

SOCIETY NEWS OF THE WEEK

BY THE CHATTERER

There is much preparation and much work going on in Los Angeles this month in making plans and fixing dates for the entertainment of the National Bankers' association...

October will mark the return of many of the travelers who have been abroad and to the many beaches. There is much being planned in the way of gaiety in which auction bridges seems to figure largely...

Mrs. Charles Modlin Wood, accompanied by her daughters, Misses Elizabeth and Florence Wood, left Friday to pass the week end at Catalina.

The marriage of Miss Letha Lewis, daughter of Mrs. Mary Agnes Lewis of 1425 West Third street, to Samuel Stearns of Los Angeles and San Francisco was solemnized last evening at the residence of the bride's mother...

Mrs. R. G. Veasey and Mrs. C. R. Baxter entertained with a card party at the home of Mrs. Veasey in West Twenty-fourth street Wednesday afternoon...

Mrs. Nelson Kingsland Who Has Gone to New Home in Birmingham, Ala.

—Photo by Hemenway.

Jackson, Mo.; Frances O'Farrell of Bloomfield, Mo.; and Ona Rogers of Santa Barbara.

In honor of Sayre Macnell, son of Mrs. Hugh Livingston Macnell of South Figueroa street, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Howard of Scarff street entertained with a dinner party at the Los Angeles Country club Friday evening...

The marriage of Miss Martha Pearl Judson, daughter of William Less left for Boston Tuesday morning. They are planning to be away for two or three months...

The Misses Bertha and Julia Harper of Champaign, Ill., who have been passing the summer months in Southern California and are located at the Westlake apartments, will pass the winter here also...

Mrs. Frank K. Watkins of West Sixteenth street entertained with a children's party Wednesday afternoon in honor of the birthday anniversary of her little daughter, Margaret Eby Watkins.

Culver Smith of Little Rock, Ark., as a member of the Alpha Chi Omega sorority, will study piano here this winter. Miss Julia is a member of the Delta Gamma sorority of the University of Illinois...

Mrs. Marian Bruce Dumble, daughter of Mrs. Frances Dumble of Burlington avenue, whose marriage to Frederick Ruhl Eno will be solemnized tomorrow Tuesday at the residence of the bride's mother...

The marriage of Miss Marjorie Freeman of 817 West Third street entertained with a tea at the Alexandria Friday afternoon in honor of the birthday anniversaries of her mother, Mrs. W. F. Freeman...

Mrs. Orrin Rice of Sunset boulevard will entertain with a week end party at her summer cottage at Hermand, Calif., on Saturday and Sunday...

Mrs. Edwin T. Earl, who has taken a cottage for the month at Redondo, has returned from the week end at Earl joined her Saturday evening. They will return the latter part of the week.

been passing some weeks in Los Angeles. The pergola was decorated with vines and flowers and the tables were arranged there. Tea was served and the prizes were won by Mrs. William E. Horn, Mrs. Charles F. Ramsay and Mrs. M. P. Olmstead...

Formal announcement is made of the marriage of Dr. Julia Ahrens, formerly of Grand Rapids, Mich., and Dr. Howell R. Woodruff, which was solemnized on Monday morning by Justice Baird...

Among the recent arrivals from Los Angeles at the Del Monte of enthusiasts of golf and tennis are Mrs. Richard Dillon, Miss Leahy, Mr. and Mrs. John Jackson, Miss M. L. Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Campbell, Miss Desmond, Miss K. M. Haring, William P. Haring, Miss Cushman, Miss Peacock, C. Martyn, E. H. Gutheridge, Miss Dorin, Mrs. J. B. Barning, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Bullard, Mr. J. B. Barning, J. B. Barning, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. James Alexander Hallett, who have been passing their home in Hollywood, who have been passing the summer at Ocean Park, are at home again. Mrs. H. Von Bue-low has been visiting her daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Brooks, accompanied by their mother, Mrs. A. G. Hammond of Hollywood, who have been enjoying a three weeks' automobile trip through the north, including Tahos, San Francisco and the Santa Cruz mountains, have returned to their home.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Mrs. Eisle A. Langworthy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Banthrum of South Workman street, to Leslie L. Pyle of Wilmington, Del. The ceremony was performed by her son Theodore, left recently for a visit in the east, where she met Mr. Pyle and the marriage followed.

Formal announcement is made of the engagement of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Foley of Princeton, N. J., to Walter A. Hawley. The wedding will take place this month at St. Vibiana's church in Los Angeles...

Mrs. Marjorie Freeman of 817 West Third street entertained with a tea at the Alexandria Friday afternoon in honor of the birthday anniversaries of her mother, Mrs. W. F. Freeman...

Mrs. Orrin Rice of Sunset boulevard will entertain with a week end party at her summer cottage at Hermand, Calif., on Saturday and Sunday...

Mrs. and Mrs. R. Dunlap of 507 West Twenty-first street announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Halle Dunlap, to Norval Lloyd Winslow of Los Angeles...

Mrs. H. Fletcher Elliott of West Twenty-third street will be hostess at the third district cricket match, which will be played at Santa Monica tomorrow. She will be assisted by her husband, Mr. G. C. Broadfield of Burlingame.

In honor of Miss Anne Powers, daughter of Dr. A. M. Powers, whose engagement to Edward Keller has been announced, Mrs. T. G. Widmeyer and Mrs. Preston McKinley entertained at the Hotel Mount Washington recently.

Members of the South Gate Tennis club entertained with a dancing party at Rhoades hall, West Fifty-fourth street, Wednesday evening...

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Jamison of 2024 South Hoover street will be glad to know of their return from an extended trip in the north. Mr. Jamison is the president of the Lyric club and an active worker in the Ethel club...

Some misunderstandings have occurred recently in which the W. H. Jamison family of Los Angeles has been joined with the family of W. H. Jameson of Corona, now enjoying a trip through the Orient and Europe.

Dr. and Mrs. James Trotter and Mr. and Mrs. A. Tucker, Hotel Van Nuys, will leave Wednesday, under the auspices of the German department, German-American Savings bank, on an extended tour around the world, visiting Honolulu, Japan, China, Korea, Arabia, etc., after which they will make an extended tour through Europe.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ferris arranged a delightful surprise party for them last Wednesday evening in honor of Mr. Ferris' birthday anniversary. Mr. Ferris had entertained his wife at dinner at the Alexandria, and they reached the party about 9 o'clock...

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Riggle, Mrs. Ella I. Mitchell and Miss Mitchell will pass the week end in Topanga canyon.

Mrs. Gertrude Long of Pasadena avenue, Lincoln park, is entertaining as hostess for Mrs. F. A. Blake of San Francisco.

Mrs. Mabel Stuart, who has been visiting at Lake Arrowhead for three weeks, has returned and is with her mother, Mrs. B. F. Church, at the Navarro apartments.

in which German favors, colored candies, flowers and a brilliantly decorated birthday cake were conspicuous. Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Kingsland, who left last night for their new home in Birmingham, Ala., were also guests of special honor, and toasts to Mrs. Ferris were given by many of the guests. Mrs. Ferris responded with an appreciation to her friends which was sincere and tender.

Miss Laura Grover Smith entertained with an informal evening party at her home in West Twenty-fourth street recently. Her guests included Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Foster, Mr. and Mrs. David C. McCan, W. H. Wright and Gregory Perkins.

Prof. and Mrs. G. Victor Linsenbard of Eighth avenue who with their family have been enjoying an outing at Camp Comert in the San Bernardino mountains, have returned.

Mrs. Frank A. Vickery of Andrews boulevard entertained with an informal luncheon Wednesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Frederick H. Waterman, a Misses Hazel Wood, Ethel Chase, Lulu Moody, Agnes Williams, Maude Moody, Newton Van Why, Luther Huff and Harry Chase of Glendale; Mrs. J. B. Coker, Mrs. J. B. Barrett, Mamie Eads and A. F. Vandegrift of Los Angeles.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Helen C. Erricsson and Vincent W. Brooks. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. M. Schaefer at the residence of the bride's parents at 947 Dewey avenue.

Mrs. John F. Francis of Bonnie Brae street who has been passing the summer at the Hotel Potter, Santa Barbara, has returned home. Mrs. M. D. Watson and Mrs. John M. Carson, who accompanied her, have also returned and are at their home in Dominguez.

Mrs. O. W. Shoop of Audmore avenue entertained with a delightful musicale Tuesday afternoon assisted by her pupils. The house was decorated with asters and ferns and refreshments were served. An enjoyable program was rendered.

A jolly house party is enjoying an outing at Ocean Park this week consisting of Misses Esther Barber, Rhea Baumley, Mary Church, Helen Elz, Agnes Elz, Maude Lindley, Helen Watson, Florence Springer, Vera Wilson, Edith Scovel and Ione Morrison.

Mrs. S. Thlen Norton with her daughter, Miss Elizabeth Norton of Grand avenue, left Friday for a visit to Mrs. Norton's mother, Mrs. Louis Grodel in New York city. Mrs. Norton has been house guest of Mrs. Norton for the past month, accompanied by her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wright of Fourth street, Ocean Park, entertained with a dinner party Saturday evening. The guests given down from Los Angeles were Mrs. J. M. Moore, Mrs. Harry Payne, Mr. Elroy Payne, Mr. John Mathews, Miss Theresa Mathews and Miss Ethel Moore.

The marriage of Miss Mae Smallwood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Smallwood of Hollywood, to Joseph Smallwood Wednesday evening at the residence of the bride's parents in West Eighth street, the Rev. F. W. Calkins of the Hollywood Congregational church officiating. The bride was attired in a white messaline gown and carried a shower of bride's roses. Miss Pauline Nichol rendered the wedding music and Mrs. J. E. Dietz sang "O Promise Me." The house was beautifully decorated with pink carnations and ferns and an elaborate supper was served.

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Barber of South Flower street and their son Norman have left on a trip north and will remain in San Francisco for a week or ten days, and on their return home will go to Newport for a month.

Mrs. W. F. Callender and Mrs. Mary Bates of West Twenty-ninth street entertained with a dinner party at the Ammandale clubhouse Tuesday evening. Her guests were Misses Rae and Josephine Rankin. The young women have been graduated this year from Ann Arbor, Mich. The table was decorated with pink carnations and the centerpiece being in the form of a star. The places were marked by hand-painted cards held by cardboard animals. Covers were laid for Mr.

Mrs. Louis Brown and Miss Laura Bibbs of 168 Sixth avenue entertained with a most delightful party Thursday afternoon in honor of Miss Augusta List, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. List, whose engagement to Samuel C. Locke was recently announced. The wedding will be solemnized September 15. In honor of Miss List Miss Bertha Boal of 131 West Avenue 42 entertained with a luncheon shower at her home Tuesday afternoon. The gifts were arranged in a miniature boat gayly decorated with flags, American and Chinese flags, Chinese lanterns and umbrellas were hung around the room, suggestive of the trip which the young couple will take to China after the wedding. The sherbet was served in cups shaded by tiny umbrellas. The guests included Mrs. Mary Stewart, McFarland of Kores, Mrs. R. B. Jones, Mrs. Ina Boal and the Misses Clara Bartram, Nino Brown, Kate Darling, Mae Darling, Frances Gordon, Amy Gordon, Rebecca Hayslip, Elizabeth Horton, Edna Lowe, Elizabeth Lowe, Marguerite MacKall, Lois MacKall, Mae McClung, Faye McKean, Byrd Rice, Luella Rice, Emma Thomas, Veronica Trowbridge, Grace Webster, Grace Whitcomb, Pearl Wiggins, Louise Boal and Lois Caskey.

Mrs. Granville H. Gray entertained recently with a reception at her home in North Griffin avenue in honor of Mrs. W. R. Doggett of Durango, Colo. Rev. E. L. Howe of the Church of the Epiphany assisted the hostess in receiving and fifty guests responded to invitations.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Riggle of Glendale entertained with a hearts party Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Evelyn Heaton Lewis, whose engagement to Harry Earl Jones was announced recently. The house was elegantly decorated for the occasion in red and white, geraniums, potted plants and festoons of red hearts in cardboard completing the "hearts" scheme. The score cards were hand-painted Cupids on hearts, and the prizes were won by Miss Ruth McAllister and Mr. Jones. Supper was served and covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Lucius Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Rosenthal, Mr. and Mrs. Cassell Severance, Mrs. John Vance Lewis, the Misses Ada Henry, Ruth McAllister, Grace Stoerner, Vera Lindstrom, Pauline Elean, Edith Buchanan, Florence Browning, Frances Poor, Dr. Jack Patton, William Traeger, James McKnight and William Stoerner.

Formal announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Fannie Siegel and Estlin J. Barker, which was performed in the study of the Rev. Sigmond Hecht of the B'nai B'rith temple Wednesday evening. The bride was attired in her traveling gown of white broadcloth, and Mrs. Gertrude Siegel assisted her sister as maid of honor. Mr. and Mrs. Barker left for a wedding trip to the north. Mr. Barker is extensively interested in the Maricopa oil fields.

A jolly party from Glendale and Los Angeles is passing the week on Mount Wilson making the trip over the old Sierra Madre trail through Orchard camp. Mrs. C. H. Lockwood is chairwoman of the party, which includes Misses Edith Chase, Lulu Moody, Agnes Williams, Maude Moody, Newton Van Why, Luther Huff and Harry Chase of Glendale; Mrs. J. B. Coker, Mrs. J. B. Barrett, Mamie Eads and A. F. Vandegrift of Los Angeles.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Helen C. Erricsson and Vincent W. Brooks. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. M. Schaefer at the residence of the bride's parents at 947 Dewey avenue.

Mrs. John F. Francis of Bonnie Brae street who has been passing the summer at the Hotel Potter, Santa Barbara, has returned home. Mrs. M. D. Watson and Mrs. John M. Carson, who accompanied her, have also returned and are at their home in Dominguez.

Mrs. O. W. Shoop of Audmore avenue entertained with a delightful musicale Tuesday afternoon assisted by her pupils. The house was decorated with asters and ferns and refreshments were served. An enjoyable program was rendered.

A jolly house party is enjoying an outing at Ocean Park this week consisting of Misses Esther Barber, Rhea Baumley, Mary Church, Helen Elz, Agnes Elz, Maude Lindley, Helen Watson, Florence Springer, Vera Wilson, Edith Scovel and Ione Morrison.

Mrs. S. Thlen Norton with her daughter, Miss Elizabeth Norton of Grand avenue, left Friday for a visit to Mrs. Norton's mother, Mrs. Louis Grodel in New York city. Mrs. Norton has been house guest of Mrs. Norton for the past month, accompanied by her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wright of Fourth street, Ocean Park, entertained with a dinner party Saturday evening. The guests given down from Los Angeles were Mrs. J. M. Moore, Mrs. Harry Payne, Mr. Elroy Payne, Mr. John Mathews, Miss Theresa Mathews and Miss Ethel Moore.

The marriage of Miss Mae Smallwood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Smallwood of Hollywood, to Joseph Smallwood Wednesday evening at the residence of the bride's parents in West Eighth street, the Rev. F. W. Calkins of the Hollywood Congregational church officiating. The bride was attired in a white messaline gown and carried a shower of bride's roses. Miss Pauline Nichol rendered the wedding music and Mrs. J. E. Dietz sang "O Promise Me." The house was beautifully decorated with pink carnations and ferns and an elaborate supper was served.

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Barber of South Flower street and their son Norman have left on a trip north and will remain in San Francisco for a week or ten days, and on their return home will go to Newport for a month.

Mrs. W. F. Callender and Mrs. Mary Bates of West Twenty-ninth street entertained with a dinner party at the Ammandale clubhouse Tuesday evening. Her guests were Misses Rae and Josephine Rankin. The young women have been graduated this year from Ann Arbor, Mich. The table was decorated with pink carnations and the centerpiece being in the form of a star. The places were marked by hand-painted cards held by cardboard animals. Covers were laid for Mr.

Mrs. Louis Brown and Miss Laura Bibbs of 168 Sixth avenue entertained with a most delightful party Thursday afternoon in honor of Miss Augusta List, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. List, whose engagement to Samuel C. Locke was recently announced. The wedding will be solemnized September 15. In honor of Miss List Miss Bertha Boal of 131 West Avenue 42 entertained with a luncheon shower at her home Tuesday afternoon. The gifts were arranged in a miniature boat gayly decorated with flags, American and Chinese flags, Chinese lanterns and umbrellas were hung around the room, suggestive of the trip which the young couple will take to China after the wedding. The sherbet was served in cups shaded by tiny umbrellas. The guests included Mrs. Mary Stewart, McFarland of Kores, Mrs. R. B. Jones, Mrs. Ina Boal and the Misses Clara Bartram, Nino Brown, Kate Darling, Mae Darling, Frances Gordon, Amy Gordon, Rebecca Hayslip, Elizabeth Horton, Edna Lowe, Elizabeth Lowe, Marguerite MacKall, Lois MacKall, Mae McClung, Faye McKean, Byrd Rice, Luella Rice, Emma Thomas, Veronica Trowbridge, Grace Webster, Grace Whitcomb, Pearl Wiggins, Louise Boal and Lois Caskey.

Mrs. Granville H. Gray entertained recently with a reception at her home in North Griffin avenue in honor of Mrs. W. R. Doggett of Durango, Colo. Rev. E. L. Howe of the Church of the Epiphany assisted the hostess in receiving and fifty guests responded to invitations.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Riggle of Glendale entertained with a hearts party Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Evelyn Heaton Lewis, whose engagement to Harry Earl Jones was announced recently. The house was elegantly decorated for the occasion in red and white, geraniums, potted plants and festoons of red hearts in cardboard completing the "hearts" scheme. The score cards were hand-painted Cupids on hearts, and the prizes were won by Miss Ruth McAllister and Mr. Jones. Supper was served and covers were laid and Mrs. Gail B. Johnson, Dr. and Mrs. Milbank Johnson, Waldo Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Marsh, Joseph Marsh, Miss Della Bates, Miss Emma Bates, Warren Bover, Everett Charlton, Miss Louise Johnson, Miss Evelyn Johnson, George Matterson, Arthur Rivers, Hugh Willette and Miss Beatrice Fessenden.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Alice Mae Fay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Fay of Whittier, and Glenn A. Calkins of Los Angeles. The ceremony was performed quietly Wednesday and Mr. and Mrs. Calkins left immediately for an automobile trip. They are planning to be away for a month and will make their home in Los Angeles upon their return, having bought a cozy bungalow which will be ready for their occupancy when they return.

Middleman Theodore E. Hammond of the United States naval academy, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. S. Hammond of Cahuenga boulevard, who has been on a three months' practice cruise in European waters, has returned to Los Angeles, where he will make a brief visit with his parents. He will return to Annapolis at the conclusion of his visit.

Philip F. Ewald of Santee street will leave for San Francisco Wednesday for a vacation.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Helen McMahon to Paul C. Eagles, which was solemnized at Santa Ana Monday afternoon. There were only a few of the most intimate friends present. Miss Adeline Skinkins assisted as maid of honor and Emmet Show served Mr. Eagles as best man. After a wedding trip to Coronado Mr. and Mrs. Eagles will be at home to their friends in West Fifty-fourth street after September 15.

Miss Marion Otis McPherson of Hollywood left for the city of Mexico, accompanying her grandfather, Gen. Harrison Gray Otis of Los Angeles. General Otis goes as a member of a special committee of ten persons appointed by the president to represent the United States at the approaching centennial of Mexican independence.

Miss Bertha Metzger of Los Angeles, who has been the house guest of Miss Carrie Kramer in Santa Monica, was the guest of honor at a box party at the Auditorium Ocean Park. The boxes were decorated with pepper boughs, geraniums and hanging baskets of ferns. Refreshments were served in the rear of the boxes, and the guests included Miss Louise Todd, Miss Hazeladea Wright, Miss Helen Grindley, Miss Anna Sammam, Miss Mary Egan, Miss E. L. Mitchell, Miss Florence Allen, Miss Helen Wilputa, Miss Louise Hofer, Mrs. Ray Jewell and Miss Carrie C. Cramer, Henry E. Elythe of the Osborne, Mr. Mitchell, Errol Roberts, Mr. Barrens, Oliver Wendell Holmes, Grover Todd, Harold Atwater, Morris Ridenour, Paul Cramer, Ray Jewell and Withers Todd.

Mrs. Walter Scott Newhall, who has been passing the summer in Santa Barbara and Monterey, has returned and opened her house in Chester place.

In honor of the birthday anniversary of Mrs. F. M. Walker of Los Angeles, Mrs. William E. Muse of Chicago, who has been passing the summer on the coast, entertained with a dinner party at the home of Mrs. Muse in Catalina Saturday evening. The tables were decorated with red and green, carnations and ferns being used. Covers were laid for fourteen, and among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Schmidt, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Burgess, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Palmer, Mrs. M. A. Martin, Mrs. C. H. Bush and A. MacQuodale.

Miss Elde Kendrick and Miss Jessie Kendrick have gone to Berkeley, where they will continue their studies at the university.

The marriage of Miss Madeline Vilas, daughter of Mrs. Sarah Vilas of San Francisco, to Dr. Theodore G. Finley of Los Angeles will be of much interest to the many friends of the young couple. The ceremony was performed at noon Thursday at the home of the bride in Berkeley, 418 LeRoy avenue, the Rev. Fay Donaldson officiating. Dr. and Mrs. Finley left at once for a wedding trip to Tahoe, where they are planning to remain two weeks before coming to make their home in Los Angeles.

Mrs. F. A. Brown of 4315 Vista street entertained with a card party Wednesday afternoon. The house was decorated with golden glow and ferns, and the guests were Mrs. A. Vaughney, Mrs. C. H. Collard, Mrs. C. G. Huston, Mrs. B. F. Harper, Mrs. W. A. Pierce, Mrs. A. C. Wright, Mrs. Richard A. Ward and Mrs. Katherine Mann of Pasadena.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Bellows of Manhattan (Continued on Page Nine)

Everywhere 42591 Telephones The value of a telephone is measured by the number of persons it will reach in the Business and Social World. The Pacific Telephone Does the Rest

Lake Tahoe and return $23.00 On the great excursion outings September 8-10-17-24 Return Limit 21 Days Stopovers allowed on return limit of ticket at San Francisco and Merced for side trip to Yosemite valley. See Agents Southern Pacific Los Angeles Office 600 South Spring Street Pasadena Office 148 East Colorado Street