Sedate Body Nearly Riots When
Alva Adams Is Verbally Attacked

SPEAKER MENACED BY GAVEL

Even President Finlayson Shows
Signs of Anger—Guest of Honor Is Victim

JOHN T. POPE, the Garvanza dynamite bomb, narrowly escaped extinction yesterday afternoon. About 2 cents in nickels 200 members of the sedate, dignified City club would have jumped on his neck and stamped the eternal daylight out of him. It needed only President Frank G. Finlayson to give the word, and he was easily mad enough to do it, but he controlled his temper as well as could be expected under the unpleasant circumstances, and for that reason John T. is able to eat his breakfast this morning.

Things were going beautifully at the regular weekly luncheon of the club at the Westminster hotel. Hon. Alva Adams, three times governor of Colorado, had made an address in which he had complimented little old Los Angeles good and plenty and had made a ringing speech on how to be good in politics. He finished and it was time for President Finlayson to get up and say how much obliged the club was for all the nice things Governor Adams had said, when Pope came through with his diversion.

"Mr. President, may I ask the speaker a question?" he inquired. "Certainly," answered Finlayson, blandly.

"I want to know, Mr. Adams, why it was that after you had declared you would not run for governor and Judge Ben Lindsay had been endorsed for governor you suddenly changed your mind, took the nomination and appointed a corporation tool as your campaign manager?"

BLOW YOURSELF—WOMAN
WHISTLERS FORM CLUB
DETROIT, April 30.—Detroit may have a whistlers' club added to its other musical organizations, if the ambitions of Mrs. Mary E. Thomas materialize.

"Most persons who make an art of whistling go merely for bird imitations and grace notes," said Mrs. Thomas. "That is all right of itself, but I want to get whistlers who can learn to whistle by note and who can carry the different parts of a composition. I have had two and three persons together and carried such pieces as the hymn, 'Sowing the Seed.' It works up prettily and shows that there are great possibilities for more pretentious pieces.

"I put an advertisement in the paper asking for whistlers and received some responses; but they are nearly all sopranos. I have one mezzo and am looking for an alto. I know there are many in the city who enjoy whistling, and I think that with a practice together we can form an organization that will be something distinctively new in the musical world. They tell me that it is only a notion and can't be carried out; but I was born in Missouri, and they will have to do more than talk to discourage me."

9 OF 13 COUNCILMANIC
CANDIDATES HOODOOED
Number of Petitions Filed Means Majority Will Not Get
by the Primaries

Hoodoo is written all over the primary nominating election for June 2, for there are thirteen candidates for council who will enter the contest. The time for filing petitions closed yesterday at noon, and when 12 o'clock struck that unlucky number of demands to be put on the ballot were in the hands of the city clerk.

The hope around the city hall is that G. H. Stewart, F. W. Whiffen, Dr. A. D. Houghton and Barney Healy will be the chosen four. Stewart and Whiffen are Good Government proteges, and Doc Houghton and Barney Healy are not. After the primary comes the mighty struggle to elect two of these four to fill the vacancies.

280 Acres of Stanford Property
Forced to Contest

(Special to The Herald.)
SACRAMENTO, Cal., April 30.—Three Chico men have jumped 280 acres of land that for fifty years has been considered part of the Stanford ranch, near Vina. The claims of two of the men for eighty acres each have been sustained by the land office in this city. The third claim has been held up for investigation.

The three claimants are Arthur B. Foster, William J. Baker and W. Morrison. The claims of the first two named have been sustained. The land involved is worth from $100 to $150 an acre, and that awarded to Foster and Baker means a loss to Stanford university, the present owner, of fully $30,000. If Morrison's claim is sustained the loss to the institution will be more than $30,000.

NAMES ARE ON REGISTER

It was first discovered, according to the Tribune, that the register of the southern hotel showed that Robert E. Wilson was there on July 15, 1909, the date on which White declared that Wilson paid him $500 as a bribe for voting for Lorimer. This money, White said, was paid him by Wilson while in a bathroom occupied by Wilson in the hotel.

Solon Tells of Legislative 'Jack
Pot' from Which He Drew
$900 in St. Louis

[Associated Press]
CHICAGO, April 30.—Representative Charles A. White's sworn statement that he received $1000 to cast his vote for William Lorimer for the United States senate and that he also accepted $900 as his share of an alleged legislative "jack pot," met with general denials today.

Browne, alleged by White to have been the distributor of the Lorimer money, arrived here today, as did Senator Lorimer. Browne declared that White had rushed into print because he had failed in an attempt to use the story to secure huge money. Both Browne and Lorimer denied emphatically the use of bribes.

According to Browne, White was formerly a street car conductor at East St. Louis, and later appeared at Springfield as a lobbyist in favor of labor bills. Then he was elected to the lower house.

White in his charges stated that the public might expect to hear him called a blackmailer, but that he was prepared for that; he was willing to suffer ignominy in order to expose the corruption which he declared exists at Springfield.

"Since I became acquainted with White at the last session of the legislature he appealed to me several times for loans, and he was willing to suffer ignominy in order to expose the corruption which he declared exists at Springfield.

White was interviewed by State's Attorney Wayman today, but the latter would not divulge the nature of the talk. White, however, is expected to tell his story to the special grand jury next week.

The Tribune tomorrow will say that in relating his charge White gave the names of four other Democratic members of the legislature who met with him and Representative Robert E. Wilson of Chicago in the Southern hotel at St. Louis, when a portion of the alleged bribe money was paid.

The names mentioned by White are Joseph S. Clark of Vandalla, Michael S. Link of Mitchell, Henry S. Shepherd of Jerseyville and Charles S. Luke of Nashville, all of Illinois. Luke is now dead.
