

HERSOPHORE... DOUBLE STANDARD

Sentiments Expressed at Congress Exercises Meet with Approval

NEEDS OF YOUTH DISCUSSED Speaker Says Boys and Girls Should Know Truths of Physiology

(Special to The Herald.)

LONG BEACH, March 31.—Scores of women in attendance at the Reciprocity day exercises of the California Congress of Mothers, held here today, crowded around Dr. Kate Warring Barrett and Mrs. Hester Griffith in this afternoon to express their approval of the remarks made by these two speakers along the lines of equality of the boy and the girl and the subject of social purity.

"The under world is not a necessary part of any city," Mrs. Griffith, president of the Southern California W. C. T. U., had declared. "Such an idea is monstrous. Laws of nature making such things necessary never were created. Otherwise, our God would not be worthy our worship."

She created a sensation by an emphatic statement that sex physiology should be taught the little boys and girls in the public schools. This was applauded heartily.

"Teach them the truths of sex physiology while they are yet young," she said. "Teach them the truths of sex physiology while they are yet young, and the future parents of children before the age when the subject will bring other thoughts; teach them the facts, and the children will grow up better. It would be the best thing for the race."

DEPLORES DOUBLE STANDARD The teaching of the parents is often improper, she declared, and leads to a double standard of morality, which is frequently responsible for the falling of women. The double standard, she said, she asserted to be untenable and deplorable.

Dr. Barrett's talk, which just preceded Mrs. Griffith's, was a plea for equality in the home.

"The girl does the work in the home," she said, "while the boy is lord of the house. If he works he is paid for his work, but the girl's expense of hiring a man; but the girl drudges on without pay, just because it is a custom to expect it of her. The girl and the boy should be treated equally. The fact that they are not makes it often the case that when the boy becomes a man and a husband he does not treat his wife as he should, and she is unable to assist her with the housework as he should be expected to do when she is incapacitated."

"The man of the house should pay the bills, I believe, but the woman should be able to help out if the man is stricken and made unable to work. I rejoice in the army of women who are making their own way, I believe in equality. We women pay men three times as much for making our garments as we do women, because we make them better. But I believe women, on the other hand, can be just as good lawyers and physicians as men."

GATHERING A NOTABLE ONE The gathering of mothers at this day's congress was notable. A glance over the crowded auditorium of First Congregational church, at Third Street and Cedar Avenue, brought to the eye an impressive sight. Most of the mothers present were well past middle age, and many had the crowns of white hair or silver hair.

The members of the Long Beach District Federation of Parent-Teachers' associations were hosts to Mrs. Myra K. Miller is president of that federation. Mrs. Chalmers Smith, state president, was unable to be present, owing to a death in the state vice president, Mrs. D. K. Trask, represented her.

The members of the committee in charge were Mrs. Catherine Pierce, Wheat, Los Angeles; Mrs. Will R. Schilling, Long Beach; Mrs. Isaac Springer, Pasadena; and Mrs. Harry Stearns, the last named being in charge of the artistic decorating of the meeting place.

Mrs. Catherine Pierce, who was chairman of the day. The morning session opened at 10:15 o'clock, when Mrs. Theta Mae Lynn of Long Beach played an organ prelude. Rev. F. M. Rogers, pastor of the First Christian church, offered an invocation. Mrs. Myra K. Miller sang "A Group of Favorites," and Miss Nixon played a violin solo, and then Mrs. Myra K. Miller extended the greetings of the Long Beach district. Mayor Windham followed with a short address of welcome, in which he indicated his conviction that the work of the federation of mothers was an important and praiseworthy one. Mrs. Trask, state vice president, responded.

PROGRAM OF SHORT TALKS An hour with Long Beach workers followed, five-minute talks being given, as follows: "The Bell Club," Mrs. George Barringer, president of the club; "P. E. D. Our Educational Fund," Mrs. J. A. Rominger; "The D. A. R.," Mrs. J. D. Graham; "W. C. T. U.," Mrs. E. E. Young; "Civic League," Miss Smith; "Civic League," Mrs. E. N. Strong; "Our Schools," Prof. J. D. Graham, superintendent; "Our Associations," Mrs. W. H. Schilling, president of the state vice president; "Parent-Teachers' association of this city."

A vocal solo by Miss Flossie Goldsmith, with Miss Goldsmith playing a violin obligato, concluded the morning session. Adjournment for luncheon then was taken. Luncheon was served in the parlors of the church. A tasty menu was served in appreciable style, on tables beautified with flowers. Mrs. W. F. Roscoe was chairman of the committee in charge of the luncheon, and Mrs. M. K. Miller was toastmistress.

The afternoon session was given over almost entirely to the visiting women. After an instrumental solo by Miss Neilson; an invocation, offered by Rev. H. K. Booth, and a contralto solo by Miss Lucy Wolcott, an "Hour with the State Committee" followed. Five-minute talks were given as follows: "Children's Hospital," Mrs. C. E. Hunter; "Educational," Mrs. L. V. Twining; "Legislation," Mrs. O. Shepard; "Economic," Mrs. H. C. Terrell; "Maternity Cottage," Mrs. A. M. Lord; "Literature," Mrs. O. T. Helpling; and "Playgrounds," Mrs. F. L. Schfield.

EXCELLENT PROGRESS SHOWN These women outlined the work of the various committees along their particular lines, and all reports were so favorable and so indicative of progress and growth, that the speakers frequently with applause.

Musical numbers by Mrs. W. E. Wiseman, soprano, accompanied by Mrs. C. H. Mitchell, and an instrumental solo by Miss Ethel Putnam followed.

Then came Dr. Barrett's address on "The Boy and the Girl," and the discussion by Mrs. Hester Griffith. At 4:10 this afternoon those attending the congress went from the church to Hotel Virginia, led by the state officers, and were guests of Mrs. R. H. Jackson and Mrs. R. H. Mook at a reception in the art gallery. The evening session, also held at the church, combined several features of entertainment. The high school orchestra, a capable organization, led by Edwin Kilpatrick, opened the program with a concert prelude. Mrs. Stanley Howard followed with a vocal solo, "The Boy and the Girl," which Mrs. First M. E. Church offered an invocation, Mrs. Will B. Julien gave a reading and Mrs. Clarence L. Day rendered "The Boy and the Girl."

ARTHUR LETTS HOST AT Y. M. C. A. BANQUET

'Second Aviation Week' Is Celebrated—Membership Increased by Contest

In celebration of the "second aviation week" membership campaign of the Young Men's Christian association, a banquet was held in the association building last night, at which Arthur Letts, president of the association, was the host. Mr. Letts made an address, telling of the work of the association. A. H. Witford, general secretary of the Buffalo Young Men's Christian association, talked of the general work of the associations.

Robert Watchorn, chairman of the membership committee, spoke, after which T. E. Gibbon and Harry Andrews talked of the newspaper work with reference to the affairs of the association.

D. E. Luther, general secretary of the Los Angeles association, made the closing address of the evening, making special reference to the works and needs of the association.

At the meeting the $375 in prizes were awarded to the successful teams of individuals as follows:

Teams—First, Gibbon-Dyas dirigible, T. E. Gibbon and B. R. Dyas, aviators; E. H. Emmert and Frank Cole, pilots, with 174 members, thus winning the $100 prize. Second, the autoplane, L. B. Jones, aviator; R. M. Allan, pilot, with 164 members, winning the $75 prize. Third, Jones' aeroplane, Mattson B. Jones, pilot, with 105 members, drawing the $50 prize. Fourth, the Baker triplane, Arthur G. Baker, aviator; V. S. Martin, pilot, with 70 members, winning the $25 prize.

Individuals—First, George Morrell of Jones' aeroplane, with 36 members, winning $25. Second, M. H. Phillips of the autoplane, with 23 members, winning $10. Third, Frank Heron of the autoplane, with 19 members, winning $15. Fourth, Mattson B. Jones, the aviator of the Jones' aeroplane, with 18 members, winning $10. Fifth, Frank C. Cretcher of the Gibbon-Dyas dirigible, with 14 members, winning $5.

The campaign brought in 942 members, men and boys, which together with 341 extension members, who affiliated with the association, brought the total of new members received up to 1,283.

The membership campaign resulted in a decided increase over the 2988 members enrolled January 1. Although the net membership March 31, after the loss of 1,000 members, the net membership was 4,195, yet the total of 4,437 was reached as a highwater mark at the close of the campaign the last of February.
