

WOMAN DIES OF TERRIBLE BURNS

Explosion of Gasoline Makes a Human Torch of San Bernardino Housewife

STRIVES TO SAVE TRINKETS

Thoughtless of Own Agony, She Attempts to Prevent Spread of Flames

(Special to The Herald) SAN BERNARDINO, July 22.—Mrs. Gustave Faber, wife of Prof. Faber, a German musician, sustained burns which caused her death this afternoon at her home on North B street, by the explosion of gasoline which she was pouring into a stove. The woman was completely enveloped in burning oil, and every garment burst from her. The house was completely destroyed. Mrs. Faber's screams, as the oil fire burned away her garments, attracted neighbors, who rushed to the burning woman's aid. Her house sits some distance back on a three-acre tract, so that much time elapsed before neighbors could reach her. It was with difficulty that the fire was quenched, no part of her body escaping the deadly flames, which even ate away her shoes. She was still conscious when Dr. Andrew arrived, and he administered opiates to deaden her sufferings. As she lay beneath a tree awaiting the coming of an ambulance, she told of the circumstances of the tragedy. Before her aged husband reached her she lapsed into unconsciousness, and in that condition was taken to County hospital where she died at 5:30 this evening after three hours and a half of awful agony.

HUSBAND FAINTS

It seems the deceased was attempting to start a fire in a cookstove by pouring coal oil upon the kindling close by was a gasoline stove. The coal oil suddenly flamed up enveloping her. She seemed to think only of her home, which was some 25 feet distant, the accident having occurred in a small outhouse, and rushing to the dwelling she commenced to carry her art treasures and rare chinaware out while all the time the flames were burning into her flesh. The burning garments ignited the dwelling, and in this way it was also destroyed. The woman's husband fainted a number of times when he reached the scene from town. Six men had to hold him to prevent him from throwing himself upon his wife, just as the moments before he arrived she had called the neighbors about her, on hearing from the doctor that she could not live, and she called them to witness that all the Faber property of every description belonged to her husband. She also charged them to tell him where money had been secured in the house, and where their silverware and jewelry was concealed. Faber is employed by the city street department.

MINISTER ASKED TO BECOME POLICEMAN

GREELY, Colo., July 22.—In his sermon last Sunday Rev. J. J. Lacey of the First Methodist church commented upon the manner in which law enforcement was being neglected here, according to his opinion, and expressed the desire to be marshal for a day. Yesterday the city council offered Rev. Lacey a position as policeman at a salary of $60 a month with the understanding that if he made good he would be appointed marshal. The minister is to do night duty at first, and in the letter of appointment his duties are explained. Rev. Lacey has not acted on the offer.

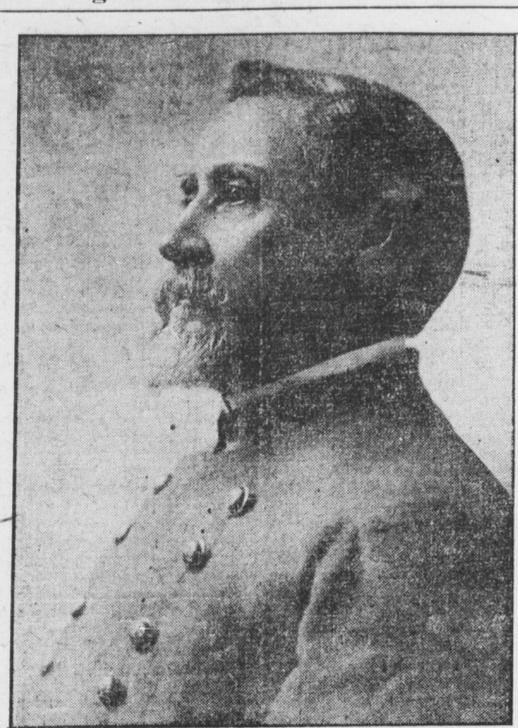

RUSH TO GOLD FIELD

GEORGETOWN, Colo., July 22.—A gold strike, regarded as one of the most important in the history of the local district, has started a rush for Upper Clear Creek. The vein which is three to five inches wide and covered with free gold, is said to run several hundred dollars to the ton, was discovered by James Beshear.

General A. J. West, who is seeing Los Angeles after an absence of 20 years.

FORMER ANGELENO BACK AFTER SCORE OF YEARS

General Andrew J. West, a prominent resident of Atlanta, accompanied by his wife and daughter, are visiting in this city, the guests of D. O. Stewart. On arriving in Los Angeles two days ago, Mr. West was astonished at the improvements made since his visit here twenty years ago. In telling his impressions of Los Angeles, General West said: "The improvements here are simply a revelation. On this trip my wife, daughter and self have visited all the great cities and places of interest in the west, including the Yellowstone National park, but we have found no place that can compare with the beauty, climate and magnificent progress of Los Angeles, which I must term the queen city of the Pacific. It is impossible for one to foreshadow its future growth."

Dr. James G. Sharp Delivers Address That Creates a Storm of Protest

DENVER, July 22.—The National Dental association installed officers, listened to reports of officers and of the executive council and adjourned to meet in Cleveland in July, 1911. Dr. James G. Sharp of San Francisco, whose address yesterday declaring that the educational requirements for dentists were too low and urging that dentists in future be required to have a college education, created a storm of protest from the convention, had quite a laugh today at the expense of his brother, Dr. William F. Sharp, also of San Francisco and his fellow delegate. The Doctors Sharp much resemble each other and dress alike. When Dr. William Sharp entered the convention hall this morning he was surrounded by a crowd of delegates, who expostulated vehemently with him for his supposed statements. Dr. Sharp protested in vain that he had cast no aspersions on the educational qualifications of the profession until his younger brother strolled up and stood beside him. Then the delegates faded away, with their lower maxillaries in excellent position for the examination of molars and bicuspsids.

MANY FEWER BARS

ST. JOHN, N. B., July 22.—There are approximately 25,000 less open bars within the jurisdiction of the National Division Sons of Temperance of North America than existed two years ago, according to a report made at the annual convention of the organization in session here this week.

DECLARE WAR ON 'OREGON SYSTEM'

'Assembly' Republicans Start Battle on the Senatorial Election Plan

SAY 'KNIFE TO THE HILT'

Anti Ticket Throughout the State Is Now Practically Assured

(Associated Press) PORTLAND, Ore., July 22.—The convention of the faction of the Republican party in this state, self-styled "Assembly Republicans," which is in session in this city, has thrown down the gauntlet to the faction of the party which supports the so-called "Oregon system" of electing United States senators by their oft-repeated assertion, it is to be "war to the knife and knife to the hilt," both in the primary election, November election stands off and in the assembly campaign and the Assembly Republicans, without qualification, declare that they will knife to the hilt every Republican who presents himself for office should he be successful in the primaries, if he be an anti-assemblyman. The anti-assembly Republicans—the faction which favors the "Oregon system"—are just as bitter and apparently just as ready to lock horns as the assembly faction. It is admitted by both factions that on the result of the November election stands off falls the "Oregon system" in this state. The opposition to the assembly is not organized, for the anti-assembly Republicans are opposed to the principle of party assidues whose object is to suggest candidates for nomination. They contend that the assembly is in reality an attempt to return to the convention method of nominating a ticket and that its real purpose is the destruction of the direct primary. There are, nevertheless, already sufficient anti-assembly candidates for nomination in the field to insure practically complete anti-assembly primary tickets throughout the state. While openly asserting that it has its main object the slaughter of the "Oregon system," the "assembly" faction also contends that its second important purpose is to suggest for nomination suitable professional office holders in other words, to invite men of ability to accept nomination for office. They deny that they are opposed to the direct primary system and oppose the latter rather than they are its best friends. They declare that men capable of properly filling office do not seek office and as a result men of inferior caliber are professional office holders. These are the only men except on rare occasions, who since the primary law has been in force, have been presented to the voters as party nominees. This, they contend, disgusts the individual voter and results not alone in frequent defeat at the polls, but will eventuate in the complete disruption of the party.

MORMONS AT SALT LAKE SURPRISED BY ACTION

SALT LAKE CITY, July 22.—Some surprise was occasioned among officials of the Mormon church by the Berlin dispatch telling of the expulsion of missionaries from Germany. When similar action was taken three or four years ago it was said that the church would place its propaganda in the hands of the German converts and make no further effort to introduce American missionaries until the government was persuaded to change its attitude. No intimation of a change in this policy has been given. The presence of foreign leaders at the Berlin meeting may be explained by a letter from President Thomas E. McKay of the Swiss and German mission, written in Zurich, May 31. President McKay said that while passing through Berlin he stated to the police authorities that general conferences of the Mormon missionaries were held in different parts of Europe, and that he desired to hold such a gathering in Berlin early in July. The request was put in writing and presented to the acting president of police, who promised to submit it to the chief of police when the latter returned to his duties. Joseph F. Smith, head of the Mormon church, is now enroute to Europe and may make an effort to secure modification of the hostile attitude of the German government.

MARINE CORPS MEN LOSE SOFT JOBS AT CAPITAL

WASHINGTON, July 22.—The final readjustment of affairs in the marine corps was made today by a change in the capacity of professional officers, approved by President Taft, which completely breaks up the system by which staff officers of the corps have enjoyed long terms of duty at desks in Washington. The change comes as one of the results of the recent court-martial in which most of the staff officers were censured and the "life tenures" of officers in Washington condemned. Heretofore the regulations have provided that the officers of the staff should be located here, President Taft, however, has ordered that they be assigned to duty wherever they may be assigned by the commandant. Under the old regulations the adjutant and inspector of the corps were assigned to the commandant. Hereafter the secretary of the navy will designate an officer to fill such a temporary vacancy. Practically all the existing lines of holocaust are wiped out, and the assignment of duty and the localities of staff officers is left to the discretion of the commandant of the corps and the secretary of the navy.

MISSOURI'S GOVERNOR HARVESTS WHEAT CROP

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., July 22.—Governor Herbert S. Hadley, who several months ago purchased a farm near the state capital, has been unable to get hands to thresh his fifteen acres of wheat. Yesterday he visited the state officials in their offices, and the officials, at the hotels and pleaded for help. Many agreed to aid him. It is expected, from the number that has volunteered, that the wheat will be threshed by Saturday noon, and the afternoon can be passed in recreation. The governor offered to give his helpers an old-fashioned dinner in his log cabin, which friends erected recently at a house raising.

WOMAN WOUNDED IN SAN JOSE IS STILL ALIVE

SAN JOSE, July 22.—Carrie Koenig, the young woman who was found in a lodging room last night with a bullet hole in her breast, while her companion, Roy Parker, stood over her, himself bleeding from a bullet wound in his right eye, is still alive, but the physicians have no hope of her recovery. GERMANY EXPELS MORMON LEADERS

Missionaries at Meeting in Berlin Taken into Custody by Police

TO BE ESCORTED TO FRONTIER

Americans and English Must Leave, but Germans Are Allowed to Stay

(Associated Press) BERLIN, July 22.—Herr Dalwitz, Prussian minister of the interior, on recommendation of the political police, has signed orders for the expulsion of twenty-one Mormon missionaries, most of whom are Americans or Englishmen, and they will be conducted to the frontier today. The missionaries had assembled from various parts of Germany at the Mormon headquarters on the east side to meet Superintendent McKay, an American residing in Switzerland. They were holding services when an agent of the political office, who was seated in the audience, rose and declared the gathering dissolved. At the moment several members of the criminal police appeared and virtually took the custody of the missionaries. The women were asked to leave the place and the men were examined as to their nationality. Those found to be German subjects were released, while the others were requested to accompany the officers to the police presidency. There, after further examination, they were permitted to go to their lodgings to await the issuance of warrants for their expulsion. The status of the Mormons in Germany was taken up in exchanges between the foreign office and the American embassy in 1903, when the government took the position that the teachings of the missionaries were subversive of morality. It was then arranged with the Mormon superintendent, through the American embassy, that all Mormon missionaries should withdraw from the country within a month, transferring the middle European headquarters from Berlin to Switzerland. Subsequently 140 foreign leaders departed, leaving the German societies, with a total membership of 8000, in the care of German pastors. The authorities state that in recent years the Mormons have disregarded the understanding of 1903, and from time to time individual missionaries have been apprehended and expelled. In such instances they have not applied to the American embassy for relief nor made a protest against their expulsion.

COLORADO MAN DEVELOPS WHEAT FOR LAZY FARMERS

GREELY, Colo., July 22.—The lazy man's wheat, the hope of the "dry" farmers, has been developed by E. P. House, Colorado's Burbank, according to Mr. House. He claims to have blended the Durum and Egyptian wheat with the result that he has a wheat that will run 100 bushels to the acre, without much attention and in the face of the worst drought. House recently produced a combination of turnip and celery which he calls Kohl-Rabi. Its value as a food product is unknown.

MERCHANT ENDS LIFE TO STOP FORECLOSURE

HUTCHINSON, Kas., July 22.—To prevent the foreclosure of a mortgage on his home, W. H. Israel, of Lewis, Kas. shot and killed himself yesterday in a rooming house here. Israel was proprietor of a merchandise store at Lewis. Under his hat in the rooming house was found this note: "Dear wife: Take the insurance and pay off the mortgage on the house. The store will have to go. Forgive me."
