MEMBERS OF CULT IN ARROYO STARTLE RESIDENTS BY NIGHTLY MOANS

CLAIM THE 'GIFT OF TONGUES'

Beautiful Girl Found When Near Death and Taken Away by Officers

Four persons—two men, a woman and a beautiful girl of 16 years of age—lying on couches in a "house of mystery" at 1913 Henner street, in the Arroyo Seco, all so weak from fasting five weeks that they could scarcely arise...

John Irving O'Neal, leader of a cult claiming the gift of tongues, and embracing many prominent names, including one of his lieutenants, Nellie E. Doyle, aged 40, and Alice Prifton, 16, comprise the strangely assorted quartet...

Up to five months ago O'Neal had a following of fully 500 persons, according to those familiar with the cult. Services were held in a tent in the Arroyo and often lasted as long as forty-eight hours. Only those who were members were allowed to go near the tent...

Five weeks ago people residing on either side of the cottage occupied by O'Neal, Butler, the woman and girl, noticed them locking the doors and windows in mid-afternoon. The older woman at that time volunteered the information that the quartet were about to commence the fast they believed was expected of them.

Another pioneer of the pueblo days of Los Angeles was removed yesterday by the death of Ephraim Greenbaum at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Jack Lippman, 2638 Van Buren place. Although he was nearly 80 years old he had enjoyed comparatively good health until a few days ago.

Mr. Greenbaum was a native of Germany and arrived in New York city in 1833. He arrived with his wife and one child in Los Angeles, having made the trip by way of the isthmus of Panama. This city was then but a few adobe houses clustered around the Plaza.

Mr. Greenbaum was a general merchant and store in partnership with his brother-in-law, under the firm name of Norton & Greenbaum. It was located near the Plaza, where it continued for many years, and then gradually moved southward with the growth of the city.

It was as the guest of Governor Draper that the president made his pilgrimage today. Though no one in Mendon seemed to know Mr. Taft was coming his presence soon was known abroad, and Taft came from all directions.

Mr. Greenbaum is survived by one son and three daughters. Abraham Greenbaum is connected with the Harjris & Frank company. The daughters are Mrs. Isaac Norton, Mrs. Jack Lippman and Mrs. S. S. Spier. Mrs. Spier is now residing in New York city and arrangements for the funeral will not be completed until her return in a few days.

THE DOYLE WOMAN, who lay last night on the floor of an open window, stated that the Lord had bidden them to break their fast. She paused between each word and appeared to be extremely weak. Hardly had she been able to walk half the distance across the room. The young girl spoke in a low, weak tone and said that everybody was well and doing all right, therefore people should not bother them.

THE PEOPLE of the Arroyo are determined to have the girl properly cared for, and it is thought a case will be brought to the attention of the probation officers today.

REPORT WALLACE WINS NOMINATION

Late Totals Taken to Justify the Claims Made by Lincoln-Roosevelt League

RICHARDSON FOR PRINTER

Insurgents Declare That Works Has Won Senatorial Fight Over Spalding

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 19.—In the count that has been in progress during the day, the totals at 11 o'clock tonight seemed to justify the claim of the Lincoln-Roosevelt league representatives that A. J. Wallace of Los Angeles had defeated Francis V. Keeling of San Francisco for the nomination of the office of lieutenant governor. With seven counties still to be heard from, the returns from which will not effect the standing of the candidates, Wallace has a lead of 5,034.

All signs indicate that Frank Jordan has been made the choice for secretary of state. There were only three counties left to be heard from, and Sutter, which Jordan's total reached 54,471. Florence O'Brien followed in second place at 21,353 and Wagner was third with 50,909.

Friend W. Richardson's lead over W. W. Shannon for the nomination of state printer is such that his election seems assured. The figures give Richardson 49,782 votes and Shannon 48,168, with only a few districts outstanding. The insurgents declare tonight that John D. Works has defeated A. G. Spalding in the United States senatorial fight. Works' advantage is slight and the Spalding people think it will be overcome.

SPALDING IS CONFIDENT OF WINNING SENATORSHIP

Dispatches Show San Diego Man Has Carried 53 Districts

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 19.—Although Mr. Spalding, so far, has been reticent regarding the claims of his friends that he is assured of the nomination for United States senator, he tonight declared that his friends are confident of his endorsement. It follows: "The election of A. G. Spalding as United States senator is an assured fact. There are forty senators and eighty assemblymen, which means 120 on joint ballot. Of these senators twenty are holdovers, leaving 100 senators and assemblymen to be elected. Out of these twenty holdovers eleven promised Senator Leroy Burnett support. The balance of the Spalding papers they would vote for Spalding.

This morning's Associated Press dispatches showed that Spalding had carried fifty-three districts, which, with the eleven votes of the holdover senators, means sixty-four votes out of 120 on joint ballot or a clear majority of 53.4 per cent. The election of Spalding without any doubt."
