ALASKA EXCELS WITH WIRELESS STATIONS IN ARCTIC COUNTRY ARE EFFICIENT SYSTEM IS MOST REMARKABLE IN WORLD Officer in Charge of Construction of Telegraph Without Wires Says More Offices Will Be Put in Frigid Zone

GIRL Baffles NIGHT RIDERS SLENDER MISS ROUTS FORTY MASKED BANDITS USES DOUBLE-BARRELED GUN WITH GOOD EFFECT Mob Goes to Home of Kentuckian to Whip Him, and Is Quickly Dispersed by Heroic Daughter

SEATTLE, Oct. 28.—Lieutenant E. A. Jeune, Thirteenth United States Infantry, who is in charge of the construction of government wireless telegraph station in the interior of Alaska, is in Seattle for the winter. In discussing the conditions and progress of the wireless system in Alaska, he says: "The wireless stations at Nome, Fort Gibbon, Fort Egbert, Circle City and Fairbanks, erected last year, are now in such efficient condition the system can be considered the most remarkable inland system in the world. These stations for their power have been obtaining results not before secured by any other inland system. The work is continuous and signals are such that all operators copy business directly from the receivers to the typewriter. "The Nome station has received and copied messages from Pacific coast station, the best record being from the Point Loma navy wireless station between 3000 and 4000 miles distant. "Recommendations have been made already for new stations at Fort Yukon and Holy Cross Mission. A movement is on foot to establish a station at Nulato. The Nulato station would be the means of communication with the Inokok and Iditerod districts, a telephone line now being built with Nome capital. A wireless station probably will be erected at Gulkana, on the Valdez and Fairbanks trail. It is probable all of the commercial or government business of Alaska west of Fort Gibbon from there to Nome and the goldfields in the Inokok county will be cared for by means of wireless stations which will cause the abandonment of a considerable portion of land telegraph lines."

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 28.—A slender girl armed with a double-barreled shotgun put to flight forty masked night riders when they crushed down the door of her father's house last night in Mason county. The mob appeared at the home of George Kretz, evidently with the intention of whipping him, and when entrance was refused the door was knocked in with an ax and crowbar. Kretz' daughter stood ready with a shotgun and fired both barrels. Kretz recognized several riders. Before appearing at the Kretz home the riders went to the home of a neighbor, Benjamin Longnecker, and shot through the windows, several bullets narrowly missing members of the family. Longnecker is wealthy. He and Kretz had sold their crops to independent buyers and had refused to enter the pool of the Burley Tobacco society.

SUFFRAGETTES FAVOR FORCE

IOWA CONVENTION SUPPORTS VIOLENT TACTICS DAY FOR PASSIVE MEASURES DECLARED PAST

Delegates at Des Moines Adopt Measure Urging Militant Crusade to Get Equal Rights with Men [By Associated Press] DES MOINES, Iowa, Oct. 28.—The Iowa Equal Suffrage association today adopted resolutions favoring the methods adopted by the suffragettes of England. "The day for passive methods are past," declared the president, Rev. Eleanor Gordon of Des Moines. "I am for adopting more radical methods. "And I," she said, "have the right, if a Hallam, would go to jail for the suffragette cause. But if I were arrested I would resist the officer to the last."

Have Progressed "We have progressed for thirty years along conservative lines and have not made any headway. There is any fight left in us let us fight. "Imprisonment would be child's play to the humiliation of going back to the legislature in another year and asking for the rights of suffrage. All we need is the material, a good lawyer and money. There is a point where patience ceases to be a virtue. "When the legislature refuses to consider our bill we can talk. Not all of us need talk at once, but one woman can block the legislature until she is put out and then another can take her place. "This is not an invasion upon the legislature, but it is our purpose to see that we have our rights. I will make no further effort to find him and will regard him as dead."

DENNIS FOUND, BUT MYSTERY IS DEEPER

(Continued from Page One) in her eyes she explained in a broken voice that she knew of nothing that would cause her husband to depart. "It is a closed incident with me now," she said as she handed the letter to Under Sheriff Braine. "I will make no further effort to find him and will regard him as dead." Frank H. Dennis, only brother of the missing man, was also positive in his statement that he knew of no hidden secret held by his brother. "It is a mystery to me why he should go; I cannot understand his motive, he said. "His home life was happy, his financial condition good. Nothing occurred that would mar my brother's life, so far as I am aware, prior to the coming of the family to Los Angeles from Salt Lake City more than seven years ago." Mr. Dennis added his brother was never married before, and a search of the records at the county clerk's office revealed the fact that no divorce proceedings being found or a marriage license prior to the one issued when he wedded Mrs. Mary Donaldson, March 4, 1899. But a search of these records also disclosed a discrepancy in the statement made by Mr. Dennis that the family came to Los Angeles only eleven years ago. This was in the local superior court on behalf of Willard W. Dennis for the appointment of J. M. Harvey of Salt Lake City as guardian for the purpose of bringing suit to quiet title to a lot in the San Pasqual tract owned by Dennis' father, Charles J. Dennis. This record also revealed the fact that the father was in California as early as 1881, dying in Los Angeles December 2 of that year.

CHIEF OF POLICE CUTS OUT 496 SOFT BERTHS

Head of Department of Safety in Chicago Abolishes Offices for Men on Special Detail CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Police Chief Stewart has abolished 496 "soft berths" during his two months in office, according to the figures compiled yesterday by the chief's secretary. That means that the numerical strength of patrolmen traveling beats has been increased by 27.2 per cent. When Colonel Stewart took office there were 3809 patrolmen, of whom only 1825 were traveling post—the duty for which they were employed and are paid. The others were on "special detail," and that in many instances is another term for "snap jobs" for the policemen. The chief has recalled 496 of these men on special detail.

Donates Million Dollars to Help Suffrage Cause

LADY COOK, the Tennessee Clafin of thirty-seven years ago, who went with her sister, Victoria Woodhull, to Ludlow street jail for cause of woman suffrage, is chief sponsor for Mrs. Pankhurst, the English leader now in this country, and they are planning a crusade that is destined to cut a figure in the news of the next few months if not in the political world itself. Lady Cook soon after her arrival with Mrs. Pankhurst took the militant Englishwoman to Ludlow street jail and showed her where she and her famous sister were locked up. Lady Cook said there were so many charges against them that they could not give bond on all and had to stay in the prison six weeks. Lady Cook has announced that she will contribute a million dollars for the cause of equal suffrage in the United States.

SURVIVORS TELL OF EXPERIENCES

MEN WHO ESCAPED HESTIA'S WRECK ARRIVE THIRTY-FIVE KNOWN TO HAVE BEEN DROWNED Donaldson Liner Reported to Have Been Scotchmen All but Two of Victims of Ill-Fated Men Million Acres Declared Withdrawn from Farmers and Donated to Small Band of Canadian Indians

(By Associated Press.) EASTPORT, Me., Oct. 28.—The first information received direct from the six survivors of the wrecked steamer Hestia was brought here today. The stories of the survivors determined definitely that the crew of the Hestia consisted of thirty-seven men, including Capt. H. M. Newman. There were four passengers on board. All members of the crew, with two exceptions, were Scotchmen. Two of the passengers were twin brothers, Roy and Jack Galloway, who were on their way from their home in Glasgow to Richmond, Va., to join their father. The third passenger was a horse man, who was accompanying the ship when a Hibernian captained. The boy was heard to cry: "Mother, I am drowning. Save me!" It is believed that eight other persons were drowned at the same time. Along the Nova Scotia coast of the Bay of Fundy little groups of fishermen and others kept a vigilant watch today for bodies from the steamer Hestia, wrecked on the ledges of Grand Manan Island, across the bay. The bodies of four victims had been cast up in two lifeboats by wind and tide when the search was resumed today. Forty-one persons are known to have been on the Hestia when she struck on the ledge, and as six of these were rescued, the dead and missing number thirty-five.
