BALK AT COUNCIL'S LIGHTING DEMANDS

Downtown Property Owners Refuse to Pay Seven-Eighths of the Cost

Property owners on Main, Spring, Broadway and Hill streets are preparing to renew their protest against the action of the city council, which recently refused to pay half the cost of lighting those thoroughfares.

"When the Broadway lights were installed, four years ago," said Mr. Blanchard, "the city paid the entire cost of the lights, the property owners, however, paying for the electric lines. It was not thought at that time that we would ever be called upon to pay for electricity, or for any share of it. Subsequently we were asked to pay half the cost and we did so. Now they want us to pay seven-eighths of it, the city paying only one-eighth."

"It isn't right that this burden should be shouldered off on us, and we do not propose to stand it. We must pay. That's all; and if the council persists in its present attitude the downtown streets will not be lighted."

"The downtown streets are used each day and night by practically every taxpayer in the city, and it is only just that the taxpayers should defray at least half the cost of their lighting. These ornamental lights have proved their value to Los Angeles a hundred times over. Tourists when they come here comment on our superb lighting the very first evening they are in town, and when they return home they tell their friends about it. Chicago, Oakland, Denver and other cities have sent official junketing parties here, their expenses paid by the municipalities from which they came, merely to look at our lights."

"Los Angeles today spends less for lighting than any city of its size in the United States, and yet the lights in our downtown district are an important asset, an important feature in the entertainment we must provide for our visitors, else they will cease coming."

"The cost is comparatively small, but it is too heavy to be assessed against property which is highly taxed already."

DEVELOPED SINCE THEN

"Augustus Saint-Gaudens," said a Cornish novelist, "used to illustrate the development of art in America by a story of the past. He said that, in the 49's, a rich Bostonian built a home in the Back Bay. He decided to adorn the lawn with statuary, and, having heard of the Venus de Milo, he wrote to Rome for a replica."

"The Boston man no sooner got it than he won the railroad for $2500 for mutilation. He won the suit, too."—Minneapolis Journal.

STEWART WHIFFEN TICKET INDORSER

Good Government Organization to Give Pair Its Formal Approval

DELEGATES MEET WEDNESDAY

County Committee to Meet This Afternoon to Arrange for Coming Campaign

While confidence was expressed at the Good Government headquarters yesterday concerning the prospects for the election of Frederick J. Whiffen and George H. Stewart to fill the two vacancies in the city council, the organization will take no chances. It will labor to insure their election, as it is realized that on account of the gas, liquor, street railway and electric rate issues there is to be a desperate effort to elect their opponents, Barney Healy and Doc Houghton, the machine candidates nominated in the race against Messrs. Stewart and Whiffen.

"I believe the primary vote that was given to Messrs. Weil, Coulson, Doyle and Van Kuren, as well as the vote received by the Socialist candidates, will go to Messrs. Stewart and Whiffen," said one of the Good Government leaders yesterday, "and the organization will, of course, insure their election if the same vote should be cast at the special election June 30."

SMALL VOTE

"But we must remember that the vote cast last Thursday at the primaries was unprecedentedly small, and we must not run away with the delusion that the push got out its full strength for Healy and Houghton, for that would be a fatal set back. The push was not out with its entire strength, and will make an even more desperate fight at the election June 30 to get Healy and Houghton into the city council, where the telephone and electric rates, aqueduct power plant project, Los Angeles harbor development—involving the vast terminal interests of the railroads—are all incalculably important matters to these corporations, and they are as watchful as hungry cats for every opportunity to trench in public office those men on whom they rely for their support."

CRITICAL PERIOD

"This next election will be a critical period in our present history, and it is to be hoped that the decent citizens of Los Angeles will show enough interest in and loyalty to their city to hasten to the polls and cast their vote in favor of Stewart and Whiffen, the two men whom the Good Government organization has put into the race against Healy and Houghton. Every loyal and public-spirited citizen of Los Angeles owes it to himself, to his family, and to his neighbor to defeat such candidates as Healy and Houghton, and this time it is an election which is going to reach right down into his pocket book, for the hour is rapidly approaching when the city of Los Angeles is to engage in a struggle with its powerful utility corporations."

"The fight involving the gas and electric rates is now on. If the people vote for Healy and Houghton, the city, throughout, they can expect protection and honest representation; otherwise they can expect the corporations to control. The people of Los Angeles must for city control be at the polls, and the proper way, and the best way, to keep up the good work and show their appreciation is to elect Messrs. Stewart and Whiffen to the city council."

"Healy and Houghton, the two candidates nominated by the push yesterday, were notorious members of previous councils, elected from the old Eighth and Sixth wards, the strongholds for the gas, boozes and railway interests. The old scandals of the redlight district in the Eighth and the notorious river bed scandal, in which these push candidates were involved, are not forgotten, and before we are through with this fight the public is to be reminded of many things which Healy and Houghton now seem to think are buried."

MEETING NEXT WEDNESDAY

A meeting has been called of the city central committee, composed of one delegate from each precinct club of the Los Angeles Good Government organization, for next Wednesday night at 8 o'clock, at which two of the four candidates nominated at the primary election last Thursday will be discussed before the primary election June 30. These candidates will be George H. Stewart and Frederick J. Whiffen.

"There will be a meeting of the city central committee, composed of one delegate from each precinct club of the Los Angeles Good Government organization, at 2 o'clock this afternoon, at which plans will be discussed for the pending county campaign. Both of these meetings will be held at the Good Government organization's headquarters, 213 Fay building, Third and Hill streets."

THEODORE BELL TO BEGIN TOUR OF SOUTH JULY 1

Albert M. Norton, chairman of the Los Angeles county Democratic central committee, received word from San Francisco yesterday that Theodore A. Bell, Democratic candidate for governor, will begin his tour of the state July 1 before the primary election. Mr. Bell will tour Northern California and make speeches in nearly all the principal towns there before he comes to Southern California. Timothee Spelley, Democratic candidate for lieutenant governor, will accompany Mr. Bell during the greater part of his travels, and the party will be joined in the latter part of the tour by a candidate for congress, who will accompany them on the tour through this county.

YOUNGORTH DROPS OUT OF RACE FOR SHERIFF

Leo V. Youngworth announced yesterday that he would not be a candidate for the nomination for sheriff of Los Angeles county. In his refusal to run for the office he states that the expense of making the campaign is too heavy and the present political situation is "too complicated."

Mr. Youngworth is now United States marshal for this district. Sheriff Hammett and E. H. Werdin, machine Republicans, already are in the race and enjoying a keen struggle for the nomination.

During 1909 Chile produced 15,179 tons of copper as against 19,483 tons the year before.

One of Clever Entertainers at the Bristol Pier Cafe

ANGIE NORTH

Imitations of Maud Allan, the barefoot dancer; Eva Tanguy and Harry Lauder are among the sensations to be presented at Bristol Pier cafe by Mme. Fougere, the Parisian comedienne. The new bill will open this afternoon, continuing throughout Sunday and the following week.

Ten stellar theatrical stars are in the cast provided by the management. One of the new artists to appear is Fred Whitfield, whose work is almost too well known to call for comment. Since he was the hit with the Ward and Vokes company Mr. Whitfield has traveled the big circuits, "growing better every year," according to the metropolitan press.

Angie North, agile and airy, with a hypnotic smile, is another glitter in this seaside sky of artistic talent. Miss North, although but 18 years of age, already has traversed the country, and has won the admiration of the metropolitan press.

"Healy and Houghton, the two candidates nominated by the push yesterday, were notorious members of previous councils, elected from the old Eighth and Sixth wards, the strongholds for the gas, boozes and railway interests. The old scandals of the redlight district in the Eighth and the notorious river bed scandal, in which these push candidates were involved, are not forgotten, and before we are through with this fight the public is to be reminded of many things which Healy and Houghton now seem to think are buried."

MACHINE CANDIDATE S CURRY SAYS DR. PARDEE

Former Governor Returning to Oakland Home After Trip to Arizona

"The Republican machine will get behind Charles F. Curry and do all in its power to elect him governor." Such was the statement made yesterday by Dr. George C. Pardee, former governor of California, just before he departed for his home in Oakland, after a visit of several weeks in Arizona.

"To the best of my knowledge," continued Dr. Pardee, "there is little in this talk of the machine backing E. L. Stanton or Flint. While I do not know whether the word has been sent out, I believe orders soon will be given for all good machine men to get behind the present secretary of state and elect him the state's chief executive."

"I am given to understand that the Lincoln-Roosevelt candidate, Hiram Johnson, is very confident of success. I have only this to say. I know Mr. Johnson very well and I know he is an extremely clever man. He is also a man who understands the political situation and if, after his tour of the state, he says he finds conditions favorable to him, it is certainly so. He would not say so unless it were true."

"Personally, I am keeping out of politics and I will continue to do so. I have been traveling in Arizona trying to get well, and I am not keeping in touch with the political situation. In anyone's behalf, even if I desired to."

Dr. Pardee has been in poor health all the past winter and was kept in touch with the political situation and left last evening on the Owl for Oakland. He was accompanied by Mrs. Pardee.

A FACER FOR THE PRINCE

In many ways England is quite as real a democracy as the United States. A story about the young prince, Edward, told in the Atlantic Constitution, illustrates well this point. He was sent to school at Osborne. He had just arrived and was wandering about the grounds, when he was accosted by another small boy, who had already been a term at Osborne.

"Hello!" said the other boy, who was the son of a captain in the army. "You're a new boy. What's your name?"

"Edward," the little prince replied.

"Edward? What a stupid name!" said the other boy. "You must have another name."

"Edward of Wales," said the prince.

ADVERTISING CHIEF ON SEARCH FOR NEW IDEAS

Head of Broadway Department Store's Publicity Department to Study Eastern Methods

H. S. Carroll, sales promoter and head of the advertising department of the Broadway department store, will leave Los Angeles this morning on a 30-day tour of the large cities of the east and middle west in search of new ideas in the advertising line. Accompanied by Mrs. Carroll, the Broadway's advertising man will visit the great mercantile cities of New York, St. Louis, Chicago, Indianapolis, Philadelphia, Buffalo, Washington, Minneapolis, St. Paul and Toronto, Ont.

NATIVE SONS OFF TO LAKE TAHOE SESSION

Southern California Representatives Will Meet Northern-ers in San Francisco

The Southern California delegates to the grand parlor sessions of the Native Sons of the Golden West left last evening for Lake Tahoe, where the sessions will be held. The delegates from this part of the state will go to San Francisco, where they will meet the northern delegates this morning and make the balance of the journey in a special train.

Herman C. Lichtenberger of Ramona parlor of Los Angeles will be elected grand vice president. Representatives from every parlor in the state will be in attendance and the sessions will last until June 13.

The Native Daughters will hold their grand parlor at Hotel Potter, Santa Barbara, June 13 to 15. Emma J. Lillie, present grand president, will become past grand, and as Mamie C. Peyton of Stockton has the support of nearly all the delegates, it is most likely that she will be elected grand president.

ATTEMPTS MURDER; THEN KILLS SELF

Watts Contractor, Failing to Shoot Wife, Fires Charge Into His Own Head

SLIGHTLY WOUNDS OFFICER

Dispute with Spouse Over Drinking Habits Terminates with Fatal Results

Christopher Taple, a contracting carpenter living at Watts, committed suicide yesterday morning in his home by shooting himself in the head after making an unsuccessful attempt to murder his wife and Deputy Constable J. T. Whaley. Mrs. Taple escaped injury, while the officer received part of a scattering charge of bird shot in his face.

Shortly before 9 o'clock yesterday morning Mrs. Taple informed her husband that she intended leaving him, owing to his uncontrollable appetite for liquor. Without a moment's hesitation Taple rushed into an adjoining room. When his wife saw him reach for a shotgun she fled out the front door. Whaley drew his revolver and fired two shots, the first going wide of its mark and the second hitting the would-be murderer in the groin.

With a shriek of pain, Taple raised his gun and taking hair trigger aim, fired again at the officer. About fifty feet of space was between them, and but a small part of the load entered Whaley's face.

Throwing aside the empty shotgun, Taple rushed into his house, and hardly had he slammed the door when the people on the outside heard the discharge of a gun. Entering cautiously they found the contractor lying dead on the floor. He had turned the muzzle of another shotgun toward himself and pulled both triggers. The entire right side of his face and top of the head were shattered.

The people of Watts were greatly excited over the affair, and somebody phoned Sheriff Hammel that a double murder had been committed. The sheriff, accompanied by Deputies Lipps, Wright and Alexander, made a hurried ride to the scene, but found their services were not needed. Sheriff Hammel found a fully loaded revolver in the hallway of the Taple residence, the weapon having been recently purchased by Taple.

Coroner Hartwell took charge of the body and will hold an inquest this morning. It is believed that Taple meant to give battle to the officers, but failed to stand the severe pain caused by his wounds.

Mrs. Taple took refuge at the home of Levi Burger, a neighbor who did not go near her home until after the arrival of the officers. The Taples had no children. The deceased was about 45 years old and was in comfortable financial circumstances, having recently received a legacy from England, according to report.
