$20 to $30 Lingerie Dresses

We wanted dozens of them—they are so sheer and dainty and the trimmings are so exquisite—but the quantity was limited—there were no more to be had at any price, so we bought this limited quantity for the White Fair Sale. The women who get them will be most fortunate! No prettier models have ever been shown in this city than are to be found right among these. The most beautiful allover eyelet embroidery is used almost exclusively in some of the models; fine laces and embroideries are put together in effective ways in others. There are all sizes in the lot and your size will be here if you come early.

$15.00 New White Serge Skirts

A sample line that includes both gored and plaited models. Skirts for which there is always a use. Can be used for evening or outing—house or street wear, and always be appropriate. The values range from $9.00 to $20.00. You won't be surprised at this statement when you see them. You'll be surprised, however, at the price for which we will sell them during the White Fair Sale. It will be only $5 and $8.95. 2d Floor.

Smart White Serge Suits

It's a "white serge season," so the Fashion journals say—and we have found it so by the innumerable calls for white serge suits. That we might have a leader in this line for the White Fair Sale, we opened negotiations some time ago with one of the best manufacturing tailors of the East. The result is, that these high-class suits have come in on time—just in time—for yesterday they were unpacked. Quite correct are these silk and satin lined coats—some of which are severely plain, others with touches of silk and Persian. Full plaited skirts give the finishing touches that go to make the snappiest, most up-to-date suit of the season—$15.
