

ARREST LEADER OF CAR STRIKE IN QUAKER CITY

National Organizer Pratt Accused of Conspiracy to Incite Riot

CONFLICTS CONTINUE

100,000 Union Men Threaten to Walk Out in Sympathy

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 21.—The police at the city hall tonight refused to recognize a discharge issued by Magistrate Gorman for C. O. Pratt, before whom friends of the strike leader had entered bail in the sum of $1000. Pratt will be obliged to remain in a cell all night. It is reported warrants have also been issued for John M. Murphy, president of the Central Labor union, and Peter Gricom, head of the local carmen's union.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 21.—Police officials took the initiative tonight in the war being waged between the striking carmen and the officials of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit company when they arrested Clarence O. Pratt, the national organizer of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employees on a warrant charging him with "conspiring to incite to riot."

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 21.—Police officers took the initiative tonight in the war being waged between the striking carmen and the officials of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit company when they arrested Clarence O. Pratt, the national organizer of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employees on a warrant charging him with "conspiring to incite to riot."

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 21.—Police officers took the initiative tonight in the war being waged between the striking carmen and the officials of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit company when they arrested Clarence O. Pratt, the national organizer of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employees on a warrant charging him with "conspiring to incite to riot."

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 21.—Police officers took the initiative tonight in the war being waged between the striking carmen and the officials of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit company when they arrested Clarence O. Pratt, the national organizer of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employees on a warrant charging him with "conspiring to incite to riot."

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 21.—Police officers took the initiative tonight in the war being waged between the striking carmen and the officials of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit company when they arrested Clarence O. Pratt, the national organizer of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employees on a warrant charging him with "conspiring to incite to riot."

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 21.—Police officers took the initiative tonight in the war being waged between the striking carmen and the officials of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit company when they arrested Clarence O. Pratt, the national organizer of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employees on a warrant charging him with "conspiring to incite to riot."

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 21.—Police officers took the initiative tonight in the war being waged between the striking carmen and the officials of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit company when they arrested Clarence O. Pratt, the national organizer of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employees on a warrant charging him with "conspiring to incite to riot."

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 21.—Police officers took the initiative tonight in the war being waged between the striking carmen and the officials of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit company when they arrested Clarence O. Pratt, the national organizer of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employees on a warrant charging him with "conspiring to incite to riot."

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 21.—Police officers took the initiative tonight in the war being waged between the striking carmen and the officials of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit company when they arrested Clarence O. Pratt, the national organizer of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employees on a warrant charging him with "conspiring to incite to riot."

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 21.—Police officers took the initiative tonight in the war being waged between the striking carmen and the officials of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit company when they arrested Clarence O. Pratt, the national organizer of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employees on a warrant charging him with "conspiring to incite to riot."

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 21.—Police officers took the initiative tonight in the war being waged between the striking carmen and the officials of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit company when they arrested Clarence O. Pratt, the national organizer of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employees on a warrant charging him with "conspiring to incite to riot."

INDEX OF HERALD'S NEWS TODAY

FORECAST For Los Angeles and vicinity: Light north winds, changing to south. Maximum temperature yesterday 57 degrees, minimum 46 degrees.

LOS ANGELES

Mother of stolen babe sues head of maternity home. PAGE 5 Woman receives rent for house she has abandoned, in testimony given in suit. PAGE 5 Woman aged 73 wants to sue man for breach of promise. PAGE 1 Los Angeles will celebrate Washington's birthday in gala style. PAGE 3 Clubman brooding over domestic trouble takes his life. PAGE 3 Woman suffering loss of eyesight commits suicide in hotel. PAGE 3 Trolley lines are gritled for speeding. PAGE 3 Business men respond heartily to Y. M. C. A. plea to become members. PAGE 3 Government engineer completes surveys of two Los Angeles rivers. PAGE 3 Kohler street has mad wildcat hunt. PAGE 3 Former Governor Pardee declares he will support Hiram Johnson at the coming state election. PAGE 3 $500 corporations fail to obey provisions of federal tax law; only seven days open now. PAGE 3 Chaplin brothers sentenced to 9 months in county jail and fine of $1000 each for land frauds. PAGE 3 Pupils of West Glendale school form an aero club. PAGE 3 H. Leslie Harris, charged with rifling safe, says he only took his money. PAGE 3 Council board to grant franchise for street cars on Ann and Alpine streets. PAGE 3 Washington's birthday exercises held at Polytechnic. PAGE 3 Tickets all taken for annual dinner of Y. M. C. A. PAGE 3 W. N. Crandall awarded contract for construction of county highway from Toluck to Hollywood. PAGE 3 Secretary of harbor commission discusses importance of shipping industry to Los Angeles. PAGE 3 Business men by the score are joining Y. M. C. A. PAGE 3 Yuma homeseekers fleeced by "locators" is charge made by men in line. Editorial, Letter Box, Haskin's letter. PAGE 4 Officers nab fourteen Chinese that were being smuggled in from Mexico. PAGE 4 Marriage licenses, births, deaths. PAGE 5 News of the courts. PAGE 5 Municipal affairs. PAGE 5 Markets and financial. PAGE 12 Society and music. PAGE 14 Theaters and dramatic criticism. PAGE 14 Automobiles. PAGE 14 Sports. PAGE 14 Building permits. PAGE 14 City brevities. PAGE 14 Classified advertising. PAGE 14-15 Women's clubs. PAGE 16 Shipping. PAGE 12

PHILADELPHIA

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 21.—Police officials took the initiative tonight in the war being waged between the striking carmen and the officials of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit company when they arrested Clarence O. Pratt, the national organizer of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employees on a warrant charging him with "conspiring to incite to riot."

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 21.—Police officials took the initiative tonight in the war being waged between the striking carmen and the officials of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit company when they arrested Clarence O. Pratt, the national organizer of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employees on a warrant charging him with "conspiring to incite to riot."

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 21.—Police officials took the initiative tonight in the war being waged between the striking carmen and the officials of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit company when they arrested Clarence O. Pratt, the national organizer of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employees on a warrant charging him with "conspiring to incite to riot."

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 21.—Police officials took the initiative tonight in the war being waged between the striking carmen and the officials of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit company when they arrested Clarence O. Pratt, the national organizer of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employees on a warrant charging him with "conspiring to incite to riot."

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 21.—Police officials took the initiative tonight in the war being waged between the striking carmen and the officials of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit company when they arrested Clarence O. Pratt, the national organizer of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employees on a warrant charging him with "conspiring to incite to riot."

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 21.—Police officials took the initiative tonight in the war being waged between the striking carmen and the officials of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit company when they arrested Clarence O. Pratt, the national organizer of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employees on a warrant charging him with "conspiring to incite to riot."

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 21.—Police officials took the initiative tonight in the war being waged between the striking carmen and the officials of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit company when they arrested Clarence O. Pratt, the national organizer of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employees on a warrant charging him with "conspiring to incite to riot."

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 21.—Police officials took the initiative tonight in the war being waged between the striking carmen and the officials of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit company when they arrested Clarence O. Pratt, the national organizer of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employees on a warrant charging him with "conspiring to incite to riot."

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 21.—Police officials took the initiative tonight in the war being waged between the striking carmen and the officials of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit company when they arrested Clarence O. Pratt, the national organizer of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employees on a warrant charging him with "conspiring to incite to riot."

COAL CARRYING ROADS ACCUSED OF CONSPIRACY

Stifling Trade in Anthracite Fields of Pennsylvania Is Charge

TRUST LAWS BROKEN

Seven Companies Alleged to Have Combined to Kill Competition

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 21.—Standing in the United States circuit court five hours today, James C. McReynolds, special assistant to the attorney general, unfolded the alleged iniquities of the so-called anthracite coal trust, and charged that seven of the nine coal-carrying railroads entering the hard coal fields of Pennsylvania are in a conspiracy to stifle trade.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 21.—Standing in the United States circuit court five hours today, James C. McReynolds, special assistant to the attorney general, unfolded the alleged iniquities of the so-called anthracite coal trust, and charged that seven of the nine coal-carrying railroads entering the hard coal fields of Pennsylvania are in a conspiracy to stifle trade.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 21.—Standing in the United States circuit court five hours today, James C. McReynolds, special assistant to the attorney general, unfolded the alleged iniquities of the so-called anthracite coal trust, and charged that seven of the nine coal-carrying railroads entering the hard coal fields of Pennsylvania are in a conspiracy to stifle trade.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 21.—Standing in the United States circuit court five hours today, James C. McReynolds, special assistant to the attorney general, unfolded the alleged iniquities of the so-called anthracite coal trust, and charged that seven of the nine coal-carrying railroads entering the hard coal fields of Pennsylvania are in a conspiracy to stifle trade.

SCANDAL IN NEW YORK GROWING

Chairman of State Democratic Committee Hints That He Will Tell How Much Judge's Ship Brought

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—William J. Conners, chairman of the Democratic state committee, fighting for his political life against those who are trying to oust him as chairman, announced tonight he stands ready to testify at Albany at the proposed investigation of the charges that places on the supreme court bench of the state have been "auctioned off" in Greater New York.

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—William J. Conners, chairman of the Democratic state committee, fighting for his political life against those who are trying to oust him as chairman, announced tonight he stands ready to testify at Albany at the proposed investigation of the charges that places on the supreme court bench of the state have been "auctioned off" in Greater New York.

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—William J. Conners, chairman of the Democratic state committee, fighting for his political life against those who are trying to oust him as chairman, announced tonight he stands ready to testify at Albany at the proposed investigation of the charges that places on the supreme court bench of the state have been "auctioned off" in Greater New York.

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—William J. Conners, chairman of the Democratic state committee, fighting for his political life against those who are trying to oust him as chairman, announced tonight he stands ready to testify at Albany at the proposed investigation of the charges that places on the supreme court bench of the state have been "auctioned off" in Greater New York.

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—William J. Conners, chairman of the Democratic state committee, fighting for his political life against those who are trying to oust him as chairman, announced tonight he stands ready to testify at Albany at the proposed investigation of the charges that places on the supreme court bench of the state have been "auctioned off" in Greater New York.

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—William J. Conners, chairman of the Democratic state committee, fighting for his political life against those who are trying to oust him as chairman, announced tonight he stands ready to testify at Albany at the proposed investigation of the charges that places on the supreme court bench of the state have been "auctioned off" in Greater New York.

Committee of Three Which Will Lead the Fight for Lands in Behalf of Yuma Line

LEFT TO RIGHT—C. C. CLARK, DAN ORRILL, C. R. BUNKER

OFFICERS NAB 14 CHINESE IN CAR

FOIL EFFORT TO SMUGGLE CELESTIALS

Thomas Montez Arrested on Charge of Attempting to Bring in Orientals from Mexico

Fourteen Chinese, rudely awakened from their repose in a sealed box car of the Southern Pacific railway at River station late Sunday night, were confined in the county jail charged with being smuggled into the United States from across the Mexican border line.

Fourteen Chinese, rudely awakened from their repose in a sealed box car of the Southern Pacific railway at River station late Sunday night, were confined in the county jail charged with being smuggled into the United States from across the Mexican border line.

Fourteen Chinese, rudely awakened from their repose in a sealed box car of the Southern Pacific railway at River station late Sunday night, were confined in the county jail charged with being smuggled into the United States from across the Mexican border line.

Fourteen Chinese, rudely awakened from their repose in a sealed box car of the Southern Pacific railway at River station late Sunday night, were confined in the county jail charged with being smuggled into the United States from across the Mexican border line.

Fourteen Chinese, rudely awakened from their repose in a sealed box car of the Southern Pacific railway at River station late Sunday night, were confined in the county jail charged with being smuggled into the United States from across the Mexican border line.

Fourteen Chinese, rudely awakened from their repose in a sealed box car of the Southern Pacific railway at River station late Sunday night, were confined in the county jail charged with being smuggled into the United States from across the Mexican border line.

Fourteen Chinese, rudely awakened from their repose in a sealed box car of the Southern Pacific railway at River station late Sunday night, were confined in the county jail charged with being smuggled into the United States from across the Mexican border line.

Fourteen Chinese, rudely awakened from their repose in a sealed box car of the Southern Pacific railway at River station late Sunday night, were confined in the county jail charged with being smuggled into the United States from across the Mexican border line.

WOMAN, 73, MAY SUE HER SUITOR, 60, FOR BREACH OF PROMISE

SAYS HE COAXED HER HENS TO LAY EGGS FOR HIM

MRS. EBERSON BELIEVES THOMPSON DID NOT INTEND TO MARRY HER AND SHE WANTS ALL OF HIS MONEY

When Mrs. Angeline Eberson, 73 years of age, and William K. Thompson, 60, halted at the entrance to the court house Saturday afternoon only to find the doors locked on account of the usual half holiday, a condition was brought about that may lead to the filing of a suit for breach of promise and a demand by the woman for all the money that has been saved by the man during several years as proprietor of a fruit stand.

When Mrs. Angeline Eberson, 73 years of age, and William K. Thompson, 60, halted at the entrance to the court house Saturday afternoon only to find the doors locked on account of the usual half holiday, a condition was brought about that may lead to the filing of a suit for breach of promise and a demand by the woman for all the money that has been saved by the man during several years as proprietor of a fruit stand.

When Mrs. Angeline Eberson, 73 years of age, and William K. Thompson, 60, halted at the entrance to the court house Saturday afternoon only to find the doors locked on account of the usual half holiday, a condition was brought about that may lead to the filing of a suit for breach of promise and a demand by the woman for all the money that has been saved by the man during several years as proprietor of a fruit stand.

When Mrs. Angeline Eberson, 73 years of age, and William K. Thompson, 60, halted at the entrance to the court house Saturday afternoon only to find the doors locked on account of the usual half holiday, a condition was brought about that may lead to the filing of a suit for breach of promise and a demand by the woman for all the money that has been saved by the man during several years as proprietor of a fruit stand.

When Mrs. Angeline Eberson, 73 years of age, and William K. Thompson, 60, halted at the entrance to the court house Saturday afternoon only to find the doors locked on account of the usual half holiday, a condition was brought about that may lead to the filing of a suit for breach of promise and a demand by the woman for all the money that has been saved by the man during several years as proprietor of a fruit stand.

When Mrs. Angeline Eberson, 73 years of age, and William K. Thompson, 60, halted at the entrance to the court house Saturday afternoon only to find the doors locked on account of the usual half holiday, a condition was brought about that may lead to the filing of a suit for breach of promise and a demand by the woman for all the money that has been saved by the man during several years as proprietor of a fruit stand.

When Mrs. Angeline Eberson, 73 years of age, and William K. Thompson, 60, halted at the entrance to the court house Saturday afternoon only to find the doors locked on account of the usual half holiday, a condition was brought about that may lead to the filing of a suit for breach of promise and a demand by the woman for all the money that has been saved by the man during several years as proprietor of a fruit stand.

When Mrs. Angeline Eberson, 73 years of age, and William K. Thompson, 60, halted at the entrance to the court house Saturday afternoon only to find the doors locked on account of the usual half holiday, a condition was brought about that may lead to the filing of a suit for breach of promise and a demand by the woman for all the money that has been saved by the man during several years as proprietor of a fruit stand.

When Mrs. Angeline Eberson, 73 years of age, and William K. Thompson, 60, halted at the entrance to the court house Saturday afternoon only to find the doors locked on account of the usual half holiday, a condition was brought about that may lead to the filing of a suit for breach of promise and a demand by the woman for all the money that has been saved by the man during several years as proprietor of a fruit stand.

When Mrs. Angeline Eberson, 73 years of age, and William K. Thompson, 60, halted at the entrance to the court house Saturday afternoon only to find the doors locked on account of the usual half holiday, a condition was brought about that may lead to the filing of a suit for breach of promise and a demand by the woman for all the money that has been saved by the man during several years as proprietor of a fruit stand.

When Mrs. Angeline Eberson, 73 years of age, and William K. Thompson, 60, halted at the entrance to the court house Saturday afternoon only to find the doors locked on account of the usual half holiday, a condition was brought about that may lead to the filing of a suit for breach of promise and a demand by the woman for all the money that has been saved by the man during several years as proprietor of a fruit stand.

ATTACK FATAL TO JACKSON GORAUD

FAMOUS NEW YORK CLUBMAN IS STRICKEN

ACUTE TONSILLITIS CAUSES DEATH OF HUSBAND OF FORMER AIMEE CROCKER OF SAN FRANCISCO

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—Jackson Goraud, husband of the former Miss Aimee Crocker of San Francisco, theatrical "first nighter," clubman and man about town, died suddenly today.

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—Jackson Goraud, husband of the former Miss Aimee Crocker of San Francisco, theatrical "first nighter," clubman and man about town, died suddenly today.

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—Jackson Goraud, husband of the former Miss Aimee Crocker of San Francisco, theatrical "first nighter," clubman and man about town, died suddenly today.

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—Jackson Goraud, husband of the former Miss Aimee Crocker of San Francisco, theatrical "first nighter," clubman and man about town, died suddenly today.

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—Jackson Goraud, husband of the former Miss Aimee Crocker of San Francisco, theatrical "first nighter," clubman and man about town, died suddenly today.

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—Jackson Goraud, husband of the former Miss Aimee Crocker of San Francisco, theatrical "first nighter," clubman and man about town, died suddenly today.

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—Jackson Goraud, husband of the former Miss Aimee Crocker of San Francisco, theatrical "first nighter," clubman and man about town, died suddenly today.

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—Jackson Goraud, husband of the former Miss Aimee Crocker of San Francisco, theatrical "first nighter," clubman and man about town, died suddenly today.

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—Jackson Goraud, husband of the former Miss Aimee Crocker of San Francisco, theatrical "first nighter," clubman and man about town, died suddenly today.

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—Jackson Goraud, husband of the former Miss Aimee Crocker of San Francisco, theatrical "first nighter," clubman and man about town, died suddenly today.

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—Jackson Goraud, husband of the former Miss Aimee Crocker of San Francisco, theatrical "first nighter," clubman and man about town, died suddenly today.

HOMESEEKERS ARE 'FLEECE' BY 'LOCATORS'

Famous 'Line' Decides to Fight Order Given by Ballinger

NO. 44 IS CANCELED

Ticket Said to Have Been Held by Capt. Dixon Is Destroyed

THAT certain real estate men in Los Angeles who are not overscrupulous planned and executed a coup in which several seekers after farms in the Yuma allotment, residents of Los Angeles, were deftly, if not neatly, defrauded of amounts of money ranging from $30 to $50, possibly more, is the belief of many of the men and women who have determined pluckily to keep their line intact despite the ruling of Secretary of the Interior Ballinger that the line and the police card numbers will not be recognized.

THAT certain real estate men in Los Angeles who are not overscrupulous planned and executed a coup in which several seekers after farms in the Yuma allotment, residents of Los Angeles, were deftly, if not neatly, defrauded of amounts of money ranging from $30 to $50, possibly more, is the belief of many of the men and women who have determined pluckily to keep their line intact despite the ruling of Secretary of the Interior Ballinger that the line and the police card numbers will not be recognized.

THAT certain real estate men in Los Angeles who are not overscrupulous planned and executed a coup in which several seekers after farms in the Yuma allotment, residents of Los Angeles, were deftly, if not neatly, defrauded of amounts of money ranging from $30 to $50, possibly more, is the belief of many of the men and women who have determined pluckily to keep their line intact despite the ruling of Secretary of the Interior Ballinger that the line and the police card numbers will not be recognized.

THAT certain real estate men in Los Angeles who are not overscrupulous planned and executed a coup in which several seekers after farms in the Yuma allotment, residents of Los Angeles, were deftly, if not neatly, defrauded of amounts of money ranging from $30 to $50, possibly more, is the belief of many of the men and women who have determined pluckily to keep their line intact despite the ruling of Secretary of the Interior Ballinger that the line and the police card numbers will not be recognized.

THAT certain real estate men in Los Angeles who are not overscrupulous planned and executed a coup in which several seekers after farms in the Yuma allotment, residents of Los Angeles, were deftly, if not neatly, defrauded of amounts of money ranging from $30 to $50, possibly more, is the belief of many of the men and women who have determined pluckily to keep their line intact despite the ruling of Secretary of the Interior Ballinger that the line and the police card numbers will not be recognized.

THAT certain real estate men in Los Angeles who are not overscrupulous planned and executed a coup in which several seekers after farms in the Yuma allotment, residents of Los Angeles, were deftly, if not neatly, defrauded of amounts of money ranging from $30 to $50, possibly more, is the belief of many of the men and women who have determined pluckily to keep their line intact despite the ruling of Secretary of the Interior Ballinger that the line and the police card numbers will not be recognized.

THAT certain real estate men in Los Angeles who are not overscrupulous planned and executed a coup in which several seekers after farms in the Yuma allotment, residents of Los Angeles, were deftly, if not neatly, defrauded of amounts of money ranging from $30 to $50, possibly more, is the belief of many of the men and women who have determined pluckily to keep their line intact despite the ruling of Secretary of the Interior Ballinger that the line and the police card numbers will not be recognized.

THAT certain real estate men in Los Angeles who are not overscrupulous planned and executed a coup in which several seekers after farms in the Yuma allotment, residents of Los Angeles, were deftly, if not neatly, defrauded of amounts of money ranging from $30 to $50, possibly more, is the belief of many of the men and women who have determined pluckily to keep their line intact despite the ruling of Secretary of the Interior Ballinger that the line and the police card numbers will not be recognized.

THAT certain real estate men in Los Angeles who are not overscrupulous planned and executed a coup in which several seekers after farms in the Yuma allotment, residents of Los Angeles, were deftly, if not neatly, defrauded of amounts of money ranging from $30 to $50, possibly more, is the belief of many of the men and women who have determined pluckily to keep their line intact despite the ruling of Secretary of the Interior Ballinger that the line and the police card numbers will not be recognized.

THAT certain real estate men in Los Angeles who are not overscrupulous planned and executed a coup in which several seekers after farms in the Yuma allotment, residents of Los Angeles, were deftly, if not neatly, defrauded of amounts of money ranging from $30 to $50, possibly more, is the belief of many of the men and women who have determined pluckily to keep their line intact despite the ruling of Secretary of the Interior Ballinger that the line and the police card numbers will not be recognized.

THAT certain real estate men in Los Angeles who are not overscrupulous planned and executed a coup in which several seekers after farms in the Yuma allotment, residents of Los Angeles, were deftly, if not neatly, defrauded of amounts of money ranging from $30 to $50, possibly more, is the belief of many of the men and women who have determined pluckily to keep their line intact despite the ruling of Secretary of the Interior Ballinger that the line and the police card numbers will not be recognized.

DEPUTY NOT NAMED FOR CAIRO KILLING

Coroner's Jury Brings in Verdict That Is Impersonal—One More Militia Company at Riot Scene

CAIRO, Ill., Feb. 21.—No individual deputy sheriff was named in the verdict of the coroner's jury that investigated the death of Alexander Halliday, who was killed in the mob that was seeking the life of John Pratt, the negro purse snatcher, Thursday night.

CAIRO, Ill., Feb. 21.—No individual deputy sheriff was named in the verdict of the coroner's jury that investigated the death of Alexander Halliday, who was killed in the mob that was seeking the life of John Pratt, the negro purse snatcher, Thursday night.

CAIRO, Ill., Feb. 21.—No individual deputy sheriff was named in the verdict of the coroner's jury that investigated the death of Alexander Halliday, who was killed in the mob that was seeking the life of John Pratt, the negro purse snatcher, Thursday night.

CAIRO, Ill., Feb. 21.—No individual deputy sheriff was named in the verdict of the coroner's jury that investigated the death of Alexander Halliday, who was killed in the mob that was seeking the life of John Pratt, the negro purse snatcher, Thursday night.

CAIRO, Ill., Feb. 21.—No individual deputy sheriff was named in the verdict of the coroner's jury that investigated the death of Alexander Halliday, who was killed in the mob that was seeking the life of John Pratt, the negro purse snatcher, Thursday night.

CAIRO, Ill., Feb. 21.—No individual deputy sheriff was named in the verdict of the coroner's jury that investigated the death of Alexander Halliday, who was killed in the mob that was seeking the life of John Pratt, the negro purse snatcher, Thursday night.

CANADIAN WAGE IS NOT SATISFACTORY

BALTIMORE, Feb. 21.—President Garretson of the Order of Railroad Conductors and President Lee of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen today affirmed the correctness of a New York dispatch and contradicted the statements of the railroad officials contained in a dispatch from Montreal regarding revision of wages on the Canadian lines.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 21.—President Garretson of the Order of Railroad Conductors and President Lee of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen today affirmed the correctness of a New York dispatch and contradicted the statements of the railroad officials contained in a dispatch from Montreal regarding revision of wages on the Canadian lines.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 21.—President Garretson of the Order of Railroad Conductors and President Lee of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen today affirmed the correctness of a New York dispatch and contradicted the statements of the railroad officials contained in a dispatch from Montreal regarding revision of wages on the Canadian lines.

DIME NOVEL YOUTHS BUILD SUBTERRANEAN RENDEZVOUS

Police in Denver 'Discover Series of Caves Where Boys Feast on Stolen Poultry'

DENVER, Feb. 21.—Denver police this afternoon discovered a system of caves extending under almost half of a vacant block that had been the rendezvous, as they believe, of a large gang of boys of dime-novel ambitions. The discovery followed the loss by residents of the neighborhood of poultry and other property. In the caves were found evidences that the boys had been feeding on roast chicken. The police assert that many of the boys in the gang belong to well-to-do families in the neighborhood. No arrests were made.

DENVER, Feb. 21.—Denver police this afternoon discovered a system of caves extending under almost half of a vacant block that had been the rendezvous, as they believe, of a large gang of boys of dime-novel ambitions. The discovery followed the loss by residents of the neighborhood of poultry and other property. In the caves were found evidences that the boys had been feeding on roast chicken. The police assert that many of the boys in the gang belong to well-to-do families in the neighborhood. No arrests were made.

MRS. BATONYI OBTAINS FINAL DIVORCE DECREE

Daughter of New York Millionaire Allowed to Resume Name of Former Husband

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—What is presumably the last chapter in the marital drama of Mrs. Frances Burke-Batonyi was written today by Justice McCall when he signed the final decree of divorce separating the woman from her last husband, Aurel Batonyi.

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—What is presumably the last chapter in the marital drama of Mrs. Frances Burke-Batonyi was written today by Justice McCall when he signed the final decree of divorce separating the woman from her last husband, Aurel Batonyi.

CLARK WINS $100,000 CASE IN THE COURT OF APPEALS

Federal Judges Decide That, as Rosario Company Could Give No Title, He Was Exempted

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 21.—Declaring that no court of equity would enforce the specific performance of the contract, a federal states circuit court of appeals today reversed the decision of the circuit court which awarded $100,000 damages to the Rosario Mining company for the failure of F. W. Clark and his associates to pay $400,000 for the Rosario mine in Chihuahua, Mex.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 21.—Declaring that no court of equity would enforce the specific performance of the contract, a federal states circuit court of appeals today reversed the decision of the circuit court which awarded $100,000 damages to the Rosario Mining company for the failure of F. W. Clark and his associates to pay $400,000 for the Rosario mine in Chihuahua, Mex.