Astronomers of International Union Delighted with Pasadena Carnegie Observatory RARE EQUIPMENT EXAMINED Professor Kayser of University of Bonn Will Speak on 'Wave Lengths'

(Continued from Page One) from the opening one by Dr. Hale, Wednesday morning, is to be by Professor H. Kayser of Kgl. Universitat, Bonn, Germany, on "Standard Wave Lengths," although Professor L. Kapteyn of the Astronomical Observatory, Groningen, Holland, author of "The Structure of the Universe," is expected to deliver a talk considered to be "popular" language for the benefit of laymen.

LOCAL MAN INTERESTED Among local citizens most interested in the visit of the world's scientists is Professor Ephraim Miller, former instructor of astronomy and mathematics in the Kansas State university, whose resignation takes effect tomorrow, and who is making his home now with the family of his son, L. W. Miller, 570 North Lake street, a half block from the Carnegie laboratory on Santa Barbara street. Professor Miller is 77 years old, according to the family birth records, but he appears to keep up with the younger scientists in the various trips of inspection in which he has taken much interest.

A number of ladies, invited for the solar conference registered at Hotel Maryland yesterday. There are representatives from ten countries besides the United States now quartered in this city. Foreign countries represented are England, Canada, France, Italy, Switzerland, Sweden, Austria, Scotland, Germany and Russia. The scientists are all modest, if not timid, in discussing their work, but they are outspoken in their praise of Pasadena and Southern California.

Among late arrivals are Professor J. S. Ames, Johns Hopkins university, Baltimore, Md.; Professor E. A. Barnard, Yerkes observatory, Williams Bay, Wis.; Professor E. P. Brackett, Pomona college, Claremont, Cal.; Professor W. W. Campbell, Lick observatory, Mount Hamilton, Cal.; Professor C. A. Chant, University of Toronto, Canada; Professor N. Forgetting for a time the weightier problems of their life study, scientists from all parts of the world, whose names have become familiar to the research, congregated yesterday afternoon in what is said to be one of the most remarkable educational gatherings in the history of Southern California. Members of the International Union for Co-operation in Solar Research, accompanied by their wives and many of the society, were entertained at a reception and garden fete at the home of Prof. George E. Hale of the Carnegie observatory. KAISER'S 'GOD'S AGENT' TALK NOT ACT OF GOVERNMENT Address Was William's Own Private View, Declares Editor

BERLIN, Aug. 29.—The semi-official Nord Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung explains today the government's views of the emperor's Koenigsberg speech, which has been construed by a part of the press as a declaration of absolutism and under estimation of the people and the people's representatives. The speech in which Emperor William intimated his belief that he ruled by divine right was not, it is set forth, an act of the government, but the expression of the personal convictions of the monarch, and as such was the breath and spirit of his sense of duty resting on the religious grounds which his majesty had repeatedly proclaimed and had made actual in his conduct as ruler. The basis of criticism of the emperor was his affirmation that he went his way without considering the opinions of the day, says the paper, which adds: "He would be a bad king who took the current views as the chalkline for his conduct. The imperial speaker is declared to have put himself in opposition to the constitution. This contention is based on the fiction that an independent parliamentary system is dependent on fluctuating opinion or the absolutism of the masses whereof the constitution knows nothing."

KAISER EXPLAINS HIS 'DIVINE RIGHT' SPEECH Believes His Sentiment Was Misunderstood by Press

DANZIG, Aug. 29.—Emperor William at a dinner tonight in the castle at Marienburg, the old seat of the Knights of Malta, made a speech which was a counterpart of that delivered last week at Koenigsberg. The emperor's religious vein of the Koenigsberg speech, which his majesty evidently regarded as having been misunderstood by the press, he said: "When I represented myself, like my sainted grandfather, as being under the protection of the highest and as working under the highest commission of our Lord and God, I assumed that every honest Christian, wherever he might be, did the same. "Whoever works in this spirit knows well that the cross imposes obligations. "We should hold together in brotherly love and we should leave to each race its peculiarities. The races and trade organizations should join hands for a common work and for meeting the state's necessities."

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—Although charged specifically with smuggling into this country a pearl necklace, a gold purse and a lace mantle, valued in all about $800, Mrs. Reynolds Adriance of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., must explain where she bought other jewelry valued at more than $100,000 before she is out of the customs net here. According to a statement made at Collector Loe's office today, jewels with a total value of $115,000 were found in the woman's possession and seized, while from her daughter, Marin, a $3000 pearl necklace was confiscated and a third necklace was taken from Mrs. Mary H. Doughty, a traveling companion. This additional jewelry did not figure in the smuggling charge against Mrs. Adriance, who gave $7500 bail today after waiving examination, but it is being held pending investigation and the production of bills of sale covering each piece.

DOLLIVER SPEAKS FOR LA FOLLETTE

LOWA SENATOR DELIVERS ADDRESS AT MILWAUKEE URGING VOTERS TO AID INSURGENT CAUSE

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 29.—Senator Jonathan P. Dolliver of Iowa made here tonight the first of a series of speeches in Wisconsin in the interest of Senator LaFollette. The Iowa senator said the first among Republican political leaders to comprehend the character of the irrefragable conflict within the party between public interest and the present day organizations of private business was Robert LaFollette of Wisconsin. "It is proposed now to put an end to his career—to cancel his commission—to make an example of him," said Senator Dolliver, "so the young men of the United States in the future may perceive how much more comfortable it is—how much safer, how much more profitable to serve the impudently financial interests that are trying to capture the strongholds of the government than it is to care for that scattered and unorganized constituency—the people of the United States. "It may be that he can afford to go back to the quiet and repose of private life, but if the state of Wisconsin yields to the corrupt influences at this moment flowing in upon her from all directions—shall go back to the old form of government by political bosses—winning their way to foreign corporations—it would be a calamity almost inconceivable in its disaster to you and your children." Speaking of "standpatters," Senator Dolliver said there were two schools, the Aldrich school, which says: "Hold fast all I give you," and the school of the apostle, who in a single sentence pointed out a plain road well suited to the progress of society, "prove all things and hold fast that which is good. "It is an interesting thing," said the senator, "that while the Aldrich school has been closed—not for repairs but permanently—the American people are studying the precept laid down by the apostle, with results so far-reaching in their influence as to amount to a party revolution. The course of study is a short one in this school, which now numbers among its students a most distinguished pupil who already holds the diploma of other schools—the president of the United States."

TO INCREASE LOS ANGELES VALUES FOOTHILL FARMS NEAR THIS CITY

Have you ever hoped to have a home of one, five or ten acres—on the foothill slopes near Los Angeles? Haven't you wished that some friend had taken you by the shoulder and made you pick up a few acres at Hollywood, Altadena or Sierra Madre before they advanced from $300 up to $2000 an acre? Those places have passed forever from your early reach. The Western Empire, California's famous home-owners' and rural home journal, is now completing an organization of 200 local and eastern readers to take over 1400 acres of land at Sunland, in the original Monte Vista valley. It is a mountain-hidden valley seven miles back of Glendale. This district surpasses Altadena or even Redlands in its beauty, its climate, and is only fifteen miles from the Chamber of Commerce building in Los Angeles. Sunland's Monte Vista valley has the best climatic protection of any district on the coast side of the Sierras. Come and see it now. John McGonarty, the famous poet of our southern days of his "And I saw a vale that day as fair as any in all the Land of the Heart's Desire. I was ashamed to think that I had let the years go by and had wandered far in quest of beauty, while all the time Sunland's Monte Vista had been there in its ravishing loveliness just beyond the threshold of my door. A few heads of families may join this organization, which secures this land at a low wholesale price. Improves it with roadways, townships, schools and trolley lines, and distributes the land to members so that the total cost to you is not one-quarter of prevailing prices in the open retail market. When this kind of land is opened it goes up beyond your reach. The district lies in an open valley running from Pasadena west to Fernando, including La Canada, La Crescenta and Monte Vista—Sunland. Don't try to imagine it in an open valley—come and investigate. It is only one hour from town. The editor of the Western Empire has managed the location of eight successful town projects on this same plan. This is your foothill home opportunity. Level, rich in productivity and water, frostless, baimy and 1500 feet above sea level. Daily auto stage leaves our office 10 a. m. except Sundays, returning 2 p. m. Or special trips may be arranged. Engage your seats in advance. Fare $1 round trip. Call or write at once for booklet. Western Empire Suburban Farms association, 100 to 119 Chamber of Commerce building, Los Angeles California.

PLANS FOUR DREADNAUGHTS ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 29.—The Bourze Gazette today announces the admiralty is planning to build four dreadnaughts for the Black sea fleet.

No Man is Stronger Than His Stomach

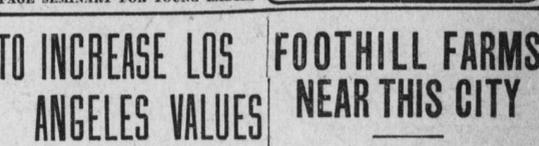

A strong man is strong all over. No man can be strong who is suffering from weak stomach with its consequent indigestion, or from some other disease of the stomach and its associated organs, which impair digestion and nutrition. For when the stomach is weak or diseased there is a loss of the nutrition contained in food, which is the source of all physical strength. When a man "doesn't feel right," when he doesn't sleep well, has an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach after eating, is languid, nervous, irritable and despondent, he is losing the nutrition needed to make strength. Such a man should use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enriches the blood, invigorates the liver, strengthens the kidneys, nourishes the nerves, and so GIVES HEALTH AND STRENGTH TO THE WHOLE BODY. You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic medicine of known composition, not even though the urgent dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit. Ingredients printed on wrapper.
