W. C. T. U. TO CENSOR LIST OF BOOKS AT THE LIBRARY
Pasadena Women Shocked at Finding "Three Weeks" and "Sorrows of Satan" on Shelves

PASADENA, Oct. 27.—Now it has come to such a point that Pasadena are to have their literature selected for them. When they choose a book to while away the hours it will only be after a censor has carefully examined it for cover to cover and meets the approval of the women of the W. C. T. U. For it has come to pass that the Pasadena public library has been found to contain such terrible works as those written by Marie Corell. "Three Weeks" has been tucked so far away on the topmost shelf that it would take Elinor Glynn that length of time to find it. To the trunk heap with "The Sorrows of Satan" and works of a kindred nature.

SON OF MILLIONAIRE BECOMES CANDIDATE FOR MAYOR
ROY JONES ENTERS CONTEST
Fourth Man in Race is Wealthy, Popular and Successful in Business Affairs—Others Will Withdraw

SANTA MONICA, Oct. 27.—The three candidates for mayor—Lindsey, Dudley and Dollar—got a hard jolt today when Roy Jones came out and announced that he would make a campaign for the place himself. It was a genuine surprise to most politicians of the city, as Jones had not heretofore given them the least inkling of his intention to become a candidate. Whether there will be other candidates is a matter of conjecture. If others are thinking of trying out for mayor they will have to get their petitions circulated and filed with the city clerk before November 7, when the time allowed by law expires.
