

LAKE ORPHANS HAVE DAY OF JOY

Picnic to Beaches Brings Sunshine to Children's Faces and Sparkle to Eyes

PLAY AND EAT AT VENICE

Big Hearted People Give 500 Youngsters the Time of Their Lives

Five hundred children of the orphanages in and around the city were entertained royally yesterday when the Los Angeles Humane society gave them an automobile trip to Venice.

Flags, banners, bunting and happy faces made a gay scene at the meeting place, Hamburgers, and it seemed that every available machine in the city must have been pressed into service.

Every child and every patron was given a pretty badge, for which the thanks are due to the Ville de Paris and the Kitts Press.

Two bright red Harvey sightseeing autos carried a band, every member of which wore a uniform of scarlet. They were followed by one hundred autos, which paraded from Eighth to First on Broadway and from there to Los Angeles street.

Practically every beach from Long Beach to Venice was visited before the picnickers stopped for the day at Venice.

There wasn't the slightest mishap at Venice to mar the pleasure of the day, and when they left at 4 o'clock every youngster was in his place in his automobile and shouting their happy goodbyes as they sped away cityward.

GREAT DAY AT VENICE

Practically everyone in Venice took some part in the entertainment of the orphans, for it was doubtless the first real beach outing for some of the little visitors. The desire seemed to be in the air to assist in showing them a good time.

With banners and flags flying in the breeze, the first machine reached Venice at 10:30 o'clock. The automobiles were met at the city limits by several local machines containing city officials and others who were ready to give the glad hand to the visitors.

The Venice band at their head decked in brilliant red uniforms, the train of machines sped seaward, passing up Speedway to Pier avenue, down the Ocean Front promenade to Venice. The police made special arrangements for this and pedestrians were compelled to step aside while the joyous children were carted by.

The orphans were divided into groups under the direction of captains and played through the amusement places, the scenic automobile, the chess, the joy wheels, bump-the-bumps, carousel and aquarium were visited, and the looks of wonder and pleasure on the faces of the little ones showed they enjoyed every moment of the day.

Of course the chief feature of the outing was the lunch given on the picnic grounds at noon. Everything necessary was provided, and the amount that they got away with was considered something remarkable.

LUNCHEON DELIGHTS TOTS

Cornucopias, lemonade, peanuts, popcorn and many tasteful morsels dear to the heart of the children were included in the menu. It didn't take them long to clean from the long rows of tables all eatables, then a dash was made for the beach. Next to the lunch, the pleasure to be derived from playing in the sand where the waves rolled up and trickled between the kiddies' toes appealed to them most of all.

MANY PEOPLE HELP

Every amusement on the beach was open to them, and lunch was served by the patronesses from Los Angeles as well as a committee from Venice which included Mrs. Abbot Kinney, Mrs. M. M. Merry, Mrs. M. D. Travis, Mrs. R. E. Dwyer, Mrs. B. A. Phillips, Mrs. A. S. Suter, Mrs. George Sibley, Mrs. F. K. McCarver, Mrs. C. S. Bentley, Mrs. W. M. Kendall, Mrs. F. A. Buchanan, Mrs. Z. D. Travis, Mrs. R. C. Dwyer, Miss Pansy E. Whitaker, Miss Belle Whitaker, Mrs. George J. Cote, Mrs. Stoddard and Miss Stoddard.

BOWLING

On the Brunswick alleys last night the Wanderers defeated the Myers of Pasadena by the score of 256 to 239. Griffith had high average for the evening. Dole of Pasadena had high game. Dole is 70 years old. The scores:

SOME COULDN'T BE THERE

Members of the committee wish to express thanks to A. and Hamburger & King company for flags and banners, the Ville de Paris for ribbon for badges, and to the Kitts Press for printing them, to Dyas-Cline company for badges for the children and the captains, and to W. H. Hoogee for buttons for the children, and to George Rice for the printing of them.

To Burnett Dyas and Louis M. Cole, who have given practically all of their time and a deep interest to the work of making the day a happy one for the children, the members of the committee owe the deepest gratitude. A disappointing feature which marred the day for many of the children was the quarantining of 100 children of the Boyle Heights orphanage for scarlet fever, and of 150 boys from the Anaheim orphanage for measles, which prevented their participation in the pleasures of the day.
