

SOCIETY NEWS OF THE WEEK

Fair Young Matron of Los Angeles and Her Beautiful Little Daughter

MRS. JAY VANDERGRIFT AND LITTLE JULIA VANDERGRIFT

MRS. JAY VANDERGRIFT, an attractive young matron, recently posed for a Madonna and child picture in the Hana Robison studios...

way, Mrs. Vandergrift, before her marriage, was Miss Louise Lord, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Lord of Occidental boulevard.

will be the hostess at a bridge luncheon Tuesday, which will be laid for sixteen guests. This is one of a series of affairs with which Mrs. Wilson is entertaining.

In honor of Miss Constance Johnson and W. J. Winters, whose marriage will take place at St. Agnes cathedral tomorrow morning, Miss Clara Gifford, Mrs. Berry Salinas, entertained at their home on Lott avenue Thursday evening.

The rooms were uniquely decorated, pretzel colored paper and bells being used very effectively.

The early part of the evening was devoted to music, games and a reception to the future bride and groom, and later a Dutch supper was enjoyed.

The following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. McKesson, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Rice, Mr. and Mrs. H. Anthony, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Salmon, Mrs. Willa Reithmann, Miss Constance Johnson, Miss Nettie Hagan, Miss Nora Plumber, Miss Lulu Spaulding, Miss Maud Newell, Miss Clara Reavis, Miss O. Nash, Miss Flora Winters, Miss Ana Messmore, Miss I. Dyke, W. J. Winters, R. G. Cate, George S. Harman, E. Chalmers, P. Bowman, T. Atterbury, C. L. Tilley, W. Shorslev, F. Johnson, H. Morris, P. J. Horsch, W. E. Johnson and J. Brewer.

Mrs. De Vere Drake of South Hope street announces the marriage of her daughter, Miss Inez Esther Drake, and Dr. Franklin Jerome Davis, a resident of Massachusetts, which took place at Santa Ana several weeks ago.

The bride, a granddaughter of Joseph Drake, is a member of a prominent Kentucky family and a niece of the late Robert Drake of Newark, N. J. She also has the distinction of being a descendant of the bonnie lassie of Maxwellton Scotland, the famed "Annie Laurie." Mrs. Davis is an accomplished artist and writer.

Dr. Davis, a graduate of the medical department of the University of Vermont, is a Mason, a Knight of Pythias and a member of other fraternal orders. Dr. and Mrs. Davis will visit the Yukon exposition at Seattle, Lake Tahoe and other places of interest. They will make her home in Los Angeles.

Many friends will witness the marriage of Miss Elsie Neuhausen, daughter of Mrs. A. C. Neuhausen, and Edward Kelly, assistant superintendent of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company, tomorrow evening at 9 o'clock at St. Vincent church on the corner of Washington and Grand avenue, Rev. Father Glass officiating.

Miss Neuhausen will be gowned in white hand-embroidered messaline silk over silk, with a veil, and will carry a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. She will be attended by her sister, Miss Amanda Neuhausen, who will wear yellow messaline silk and will carry yellow roses. James Kelly, brother of the groom, will serve as best man, and ushers will be Messrs. Martin Connolly and Richard Marsden. The bride's brother, William Neuhausen, will give her in marriage.

Professor Wild will preside at the organ. The ceremony will be followed by a formal breakfast at the bride's home for the bridal party and the immediate family, after which the young couple will leave for a week's stay at Coronado. They will spend the summer at Ocean Park before returning to make their home in Los Angeles.

Me. and Mrs. Alonzo Byron Beasley of Benton way are planning a delightful trip during Mr. Beasley's summer vacation. They will spend some time at Coronado hotel, Coronado, and then return home for their handsome car, in which they will motor to Riverside, Redlands and other places of interest. They will also visit Long Beach and Mexico.

Mrs. Beasley, a descendant of a prominent old Pennsylvania family, is one of the most charming young matrons in Los Angeles.

Los Angeles friends of A. G. Bartlett and daughter, Miss Bessie, will be interested in knowing of their arrival in London.

They sailed from New York June 2, accompanied by a typical Atlantic drizzle that proved the forerunner of heavy seas, rain and an uncomfortable voyage. A letter tells of pleasant companions, the Episcopal service Sunday in the dining salon with the English and American flags over the improvised pulpit, and of a concert given by the passengers, which netted $150 for the Sailors' homes in New York and Liverpool.

Mrs. T. E. Gibbon is entertaining for Mrs. Hamilton and Mrs. Howard, July 9, with a tea.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley J. Clark of Westmoreland place will entertain the evening of July 6 with an informal house dance in compliment to their two daughters, Miss Sarah Clark and Miss Lucile Clark, who returned Wednesday from Wellesley college.

The date for the marriage of Miss Edith Herron, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus H. Herron of Severance street, and Lieut. William Hamilton Toaz, U. S. N., has been set for the evening of July 21, the ceremony to take place in Christ Episcopal church.

Lieutenant Toaz, who has been a guest at the Herron home, left recently to rejoin his ship, the Washington, at Bremerton, Puget sound, Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Jacoby entertained about fifty guests informally Saturday night at their home on Brighton street in celebration of their twentieth wedding anniversary. During the evening an impromptu musical program was rendered.

Mrs. Morris Albee of Juliet street was hostess at an informal tea given Saturday afternoon in compliment to Miss Elsie Milner, whose marriage with Charles L. Milner will occur next week.

The hostess was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Wallace Cayhill Ayres, Mrs. Frank A. McDonald, Mrs. Thomas R. Lee, Mrs. John Newton Russell, Mrs. W. E. Freeman, Mrs. W. E. Dunn, Mrs. Wilbur W. Wallace, Mrs. LeGrand

Attractive Wife of Local Actor Who Will Motor Through the State

MRS. A. BYRON BEASLEY, Who with Mr. Beasley will enjoy delightful outing

Reed, Miss Letha Lewis, Miss Clara Mercereau, Miss Florence Moore, Miss Katherine Kurtz, Miss Rose Michod, Miss Eleanor Valley and Miss Marjorie Freeman.

Mrs. Wallace Cayhill Ayres, formerly Miss Della Plumstead of this city, arrived recently from the east with her baby daughter to visit relatives in Los Angeles.

Miss Maude Elizabeth Richards of Western avenue entertained with a box party at the Belasco, yesterday afternoon and followed with a tea at the Alexandria. Guests were Miss Marie Thresher Webb, Mrs. Helen Newcomb Hoff, Miss Louise Nixon Hill, Miss Blanche Ruby and Miss Hazel Runge.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Marian Knight of Los Angeles are spending a few days at Coronado.

A next week's society event will be the marriage of Miss Elsie Milner, daughter of Mrs. John Milner, and Charles L. Michod, to be celebrated at the First Unitarian church Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Frank A. McDonald, sister of the bride, will be Miss Katherine Kurtz and Miss Rose Michod. Little Katherine and Margaret McGarry will be the flower girls, and Master Joseph Horton will carry the ring. Alexander Thornton will serve as best man, and ushers are to be Messrs. Clyde Spicer, C. Rey Rule, William K. Thompson and Herbert Ritz.

Following the ceremony a supper will be served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. McDonald on La Salle avenue, guests including relations and a few intimate friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Michod will be at home after October 20 in their new home at 15 Victoria Park.

An announcement that came as a surprise to the numerous friends of the young couple was that of Miss Rose Evelyn Huchendorf, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Huchendorf of the Zeidler apartment, and Alfred Julius Hill, the announcement being made at a luncheon given by the bride-elect Friday.

Streamers flowing from a red rose canopy suspended between the living room and the dining room were pulled by four young women, and showered score cards and the visiting cards of the groom to be and his bride-elect.

After luncheon five hundred was played and hearts were trumps.

The hostess was assisted by Miss Frankie Raif, Miss Arabella Jeans, Miss Gertrude Hanka and Miss Hilda Gardiner.

Guests included Meses. E. D. Mooers, William D. D. Smith, Stanton Wright, Ethel West, Ralph B. Johnson, Dunn van Glesen, Porter Graham, Brada, and the Misses Lotta Gray, Maybelle Williams, Eleanor Bauer, Helen Smith, May Armstrong, Rose Armstrong, Helen Judson, Retta Worthing, De Forest, Jenness, Mabel Jeans, Healy, Reed Lewis, Ruth Rivers, Gertrude Hanka, Butcher, Hilda Gardiner, Canoll and Miss Frankie Raif.

Mrs. David H. McCartney of Beacon street and her sister, Miss Gertrude Churchill, were hostesses at a luncheon and bridge given yesterday at the Los Angeles Country club.

Covers were laid for Mrs. Will Hook, Jr., Mrs. Loraine Bayly, Mrs. Gardell Drake, Mrs. Moyer Green, Miss Madge Martin of New York, Mrs. Otto Neher, Mrs. James McCoy, Mrs. John Hastings Howard, Mrs. Henry Carleton Lee, Mrs. Walter Clark, Mrs. Hamilton Fay, Mrs. Harry Luceford, Mrs. Eckart, Mrs. A. B. Ebner, Mrs. Raymond D. Frisbie, Mrs. Charles Cohen, Mrs. Clarence H. Ford, Mrs. D. L. McFarlan, Mrs. Mrs. A. J. Kerr, Mrs. A. B. Jones, Miss Clara Vickers, Miss Mollie Adelia Brown, Miss Olive Harpham, Miss Edith Clark, Miss Nora Dickinson, Katharine Clark, Miss Grace Rowley, Miss Alice Elliott, Miss Austeen George, Miss Juana Creighton, Miss Ethel Shaw, Miss Genevieve King, Miss Helen Utley, Miss Nora Dickinson, Miss Henrietta Mossbacher, Miss Alice Smith, Miss Florence Avery and Miss Gladys Reynolds.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul de Longpre have returned from a six weeks' outing trip to Honolulu and are again occupying their Hollywood home.

Miss Lily Olshausen of St. Andrews place was hostess at an informal tea given Thursday afternoon in compliment to Miss Elsie Knecht, who is leaving soon to make her home in San Francisco.

During the evening a number of guests were entertained informally.

Members of the Phi Delta Chi sorority of Marlborough school held their annual reunion luncheon Monday at the Los Angeles Country club.

Later in the afternoon tea was served.

Miss Edith Maurice presided as toastmistress and covers were laid for Mesdames Roy Pinkham, Frank Gillean, Clarence H. Crawford, Leigh Garney, Elsie Spaulding, Lorraine Bayly, Roy Koster, Misses Edith Newman, Harriet Severance, Marjorie Severance, Clara Vickers, Edith Maurice, Julia Derby, Sussie Carpenter, Helen Newlin, Juliet Gardner, Katharine Stearns, Jane Rollins, Jennee Blukley, Aileen McCartney, Julia Pierce, Edith Bryant, Blanche Davenport, Ruth Ainsworth, Lillian Van Dyke, Josephine Struve, Sallie Utley, Marjorie Utley, Virginia Walsh, Katherine Clark, Gertrude King, Madeline King, Dorothy Leonard, Marguerite Hughes, Revis Hughes, Alice Cline, Mary Burnham, Louise Derby, Marjorie Derby, Frances Richards and Miss Ida B. Lindley of the Marlborough Preparatory school.

Mrs. P. G. Cotter entertained at the California club Monday morning with a breakfast given in compliment to Judge and Mrs. Erskine M. Ross.

Covers were laid for Judge and Mrs. Ross, Judge and Mrs. Hines of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Brunswig, Miss Julia Wagoner, who is the house guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Brunswig, and Dr. and Mrs. P. G. Cotter.

Mrs. Auguste Margus of West Twenty-fifth street entertained Tuesday with a "500" matinee.

Those who assisted the hostess were Meses. A. H. Koebig, Fred W. Beau de Zart, C. Apablanco, Philip P. Gropin and W. C. Valiket. Guests were Meses. J. Lee Haagard, Albert Russell, J. W. Barnes, Paul Pfeifer, G. D. Dickson, Caldwell, Englebreton, Charles Toll, R. A. Todd, Matthew W. Everhardy, John Hauerwaas, George Wisenbach, Schneider, A. K. Brauer, George F. Hupp, G. J. George, D. Lippman, Lon K. Wisheart, J. T. Fitzgerald, Merrill, Carl Schrader, Frank Powell, Carl Leonard, Sepulveda, T. A. Johnson, A. Atkinson, J. C. Hall, J. W. F. Doss, S. Hodge, W. A. Banks, Frank Hudson, Bram, Joseph Dupuy, Stockard, Barry, C. C. Loomis, H. A. Wallace, C. A. Wallace, Frank Reynolds; Mrs. Ellis of Omaha; Misses Marguerite Banks, Kramer, Clara Leonard, Katherine Sawtelle, Barbara Sawtelle, Florence Jud, Norma Wisenbach, Eldred, Alma Wisenbach,

Hostess at Informal Affair Given at Her Pretty Home Last Evening

MRS. C. L. JACOBY, Who entertained with an informal affair in celebration of her twentieth wedding anniversary

Emma Klatchner, Rosencrantz and Nettie Bearman.

Mrs. Guy Liggett of Omaha, Neb., who is spending a few weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Nelson of West Ninth street, was special guest Friday at a delightful at home given by Mrs. Charles P. Carlson of South Union avenue.

The hostess was assisted in receiving by Mesdames Guy Liggett, Harry Cooper, Oscar Schurmer and Miss Eleanor Wagner.

Among those present were Mesdames Harry Cooper, Charles Lamb, Earl Nutting, Frank Connor, Will Goodwin, Jesse Osgood, Arthur Kemper, Robert Book, Robert Wagner, Chase Terry, Frank Thompson, Henry Mathieson, James McIntyre, John Rutherford, J. H. Humphreys, Edward Hogle, Oscar Schurmer, Wayne Yorrick, Alfonso Morgan, and the Misses Eleanor Wagner, Jean Graham, Vivian Stringfield, Edna Dove, Gertrude Hancock, Agnes Babcock, Ida Lawrence, Marian Dumble and Lillian Vance.

Mrs. Philip D. Colby, a recent bride, was special guest at a miscellaneous shower and whist party given at her daughters of Romeo street have recently returned from an outing of a week at ten days at the beach.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Spottswood announce the engagement of their daughter, Ora, and Herman R. Johnson. The wedding will take place some time in October.

Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Lamb, with their daughter, Miss Augusta Lamb, will leave July 5 for a month's sojourn at Hermosa Beach, where they have taken a house. Their son, P. E. Lamb, in company with his wife and three children, will come from their home in Burlingame to join his parents at Hermosa.

Miss Lillian Van Dyke will entertain with an informal luncheon at her home on West Adams street the afternoon of July 9 for her house guest, Miss Esther Merrill, a visitor from Berkeley.

Mrs. Philip D. Colby, a recent bride, was special guest at a miscellaneous shower and whist party given at her

(Continued on Page Nine)

Advertisement for 'The Kayser' Patent Finger-Tipped Silk Gloves. Text includes: 'My Gloves Cost the Same As Yours', 'Silk gloves that don't wear—without finish or fit—cost the same price as the Kayser's. To protect yourself, look in the hem. See that the gloves are marked "Kayser." Then you get the gloves which, for 25 years, have been the standard silk gloves of the world. You get a guarantee in each pair. Don't accept gloves of inferior makes. See that your gloves are Kayser's. Short Silk Gloves 50c, 75c, $1.00, $1.25. Long Silk Gloves 75c, $1.00, $1.25, $1.50. JULIUS KAYSER & CO., Makers NEW YORK.

THE WAY TO JUNE It is through the glades that the bee has made And under the alighting trees, Beyond the snow, where the cold winds blow Through the cave of herze, Mrs. Then down the lane of the April rain Under violet-scented showers, And off by way of the hills of May With their apple blossoms bowers; Then on again through a leafy glens tile With the bird songs all aume, Where you rest a while, at the rose hunch For you've found the way to June. —Edith S. Tiltonson in St. Nicholas.

LIEUT. GEN. ADNA R. CHAFFEE and Mrs. Chaffee entertained as house guests a few days last week Col. Frederick G. Hodgson, U. S. A., and Mrs. Hodgson, who are en route to the Philippines, where Col. Hodgson will take up the duties of quartermaster general.

Mrs. Chaffee gave a dinner of twelve covers Thursday night in compliment to her guests; friends asked to meet them being Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Adams, General and Mrs. C. D. Tiele, Mrs. Dickson of St. Louis and Judge N. P. Conroy. There were also present the daughters of the host and hostess, Mrs. George French Hamilton of the Philippines and Mrs. John Howard Hastings of Ft. Riley, Kas.

Colonel and Mrs. Hodgson were also entertained during their stay by Mrs. William H. Ellis, who gave a luncheon, and by Mrs. W. H. Adams. They left Friday night for San Francisco and will sail in a few days.

Mrs. George Kress of Hotel Alvarado, is spending some time at Ocean Park.

A quiet home wedding will be celebrated the morning of July 3, at the home of the bride in Eagle Rock valley, Miss Stella Herzog, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Herzog and L. V. Stockwell, being the parties concerned. The ceremony will be witnessed only by the immediate family and will be followed by a wedding breakfast, after which the young couple will leave for a short wedding trip. On their return to Los Angeles, Mr. Stockwell and bride will be at home at the Isis apartments where they will receive their friends after July 10.

Miss Edith Bradford entertained with an informal luncheon at her home on Pasadena avenue Friday, in compliment to Miss Helen McDonald, a popular bride-to-be.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mansfield entertained with a luncheon Friday at Levy's in compliment to Miss Maude Anderson. The same afternoon she was special guest at a tea given at the Alexandria by Miss Letha Lewis.

Miss Georgia Gill will entertain with a dance at the Country club Wednesday evening.

Fred Jacob Smith of Chicago arrived in Los Angeles Friday and is the guest of his mother, Mrs. Carrie Jacobs Bond, at Hotel Hollywood. Mr. Smith will remain in Los Angeles until the middle of July, when he will leave for the east, being accompanied as far as Seattle by his mother, who will also visit friends at Lake Tahoe, returning to Chicago in September.

Mrs. Carrie Jacobs Bond, who is the founder of the Bond shop, a publishing house in Chicago, expects to visit Germany next spring in order to study the old-fashioned illuminating that she may issue special editions of her songs.

The numerous Los Angeles friends of this gifted composer are planning a number of entertainments for her son and herself. During Elks' week she will give a recital of original songs at Hotel Hollywood.

A luncheon given Thursday by Mrs. Albert J. Taylor of West Santa Barbara avenue in honor of Mrs. Carson B. Wilson of Denver, proved original in its conception and consisted entirely of California fruits especially prepared and served in courses, as announced by dainty hand-colored menu cards. A basket of fruit with branches of natural color formed the table center piece, which harmonized with soft lights from green shaded candelabras.

Among the guests were Mrs. Roy A. Wynne of Hollywood, Mrs. William J. Porter, Mrs. Charles Augustus Stace and Mrs. Carro Satterwhite.

Mrs. Erasmus Wilson of Chester place

Advertisement for 'Sample SHOES'. Text includes: 'Best Values Down Town $4 $5 $6 Sample SHOES Our Price for All $2.00 and $2.50'. Images show various styles of women's shoes.

Advertisement for 'FACTORY SHOE PARLORS'. Text includes: 'For Men, Women, Misses, Boys', 'Better than ordinary so-called "sample shoes" for we belong to no local concern. About 300 pairs of fine samples and "factory short lots" just received from Eastern makers, and on sale tomorrow, nobby styles, all standard makes, the kind you have been paying high prices for. This address saves dollars. 614, Parmelee-Dohrmann Bldg. (6th floor) 444 South Broadway. "Above high rents—below high prices."'