INTERURBAN LEADERS WILL FINALLY CLASH

San Felice and Palms Nines to Play Crucial Contest—Other Games Should Result in Good Ball

The managers of the baseball teams of the Interurban league have arranged a schedule of Sunday games which should result in some of the fastest amateur ball yet played by the organization. The big game of the day will take place at Covina, when the Palms and San Felice nines meet to settle a long-disputed supremacy. Both aggregations have a clean 1000 per cent standing and the players of the respective teams promise that the record shall remain unscathed. Covina fandom will turn out en masse to root for what they believe will be an easy victory for the local boys, while the Palms nine will be accompanied by another large crowd of rooters. Covina will probably be the diamond pick of favorites over their opponents, although Saenz, who will be in the curve station for the Palms boys, is twirling in great form.

The Paraffines will also meet with the Colegrove nine and should the former lads be victorious they may yet carry off first place. In the main preliminary the players of the Wells-Fargo and Dear will work for the Wells-Fargo, while Bennett and Lynch will compose the battery for the Empire Growl who will hold the indicator.

The Eastern Outfitters and the Racycles will also clash in a nine-round go for a high position on the centage column. With the Cripples back on their winning stride and a slump overtaking the leaders, results may be very different from the showings would indicate. Following are Sunday's lineups:

Table with columns for teams and players. Includes Wells-Fargo, Colegrove, Paraffines, San Felice, and Palms.

On ordinary occasions the tailor wears a thumb over the bejeweled finger to prevent the nail from being broken and the diamond lost.

No Profit in Burglary—Richard Carlin, who confessed that he has been a burglar for seven years, has informed the New York police there is no profit in the business. "Of the hundreds of places which I have entered, none enriched me more than a few dollars," he said. "In the last job I was just getting away with a lot of plunder when the detectives caught me."

Consume 10,000 Pies—Ten thousand pumpkin pies were consumed at Longmont, Colo., Wednesday in the observance of Longmont's annual pumpkin festival. For weeks wagons filled with pumpkin pies came in from the surrounding country, which is famous for its pumpkins, and every oven in town has been run to its capacity in baking the golden discs of spicy pie.

Denies Report—Capt. J. Moren, chief of the Chicago post office and father of Lew Moren, the Philadelphia pitcher, denied a story that he had promised his son $500 for each game he won from Chicago in order to help out Pittsburgh in the race. "A tale like that is singular," said Captain Moren. "I never promised my son anything like this, and when he wrote me a letter at Philadelphia, I sent him a letter of congratulation and a check for $100."

Fire Destroys Heirlooms—It is now confirmed that many priceless heirlooms and valuable works of art were consumed in the fire which destroyed the home of Mrs. E. B. Alexander on Castle Point, Hoboken, N. J., last week. A painting by Tonyea of a Dutch farm scene, more than 400 years old, was one of the treasures lost. Among the valuable papers which were burned was the original deed by Queen Anne to Governor Carteret, the first English executive of New Jersey, for the northern half of that state.

PASADENANS ENJOY ROUTING AT REDONDO

REDONDO BEACH, Aug. 12.—Six thousand Pasadenans participated in the largest picnic of the season at this beach today. Led by Mayor Thomas Earley, 1200 merry-makers disembarked from the first special over the Santa Fe, which arrived at 10 o'clock. Five other specials over the same road arrived at half-hour intervals, loaded to the guards. Others came to the beach on the two main lines of the Los Angeles and Redondo railroad, which arrived at intervals of fifteen minutes during the forenoon.

On the first section were the forty odd members of the committees for the day, who immediately began to prepare to handle the crowds at noon. Tables were spread in the picnic grove and on the amusement pier and the porches of the Casino and pavilion.

Five minutes after the first train arrived a crowd of 400 persons formed a line at the ticket office of the bath-house, clamoring for bathing suits, which were quickly supplied and their places taken by other anxious applicants, so that by noon the water was thickly dotted with the heads of over a thousand bathers.

The human roulette was a popular attraction, over five hundred persons crowding in at one time for the purpose of riding on the erratic wheel or observing the antics of those who rode. Dignified men and women would fix themselves firmly on the rotating disk on the disk of the machine, only to be gently deposited in a heap in the side alley. The participants in the sport became intermixed in a mass of arms and legs after each trip of the machine, and one would arise only to be deftly tripped by some unfortunate catapult which the machine would project into the alley.

The tug Redondo carried record loads out to sea for three miles during the day, when many of the picnickers spent the day fishing from the wharves along the bay.

The aquatic sports in the bath house in the afternoon drew a packed house, over 2000 persons crowding into the building for the purpose of witnessing them.

The Santa Fe railroad had forty-eight cars in use for the crowds and at 4:30 o'clock the first train started homeward. At half-hour intervals from that time until 9 o'clock at night the trains hauled the tired merry-makers to the Crown City, and several hundred who remained for the dance went on the street cars after that hour.

Gathered on the Strand Mayor Thomas Earley's portly form was seen where the crowds were thickest. At repeated requests of his constituents that he let them see how he looked in a bathing suit, he simply smiled and turned away.

President E. T. Off of the board of trade nearly broke his suspenders in his merriment over the human roulette machine. George T. Brenner of the Merchants' association appeared shortly after noon with the information that he had been at the bathing place and had seen "corned" clams.

Canal Ready in 1913—Advices that the Panama canal will be completed in 1913 are verified by Herbert B. Squires, U. S. minister to Panama, who has arrived at the city with his wife and daughter on a six weeks' leave of absence. "I believe that the canal will be completed within four years," said Minister Squires. "There is no reason for any further delay. There are now 38,000 men at work on the canal and they are pushing the work with great rapidity. The canal zone is better than would be found in a northern section where so many men are employed."

To Break Records—A large delegation of New York automobile enthusiasts have made arrangements for a special race to be held on the opening next week of the Indianapolis motor speedway, which is said to be the greatest automobile race course in the world. The race will be followed by a special train carrying the racers and men interested in the automobile business. Advance reports concerning the race have led the eastern motorists to believe that all records will be broken.

A special committee will convey this welcome and invitation to President Diaz in Mexico City, on Sept. 5. President Diaz was made honorary president and member for life of the club, as are President Diaz and former president Roosevelt, and a special committee will be organized to receive the president and his staff.

Chief of Police Favour was discovered hidden behind a big starting trap in the county jail, where he was held for the day.
