WINTER ACTIVITIES IN CROWN CITY COMMENCE

Hotel Maryland Will Mark Beginning of the Season with Dinner-Dance

PASADENA, Oct. 1.—Today will mark the beginning of winter activities with the Hotel Maryland, the Pasadena Polo club and the Shakespear club. The Maryland will start the season tonight with a dinner-dance. Manager Linnard stated last evening that while the opening will not be so conspicuous in some respects as in former years, owing to the hostelry having been kept open all summer, the fact that the affair marks the beginning of a prosperous winter for Pasadena will be impressed upon those who attend.

Many eastern reservations have already been made, and fifty winter guests from across the mountains have taken up their winter quarters at the hotel and in the bungalows. Three hundred reservations for the coming week have been made for New York bankers and members of their families who will make the headquarters here while the convention in Los Angeles is in session. The parties will travel to and from Los Angeles in two special electric cars, and numerous automobiles engaged by the hotel management. Many of the bankers and their families arrived yesterday, and others are expected to arrive this morning. The dinner-dance, which to a great extent is arranged in their honor.

Work on the enlarged lobby is completed, and the room will be thrown open for inspection tonight. Nearly double the former space is afforded for lounging purposes. The bachelor apartments on the roof garden are practically completed, and work on the enlarged dining room will be commenced after the bankers leave.

Dinner tonight will be served from 7:30 to 8 o'clock and will be given in formal. An elaborate musical program will be given under the direction of Reginald Bland, who has been furnishing music for the piano. Virginia and Fred Hellbroner will preside at the piano.

POLO CLUB ACTIVITIES. Winter practice for the polo club will begin this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at Tournament park, and society is expected to be out in numbers, but it is announced that admission is limited to members of the polo set. Officers of the club desire to popularize the game in this city, and to that end have extended a standing invitation for everybody to attend the semi-weekly practice matches without money and without price.

Practice matches will be held until further notice on Tuesday and Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Those who will play in today's game are Harry and Reggie Weiss of Los Angeles, Dr. A. H. Savage, Dr. W. A. Boucher, Dr. Z. T. Malabar, Dr. L. T. McCoy, Jr., Ben Smith, Carleton Burke and Fred Emery.

The twenty-second annual opening of the Shakespear club, Pasadena's influential winter club, will be held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the club rooms on South Los Robles avenue. Special music will be rendered and a reception will follow the program. The receiving party will include the president, Miss Anna Meeker, and other officers of the club.

The opening will be designed as "President's dinner and address" and will be delivered by Miss Meeker. The committee in charge of the affair is made up of Mrs. C. J. Willett, Mrs. O. L. Bradlock, Mrs. E. L. Brown, Mrs. H. M. Tompkins. The hospitality committee will introduce new members of the club.

Mrs. Prudence Stokes Brown was the speaker at the initial meeting Thursday evening. Her subject was "Mistic Method of Dealing with Children." She said in part:

"In the plastic stage of development it is very important that the parents should have plastic material to play with. Earth, air and water are the most plastic, most elemental and most creative of materials. Do not neglect to furnish these elements to the growing child from the time he sits alone until he develops a mastery over other material is almost as disadvantageous to his natural development as to neglect to furnish the fundamental elements of food, clothing and shelter. We should attend to the essentials in education and let the non-essentials slip into the past ages."

RANCHER IS HELD UP, LOSES DOLLAR WATCH. Farmer Victorious in Rough and Tumble Fight with Athletic Robber. VENICE, Sept. 30.—Jean Lestelle, a rancher living near here, was held up and robbed late last night as he was walking homeward on the Charnock road west of town. He engaged in a struggle with the robber, who made his getaway, taking Lestelle's dollar watch. The rancher retained a tight hold upon his assailant, and the latter, in a desperate effort to get away, ran to a short distance from the scene of the holdup, and procured a shotgun, with which he sought the freeman, but the man had disappeared.

The spot where Lestelle was accosted by the robber is lonely and dark. It is on the road now used by automobilists on their way to and from Venice. He said he was walking rapidly when he espied the man in the middle of the road. The latter lighted a match, holding it so he could see Lestelle, but his own face was hidden. Lestelle said he thought it was a neighbor playing a joke on him, until the man pointed a pistol at his pockets. Then the two engaged in a rough and tumble fight, with the rancher proving victorious. Great Crowds Gather at Mineola to See the Vanderbilt Motor Events. 6000 MILES SCHEDULED. Three Machines Entered for First Run of 278 Miles, Starting at Daybreak.

MINNEOLA, L. I., Sept. 30.—The Vanderbilt cup race, restored to its pristine glory of an all-night revel, was ushered in early tonight with the time-honored accompaniments of horns of 10,000 automobiles churning through sleeping villages. Although the six hours' thrill provided by the race itself will not begin until daylight, he began soon after the theaters had released their audiences and continued throughout the night. From their perch on the outside Broadway restaurants big cars, little cars and sight-seeing vans loaded down with human freight puffed, snorted and hiccupped their way toward the objective point.

Many other persons came by train, on foot and on farm wagons and rigs. These found already on the course the inevitable hawks of frankfurters, of coffee and sandwiches, and here and there a poor, forlorn deputy sheriff making futile efforts to curb the pettrick of the crowd. The race, which started at dawn, is a triple event, consisting of the Vanderbilt cup contest, in which 31 cars will circle the course 22 times; the Wheatley Hill's restaurant big cars, and the Massapequa contest, in which six cars must make the circuit 10 times. The cars, drivers and other of the start was:
