

Herald Juniors Demonstrate Skill in Rhyming Contest

FIRST PRIZE

* I once knew a younster named Si,
 * Who very much wanted to fly;
 * Machines he invented,
 * But soon grew contented
 * To wait for his wings till he'd die
 * RUTH ROGERS.
 * Age 12 years; 7th grade, Plaza
 * school, Ventura, Cal.
 * * * * *

HONORABLE MENTION

* I once knew a younster named Si,
 * Who very much wanted to fly;
 * Machines he invented,
 * But soon grew contented
 * To watch Curtiss sail through the * sky. HUGH G. HAMILTON.
 * 1259 East Twenty-seventh street.
 * Ninth street school, grade B8.
 * * * * *

I once knew a younster named Si,
 Who very much wanted to fly;
 Machines he invented,
 But soon was contented
 When he landed so high.
 HAZEL SNYDER.
 Sixth grade, Sawtelle.

I once knew a younster named Si,
 Who very much wanted to fly;
 Machines he invented,
 But soon was contented
 With walking. Please don't ask him why.
 HELEN HOWELL,
 Grade 11, L. A. High.

I once knew a younster named Si,
 Who very much wanted to fly;
 Machines he invented,
 But soon was contented
 When he found he could fly very high.
 FRANK OERTLE.
 2660 Pomeroy avenue; Cromwell street school,
 grade B5; age 10 years.

I once knew a younster named Si,
 Who very much wanted to fly;
 Machines he invented,
 But soon was contented
 He was satisfied to stay on the ground.
 PAULINE OERTLE.
 2660 Pomeroy avenue; Cromwell street school,
 grade B4; age 9.

I once knew a younster named Si,
 Who very much wanted to fly;
 Machines he invented,
 But soon was contented
 For boys weren't made to fly.
 MASTER DANIEL CLARKE.
 240 North Hartford avenue, Hollywood; B5
 grade, Grant school.

I once knew a younster named Si,
 Who very much wanted to fly;
 Machines he invented,
 But soon was contented
 Because he could soar very high.
 LIDA DOAK.
 Age 9; fourth grade, Lincoln school, Riverside; 434 Lemon street.

I once knew a younster named Si,
 Who very much wanted to fly;
 Machines he invented,
 But soon was contented
 And never again did he try.
 HUGH G. HAMILTON.
 1259 East Twenty-seventh street; grade B8.

I once knew a younster named Si,
 Who very much wanted to fly;
 Machines he invented,
 But soon was contented
 To lie quietly down in the cool rye.
 LOGAN BUTLER.
 Santa Paula.

I once knew a younster named Si,
 Who very much wanted to fly;
 Machines he invented,
 But soon was contented
 When he found his machine would fly.
 MARY MORTELL.
 Fifth street school, A6, San Pedro; age 12.

I once knew a younster named Si,
 Who very much wanted to fly;
 Machines he invented,
 But soon was contented
 When he found that not one would fly.
 JESSIE CLAUDINO.
 663 West Thirty-sixth place; Jefferson street school, A4; age 9.

I once knew a younster named Si,
 Who very much wanted to fly;
 Machines he invented,
 But soon was contented
 To invent and let others fly.
 DE LOSS PAUL BROWN.
 Long Beach, grade 4; age 8.

I once knew a younster named Si,
 Who very much wanted to fly;
 Machines he invented,
 But soon was contented
 To wait for the sweet by and by.
 GEORGE E. SAILOR.
 173 East Jefferson street; Thirtieth street
 school, grade B8.

I once knew a younster named Si,
 Who very much wanted to fly;
 Machines he invented,
 But soon was contented
 Resolved he was not ready to die.
 RUTH FAIRBURN.
 Burbank, R. D. No. 1, box 10; Burbank school; grade 6.

I once knew a younster named Si,
 Who very much wanted to fly;
 Machines he invented,
 But soon was contented
 When he found he could ne'er reach the sky.
 ANA M. PELREN.
 1601 East Thirty-third street; Vernon avenue
 school, grade 8.

I once knew a younster named Si,
 Who very much wanted to fly;
 Machines he invented,
 But soon was contented
 Because he couldn't fly very high.
 RUTH NELSON.
 445 Dayton avenue; grade A4; age 10.

I once knew a younster named Si,
 Who very much wanted to fly;
 Machines he invented,
 But soon was contented
 To wait till the sweet by and by.
 CLIFFORD CAMPBELL.
 Lankershim; fourth grade.

I once knew a younster named Si,
 Who very much wanted to fly;
 Machines he invented,
 But soon was contented
 To stay on the ground and not try.
 RUTH NELSON.
 445 Dayton avenue; grade A4.

LIMERICK CONTEST

Two prizes will be given in this contest each week.
 First prize—Choice of school pennant valued at 50 cents from Tufts-Lyon Arms company, or best baseball mitt valued at 50 cents.

Second prize—Fine pearl penknife with two blades, suitable for either boy or girl.

Papers for this contest must be addressed Aunt Laurie, Herald
 Junior, care The Herald, Los Angeles.

Each separate contribution in this contest must be signed with name and address and name of school and grade.

Once a young man named Jim
 Sailed over the seas to Berlin,
 But when he arrived
 He was much surprised

Complete this limerick, making the last line have the same meter as the first two. The finished limerick must reach this office not later than Thursday, April 28, for publication May 8.

"I ought to learn to swim," said May;
 "I'll go to the beach this nice warm day,
 And I'll paddle around,
 Keeping close to the ground,

Complete this limerick, making the last line rhyme with the first two and have the same meter. Limericks for this contest must be received at this office not later than Thursday, May 5, for publication May 15.

HONORABLE MENTION

* I once knew a younster named Si,
 * Who very much wanted to fly;
 * Machines he invented,
 * But soon grew contented
 * To stand and watch others go by.
 * HAZEL PETERSON.
 * Age 12. Grade A5, Twenty-
 * eighth street school; 1176 East
 * Thirty-fourth street, Los Ange* les.
 * * * * *

I once knew a younster named Si,
 Who very much wanted to fly;
 Machines he invented,
 But soon was contented
 When he saw he could fly to the sky.
 BESSIE LUDFORD.
 Long Beach, R. D. No. 1, box 261C; Carroll
 Park school, grade A6; age 11.

I once knew a younster named Si,
 Who very much wanted to fly;
 Machines he invented,
 But soon was contented
 For others with him could not vie.
 HELEN M. FERGUSON.
 3246 Emmett street; grade B10, L. A. high;
 age 15.

I once knew a younster named Si,
 Who very much wanted to fly;
 Machines he invented,
 But soon was contented
 In watching the others fly by.
 STELLA GUESS.
 2241 Lagrande street; Seventh street school, grade A5.

I once knew a younster named Si,
 Who very much wanted to fly;
 Machines he invented,
 But soon was contented
 Because Paulhan with envy did cry.
 ALAN G. FERGUSON.
 3246 Emmett street; East First street school,
 grade A7; age 13.

I once knew a younster named Si,
 Who very much wanted to fly;
 Machines he invented,
 But soon was contented
 To stay far away from the sky.
 H. G. MACE.
 R. D. No. 1, box 305E, H. J. C. 2, Long Beach.

I once knew a younster named Si,
 Who very much wanted to fly;
 Machines he invented,
 But soon was contented
 Because with Paulhan he could vie.
 HELEN G. MACE.
 H. J. C. 2, L. R. H. S., 9 1/2; Long Beach,
 R. D. No. 1, box 305E.

I once knew a younster named Si,
 Who very much wanted to fly;
 Machines he invented,
 But soon was contented
 With one which made Curtiss quite shy.
 HELEN MACE.
 R. D. No. 1, box 305E, Long Beach; H. J.
 C. 2.

HONORABLE MENTION

* I once knew a younster named Si,
 * Who very much wanted to fly;
 * Machines he invented,
 * But soon grew contented
 * To let birds have the use of the * sky.
 * GEO. GARRISON MITCHELL.
 * A7 Sixty-eighth street school, 902
 * West Sixty-fifth street. Box 74,
 * R. F. D. 4.
 * * * * *

I once knew a younster named Si,
 Who very much wanted to fly;
 Machines he invented,
 But soon was contented
 That for money no longer did cry.
 MADE VAN NESS.
 Compton grammar school, grade 7; age 12;
 P. O. box 82.

I once knew a younster named Si,
 Who very much wanted to fly;
 Machines he invented,
 But soon was contented
 When his aeroplane soared through the sky.
 CHARLOTTE FAY.
 Riverside, 674 East Eleventh street; Longfellow school, grade 6; age 13.

I once knew a younster named Si,
 Who very much wanted to fly;
 Machines he invented,
 But soon was contented
 When his aeroplane sailed through the sky.
 CLARE FITZGERALD.
 2051 East Fifth street; St. Mary's school,
 grade A5; age 11.

I once knew a younster named Si,
 Who very much wanted to fly;
 Machines he invented,
 But soon was contented
 For fear he would underground lie.
 GLEN B. RICE.
 920 West Eighty-first street; Manchester avenue school, grade 5; age 10.

I once knew a younster named Si,
 Who very much wanted to fly;
 Machines he invented,
 But soon was contented
 With a machine that couldn't go high.
 GERTRUDE ANDREWS.
 Burnett school, grade B6; age 12; H. J. C.
 No. 2.

I once knew a younster named Si,
 Who very much wanted to fly;
 Machines he invented,
 But soon was contented
 Some simpler invention to try.
 HONOR DENNISON.
 2143 Fargo street, Edendale, L. A.; Logan street school, A7.

I once knew a younster named Si,
 Who very much wanted to fly;
 Machines he invented,
 But soon was contented
 When he found he could fly to the sky.
 GERTRUDE TRYON.
 Atlantic avenue school, Long Beach, grade
 B7; corner Myrtle and Pennsylvania.

SECOND PRIZE

* I once knew a younster named Si,
 * Who very much wanted to fly;
 * Machines he invented,
 * But soon grew contented
 * To travel the sky with his eye.
 * BURTON ROGERS.
 * Age 9 years; 4th grade, Plaza
 * school, Ventura, Cal.
 * * * * *

HONORABLE MENTION

* I once knew a younster named Si,
 * Who very much wanted to fly;
 * Machines he invented,
 * But soon grew contented
 * To send up a kite in the sky.
 * ISADORE BROWN.
 * Age 9; Colegrove school, fourth
 * grade, 611 Manasquan avenue.
 * * * * *

I once knew a younster named Si,
 Who very much wanted to fly;
 Machines he invented,
 But soon was contented
 For in one he could soar so high.
 LELA CAMPBELL.
 Lankershim; age 15.

I once knew a younster named Si,
 Who very much wanted to fly;
 Machines he invented,
 But soon was contented
 When he fell down and blacked his eye.
 EVAINE PELREN.
 1601 East Thirty-third street; Vernon avenue
 school, grade B4.

Jack had a fondness for the sea.
 He bought a yacht, the Nancy Lee.
 When out for a sail,
 Up came such a gale,
 And over went Nancy Lee.
 MASTER DANIEL CLARKE.
 240 North Hartford avenue, Hollywood; B5
 grade, Grant school.

I once knew a younster named Si,
 Who very much wanted to fly;
 Machines he invented,
 But soon was contented
 And all he had to do was try.
 HENRY JENKS.
 Sawtelle school, grade 6.

I once knew a younster named Si,
 Who very much wanted to fly;
 Machines he invented,
 But soon was contented
 Because he did nothing but cry.
 GRACE DAVIS.
 Grade 6.

I once knew a younster named Si,
 Who very much wanted to fly;
 Machines he invented,
 But soon was contented
 After he had had several falls from the sky.
 ELWYN CROSSWHITE.
 Riverside, 169 East Seventh street; Longfellow school, sixth grade; age 12.

I once knew a younster named Si,
 Who very much wanted to fly;
 Machines he invented,
 But soon was contented
 On watching some other boys try.
 ALBERTA O'REILLY.
 Sacred Heart school, grade A4; age 10; 3012
 Manitou avenue.

I once knew a younster named Si,
 Who very much wanted to fly;
 Machines he invented,
 But soon was contented
 In a few days saw him come by.
 NETTIE NEWTON.
 Norwalk; Carmencita school, grade 8.

I once knew a younster named Si,
 Who very much wanted to fly;
 Machines he invented,
 But soon was contented
 But he soon grew blind in his eye.
 LELA NEWTON.
 Norwalk; Carmencita school, grade 4; age 10.

I once knew a younster named Si,
 Who very much wanted to fly;
 Machines he invented,
 But soon was contented
 On dear old Mother Earth to play.
 J. HAZEL KELLER.
 401 Edgeware road; grade B9, Olive high;
 age 14.

I once knew a younster named Si,
 Who very much wanted to fly;
 Machines he invented,
 But soon was contented
 When his mother gave him some pie.
 BESSIE LUDFORD.
 Long Beach, R. D. No. 1, box 261C; Carroll
 Park school, grade A6; age 11.

I once knew a younster named Si,
 Who very much wanted to fly;
 Machines he invented,
 But soon was contented
 When he saw they did not fly very high.
 BESSIE LUDFORD.
 Long Beach, R. D. No. 1, box 261C; Carroll
 Park school, grade A6; age 11.

I once knew a younster named Si,
 Who very much wanted to fly;
 Machines he invented,
 But soon was contented
 Without going into mince pie.
 ROSS HAMMER.
 Grade 4, East Vernon school.

I once knew a younster named Si,
 Who very much wanted to fly;
 Machines he invented,
 But soon was contented
 When he saw his dirigible fly high.
 WILLIE ELLIOTT.
 Avenue 21 school, A3; age 8; 424 South Avenue 20.

I once knew a younster named Si,
 Who very much wanted to fly;
 Machines he invented,
 But soon was contented
 When he found it was no use to try.
 DOROTHY TWEEDY.
 Calabasas; Liberty school, fourth grade.

I once knew a younster named Si,
 Who very much wanted to fly;
 Machines he invented,
 But soon was contented
 Because he could fly to the sky.
 FAYE ARMSTRONG.
 Ontario Central school, grade 7; age 11.

I once knew a younster named Si,
 Who very much wanted to fly;
 Machines he invented,
 But soon was contented
 For he fell and got a black eye.
 Newhall.
 (Continued on Page Six)

