NEVADA'S READY FOR MINING MEN

GOLDFIELD EXPECTS GREAT ANNUAL CONGRESS

THREE NATIONS TO BE REPRESENTED AT ASSEMBLY

Two Thousand Delegates Expected to Attend Convention of Mineralogists and Gold Diggers September 27

[By Associated Press.]

GOLDFIELD, Nev., Sept. 10.—The United States, Canada and Mexico will be represented by about 2000 delegates to the American Mining congress, which will hold its twelfth annual session in this city September 27 to October 2.

Twenty-five political subdivisions of this country, including Alaska, will have representation. Leading mining and educational experts appointed by President Taft, the governors of the various states, mayors, boards of supervisors, commercial and scientific organizations will assemble in the Hippodrome, September 27, and the six days session will be devoted to discussions of many topics of interest to the mining world.

In a statement issued by President J. H. Richards that official says: "This convention is designed to be an open forum for discussion of all problems concerning the production, treatment, transportation, marketing and use of minerals, and the relation of the mining industry to the state and federal governments, in connection with legislation to control and investigation to stimulate and make possible a larger development and a wiser conservation of the mineral wealth of the United States."

Important Subject

One of the most important subjects to be taken up will be that of the proposed national bureau of mines.

The house of representatives of the Sixtieth congress passed a bill creating such a department, but it failed in the senate, and an effort will be made in the coming convention to organize a second campaign for the bill's passage.

Revision of mining laws, mining accidents, increased use of silver, mine inspection, fraudulent mine promotions, prospecting rates and the conservation of mineral resources will be subjects of papers and addresses, and the following committee reports will be submitted: General revision of mining laws, Dr. W. R. Ingalls, New York city; standardization of electrical equipment used in mines, Dr. Edward B. Rosa, Washington, D. C.; revision of Alaskan mining laws, J. L. Steele, Landlock, Alaska; vertical side line law, George W. Ritter, Salt Lake City; coal tax insurance fund, Samuel A. Taylor, Pittsburgh; national forest service, A. G. Brownlee, Denver.

First Day's Session

The first day's session will be called to order by Joseph H. Hutchinson, chairman of the local executive committee, at 10 o'clock. The day will be delivered by Charles S. Sprague, president of the Goldfield chamber of commerce, State Senator George D. Fyve and Governor S. Dickerson. Responses will be made by President Richards and a representative of each state and country participating.

Senators Francis G. Newland of Nevada and Charles Dick of Ohio are also expected to speak.

September 29 the delegates will meet in a banquet at the Goldfield club. Entertainment features planned by the Goldfield committee are a rock climbing contest, open to the world, and a street carnival, to be known as "The Malapai Mixup."

CHICAGO EXPERT TO VISIT HARBOR

SPECIAL INVESTIGATOR WILL STUDY PLANS

Writes A. P. Fleming He Will Come to Los Angeles for the Purpose of Formulating Scheme for Water Front Development

George C. Sikes, special investigator and expert of the Chicago harbor commission, has written Secretary A. P. Fleming of the Los Angeles harbor commission that he hopes to pass some time at Los Angeles harbor making a study of the plans for development. He will probably reach Los Angeles early next month. Mr. Fleming will be prepared to offer him every facility for gathering information.

Mr. Sikes wrote the report of the Chicago harbor commission on the obstacles to Chicago's water shipping development, an exhaustive review in the water transportation situation in that city. Before his connection with the Chicago commission he was employed on special investigation on harbor conditions at New York for the bureau of municipal research of New York, and before that was secretary of the Chicago street railway commission.

Secretary Fleming has received reports of harbor and belt line railway in New Orleans and Baltimore. He has written for information about harbor charges, based on the system employed at San Francisco, Oakland and Eureka. Gray's Harbor, Humboldt, Washington, Chicago, Baltimore, Savannah, Tacoma, New Orleans, Galveston, Seattle, Norfolk, Brooklyn and Olympia. This and other data which Mr. Fleming is collecting will be utilized in arriving at a basis for recommending charges for dockage, wharfage, stowage and other phases of handling shipping.

SON OF TESTATOR EXPECTED TO PAY ADVANCEMENT

After Father Dies Legatee Learns Money Advanced to Him is Not to Be Taken from His Bequest

That he misunderstood the provisions of his father's will and because of that misunderstanding was made the victim of a conspiracy through which he lost $27,000 is the accusation made by Charles Gilbert Pratt of Pasadena in a suit filed yesterday in the superior court.

The defendants are among the best known residents of Pasadena, including William F. Knight, Carrie E. Knight, his wife and sister of Pratt; Edward P. Hopkins, one of the executors of the Pratt estate; Attorney R. P. Congdon, attorney for the executors; Henry Newby, president of the Pasadena National bank; Edward H. Pyle, the bank's cashier, and H. H. Klamroth, a Pasadena attorney.

Pratt, who died in April 1905, being succeeded as president of the Pasadena National bank by Newby. By the terms of the will, Mr. Pratt's estate, valued at more than $150,000, was to be divided equally between his son and daughter, Mrs. Knight, after several small bequests to other relatives were paid.

attorneys, at the presentation to the county of oil portraits of former Judges R. Belden, Spencer and Rhodes. The address of presentation was made by Attorney V. A. Scheller and addresses also were made by the present superior judges, Richards, Welch and Gosbey.

Judge Rhodes responded.

CITIZENS FIGHT UNEQUAL TAXES

Means Increase of $17,500

RIVERSIDE, Sept. 10.—According to figures received from County Auditor George H. Brown, Riverside county will have to raise $17,500 more for state taxes than would have been the case had the reported assessment been allowed to stand by the state board of equalization. The increase in state taxes over that of last year amounts to more than $25,000. The city and county rates will be materially decreased, the county rate being estimated at $1.10 inside cities and $1.70 outside, compared with $1.35 and $1.85 last year.

ARMY'S LIEUTENANT GENERAL LAID TO REST

Body Later Will Be Removed from Vault After Arrival of Daughters—Favorite Horse Follows Caisson

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—With military honors befitting his rank as lieutenant general of the army, the funeral of Henry C. Corbin, who died in New York last Wednesday, was held here today.

All the available military force at Washington acted as an escort to the body of the distinguished soldier on the long march from St. John's Episcopal church to Arlington cemetery.

As the caisson bearing the casket entered the gates of the cemetery fifteen guns were fired. After brief prayer three volleys of musketry and the customary soundings of taps, the body was deposited in its temporary resting place in a receiving vault.

Interment will be made on the arrival of one of the general's daughters, Mrs. Usher M. Parsons, who is now hurrying home from Europe.

The services were conducted by the Rev. E. S. Dunlap, assistant rector of St. John's, who was assisted by Chaplain W. W. Brander of the Fifteenth United States cavalry and by the Rev. Dr. Balcom, the rector of the church at Ardsley-on-the-Hudson.

The casket, draped with the flag and covered with wreaths of roses, orchids and lilies of the valley, was placed on a caisson at the entrance of the church, while the entire military escort stood at attention and the engineer band, forming the lead of the military escort, rendered "Nearer, My God to Thee."

Standing behind the caisson was the general's favorite horse, bearing sable trappings and led by Alexander Oglesby, who served with the general during the Civil war and who was his personal messenger at the war department for many years.

Wrecking Company Finds Difficulty in Raising Sunken Cruiser Yankee Off Massachusetts

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—More trouble has been met by the wrecking company engaged in the effort to raise the auxiliary cruiser Yankee, which sank while being towed to New Bedford after she had been taken off the rocks in Buzzards bay.

Captain C. C. Marsh, her former commander, reported to the navy department the main deck of the vessel will have to be strengthened so she may be made water tight, compressed air being used in the attempt to float her.

The Yankee is a relic of the Spanish-American war.
