Wetherby-Kayser Moves Into New Broadway Store
Latest Footwear Will Adorn Shelves of Great Establishment at Corner of Fourth Street
EXTENDS WELCOME TO ALL
After Eight Successful Years, Firm Follows Trend of Business to the South

After eight steady, prosperous years of business at 215-17 South Broadway, the Wetherby-Kayser shoe company has decided to follow the trend of business and go farther south on Broadway. Their new home will be Broadway at Fourth. They have leased the south half of the Montgomery jewelry store. Their show windows will be the largest of the kind in Los Angeles. Their goods will be up to the most attractive and cozy. Mr. Wetherby has just recently returned from the east where he purchased an immense stock of men's and women's shoes. You who are looking for the smart footwear, can find at their new store absolutely the latest and best. No pains have been spared to make their new home attractive. A hearty welcome at their Broadway store at Fourth awaits all the old and new customers. At their Broadway store at Fourth you will find the same courteous men to wait upon you, and gladly show you the swell new things in boots and slippers. This firm is well known. The people can rely upon getting first class goods from this house. To say we bought our boots from Wetherby-Kayser's always signifies we wear nothing but the best. Remember this week they will be found at their new home.
