Hiram Johnson, L.-R. Candidate for Governorship, Wildly Cheered

DECLARES HE IS A WINNER

Enthusiastic Reception Is Given the Candidate Who Is Fighting S. P. Bosses

COMMON CAUSE "Our cause is a common one. I went out alone into this fight, for although there are four Republicans running against me for the nomination as governor of California, not one of them has dared to raise his voice against the Southern Pacific or even to mention in a whisper the sacred names of William F. Herrin and Walter Parker. "Why? Because they dare not. They are the creatures of these bosses of the machine. They have been put where they are, and have become what they are, through the patronage of those corrupt bosses. And they are deluded enough to believe that Parker and Herrin can still do as they have done in the past; that they can still sit back in their easy chairs and press a button which means ruin for a political candidate—defeat or triumph for the groveling creatures of this machine—creatures who, in the past, were put in the race, or kept out of the race for public office, with but a single word from W. F. Herrin or his lieutenants. "These days have passed. If the people of California are true to themselves, and true to their best interests, as I know they will be, and if they take advantage of this tremendous weapon which has been placed in their hands for the first time in the history of the state—the direct primary law—they can destroy forever the disgraceful machine so long maintained by the Southern Pacific to corrupt and pervert the functions of municipal, county and state government."

FRENCH REVOLUTION In the beginning of his speech Mr. Johnson reviewed the history of the French revolution—the war of 120 years ago, when the common people arose en masse, after centuries of oppression, tyranny and suffering, and with clubs, swords and rocks as weapons drove their masters from the country—routed the aristocratic despots, their courtiers and courtiers, from the land they had so long disgraced and dominated, and established a republic. "There is no such thing as a free lunch," he said, "a similar revolution, only that it is without bloodshed; and the ballot, not the sword or the cudgel, is our weapon. If we win this fight, and place the nominees of the Good Government forces in our next state legislature, we will have even a better direct primary law—a direct primary law which is much more effective than this bunglesome measure drafted and adopted by its enemies at the last legislature to prevent the adoption of the law as demanded by the people."

DIRECT PRIMARY "The primary law that we will have next year, with a good government legislature not controlled by the Southern Pacific, will be a direct primary law in the true sense of the word. The law as it is demanded by the people, which will give them more of a voice in our elections than they can have under the present act. But we have a direct primary law in California, and we place the California for the first time to nominate their own candidates, to decide for themselves just who they want to represent them in the legislature, in the courts and in the various other departments of the state. "It is your first opportunity to strike. If you do not strike, the Southern Pacific bosses are likely to repeal even our present primary law on the plea that those who once advocated it have found it unsatisfactory. Strike now, for it may be your last opportunity."

"I know you will strike. I have confidence in you that you will realize the necessity of overthrowing this corrupt machine. I know that you appreciate the tremendous importance of this wide fight, and that there can be, but one great issue in this campaign, but one great reform for us to accomplish, after which all else will come to us easily. "We must wrest our government from the machine; we must root out the corporation bosses who are controlling the affairs of this state. The Southern Pacific, the Southern Pacific, must govern California. The people, not the machine, must elect their public servants. The people, not the Southern Pacific, must serve the people, not govern them. The people have the power to do it. It is up to the people, and not by their pledges to the public, and not by their obligations to the Southern Pacific."

THE ONLY ISSUE "I repeat, there is and can be but one issue, and that is: Shall the Southern Pacific or the people control and direct the affairs of California? You are to answer that question at the primary election and at the general election, August 16 and November 8. I am confident you will answer it satisfactorily. "One of my opponents, who was put into the race against me by W. F. Herrin and Walter Parker, has tried to cloud the issue. Up in Northern California he went about with a press agent, and although he did not make any speeches he had his press agent—at so much per press and so much per agent—make a loud noise about good roads. He thought that if he could get down into Southern California, and suddenly manifested a most profound interest in the lemon industry, his north his issue was good roads; in

LEAGUE MEETING FOR HOLLYWOOD

Candidates Will Make Addresses in Toberman Hall This Evening

BUTLER IS ON THE PROGRAM

Opponent of Eldridge Favored by Residents of the Third District

Sidney A. Butler, candidate of the Lincoln-Roosevelt Republican league for supervisor in the Third district, will be the principal speaker at a meeting to be held this evening at 8 o'clock in Toberman hall, West Hollywood boulevard, near Calhoun avenue. Among the other speakers will be Charles H. Randall, candidate for the assembly from the seventh-fourth district; Supervisor R. W. Pridham and State Senator Charles W. Bell of Pasadena.

A vigorous canvass of the entire Hollywood district is being made by Mr. Butler's interest, and there is a strong determination on the part of the people of that section that "Tug" Eldridge shall not be returned to the board.

The voters of Hollywood have repeatedly issued bonds in large denomination for the improvement of their highways, in which they take great pride. Should the necessity ever have arisen for the construction of a first class, modern pavement on the road leading to Eldridge's property in "Bungalowland," the people of Hollywood would have been the first to have taken steps for the issuance of bonds for this purpose. The fact that they did not do so is evidence enough that they did not believe there was any necessity for the expenditure.

MONTCLAIR, N. J., Aug. 5.—The imprint of coal-stained fingers on the whitewashed walls of the cellar of a Montclair house is responsible for the detection here of a burglar in a series of daring burglaries.

GIRL TRAMP IS RESCUED FROM BRUTAL COMPANION

Gave Up Home and Beats Her Way on Trains

SALT LAKE CITY, Aug. 5.—Forsaking home and the garb of her own sex for love of a man, Rose Foster of Pierce, Nev., was rewarded with treatment so brutal that hardened tramps were moved to pity.

It was through information to the police that Miss Foster was found masquerading as a boy, and Frank Collier, the man with whom she eloped, living with tramps in the open.

The girl, who is 23 years old, says she became infatuated with Collier while she was working in a restaurant at Pioche. Collier had just finished a term in jail for petit larceny. They wished to be married, but this was prevented by the girl's father.

Finally they decided to run away. The girl clipped her hair and disguised as a boy beat her way to Salt Lake with Collier, riding sometimes in box cars and again on the blind baggage, or under the cars on the trucks.

When they had taken up their residence in the hobo camp Collier, it is alleged, ordered the girl to seek a livelihood on the streets. Her refusal to do this caused Collier to mistreat her so flagrantly that their fellow campers notified the police.

The girl's father will take her back to Pioche and Collier will be prosecuted as a vagrant, if no more serious charge can be pressed.

TAFT TO HEAR OF CHILE FROM PRESIDENT MONTT

South American Executive Desires Co-Operation with U. S.

NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—President Pedro Montt of Chile, who is in New York en route to Europe, will neglect the opportunity when he meets President Taft tomorrow to have a heart-to-heart talk in regard to the relations of Chile to the United States. The relations of the Chilean president declares in an interview published today, are ample and cordial, but they might be closer.

"I want to speak with President Taft," said President Montt, "of the immediate future. Five years hence the United States will open the Panama canal. Chile and the United States are good friends, and will, I believe, always remain so. Chile is a sea country, whose wealth is in mines and commerce. When you open the Panama canal I want to see the United States engage in commerce with us. I hope there will be one or two regular steamship lines between Valparaiso and New York."

JURISTS MAY EXAMINE KANSAS BANK SYSTEM

United State Supreme Court Will Be Asked to Review Federal Litigation

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—One of the first questions on which the supreme court of the United States will pass after it convenes in October will be the application for it to review the litigation in the federal courts in Kansas over the constitutionality of the Kansas bank depository guaranty law.

John Lee Webster, ex-Senator C. I. Long and several other lawyers representing the Abilene National bank and others, filed the application for a writ of certiorari in the case of the United States circuit court of Kansas, in an opinion handed down by Judge Pollack, ruled that the law was unconstitutional as being in violation of the fourteenth amendment and as unlawfully discriminating against national banks and destroying their efficiency. However, the United States circuit reversed the lower court and held the law to be constitutional.

"If our contentions are sound, and we believe them to be," counsel for the national banks say in their brief, "the Kansas bank guaranty law will operate to despoil national banks of their deposits by inducing for their protection the depositors in the state banks are guaranteed and that deposits in national banks are not and cannot be guaranteed."

"The process of spoliation will result ultimately in the liquidation of national banks and in increasing the number of state banks; or, we may say, the destruction of one and the upbuilding of the other, as has been demonstrated in Oklahoma."

It is claimed that congress will never authorize the national banks to accept the provisions of the statute for their reorganization as state banks, thus procuring the benefits of the act, because to do so would, for all practical purposes, deprive the federal government of all control of such banks and make such banks subject to the control of the state of Kansas, or, in other words, to all intents and purposes make them state banks.

FIGURES SHOW CHICAGO A CHEAP PLACE TO LIVE

CHICAGO, Aug. 5.—In support of his contention that a family can live in Chicago at a smaller expense than in any other large city of America, City Comptroller Wilson has issued many columns of figures, showing the average property owner in Chicago gets services costing more than 300 per cent of the annual taxes paid by him.

For his average property owner he selected a man owning a $2000 residence and having a wife and three children. He estimated the real estate tax at $46.10 and the water tax at $7.65, a total of $53.75, adding a possible personal property tax of $7.97, giving a total of $61.72.

"For this he held, the family would receive services costing $172.02, and if the county, state and similar services be included he estimated the total benefits at $195.25.

In his basis for calculation, Mr. Wilson considered the population of Chicago at 2,500,000, and used the assessed valuation of the property and the total product from taxation as the basis for fixing the tax rate at $4.61 per $100 upon which he based the total of taxation in his hypothetical case.

His estimates of the cost of services furnished was based on the property owners' share the various forms of governmental operation, itemized in part as follows: Police protection, $11.50; fire protection, $6; health protection, $1.30; removal of garbage, $2.85; cleaning and repairing streets, etc., $3.25; maintenance of house of correction, municipal courts, etc., $2.15; operation and improvement of water works, $10.10; public library, 70 cents; schools, each child, $37.39, $112.17; benefit of parks and boulevards, $9.25.

BOY TRAILS SLAYERS AND NOTIFIES POLICE

San Francisco Officers Make Arrests After Duel on Wharf

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 5.—Trailed through the Italian quarter by 15-year-old Salvatore Ballistero, a cousin of Mario Ballistero, who was killed yesterday in a revolver battle on Fisherman's wharf, Pietro Mirrano and Vincenzo Padono, were captured today by the police and charged with the murder.

The pair disappeared immediately after the shooting in which fifteen shots were exchanged and Salvatore and Pietro Ballistero, brothers of the dead man, were wounded. The youthful cousin took up the pursuit by himself as the detectives failed to find the fugitives and after trailing them all night, located them in a house in the quarter. He notified the police, but the officers were refused admittance.

The men were captured only after the house had been surrounded and as they were attempting to escape through a window.

OFFER LAST OF EVIDENCE IN SAN DIEGO ARSON CASE

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Aug. 5.—All of the evidence in the trial of Adolph Schonek, accused of arson and suspected of setting about ten fires in San Diego previous to his arrest, is in. Arguments in the case began this morning with the prospect that the case would go to the jury about the middle of next week. The evidence against the accused youth has been circumstantial, attorneys for the defense claim.

The case has been before the court for nearly two months and has been bitterly fought by counsel for both sides. At one time the wrangle became so heated the district attorney and senior counsel for the defense were fined $50 each for contempt of court.

UNSHIGHTLY ERUPTION ON FACE AND HEAD

Afflicted for Months—Burned and Itched—Used Cuticura and He Was Cured in Three Weeks—Not Even a Scar Left.

"As a grateful mother, I feel it my duty to thank you for the cure of my little son who was afflicted for about eight months with sores all over his head, back of his neck and nearly all his face. We tried all kinds of remedies without any relief. We even employed a good physician and I am sure he tried his very best to cure my poor suffering little boy. But, alas! instead of getting better he went for the worse. His head was literally covered with scabs and ugly sores and his cries kept us awake throughout the long night. I had to keep his hands in gloves to prevent his scratching his head, as he was doubtless suffering from a burning and itching sensation, and was constantly trying to put his hands where he hurt. "Last night when he was about three years old, I saw an advertisement of Cuticura and I decided to try the virtues of the Cuticura Remedies. I bought one cake of Cuticura Soap, a box of Cuticura Ointment and a bottle of Cuticura Resolvent. I used them according to directions and I am happy to tell you the little sufferer was cured in less than three weeks. This was over a year ago and now his head is covered with a fine growth of luxuriant hair. Strange to say, all those unsightly sores did not even leave a scar. Mrs. G. O. Couvillon, Flacouverie, La., February 26, 1910."

The suffering which Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment have alleviated among skin-tortured, disfigured infants, children and adults led to their adoption in countless homes as the purest, sweetest and most economical treatment for eczema, and other itching, burning humors of the skin and scalp. A single set is often sufficient. "How to Care for and Treat the Skin and Scalp."
