DESERTS HUSBAND FOR HER MOTHER

Wife Prefers Maternal Company to That of Husband and Man Is Granted Decree of Divorce

"Too much mother-in-law" was the reason given by Otto Weid in the divorce court yesterday for his domestic troubles. Weid said his wife, Eleanor F. Weid, whom he had married four years ago, deserted him last year, preferring her mother's society to his. In an effort to make her more satisfied with her married life, he said he had taken his wife on a trip to Japan and spent $600 in the purchase of curios she admired. A decree was granted.

Other decrees granted were Earl H. Oberter from Amy Oberter, C. H. Hill from Virgie Hill, Cynthia Seem from Frank G. Seem and Edmund C. Hurth from Augusta J. Hurth.

Martin, convicted Saturday on a charge of complicity in the theft of $29,000 from the First National bank of Monrovia in December, was given in Judge Davis' criminal court yesterday by Martin's attorneys, George Pearson and Grant Bennett. In order that testimony as to the prisoner's former good character may be obtained, the court continued the time for sentence until next Tuesday.

BROKER SLOANE DEMANDS DAMAGE FEE OF $100,000

American National Bank Is Accused of Maliciously Causing His Arrest on Embezzlement Charge

Alleging that he was prevented from pursuing his duties as a broker and had suffered great humiliation because of the publicity given to his arrest on a charge of embezzlement preferred by the American National bank August 25, 1908, J. E. Sloane, through his attorneys, Frank P. Harrington and George W. Pearson, filed suit in the superior court yesterday in which he charges malicious prosecution and demands damages in the sum of $100,000 from the bank.

Sloane claims he had money on deposit in the bank when he was arrested, and that the charge against him was dismissed by Justice Selph September 14, proving, he says, that there was no basis for the complaint.

JAPANESE TAKES SISTER AWAY FROM SWEETHEART

REDLANDS, July 20.—H. Odacki, a Japanese merchant in Los Angeles, today rescued his sister from her sweetheart with whom she had run away, drawing a revolver on the suitor.

Several days ago the Japanese girl, unusually pretty for her race, ran away from her home in Los Angeles and relatives made a search of that city. The brother decided to follow her sweetheart, believing the knave of her whereabouts, and when he saw him buy a ticket for Redlands, followed on the next train. He enlisted the services of the police who accompanied him to Japanese hotels, lodging houses and stores, but no trace of the couple was found. Odacki then started on a still hunt and on East Central avenue found the couple, and running up behind, took hold of his sister's arm and pulled her away. Her sweetheart began fighting and Odacki drew a revolver and leveled it at his head.

The trouble had started near the fire hall and Driver Fred Herrmann saw the fracas and the pulling of the gun. Rushing up behind, he threw his arms around Odacki and held the revolver in the air, saying he caused no damage if discharged. A bystander took the gun away and Odacki was arrested and fined $25 by Justice Gifford for carrying it. He left for his home, accompanied by his sister, the unhappy sweetheart remaining in Redlands.

Leaves for Encampment

REDLANDS, July 20.—Company G, in command of Capt. E. J. Underwood, left early this morning for Bay City for the Seventh regiment encampment, joining company K of San Bernardino in that city. The local company is in excellent condition, though the percentage of members attending camp is lower than in past years because of so many being away on vacations or unable to leave work. Captain Underwood, who is in charge, resigned some time ago, and C. W. Lehr has been elected as his successor, but has not received his commission to take charge of the company. Captain Underwood has served in the local company twelve years, longer than any other member.

Sponsor of Clermont II and Bell Used on Fulton's Boat

NEW YORK, July 20.—Mrs. Alice C. Sutcliffe, a great-granddaughter of Robert Fulton, christened the Clermont II, a replica of the original steamboat with which the inventor navigated the Hudson river. When the launching took place at Mariner harbor General Stewart L. Woodford made the dedicatory speech, and a large gathering of notable people witnessed the launching. At the moment the odd little vessel slid into the water several carrier pigeons were released to carry the news of the launching to various points up the Hudson. The bell which was used on the original Clermont was installed on board the new vessel and will ring out the hours from her bridge when she joins the great naval parade up the Hudson next September. It is estimated that the Clermont will steam at a rate of four miles an hour.

FIERCE FIGHT TO REMAIN IN THEIR QUARTERS HERE

Visitors Scatter and Things Are Said When Four-Footed Members Are Dislodged from the Alexandria

Turned from the Alexandria hotel and forced to change from the luxury of an exclusive hostelry to a home in the park, Mr. and Mrs. Alexandria Elk were ousted from their place of abode yesterday, after several hours of struggling and persuasion, in which a big derrick from the Llewellyn iron works had to be brought into play.

The guests furnished a strong testimonial for the big hotel when they suddenly found that they would be required to leave, for they used every effort in their power to remain where they were, and caused the strong-arm workers who came to remove them to think that Elks are, after all, not such meek and docile animals as they have usually been pictured.

The animals in question—for it is a four-legged couple that is mentioned—had spent a week in a commodious cage above the Fifth street entrance to the hotel, and had acted as a part of the sylvan decorations in the extensive preparations made by the management of the Alexandria hotel to do honor to the visiting B. P. O. E.

Brought from San Francisco The four-footed Elks were procured from the San Francisco city park and brought here exclusively for the occasion of the visit of the two-legged Elks. It was deemed impracticable to board them at the hotel, of whose decoration they had formed a part, and so at the end of a week's stay they were sent out to Eastlake park, where they will in future make their home.

Several hundred persons watched the removal of the animals from the hotel, and cheered them on as they bucked, kicked, butted and exerted every means known to their kind in order to defend the citadel.

The proverbial lodge goat had "nothing on" the docile elks when it came to the administration of the thirty-third degree, and several persons who took part in the removal of the gentle creatures received a few bruises in the encounter which reminded them of the time the train left the track or the roof caved in.

"Save the women and children first," murmured one stalwart worker, who sat on the ledge above the entrance and with dazed expression held a bumped head.

Another, who leaned against the side of the building below, was softly humming, "Just break the news to mother, she knows he wears I love her."

However, no one had to break the news to mother. The women and children are still safe and the tumultuous visitors are safely housed in the Eastlake park.

Only a Trifle "Don't kick at trifles," said the man who had just given the waiter a nickel tip.—Yonkers Statesman.

BRACKETT'S WOUNDS MAY HAVE BEEN FOR ANOTHER

Portland Police Now Believe That Business Man Was Shot by Mistake by Jealous Husband

PORTLAND, Ore., July 20.—Abandoning the theory that Rae F. Brackett, the Portland business man, who was shot last Thursday morning, knows the identity of his assailant, the police have struck a new trail that, in their opinion, forms the sanest theory of the mystery.

It is said they are now working on the theory that Brackett was shot by a man who mistook him for another who had been paying attentions to the man's wife. This man is said to have threatened to kill his wife's admirer the night of the attack on Brackett. This man has not been seen, and his wife asserts she does not know his whereabouts.

VERMONT SQUARE

One Million Dollars' Worth Already Sold and Highly Improved with Homes. Another Million Dollars' Worth Adjoining Now Ready for Investors and Home Builders.

Purchase Real Estate of a Company That Brings Results. Invest Your Money Where Things Needed Are Done for You Sooner Than Promised

This company gets results for its lot purchasers in advance of the time set in its promises. Here is a case in point: On April 15, 1909, we contracted with the Los Angeles Railway company for the construction of the Dalton Avenue Street Car line to be extended into Vermont Square within four months. The contract will not expire until August 15; but on July 15, the line was completed and cars are now running regularly into the tract.

This gives Vermont Square two electric car lines—the Dalton Avenue line and the West 48th Street line, with frequent service, running directly into and through the property, the value of lots being enhanced in proportion.

We urge investors and home-makers to take advantage of the special discounts offered to those who buy and build at once, while the opportunity remains open. The opportunity to save 20 per cent from present prices will not last much longer. Mr. Investor or Home-builder: if you are in the market for lots, get busy at once!

When the railroad company builds into Vermont Square in advance of the time stipulated, and when the electric lighting companies fight to get their poles and wires over the property in advance of any building whatsoever, you can readily figure out the significance of these facts for yourself. Be as wise as they. IT IS YOUR MOVE.

VERMONT SQUARE IS ON VERNON, NORMANDIE AND WESTERN AVENUES. TAKE GRAND AVENUE CAR ON BROADWAY MARKED "DALTON AVENUE," AND GET OFF AT 45TH STREET, OR TAKE GRAND AVENUE CAR ON BROADWAY MARKED "WEST 48TH ST." AND GET OFF AT VERMONT AVE. OR NORMANDIE AVE.

VERMONT SQUARE IS THE LARGEST SUBDIVISION EVER PLACED ON THE MARKET IN LOS ANGELES—ABOUT 800 LOTS (VERMONT AVENUE SQUARE) IMPROVED, SOLD OUT AND NOW BUILT UP WITH HUNDREDS OF HOMES. NEARLY 600 LOTS (VERMONT SQUARE) RECENTLY PLACED ON THE MARKET AND BEING IMPROVED.
