Musical

The project of a permanent festival organization in Los Angeles received its "send off" at the September meeting of the Gamut club, when a committee of five, consisting of J. A. Stamm, A. Francisco, C. E. Pemberton, George Derby and L. E. Bentley, was appointed to act for the club and in conjunction with members of the music and art committees of the chamber of commerce, and representatives from the Merchants and Manufacturers' association, the Dominant, Lyric, Orpheus, Ellis, Treble Clef, Ebel, Ruskin Art and Friday Morning clubs, the board of education, L. A. and Polytechnic high schools, to work out a plan that should make possible the first of these events in the spring of 1910.

This committee held its first meeting Wednesday, Mr. Behlmer acting as chairman and Mr. Derby secretary, and tentative plans were made for a week of music in April or May of next spring. All vocal and instrumental organizations in Southern California will be invited to participate. Of the seven proposed events two will be given by choral and orchestra of children from chorus and orchestra of children from what take place afterwards. It was decided that $10,000 would be needed to make the festival a success.

Sousa and his band are coming to Los Angeles under the auspices of the Music company and will give twelve concerts at popular prices at Temple Auditorium the last week in October. The seat sale will be in the Fitzgerald music company and an announcement of the opening sale will be given later.

Two American artists will assist at the opening of the Philharmonic course this season, Miss Mary Nichols and Miss Magdalene Worden, violinist and pianist, who are announced to accompany Mrs. Jeanne Jomelli on her Pacific coast trip. Miss Nichols is a violinist whose art has been received with approval, and Miss Worden, in addition to being an excellent pianist, is a composer of ability, and several of her compositions incorporated into Jomelli's programs. The trio will be here in November at Simpson auditorium.

Dr. Ludwig Wuelner, the German Liedersinger, who will give one recital in this city in December, bade the Munich public farewell the afternoon of September 21, in a recital of songs arranged by Brahms, Schumann and Liszt. His farewell to Germany will be at a recital in Berlin with the Philharmonic on September 29, the day before he sails for America.

President and faculty of the Fillmore School of Music announce a recital the evening of October 1 in Blanchard hall, during the following program will be rendered:

Two pianos—Concerto in E minor (romance and rondo) Chopin; Thomas H. Fillmore and Jessie B. Small.

"Lo! Here the Gentle Lark" Bishop Helen Guilford Stadden; Flute obligato, Wm. H. Mead.

Reading—(a) "Who Knows?" Walter L'Envol; Hazel Dell.

Violin—"Jota Aragonesa" Marie Aspiroz; Piano—"La Gazelle" Kullak; Voice—Verna Janice Stahl.

Reading—(a) "Seit Ich Ihn Gesehen" Schumann; (b) "Armi Arm, Vay Brave" Haendel; J. Benson Starr.

Reading—"A Set of Turquoise" Aldrich; Soprano and baritone—"The Return" Mrs. Stadden and Mr. Starr.

Two pianos—"Hide of the Valkyrie" Wagner-Ehrlich; Accompanist—Mr. Fillmore.

The free monthly recital of the De Chauvenet conservatory pupils will be held Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock at 545 South Figueroa street. A special feature will be the duo piano number, "Polonaise Heroique," by Chopin, by Mrs. and De Chauvenet. De Chauvenet's "Polonaise Heroique" will be played by the composer. Preceding the recital will be the "Composers' Study club will meet, and those interested in the study of the composers will be admitted.

The twenty-first free concert of the First Methodist Episcopal Sunday school orchestras of Tropico and Burbank, Earl B. Yantaine, conductor, is announced for Tuesday evening, in the First Methodist church, Sixth and Hill, H. B. Clark, basso, and Charles Yglesias, violinist, will assist.

Some well known vocalists and instrumentalists are to make tours throughout the southwest this season, and the concert season in Los Angeles and before the various music clubs of Southern California and the southwest. Georg Kruger, pianist, has been engaged by the Amphion club of San Diego, and will tour Arizona and New Mexico, going as far south as Amarillo, Tex. Mrs. Mary LeGrand Reed, dramatic soprano, soloist at the choral school department at Temple Auditorium Thursday, has been engaged by the Riverside and Redlands clubs as the opening soloist for their series of recitals, to be held in a series of concerts throughout Southern California, Arizona and New Mexico. Herr Ignaz Haroff, violinist, assisted by Miss Hilda Gold and Jottie Buissecret, violinist, is scheduled for a tour of the southwest.

When George Hamlin, the tenor, was a youngster of 6 or 7 years he was full of questions as a civil service examination. His chief delight was to play a favorite uncle with queries of a "What's the name of that imaginary 6-year-old could possibly devise. One day he rushed indoors, all excitement. "Uncle Jim," he demanded, "where does the hole go when we close the window?" And though Uncle Jim devoted considerable thought to the problem he hasn't framed an adequate answer yet.

Tina Lerner, the young Russian pianist whom Loudon Charlton is to bring from Europe in October for her second American tour, is only 20 years of age, and yet her reputation is world wide.

Arkansas Society Meets Tuesday

The Arkansas society will meet Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. George A. Cloud, 1354 East Twenty-second street. The society was recently organized and is offered by Dr. A. Hillman, who is president, and Miss Anna Harris, who was made secretary.

of introducing Koenen to Boston audiences. This will be two days after her New York appearance. Dr. Waller and her accompanist, Conrad Valentine Bas, will make their reappearance, the German singer having agreed to this joint recital out of sheer respect for Miss Koenen's profound art.

Although not a concert attraction in the strictest sense of the word, the coming of La Lole Fuller, the originator of the modern dance, is of interest. The dancer will open at the Metropolitan opera house, New York, and has been engaged with her company of some fifty girls, known as the muses, for thirty-six performances at the Boston opera, where she will also superintend the ordinary ballet and all light effects. On her tour of 100 cities she will be accompanied by her entire company, six solo dancers, her full staff of electricians and engineers, all her Parisienne scenic and lighting machinery and a symphony orchestra under Gustav Hinrichs.

NOTED BOSTON PASTOR REACHES LOS ANGELES

Distinguished Clergyman Comes to Southern California for Rest and Leisure

Rev. P. S. Henson, for five years pastor of the Tremont Temple of Boston, has arrived in Los Angeles to pass the winter season, accompanied by Mrs. Henson. They are guests at the Hotel Alvarado.

Dr. Henson says he intends to pass the time in resting and seeing the sights of Los Angeles and the surrounding country. He has made three previous visits to Los Angeles on lecturing tours, but has never passed the winter season here.

After an active pastorate of five years at the Tremont temple, Dr. Henson resigned that charge a year and a half ago, intending to come to Los Angeles in the remainder of the winter. Immediately on his resignation taking effect Dr. Henson was asked to raise the denomination's budget for missions and in three months raised a million and a half dollars. During that time he compassed the country from New England to Western Kansas. After this arduous but successful work, Dr. Henson decided to take his long-planned winter in Los Angeles.

Although Dr. Henson's name has been mentioned by many as a probable successor to Rev. Robert Burdette, pastor of the Temple Baptist church, Dr. Henson said last night he does not intend to take up active work for the present, but wants to take a long rest. Dr. Henson may supply the pulpit of the Temple Baptist church during the interim until a new pastor is secured.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—Insurance against unemployment is, according to Consul General J. T. Griffiths, of London, exciting a great deal of attention in England.

The passage of some law governing such insurance is being discussed from every point of view.

Whether or not the effort to make this insurance compulsory by parliamentary enactment will succeed, is still a matter of doubt, but a strenuous effort, Mr. Griffiths says, will be made to obtain the passage of such a law.

The president of the British board of trade recently has outlined the proposed legislation.

He desires to have it compulsory, contributory and specialized as to different classes of workers.

Voluntary plans of insurance against unemployment have frequently proved failures because the majority of those interested in them have been out of employment and unable to make payments.

Contributions from employer and employee are regarded as essential to give stability and permanence to the undertaking.

REAR ADMIRAL RETURNS FROM INSPECTION TRIP

Chief of Navy Bureau of Yards and Docks Will Inspect Mare Island

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25.—Rear Admiral Richard C. Hoop, chief of the bureau of yards and docks, returned today from Honolulu, where he went to inspect the progress of work on Pearl harbor. He said rapid progress was being made.

Before returning to Washington, Admiral Hoop will inspect Mare Island navy yard and the coal bunkers at Canby city, which are to be enlarged to the capacity of 100,000 tons.

Glen W. Chapman and Miss Mae Louise Dinsmore, two of the city's most esteemed young people, were wedded Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Dinsmore, at 388 West Tenth street. The ceremony, which was performed by Dr. G. F. Holt, pastor of the First Baptist church.

The bride's family is a prominent one in the city and she is a native daughter, whose she spent her girlhood.

The groom is connected with the Russ Lumber company, in this city, and is well known in business and church circles.

The wedding ceremonies were celebrated Wednesday, among the contracting parties being S. J. Dennis of Washington, D. C., and Miss Irma Walker of this city. The bride was one of the popular teachers in the city schools last year, and the groom is employed in the United States department of agriculture and is working with G. Harold Fowell, government pomologist.

A romance which began a number of years ago at Grand Rapids, Mich., culminated Wednesday when John Koke of Los Angeles and Miss Nettie P. Ghysels of Grand Rapids pledged their marriage vows before Rev. Horace Porter of the First Congregational church.

At the Swedish Lutheran church Wednesday evening Miss Inga Johnson became the bride of William N. Nelson. The bride is a comparatively recent arrival from Minnesota.

Exclusive New Apparel for Women—SUITS, CAPES and Coats

OUR Merchandise Buyers are just returned from New York City. Nowhere are the results of their efforts more apparent than in our Women's Department. Assortments are larger than ever before, richer, more varied, more individual and exclusive.

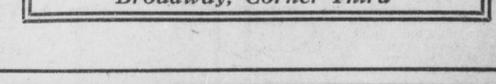

The new Suits will especially appeal to Women who dress carefully. In style and quality they are quite in a class by themselves. Materials are new Basket Weaves, Diagonals, Scotch Tweeds and Chevits, Bedford Cords, Worsteds and Serges. Colorings include the late ideas—the effects that are really new at present in New York.

These Suits are something more than perfectly styled, perfectly tailored models. They are Serviceable garments—wonderfully well made, and perfectly adapted to feminine needs. Just one model of a kind—for which reason selections should be made at once.

The New Outer Garments include both Capes and Coats. These, too, are equally exclusive models—quite different in style, material and make from those you ordinarily see. Inspection invited.

Health and Beauty Talks

BY MRS. MAE MARTYN

Sally Ann: Hot baths are weakening and should not be prolonged beyond a few minutes.

Alice: You say that your sweetheart is drifting from you to go with a more attractive girl. Can you blame him when you confess that you have neglected to take proper care of your complexion? Try this if you want to win him back again: Get from your druggist 4 ounces of epsom salt, put in a half-pint of hot water and add 2 teaspoonfuls of glycerine. This makes a complexion beautifier that clears and whitens the skin without the use of powder. Apply to face, forehead and hands, rubbing lightly until dry. This surmounts all skin troubles, such as pimples, cold sores, tan and freckles. It gives allover and oily skin a pink and youthful appearance.

V. D.: The best tonic I know for purifying the blood, rousing the liver and restoring lost appetite is made by dissolving an ounce of karmine and a half-teaspoonful of sugar in a quart of alcohol, then adding enough boiling water to make a full quart of
