

Musical

Mary O'Donoghue, than whom there are few more popular musicians in the city, will leave this week for an extended trip abroad. She will leave here July 4 and will sail July 13 on the President Grant of the Hamburg-American line. Miss O'Donoghue will go directly to Munich for the summer music festival and thence to Oberammergau. Her plans after that are undecided, and much will depend upon the condition of her mother's health. Miss O'Donoghue is the most talented of local accompanists, and it is her desire to remain abroad for study for at least a year. Musicians and men and women of the social world as well have done much to make the last month gay for this delightful young woman, and she carries with her the best wishes and good will of many friends here.

Mrs. Jones-Simmons has issued invitations for an evening of song at the Gamut club July 1. An interesting feature of this program will be the presentation of a cantata, "Fairies of the Seasons," for children's voices. In the training and proper placing of the voice Mrs. Jones-Simmons has demonstrated the advantage of early training, and this cantata will give an exhibition of the results of her work in this direction. A chorus of women's voices will sing the "Barcarolle" from Offenbach's "Love Tales of Hoffman," with violin accompaniment. "Elizabeth's Prayer," with a string quartet accompaniment, a group of Swedish songs by Mrs. Sheldon in costume and other novel features will be included. Other soloists will be Miss Ruth Ritter, Mrs. Thomas Lee Woodruff, Miss Lola Webster, Miss Nellie McPherrin, Dr. Charles Hayes and Miss Welker.

The musical salon of Los Angeles will give its first concert next Thursday evening at the Gamut club auditorium. A very attractive and ambitious program, which has been arranged by Joseph P. Dupuy, the director, will be rendered by the club. The solo parts will be taken by the club members. The first part of the program will be four numbers by the club and one number by Herr Oscar Selling, who will furnish two violin selections. The incidental solos in the first part of the program will be taken by Mrs. H. W. Barnham, C. E. Crane, Miss Luetella Smith and Alexander Garraway. The last half of the program will be a cantata, "The Singing Leaves," by Grace Mayhew of Boston. The incidental solo parts will be taken by Mrs. C. E. Barnard, Alexander Garraway and F. J. Dunwell and the violin obligato by Herr Oscar Selling. Los Angeles is in need of a mixed chorus, and it is the purpose of the musical salon to develop a mixed chorus of 100 or more trained voices.

Members of the silver medal class of the Los Angeles Conservatory of Music will give a concert tomorrow evening at Symphony hall, playing this program:

- Quartette-March, "Triumphale" (Gorla), Kathleen Brown, Anna Zaesek, Eva Lilley, Lillian Wartnik.
- (a) "Salome of Soul," No. 22 ("Lider Ohne Worte") (Mendelssohn); (b) "Styrienne," op. 21 (Wolfehaup), Dorothy C. Burton.

- Valse, "Brilliance" (Moszkowski), Beatrice E. Day.

Individual recitals have already been given by the members of the class. Presentation of diplomas, medals and certificates will take place Tuesday evening at the commencement exercises in Blanchard hall.

Mrs. Caroline Ellene Tew has issued invitations for a pupils' recital to be given in Symphony hall, Blanchard building, Tuesday evening. She will present a number of pupils in lyric and operatic selections. Misses Lillian Snyder, Bianch Burger, Mildred Hadley, Jessie Allen, Mary Howard, Emil Bowers, Goldie Corrin, Madie Collin, Edna Ellis, Hortense Hadley, Harriet Proctor, Ruth Palmer, Abigail Swartzbaugh, Mabel Corey and Otis Mercer and Gail Edminston. Miss Minnie Jenkins will be at the piano.

Ellis club members will close their season with a concert Tuesday evening at Simpson auditorium. They will have the assistance of Constance Balfour, who will sing the Valse from "Romeo and Juliette." The Krause string quartet will play a Grieg number and two movements from the Haydn op. 64, and Henri La Bonte will sing an aria from "La Boheme." Mrs. Ada Marsh Chick will be at the organ. The numbers by the club will include:

- "Defiance" (Carl Attnerhofer).

ENGLISH LABORERS FIND FOREIGN CONDITIONS GOOD

Factories in Germany and Belgium Have British Orders

LONDON, June 25.—There arrived home at Dudley this week four labor representatives who had been to Belgium and Germany to see for themselves the conditions under which the men of these countries worked. They had ample opportunity of obtaining information. They found, they said—and all signed a report to that effect—the conditions of the workmen superior to any to be found in Great Britain, and the countries were prosperous. There were plenty of orders at the works and many of the orders were from England. Some of the engineering works had enough orders to last up to December next year. There were no workshops closed through want of trade, and in conclusion they affirmed: "All seems bright, prosperity and progression from one end of the country to the other." The delegates were W. Bradford, glassmakers; James H. Smith, chairmakers; Benjamin Jones, miners; and Mark Fletcher, glazed brick and tile workers.

PRINCE AUGUST WILHELM SHOWS EXECUTIVE ABILITY

Berlin, June 18.—Princess August Wilhelm of Prussia, the kaiser's fourth son, who is destined to carve out a career in civil life, will shortly take over an important executive position in the administration of the province of Posen of the vicereignty of Alsace-Lorraine. The prince, who won the title of doctor in brilliantly successful examinations, is meantime being put through the paces of civil administration at Potsdam. He is serious and studious, and is said to have developed genuine executive talent, as distinguished from the purely military bent of Hohenzollern princes.

PLAN AIRSHIP FACTORY

Rome, June 25.—A group of Turin capitalists is proposing to establish a large factory for making aeroplane motors at Chivasso, near Turin. The municipality has been approached with the request for land on which the building may be erected, and the communal council, in view of the fact that this factory will be the first of its kind in Italy and is likely to be of great advantage to the town, has unanimously granted a large area of ground on which work will shortly be started.

The De Chauvenet Conservatory of Music held their regular commencement exercises yesterday afternoon in the conservatory auditorium, 845 South Figueroa street, thus closing one of the most successful years in the history of this institution. The pupils who took part in the program exhibited diligent study and thorough training and were a credit both to themselves and to their instructors. An eight weeks' summer school will open Monday, June 27, and many pupils who feel the cool summers in California are conducive to study and self-improvement are enrolling preparatory to take advantage of this course. The monthly public recitals will also continue during the summer months.

POLITICIAN KILLS SELF WHEN POETESS WIFE DIES

His Stepfather Dies Suddenly in Naples on the Same Day

ROME, June 25.—A tragic event has taken place in the private hospital of Point Pestalozza. Signora Pompili, whose poetical works had won for her a foremost place in contemporary Italian literature, died following an operation. Her husband, Signor Guido Pompili, a prominent politician, on learning of her death, drew a revolver, shot himself, and fell dead over her wife's body. Signor Pompili had three times been under-secretary of state for foreign affairs and was one of the Italian delegates at the last Hague peace conference. By a curious coincidence his stepfather died suddenly in Naples the same day.

FREE BREAKFAST TABLE NOT IN GEORGE BUDGET

LONDON, June 25.—Little credence is given to the statement of a Unionist paper that in his next budget Mr. Lloyd George will endeavor to provide for a "free breakfast table"—as a bribe, of course, to the electors. The chancellor has an increased expenditure of many millions to meet, and if he can do so without imposing additional taxation he and his colleagues will be pleased. It is estimated that the total requirements for the public services will reach about $850,000,000 and the actual revenue this year, when it is all paid, will probably be about $820,000,000. There is the prospect of a deficit of about $35,000,000. It is possible, however, that the revenue may be increased. The new and increased taxes in the last budget will bring in much more this financial year than last, and it is thought they will yield enough to cover the deficit.

READER WILL GIVE "DAWN OF TOMORROW" TUESDAY EVENING

Next Tuesday evening will see the public debut in this city of Edith Adams Stewart, a reader, who has to her credit a good list of engagements. She has appeared before the prominent clubs of Southern California and the last two weeks has been spent in the northern part of the state, where without exception she has met with success. Her public appearance in this city next Tuesday evening at the Friday Morning club auditorium will also be the occasion of the reappearance of two well known recital artists, Miss Mae Orcutt and Mayne Luetella-Windson, soprano.

The Pease Piano

Is recognized among artists and musicians as being one of the few, the very few, instruments of moderate price which can be depended on to express fully the beauty of the music which is played upon it, and to retain its superb tone for years. Its range from the big, deep, booming of the bass to the sweet, pure lilt of the treble is flawless in tonal quality.

No Maker Has Ever Even Approached PEASE Quality at PEASE Cost

And in consequence of its admitted superiority it is constantly gaining hosts of warm friends in every locality. Scores of people in Los Angeles, musically intelligent, cultivated people, can be mentioned to you, if you are interested, who will gladly tell you why they prefer this superb instrument. The sole agency lies with us.

where the surprise was awaiting them. Everyone sang "America" with enthusiasm. Miss Beatrice Goodhue recited "The Cow and the Bishop." Fourteen of Miss Dennison's boys, with hammers and horseshoes, sang "A Blacksmith's Song." Thirteen little W. C. T. U. then read "Spelling." Miss Douglas' perfectly drilled girls and sailor lads, with flags, delighted the audience with their marches and drills. Mr. Schweitzer's class of girls sang two beautiful songs, after which Miss Ruth Hookstratten played a violin solo. Mrs. Frances Wheeler, one of the Loyal Legion workers of the W. C. T. U. then read "Spelling," which was followed by a vocal solo by Mr. Crockett. A perfect hoop drill was enacted by sixteen of Mr. Schweitzer's girls.

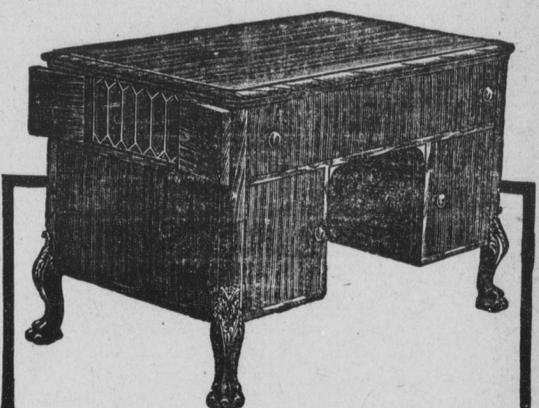

Mr. Schweitzer, principal of the Graham school, after a short, appropriate speech, presented grammar school diplomas to the following graduates: Misses Grace Anderson, Emma Boyd and Gladys Lantz, Jack, Ducks, James Hyde and Ray Rowley. The Graham Parent-Teacher association meets the third Thursday of every month in the school house. The next meeting will be July 21.

PRINCE TO LAUNCH WARSHIP

Berlin, June 25.—It is expected the battleship Ersatz Frithof, which will be the eighth German dreadnought battleship, will be launched from the Schussau yards at Danzig on June 18 by Prince Citel Frederick of Prussia. This is the battleship of the 1909 financial program, the construction of which was begun before the end of the previous year. The official date of completion is April, 1912—that is, just over twenty-one months after the launch. The last German dreadnought battleship completed, the Posen, went to sea less than fifteen months after she was launched.

THE "Regent" Grafonola is a complete table for every day use in exactly the same degree as it is a complete musical instrument of unexampled versatility, matchless tonal qualities and unequalled durability—the complete instrument ready at any and all times equally for business service or musical entertainment.

Wherever people of refinement congregate, the field of entertainment and utility of the Grafonola "Regent" is practically unlimited—in the living room, the music room, the library, and in the rooms of clubs and lodges. A special catalog is ready.
