Walter Folsom's Craft, with Aid of Time Allowance, Takes Arbitrary Handicap

Table with columns: Boat, Finish, Cor. Time, Handicap. Lists race results for Yacht Mischief II.

By the small margin of 51 seconds on corrected time, the yacht Mischief II, sailed by her owner, Walter Folsom, won the Arbitrary handicap of the South Coast Yacht club yesterday afternoon at San Pedro.

The event of yesterday marked the close of a most successful season of racing for the San Pedro club. Seven boats were entered and started in the race.

The weather was ideal, with a fair sea breeze and hardly any sea. The course was laid from the end of Miner fill in the outer Los Angeles harbor, thence to a stake flag, one mile east of the end of the breaker, thence to a stake flag, one mile east of the end of the breaker, thence to a stake flag, one mile east of the end of the breaker.

The Mischief II rounded the starting flag first and secured the windward berth. Mischief II followed close behind her with the Venus, Ider, Mariner, Minerva and Sea Bird following in the order named.

The first leg of the race was a balloon race. All the boats broke out their balloon jibs as they crossed the line.

On the run to the first stake the Mischief II was slowly outfooted by the Mischief II and the Mah-Pe. At the first stake the Mischief II rounded the windward buoy with the Venus, Ider, Mariner, Minerva and Sea Bird following in the order named.

From the second stake to the windward buoy was a dead heat to windward. The craft after rounding the first stake stood in shore for a long tack, and rounded the buoy in the same order as they rounded the first stake.

The third leg of the race was a spinner race, gradually shifting to a balloon as the boats neared the eastward mark. When the mark was reached the Mischief II, which broke out the sail as the buoy was rounded.

On the last leg of the race the Mischief II slowly picked up the Mischief II until about a hundred feet from the stake, when the Mischief II pulled out and the latter boat crept away from her.

The Mah-Pe finished first, but lost on account of the 11 minutes handicap she gave the Mischief II. The Minerva, with 35 minutes handicap from the scratch boat, Mischief II, was the last to finish the race, the Sea Bird, with a handicap of 35 minutes, beating her by ten seconds.

The Mah-Pe on corrected time was beaten 51 seconds by the Mischief II. Mischief II lost second place by six minutes and several seconds.

The Minerva was sailed by George Wallace and the Sea Bird by Joseph Pugh. The Venus was piloted by her owner, John Farnham.

NATIONALS 9, CARMEN 3

The Nationals took their twelfth straight game yesterday by defeating the Los Angeles Carmens 9 to 3, on the Twenty-fifth and Alameda diamond, the proceeds of the game were donated to the Times disaster relief fund.

Lafferty twirled an excellent article of ball and struck out nine men. The Carmens were shut out until the final inning, when a belated rally gave them three tallies.

WINTER LEAGUES READY FOR START

Enthusiastic Meeting at Doyle's Promises Season Far in Advance of the Past

The Winter league magnates got down to real business out at Jack Doyle's club establishment yesterday morning, and with harmony as the keynote transacted more business in the short time they were together than any previous Winter league directors have succeeded in doing throughout its season.

Jim McCormick represented the Los Angeles club, and gave assurance that the Bay city will support winter baseball in a most substantial manner throughout the coming season.

The Southern fans are crazy for baseball, and with the class that can be expected from the clubs as a whole Palmer's park should be packed every game.

GRAHAM AWARDS GAME TO PORTLAND LEADERS

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 23.—The Portland baseball team jumped farther into the lead in the pennant race tonight when Judge Thomas E. Graham, president of the Pacific Coast league, ruled out the game played last Wednesday between Portland and San Francisco on the local grounds. The game was protested by Manager McCormick on the grounds that the Empire Toman, by a reversed decision, deprived the northerners of the two runs that would have tied the score.

The decision advanced Portland to a position twenty-one points ahead of Oakland.
