THE WAY OUT of a SOCIAL DILEMMA

GETTING a fourth hand for "bridge" is only one of a thousand social uses of the Telephone, and Telephone Service promotes sociability and good fellowship because it brings neighbors closer together. Your friends all live within talking distance.

It is the same with your out-of-town friends—the universal service of the Bell System makes them your neighbors, too. Your voice can reach all by means of the Bell Long Distance Service.

BOY SLAYS FATHER WHO GOT HIM HOME BY RUSE

Parent Falls Dead on Doorstep from Bullet Wound

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., May 20.—Victor Walton, aged 18, shot and killed his father last night because the parent tried to force his son to return home to a grief-stricken mother. Young Walton had left home to work in a coal mine. The father went to the boy's boarding house and took his clothes away. When the youth returned for his clothes the father and mother met him on the doorstep. Angered at his father's ruse, the boy shot him dead on the doorstep and inflicted a flesh wound on a brother who tried to interfere. Young Walton is in jail.

TO TEST SPEED ON DRAW; LOSER ACCIDENTALLY SHOT

Negro Seizes Fellow Laborer's Revolver, Discharging It

DENVER, May 20.—In a contest to decide which was the quicker in drawing his gun and "getting the drop," John Albert, a negro laborer, was shot and killed last night by John Young, a fellow laborer. Young had his revolver out and pressed against Albert's breast before the latter had drawn his gun from its holster. Becoming excited, Albert grabbed Young's weapon, causing it to be discharged, the bullet piercing his heart. Young surrendered to the police.

KING'S MEMORIAL DRAWS THOUSANDS

Los Angeles Citizens Crowd Auditorium to Pay Tribute to the Late Monarch

WORK FOR PEACE IS THEME

Speaker Declares Edward VII the Greatest Apostle for Disarmament World Has Known

Citizens of Los Angeles last night paid a remarkable tribute to the memory of King Edward VII, of England, the memorial services in Temple auditorium attracting an audience which filled every seat while several hundred persons stood and other hundreds were refused admission.

A majority of those in attendance were, of course, British born; but in the audience, also, were hundreds who owed no allegiance to the dead king, save the allegiance he won from the world at large, mainly through his championship of peace, a policy which made him, as one speaker declared, "the most successful of our age."

Last night's services were held under the auspices of a committee of former British subjects of which C. White Mortimer, British vice consul, acted as chairman. The auditorium stage was banked with English daises and ivy, the daisy having been King Edward's favorite flower. The flowers, together with American and British flags, were used in decorating.

The program consisted of brief addresses and music, the speakers being Rev. Dr. J. S. Thomson, Judge Curtis D. Wilbur, Rev. E. A. Hecht, Robert Watchorn and Rabbi S. Hecht. Bishop Johnson was unable to be present; and from Bishop Conaty came a letter of regret because of an engagement in San Bernardino.

An unusual feature of the service was the reading by John Alton of a poem written by Mrs. J. D. H. Brown of Santa Monica, author of a similar poem on Queen Victoria, which was read at the memorial meeting held in Los Angeles soon after Victoria's death, nine years ago.

Two main themes were, first, King Edward's successful efforts to promote world-wide peace; and second, the amity, the "Blood-is-thicker-than-water" sentiment, existing between the United States and Great Britain.

Midway in the meeting a collection was taken up, a little less than $400 being realized towards the establishment of a King Edward Memorial fund in the hospital of the Good Samaritan.

The Rev. Dr. J. S. Thomson, first speaker of the evening, took as his subject, "The Peace-maker."

Judge Curtis D. Wilbur, whose topic was "The King From an American Point of View," spoke in similar vein.

Dr. Healey told of attending a memorial meeting for Queen Victoria, held in Los Angeles pro-cathedral, nine years ago. "On that occasion," he said, "a native-born and patriotic American began his address with the words: 'Our queen is dead. So tonight I say to you 'Our king is dead.'" Continuing Dr. Healey spoke in sympathetic words of Queen Alexandra and said that he, as a boy, remembered the day of the Danish princess' wedding to the then prince of Wales. "We were to have had with us tonight," he continued, "a distinguished woman of Los Angeles who was present at that wedding, Mrs. Letts, mother of Arthur Letts, but unfortunately she has been kept at home by an indisposition."

Robert Washington, who said that he, too, could remember that wedding. "As an English school boy," he said, "I marched in a procession in honor of the marriage."

Rabbi Hecht spoke of the king as a humanitarian, saying that he was "kind of thought, kind of word and kind of deed; one of the most popular and beloved sovereigns of whom history has any record."

"As a Jew, speaking for Jews," continued the rabbi, "let me tell you that there are today in the British Isles about 20,000 of my co-religionists, of whom Edward was friend as well as king."

Music was provided by Archibald W. Sessions at the pipe organ, the Philharmonic quartet, Miss Alice Lohr and Miss Carolyn von Benzon, the great audience singing "Nearer My God to Thee" at the opening and "America" at the closing of the services.

NEW BOARDS ELECTED BY M. E. CHURCH, SOUTH

ASHEVILLE, N. C., May 20.—At today's session of the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, south, the committee on education nominated a new board of directors, and the committee on publishing interests named a new publishing board, both of which were elected by the conference. The name of Bishop E. E. Hauss was first on the board of education.

COULDN'T HELP TELLING "Why didn't you keep that secret?" the mainpranger asked the belle of the clock. "Because I simply had to tell the hour," replied the belle in a ringing tone.

HOW ROYALTIES FOLLOWED First file—The duke of Connaught, King George, Emperor William. Second file—King Haakon of Norway,

King George of Greece, King Alfonso of Spain. Third file—King Ferdinand of Bulgaria, King Frederick of Denmark, King Manuel of Portugal. Fourth file—Prince Yusuf Zayed, heir apparent of Turkey; King Albert of Belgium; Archduke Francis Ferdinand, heir to the throne of Austria-Hungary. Fifth file—Prince Sadanaru Fushimi of Japan, Grand Duke Michael of Russia, the duke of Aosta, representing Italy; the duke of Sparta, who is crown prince of Greece, and Crown Prince Ferdinand of Roumania. Sixth file—Prince Henry of Prussia, representing the German navy; Prince Charles of Sweden, Prince Henry of Holland, the duke of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha, crown prince of Montenegro; Crown Prince Alexander of Serbia. Seventh file—Prince Mohammed Ali, Saïd Pasha Zulfikar, Wafsen Pasha of Egypt, the sultan of Zanzibar. Then followed the princely and ducal representatives of a dozen German states, the members of the English royal family, the Duke of Aiencon and Prince Bovaradej of Siam. The mounted group was followed by twelve state carriages.

The first was occupied by the Queen Mother, Alexandra, the Russian Dowager Empress Marie, the princess royal and the Princess Victoria. The second carriage contained Queen Mary of England, Queen Maud of Norway, the duke of Cornwall, heir to the British throne, and Princess Mary. The seventh carriage was occupied by Special American Ambassador Theodore Roosevelt; M. Pichon, French foreign minister, and Saad Khan Montaz Es, sultaneh of Persia. The ninth carriage was occupied by Lord Strathearn, lord high commissioner for Canada; Sir George Reid and William Paul Jones. Arriving at Paddington station, the duke was placed in a funeral car which carried the funeral party to Windsor. The car was occupied by King George, Queen Mary, the Queen Mother, Alexandra, eight other sovereigns and near relatives.

EVIDENCE ALL IN IN THE BALLINGER-PINCHOT CASE

Congressional Inquiry Will Be Brought to Speedy Termination After Arguments

WASHINGTON, May 20.—With all the testimony to be presented before it the Ballinger-Pinchot investigation committee today took steps to bring to a speedy conclusion the congressional inquiry that has been in progress four months. Two days next week—Friday and Saturday—will be allotted to the lawyers to make their closing arguments. Then the public hearings will end and the attorneys will have fifteen days in which to submit briefs, after which the committee will begin executive sessions to weigh evidence. The "prosecution," as the Pinchot side of the controversy is known, began the presentation of evidence on January 26 and concluded March 18. Since that time the committee has been hearing the Ballinger "defense."

Both sides still have opportunity to add to the already bulky record, papers and affidavits of a certain character. Attorney Vertrees, counsel for Ballinger, today put in the agreements between L. R. Glavis and W. W. Barr, a land broker of Seattle, to show Glavis had a pecuniary interest in obtaining timber lands from the government. It was the avowed purpose of the "defense" to show in this matter Glavis used information he obtained while in the employ of the government.

Portions of the testimony at the trial of the Cunningham coal land cases also were presented by Mr. Vertrees, who said it showed Glavis and Special Agent James Knox there was nothing in the charge that the Guggenheims were planning to get control of the Cunningham claims when they took the affidavits of the Cunningham claimants and that Glavis and Jones deceived the claimants.

The attorney also said the testimony bore out the contention made in the Cunningham affidavits prepared by Mr. Ballinger that there was no agreement with the Guggenheims prior to the location of the claims.

MCKINLAY WARNS U. S. OF ASIATIC INVASION

WASHINGTON, May 20.—Contending that the United States had reached a billion-dollar scale of governmental expenditures, Representative Duncan McKinlay of California today in the house defended the appropriations of the present congress and warned America against Asiatic industrial invasion. Mr. McKinlay urged the necessity of protection from Asiatic industrial extension. Japan, he said, was sending cotton to the Pacific coast and American manufacturers were already beginning to lose their markets. He said further that Japan was turning Korea into a vast plantation and had 400,000 cotton operatives working on American machines for from 6 to 10 cents a day.

ARRESTED AS BURGLAR AND HELD FOR MURDER

William Berger Identified in San Francisco as William Perry

SAN FRANCISCO, May 20.—William Berger, who was arrested last night on a charge of burglary, was identified today as William Perry, wanted to answer to the charge of having murdered Michael Donlin, a laborer, who was found in a bunk house near San Bruno several months ago with his skull crushed. One week ago the house of Mrs. Alice Martin was burglarized and a quantity of valuable jewelry stolen. Last night two detectives saw a woman on the street wearing some of the stolen jewelry. They followed her home, where they found Perry, whom they arrested after a desperate battle.
