COMMITTEE PLANS TO BOOST PROJECT RAPID TRANSIT FOR PASADENA IS ITS AIM

President of Enterprise Declares Road Building Will Commence as Soon as Necessary Funds Are Secured

PASADENA, March 27.—President of the board of trade announced late this evening the appointment of the committee of five to boost the Pasadena Rapid Transit project as follows: George P. Cary, chairman; Albert Mercer, Frank Hogan, George P. Ketchikan and B. O. Kendall. The members have all accepted service on the committee, and they have been instructed by President Cary to begin work at once. The committee was authorized by unanimous vote at a special meeting of the board of trade at Hotel Green March 8, following a banquet tendered their members by President Cary at the Pasadena Hotel.

The resolution was introduced by Mr. Cary, who was announced tonight as chairman of the committee, and was approved by a vote of five to one. The committee of five is appointed by the chair from the members of the board of trade to work with Horace M. Dobbins to bring the facts in relation to the Pasadena Rapid Transit company to the attention of the people of this city; a committee that will make known the urgency and the need of such a road; a committee that will be an evidence to the people of this city of the earnest desire of the board of trade to aid in every legitimate way in bringing to successful conclusion the work being carried on by Mr. Dobbins and his associates in building this road between Pasadena and Los Angeles.

This action on the part of the board of trade followed the report of a committee of nine which had been appointed in December to investigate the claims of the Rapid Transit company as to the advantage to accrue from a twelve-mile service between the business centers of Pasadena and Los Angeles and report at the special meeting.

Horace M. Dobbins, president of the Pasadena Rapid Transit company, when asked for an expression on the appointment of the committee, said: "The Rapid Transit company is, of course, very much pleased at the speedy completion of the road, and I shall be glad to meet with the committee and go over the matter as soon as Mr. Cary finds it convenient to get his committee together. It is my hope that the expression thus made of the strong undercurrent of desire for the road."

"There is much that such a committee can do that will tend toward the speedy completion of the road, and I shall be glad to meet with the committee and go over the matter as soon as Mr. Cary finds it convenient to get his committee together. It is my hope that the expression thus made of the strong undercurrent of desire for the road."

LONG BEACH

MOTHER AND CHILD OVERCOME BY GAS

A WATER HEATER NEARLY CLAIMS TWO VICTIMS

LONG BEACH, March 27.—A gas water heater in an airtight bathroom nearly claimed two more victims last night. The cry of a woman as she fell into the hot water to the floor, where both lay unconscious, aroused others in the building and resulted in the victims being discovered in time to save their lives.

Mrs. Elmer Disher and her 7-year-old son were the two who had the close call. Mrs. Disher was bathing her son in a bathroom in an apartment house at 329 East Third street where they reside. The bath was almost over when the little boy was overcome by the fumes of the gas, the oxygen having been burned out of the air. The mother saw the child slip and tried to spring to his feet. Mrs. Disher was so weak herself, however, that she was unable to arise and fell across the tub. After a moment she struggled to her feet, the boy still in her arms, and managed to reach and open the door. As she passed the door she saw the child lying on the floor and the noise of her heavy fall with the boy brought several persons running from their apartments.

Dr. Walter E. Hill of Cedar avenue was called. When he arrived both were still unconscious. They were revived after several minutes. Today they were said to be recovering slowly from the effects of their gas suffocation, but Mrs. Disher is suffering greatly from shock, a result, it is believed, of her fall into the water when she saw the boy yield to the effects of the gas fumes.

The injured man was taken to the Seaside hospital, where medical attention was given him, and the physicians who attended him last night that his injuries would not result fatally.

CHARLES CLUSKER PASSES CENTURY MARK

Helped Organize San Bernardino Lodge at Age of 93—Absent from Ceremonies in Honor

SAN BERNARDINO, March 27.—The Elks of San Bernardino today did honor to Charles C. Clusker, the "Oldest Elk on Earth," whose hundredth birthday was today. Mr. Clusker is a charter member of San Bernardino lodge No. 328, which was organized in this city in 1903. At the time the local lodge was instituted he was 93 years old, and from that time has been the oldest of the lodge.

"Uncle Charlie," as he is known by the Elks of San Bernardino, is now residing in San Diego, he having recently moved to that city. Mr. Clusker should observe his hundredth anniversary in celebration with his brother lodge members in San Bernardino, but the arrangements miscarried.

When the city of San Bernardino observed his hundredth anniversary, at the San Bernardino Valley centennial celebration, Mr. Clusker will join with the pioneers in the event.

BEE TOURISTS WILL BE RETURNED TO UTAH HOME

Stands Sent to San Bernardino for Winter Show Advantages of Climatic Conditions

SAN BERNARDINO, March 27.—Six carloads of bees which have spent the winter in San Bernardino valley are now being prepared for their journey to their native alpine in Utah. The experiment this year of the bee syndicate in bringing a large number of stands to Southern California have proved successful, and it is now said that the transporting of bees, with the season's change, will be started on an extensive scale.

The severe winters of Utah are disastrous to the bees, but it has now been discovered that the bees can be easily and successfully transported to Southern California to escape the snow and ice. The honey fields of southern Utah, where the bees now here make their spring and summer homes, are said to be very productive than those of Southern California in bee feed, making it profitable to transfer the stands yearly.

It is said they are from Redlands.

MANY SAILORS EXHORTED

BY CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR Superintendent of Floating Branch Makes Report Showing Work Accomplished in 15 Months

SAN PEDRO, March 27.—John Makins, superintendent of the Southern California Floating Christian Endeavor association, has issued his report covering the work of the association for the past fifteen months. The report shows that the work of the society is increasing rapidly. During the past three months the average monthly attendance has been 2500, compared with 1200 for the year 1909.

Superintendent Makins urges the importance of securing larger quarters. Two gospel meetings are held each week in a rented room, with an average attendance of fifty. The work is largely confined to sailors, and meetings are held on board ships as well as at the mission. The number of ships visited last year was 96. There were nearly 4000 magazines distributed for sailors to read at sea, 450 gospels and 155 marked testaments. Lodging was given 245 men in distress.

All expenses have been met by subscriptions from individuals and societies interested in the work.
