FASHION'S KEYNOTE

By ARABELLA

"May Your Shadow Always Lie Lite" as an old toast that would not be accepted with much favor by the younger generation at social functions of the season. In fact, the efforts are being made by all to reduce the shadow to a minimum. The alliterative effect is the one desiderant note of all the gowns, dresses and suits of the season. Every fashion has one style that is uniformly accepted as this one.

The present accent is on all puck," the chaste chiffon," the "dusky chiffon," the "flapper," the "flapper chiffon," the "trousers." These have been the most popular since the season of 1919. But the "trousers" are the main style of the moment.

The material is a mix of chiffon and silk. These fabrics are good and much preferred by women for the season. The "trousers" are very fashionable and are worn for this very reason. They are made of chiffon and silk and are very comfortable. A good pair of "trousers" should be worn with a good pair of shoes. The shoes should be of the highest quality and should be well made. The "trousers" are a good style for the season and are very fashionable.

Far in the distance may be seen a "trousers" model standing. The "trousers" model is wearing a good pair of "trousers." The "trousers" are a good style for the season and are very fashionable. The "trousers" are a good style for the season and are very fashionable.
