UPHOLDS DIRECT PRIMARY SYSTEM

Lincoln-Roosevelt League Secretary Declares Principle Embodied Offsets Labor

VOTERS DISPLAY PATIENCE

Reform Wing of Republican Party Working Hard on Candidates' Nomination Blanks

During the last ten days the headquarters of the Lincoln-Roosevelt republican league has presented a busy appearance. Three large rooms have been exclusively devoted to the labor of making petitions ready for the checking up by the county clerk. A large force of men and women has been busy practically night and day at this work.

Kemper B. Campbell, secretary of the league, in discussing yesterday the labor involved in the circulation of petitions under the burdensome requirements of the direct primary law, said: "There is no dispute as to the principle of the direct primary. Cumber some as our present law is, it has furnished the people a weapon whereby they will be able to free themselves from domination by private interests and through it the people of California can and will make the exercise of their franchise thoroughly effective."

"It was no doubt the design of the interests to allow the legislature, in response to an overwhelming demand of the public to pass a direct primary law of some kind, but to make it so burdensome in its operation that the people would become disgusted with the law and repeal all direct primary legislation."

"I find through reports of the large force of verification deputies who have been circulating petitions for us all over Los Angeles county that while the voters are disgusted with some provisions of the present direct primary law, yet they are remarkably well informed as to the ulterior motives and purposes which prompted many of its provisions."

"Considering the hundreds of thousands of petitions which have been circulating in Los Angeles county, the voters have been remarkably patient and persistent in their endeavor to abide by the spirit of the law in every respect, as it now exists, feeling confident that the ultimate result of the coming election will be a primary law which will be less complicated and ambiguous in its provisions and less burdensome in its operation."

"As far as the reform organizations are concerned, we get the best of the deal, since by circulating our petitions at one time we are able to save a large portion of the expense. This the machine cannot do, as it would put the brand on them."

"We have been much gratified by the assistance rendered us by the voters throughout the county in circulating and signing our petitions. We have received candidates; 15,000 petitions for state officers have been filed; between 5000 and 6000 petitions of candidates for state legislators and 2000 petitions for William E. Stephens, candidate for congress, 1100 of which were obtained in one day, and we have ready for filing 10,000 petitions for eight township candidates and 20,000 petitions for eight county candidates. Within the next two days the number of county and township petitions will be increased to 25,000 and 2,500, respectively, making a total of 60,500 petitions handed through the Lincoln-Roosevelt republican league headquarters."

"Petitions for the following legislative candidates have been filed. "Legislature—Senate: Thirty-fourth district, Lee C. Gates; Thirty-sixth district, Charles W. Bell; Thirty-eighth district, Leslie R. Hewitt."

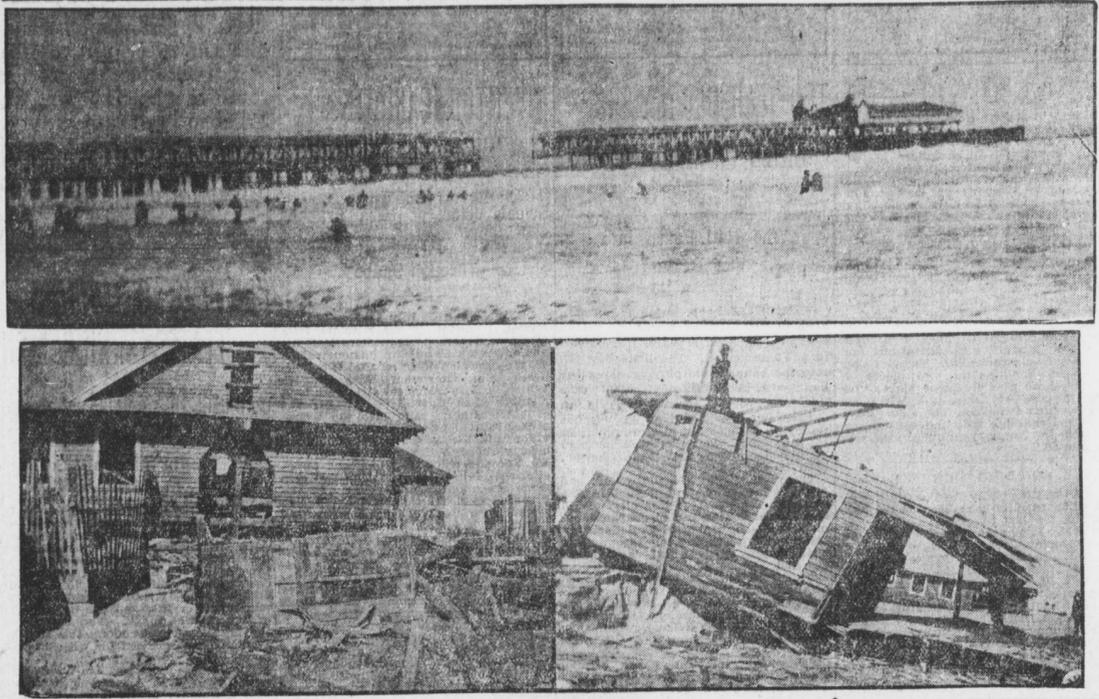

"Assembly: Sixty-eighth district, P. P. Cogswell; Sixty-ninth district, W. E. Hinshaw; Seventieth district, Dr. E. M. Butler; Seventy-first district, Lyman Parwell; Seventy-second district, Stanley Benedict; Seventy-third district, R. S. Saunders; Seventy-fourth district, C. R. Randall; Seventy-fifth district, Dr. W. A. Lamb."

"In each instance twice the minimum required by the law has been deposited with the county clerk. Petitions of H. G. Cattell, candidate in the Sixty-seventh assembly district, are ready for filing and on Mr. Cattell's return to Pasadena in a day or two will be filed with the county clerk."

"All of the state petitions were obtained in five days' time and all of the rest of the petitions have been obtained in five additional working days. "Every petition is carefully scrutinized and verified. The petitions of each candidate must be filed separately, before filing being arranged alphabetically in the precinct and numbered consecutively, each precinct being bound together in book form."

"We expect to complete our petitioning work in two or three days."

LONG BEACH, July 6.—House movers were busy along the ocean front near Seaside park today, pulling back houses wrecked last night and the night before by the unprecedented ground swells and high tides. The damage is $50,000.

For some distance wreckage is strewn along the beach as thickly as if a cyclone had swept across the city. Several houses were so badly wrecked that they cannot be repaired. Others can be put in condition at little cost when new foundations are provided.

Timbers from wrecked houses and broken walks are littered over the sands, and many bulkheads, put in hastily to save the houses, pointed to pieces, have added to the quantity of wreckage.

The damage is estimated at about $50,000, including $20,000 damage to the pier. The following properties were damaged:

Cottage at 1431 Seaside boulevard, owned by William Ford, undermined and badly wrecked, damage estimated at $2000; cottage, 1463 Seaside boulevard, owned by D. Willmon, Los Angeles and occupied by S. E. Fulton, operator of the Salt Lake drawbridge, damage estimated at $800; cottage owned by Miss M. L. Gower and occupied by B. F. Farnes and family, 1521 Seaside, almost total wreck, damage estimated at $3000; bungalow, 1503 Seaside, formerly owned by Hemphill, Hand & Denning and sold recently to a man who has just made one payment, total wreck, damage, $8500; cottage owned by Col. Charles R. Drake and formerly occupied by W. A. Ballard, 2320 S. Dr. Went's bungalow, 1375 Seaside, total loss, damage, $4000; unoccupied house at 1333 Seaside, owned by Mrs. R. H. Strickland, Los Angeles, who bought it ten days ago, damage, $1000; unoccupied house, 1154 Seaside, damage, $1000; home of R. A. Locke and family, about 1203 Seaside, total wreck, loss about $3000; unoccupied house at 1003 Seaside, damage, $200; unoccupied house at 1093 Seaside, owned by a Los Angeles man, damage, $150; damage to tent cities, bulkheads and sidewalks, estimated at $300.

While the pier has threatened to give way before the onslaught of the water, no further breaks in it have occurred. Tonight, like last night, the tide measured six feet seven inches. Beginning tomorrow night, it will recede at the rate of an inch a night.

The bath house company repaired its intake pipe today, and the plunge probably can be refilled with salt water tomorrow.

VERA B. SCHAUPP FACES ACCUSERS

Explains Revolt Against Intolerable Interference by Parents with Religious Beliefs

MOTHER GIVES TESTIMONY

Physicians Allege Girl Victim of Insanity Dangerous Only to Herself

With many witnesses on each side, the hearing to determine the sanity of Vera B. Schaupp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Schaupp of Pasadena, occupied practically the entire afternoon and evening in Judge Bordwell's court yesterday, and will be resumed Friday at 10 o'clock a. m. Miss Schaupp is 22 years of age.

With unusual ability for clear expression, the girl faced her accusers, Linda Seventh Day Adventist hospital, termed the intolerable control her parents attempted to exercise over her religious beliefs and observances. "Continuous stress is brought to bear on me to make me abandon my faith," she said. "Only last night mamma insisted that I eat meat. Now, I don't consider it wrong to eat meat, but I believe it better for my health to eat other things. It is those small things that become unbearable."

Dr. Lucinda Marsh of the Loma Linda Seventh Day Adventist hospital, termed the intolerable control her parents attempted to exercise over her religious beliefs and observances. She told Miss Schaupp assisting in the kitchen of the hospital that she did not consider Miss Schaupp by any means a normal girl, but that she held the unfavorable home environment responsible. The mother stated further her daughter would read the Bible for twelve hours a day and sleep with it under her pillow at night.

The recommendation of the physicians, J. A. McGarry and E. N. Mathis, members of the commission, was that she was the victim of that form of insanity dangerous only to herself and not to others or property. Dr. Bishop and the mother and father of the young woman testified to the girl's irrational acts and stated it had been necessary two years ago, when she was in the sanitarium, for her to be strapped to a cot. The mother stated further her daughter would read the Bible for twelve hours a day and sleep with it under her pillow at night.
