. Frey welcomed the 300 visitors in behalf of the city. Rev. L. D. Milliken for the city churches, Prof. P. W. Kauffman for the public schools and Mrs. Amanda Steadman for the local W. C. T. U.

Then followed a splendid lecture delivered by Mrs. Mae G. Tongier upon "Shasta Daisies and Folks." Mrs. Tongier referred to the work of the author Burbank and the wonderful results he has achieved by caring for and cultivating the commonest flowers, and pointed out the good that may be wrought in the lives of the commonest people. Her manner of presentation held the close attention of the vast audience during the entire time of her address. Mrs. Stella B. Irvine, national superintendent of Sunday school work, spoke for the free will offering.

This afternoon the business meeting, led by Mrs. Hattie V. King, came the department conferences. The work among the Indians was reported by Mrs. M. E. Fowler; the work among the colored people, by Mrs. Mary E. Garbutt; the work among the foreigners, by Mrs. S. C. W. Bowen; the work among the soldiers and sailors, by Mrs. Alice H. Shook; Mrs. L. R. Quint spoke upon "Social and Red-Letter Days" and Mrs. M. Alice French upon "Fairs and Open-Air Meetings." Mrs. Catherine P. Wheat spoke entertainingly upon "The House Beautiful" and Mrs. M. Meserve, president of the board of Temple trustees, reported for the trustees. A memorial service was led by Mrs. C. H. Fitzgerald.

This afternoon the praise service was led by Mrs. L. P. Kyles, and a family culture program was participated in by local people, as follows: "The Influence of Books," by Mrs. L. P. Kyles; "The Influence of Work Upon Character," by Mrs. Clarence H. Lee of the Child's Study circle; "What Are Parents' Responsibilities Concerning Children's Amusements," by Miss Mary L. French; "Influence of Work Upon Character," Mrs. Emily Brady of the Ebell club; "Teaching Truthfulness," by Mrs. Charles F. Schwan of the Shakespeare club; "Temperance," How Taught," G. S. Du Pea of the Prohibition club; "Courtesy in the Home," by Mrs. J. F. Spencer of the Times club. Mrs. T. W. Heineman, financial secretary of the California George Junior Republic, then gave an exceedingly interesting account of the work being accomplished by the Republic among young people.

The address of the president, Mrs. Hester T. Griffith, was interesting in facts regarding the scope and field work of the W. C. T. U. in Southern California. State secretary's reports from the young people's organizations were given by Mrs. Celia H. Noll and Miss Mary A. Stewart.

The session concluded with a chalk talk by Mrs. Ellen Dayton Blair, and the visitors were then taken in scores of automobiles, kindly donated by citizens, for drives about the city and valley. The reception and arrangements committee of this convention, which is conceded to be the best ever held by the Southern California union, are composed of Mrs. David Hawkins, the first president of the local W. C. T. U., which was organized twenty-five years ago; Mrs. S. C. W. Bowen, present president of the union; Mrs. C. A. Lorber, one of the most enthusiastic pioneer temperance workers here; Misses W. H. Adams, Emma Edwards, Amanda Steadman, Greaser, Anderson, Roller, White and Taylor.

STATE SENATOR SUED FOR CRIMINAL LIBEL

ACTION CAUSED BY REMARKS MADE IN LEGISLATURE

Suit is Instituted by Thomas E. Gibbon, Whose Explanations and Demands for Retraction Were Ignored

W. H. Savage, state senator, was yesterday made defendant in an action for criminal libel, instituted by Thomas E. Gibbon. The action is the outgrowth of alleged libelous statements made by Senator Savage in the state senate in February, in which he attacked Mr. Gibbon, whose efforts to set Mr. Savage right and demands for a retraction were alike ignored.

The statements were made by Senator Savage February 15 last, and were contained in the senate journal of that date under the caption, "Question of Personal Privilege." Mr. Gibbon was accused by the senator of having sold securities and robbed the Salt Lake road in the purchase of land for right-of-way purposes, and, in addition, Savage asserted, Mr. Gibbon while a stockholder of the City bank of Los Angeles, placed his note for thousands of dollars in that institution, stating that when the bank failed, he was sold for $40 to a school teacher who was compelled to sue Mr. Gibbon for collection of this money.

Three days after the statements were made, Mr. Gibbon wrote to Senator Savage, denying the latter's accusations, which he designated as absolute and unqualifiedly false and constituting a criminal libel of the most aggravated character, against which he would be forced to protect himself unless the senator renounced the simple usage of denying the remarks expunged from the senate records.

Mr. Gibbon also explained fully his connection with the Salt Lake railroad, and stated that he had no interest in any land sold to it or that he had betrayed any secrets of the road.

L. Corrothers, an attorney, said Mr. Gibbon in his letter, for Senator Savage's statements concerning his connection with the City bank; that he was never a stockholder of the institution, and that the only note given by him to the bank was fully paid and the cancelled note returned to him.

Mr. Gibbon also referred to Senator Savage to persons who would corroborate what he said in his letter, but the communication was utterly ignored.

This afternoon the praise service was led by Mrs. L. P. Kyles, and a family culture program was participated in by local people, as follows: "The Influence of Books," by Mrs. L. P. Kyles; "The Influence of Work Upon Character," by Mrs. Clarence H. Lee of the Child's Study circle; "What Are Parents' Responsibilities Concerning Children's Amusements," by Miss Mary L. French; "Influence of Work Upon Character," Mrs. Emily Brady of the Ebell club; "Teaching Truthfulness," by Mrs. Charles F. Schwan of the Shakespeare club; "Temperance," How Taught," G. S. INFATUATED ARTIST IS COMMITTED TO ASYLUM

Deranged Man Tells Commission He Is Unable to Resist Affectionate Influence

Gottlieb J. Brauning, an artist who several years ago developed an infatuation for Mrs. Marion W. Garretson, was examined by the lunacy commission yesterday and ordered committed to Patton asylum. Brauning told the members of the commission he could not resist the influence he believed Mrs. Garretson was exercising over him. Mrs. Garretson, at whose instance Brauning was arrested, denied that she had ever offered the latter any encouragement in his protestations of affection.

"JOKER" FOUND IN MEAT INSPECTION ORDINANCE

Although the health board recommended a meat inspection ordinance passed by the council Tuesday, Mayor Alexander refused to sign the ordinance yesterday and will withhold his signature until further investigation is made. An unintentional "joker" in the ordinance limits the powers of the health department.

The ordinance provides for the inspection and condemnation of meat and fish. It contains sanitary regulations and these sanitary regulations are interwoven with the matter of inspection.

Section 19 declares "provided, that none of the provisions of this ordinance shall apply to smoked and salt meats and fish."

The intention of this section was that the same sanitary regulations were necessary for fresh meats but it has the effect of limiting the powers of the health department to inspect cured meats and to condemn such meats that are unfit for food.

Residents Plan to Secure Forty Acres of Land Which Are Owned by the Rosedale Cemetery Association

A movement has been started in Pico Heights to secure a tract of land containing forty acres for park purposes, under the new park law passed by the legislature at its last session.

This tract of land is owned by the Rosedale Cemetery association. It extends from Sixteenth to Pico streets, between Hobson and Norman.

Under the new law an assessment district may be formed and the land condemned for park purposes, the cost to be paid by assessments levied on benefited property owners.

Pico Heights property owners have been trying for several years to secure this land for a park. The proposition went so far on one occasion as to reach the point of an ordinance to condemn the land, but the ordinance was vetoed by the council.

Dr. W. A. Lamb, a member of the playground commission, appeared before the park board yesterday and the board was asked to take a portion of the land for a playground. He declared that experience with the Echo park and the fact that the Echo park and two recreation centers combined were better than when separated.

NEW FIRE ENGINE HOUSE WILL BE FINEST IN CITY

Frank Munsell of Hudson & Munsell yesterday submitted plans and specifications to the board of public works for the new engine house to be erected on Fifth street, between Los Angeles and San Pedro.

This house will cost $30,000 and will be the finest engine house in the city. It is to be three stories high, of steel and reinforced concrete. The second floor will be a dormitory and the third floor will contain offices for the chief of the fire department and will be recognized as the executive building for the department.

The plans will be sent to J. J. Backus, chief building inspector, for his approval and as soon as they are approved bids will be invited for the construction of the building.

Orders Assessment District The board of public works yesterday ordered an assessment district made for the opening of New High street into North Broadway. This action was taken on a petition submitted by the Title Insurance and Trust company and other interested property owners.

These property owners asked that before an assessment district was fixed they be permitted to meet with the board and express their views on the matter. But the board found it would have to fix the assessment district first, as until this district is made they have no means of knowing who are the interested property owners.

BEGIN MOVEMENT FOR PACIFIC COAST VIEW PARK IN PICO HEIGHTS DELIGHTS ENGLISHMAN

Sir Graham of Distinguished Lineage Likes Los Angeles and Is Much Impressed with Our Engineering Feats

Sir Graham Hamond-Graeme and Lady Graham of London are registered at the Alexandria hotel. Sir Graham is returning to London after spending the winter in New Zealand and Australia. He left London in January on the advice of his physicians. Several weeks ago he touched the North American continent at Vancouver, B. C., and came down the coast, stopping at Seattle, Portland and San Francisco. He will go to Chicago, Pittsburg and other eastern cities before sailing from New York for Liverpool in June. He will visit in Virginia with friends for several weeks.

"I have been very much impressed with the wonderful scenery of your Pacific coast," said Sir Graham. "It is truly grand. But I observed the engineering more particularly. Some of the engineering feats of your railroad builders are marvelous. They are admirable."

"I was surprised when I reached San Francisco. It is wonderful how it has been rebuilt. One can hardly realize it. The strenuous energy of the American has impressed me a lot. I am indeed glad of this opportunity to pass through a very interesting part of your country. Lady Graham and myself have enjoyed it very much."

Sir Graham's son, Egerton Graham, has made some remarkable records for shooting wild game in the Rocky mountains and in Canada. He is now in Virginia, where Sir Graham will visit for a few weeks. From here Sir Graham will go to the Grand Canyon country, a section he is very desirous of seeing.

Sir Graham's great-grandfather was Andrew Hamond, controller of the English navy during a period of trouble with foreign countries. His grandfather was Sir Graham Hamond, admiral of the fleet.

To Construct Foot Trail The park commission yesterday passed a resolution declaring its intention to construct a foot trail up Mount Hollywood in Griffith park. Supt. Morley estimates that the cost will be only about $300, as the present trail will be used as a basis for the new path.

You Like Music

It is safe to assume that you like music—that you would play the piano if you could.

What is it then that interferes? You may think it is lack of musical training—that is not what keeps you from enjoying the real pleasure of music—the pleasure of producing it yourself. It is the failure on your part to appreciate what the APOLLO Player Piano offers you.

Investigate this most successful of all musical instruments. If you have a piano in your home that all cannot play we will take it in full value on an APOLLO.

Standard of the World

Many salesmen of player pianos claim that their players are the standard of the world. We are willing to let you be the judge. For seven years the APOLLO was the only player piano on the market that played 88 notes, the entire keyboard of the piano. Others played only 65 notes and could play only 10 per cent of the music as written.

Now, after seven years of APOLLO supremacy, the manufacturers of other players are trying to imitate the 88-note feature of the APOLLO—trying to come up to the standard set by the APOLLO.
