SPRINGTIME

"Springtime, 'cause you saw a robin"
Why that statement makes me smile,
Here you come to give me knowledge
That I've had for quite a while.

Young Woman to Serve as Maid of Honor at Her Brother's Wedding

MISS FLORA WINTER, Sister of William Winter, who will wed Miss Constance Johnston June 23

INVITATIONS have been issued for the marriage of Miss Elsie Milner, daughter of Mrs. John Milner of West Washington street, and Charles Louis Michod, the ceremony to occur June 30 in the First Unitarian church, Flower street.

Miss Milner has chosen as her maid of honor her sister, Mrs. Frank A. McDonald, while the best man will be Alexander Thornton. Miss Katherine Kurtz and Miss Rose Michod will serve as bridesmaids and Little Miss Katherine will be flower girls.

Among the many delightful pre-nuptial affairs given in compliment to the bride-elect was a matinee party given Wednesday by Mrs. Frank K. Rule of Ocean Park, followed by refreshments at Christopher's.

Miss Ouida Weld of Breeze avenue, Venice, entertained a card party for Miss Milner Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Rufus Landon Horton and Mrs. Jack McGarry will be hostesses at a bridge luncheon to be given for the bride-elect Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Horton on West Twenty-fifth street.

The marriage of Miss Harriet Johnson, daughter of J. Johnson of Warrensburg, Miss., and Edward S. Jones of Macon, Miss., took place Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. B. P. Modie on West Twentieth street, Rev. Jesse T. McKnight officiating.

The wedding was very quiet, there being no attendants, and the bride, who was wearing a dainty white gown and wore orange blossoms in her hair.

Preceding the service Miss Edna Zyl Modie gave a whistling solo. The bride was decorated with magnolia blossoms, white syringas and ferns.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson will make their home in Macon, where the groom is prosecuting attorney.

Mrs. Frank Strong and daughter, Miss Mildred Strong of Andrews boulevard will leave soon for Los Gatos, where Mrs. Strong's mother, Mrs. A. E. Robinson, has a summer home. Before their return to Los Angeles they will visit Lake Tahoe.

Miss Marion MacNeil, daughter of Mrs. Hugh Livingston of South Figueroa street, entertained a card party at a box party given Monday evening at the Mason by Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Solano. James Slauson was also present.

Mr. and Mrs. Slauson, and Mr. Slauson returned Saturday evening from Europe, where they enjoyed an extensive tour with a party of friends.

Mrs. McCartney and her sister, Miss Gertrude Churchill, will entertain with a luncheon next Saturday, this affair also taking place in the same pretty club house on West Pico street.

Miss Katherine Clark of St. James park was hostess Friday night at a box party given for Miss Edith Herron and her fiance, Lieutenant Toaz, at the Belasco.

A charmingly simple wedding was solemnized Tuesday morning, June 8, when Miss Mabelle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Winter, became the bride of Dr. Harold Heber Smith of Boston, Mass.

The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents on West Adams street, Rev. A. W. Bunker of El Monte—an old-time family friend of Dr. Smith's—officiating, and was witnessed only by relatives and intimate friends.

During the ceremony Mrs. Estelle Hearty-Dreyfus sang Lindy's beautiful wedding song, "Sweethearts," accompanied by Mrs. Tessie Haskins on the harp. Dr. and Mrs. Smith left immediately for the east, to spend a few weeks in the woods of Nova Scotia, returning to Boston in the early fall.

One of the prettiest of the week's home weddings took place Thursday night at the residence of Col. and Mrs. H. G. Stratton on Florida street, when their daughter, Florence M., became the bride of William Gray Cross.

About sixty relatives and friends were present to witness the plighting of the troth. Rev. William Horace Day of the First Congregational church performed the ceremony, before a curtain of honeysuckle, white carnations and asparagus fern in the front parlor.

The bride's gown was of white crepe de chine, made over white silk and trimmed with point applique. She carried white sweet peas.

The bride and groom were attended by Miss Ethel Van Duzen, who was gowned in pink and carried pink sweet peas, and Frederick Cross, a brother of the groom. Miss Helen Smyser played the wedding march, and just before the ceremony Miss Willie Smyser sang "Sweethearts."

Mrs. Cross is well known in local musical circles as a violinist and has played at many concerts here. Mr. Cross is an electrician.

At the home of her mother, Mrs. Cora H. Spooner, on Harvard boulevard, Miss Kathryn M. Spooner last night became the bride of James Thomas Houston. Rev. A. B. Pritchard performed the ceremony beneath a canopy of ferns and white roses. Miss Roderick sang "O, Promise Me," and Miss Ruth Spooner played the wedding march.

The bride was gowned in white organdy and carried a bouquet of white gaudie and lilies of the valley. The room was beautifully decorated with white roses and carnations, combined with greenery.

Mr. and Mrs. Houston will enjoy a trip to Seattle, Wash., and be at home to their friends after July 1 at 2716 Harvard boulevard.

One of the happiest events of the past week was the wedding of Miss Mary Caroline Addison and Lee Taylor Brinkman, which took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Addison, on Central avenue.

Miss Maude Lucille Brinkman, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and Adalbert Dickinson best man.

The bride, a beautiful young girl of blond type and very popular socially, wore an elaborate gown of old rose, flossaline, hand-embroidered and trimmed with braided net, and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid was in a gown of white over blue, trimmed with rare lace, and carried sweet peas.

Lee Arthur Myers sang "O, Promise Me," and to the strains of the "Lohengrin" bridal chorus, played by Miss Gladys O'Pert, the bride and groom entered the large drawing room. Rev. Willis S. Myers, who preceded the bride and groom, read the ceremony under a bower constructed of palms, ferns and hydrangas, over which was suspended a large bell festooned with magnolias and white carnations. The service was accompanied by soft music on violin and piano by Miss White and Miss Kelso. After the informal reception an elaborate supper was served, the bride's table being decorated with syringa. Many valuable gifts were received.

The following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Brinkman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Addison, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Haskell, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lechner, Mr. and Mrs. J.
