Did you see that fellow waving his hat on the track at the auto races yesterday? My, but he was the cheery one! Everybody thought he was the owner of all the cars that would make their mark, BUT HE WASN'T He was prominent before the race but conspicuous for his absence after the cars scored. HE WAS THE AGENT FOR A LOSER Bluff didn't count when it came to the merits of the different cars. He will be in the last row in the "bull ring" today, with nothing to say. It is ever thus with the boaster, the smug, complacent hot-air people. It never wins. The man that plugs along, making a little advance each day, is the fellow to watch. Look over the Los Angeles papers and note the one that has made the greatest advancement in the past six months. After satisfying your curiosity it will be up to you to use that paper as your silent salesman.
