

CHILDREN PLEAD FOR BEAR'S LIFE

Market Men Listen to Prayers for Bruin and Donate Him to Park Zoo

CAPTURED BY CATTLEMAN Wild Denizen Narrowly Escapes Commercialism with Bear Steak at $1 a Pound

Pleas of a number of women and children, supplementing one made by J. B. Lippincott, assistant chief engineer of the aqueduct and a member of the park commission, saved the life of a big brown bear yesterday.

If Mr. Bruin knew how narrowly he escaped being converted into bear steak at $1 a pound, he would thank Mr. Lippincott, instead of growling at him and all other persons from within the confines of his narrow cage.

The bear does not like being held a prisoner. He is about three years old and weighs approximately 600 pounds. He is a perfect specimen of his species.

With bear steak at $1 a pound the Newmarket company men hesitated. Mr. Lippincott continued to plead for the bear's life. Many women and children added their voices.

Ed Rice, animal keeper at the zoo, having a cage made for the bear that will cost $100. When the cage is completed the bear will be on exhibition at the Newmarket for several days before being removed to the park.

AGED MAN AVOIDING CAR STRUCK BY AUTO; INJURED

While endeavoring to get out of the way of an approaching South Pasadena car at Avenue Thirty-ones and Pasadena avenue yesterday B. B. Harwood, 60 years old, was struck by an automobile of the Cudahy Packing company and seriously injured.

SHIP CAPTAIN HELD FOR BEER SALE EMBEZZLING

A. W. E. Thompson, captain of a bark lying in Los Angeles harbor, now under writ of attachment issued by a wharfage company in San Pedro, was arraigned in justice court yesterday on a second complaint filed against him.

JUMPS FROM MOVING CAR; HURT

Anxiety to alight from a moving Washington street car at Fifth and Olive streets yesterday afternoon resulted in A. Marker, a salesman, 33 years old, being thrown to the pavement and suffering slight injuries.

Personal Mention

B. F. Miller, a merchant of Searchlight, Nev., will be in the city for several days, transacting business.

C. M. Howard, assistant freight agent for the Southern Pacific in the San Francisco office, is in the city transacting business for the office.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard W. Berry and Miss E. V. Watts of Melbourne, Australia, are registered at the Hotel Alexandria. They are traveling through America and will pass some time in Southern California.

A. F. Balch, a banker of Marshfield, Wis., who, after having attended the bankers' convention in Los Angeles, made a sight-seeing trip of the northwest, was again in the city on Wednesday. He will depart for his home this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Donovan of Missoula, Mont., are at the Hayward hotel for a few days. Mr. Donovan, who has extensive mining interests, is transacting business in the city.

UMBERTO SAECCHETTI, SECOND TENOR OF BEVANI COMPANY

The Theaters

The reserved seat sale opens this morning for the Bevani Opera company season at the Auditorium. The program for the first week, opening Monday, will be, Monday and Tuesday night, "Lucia di Lammermoor"; Tuesday and Friday night a double bill, "Cavalleria Rusticana" and "Pagliacci"; Wednesday evening, "Rigoletto"; with Alberti in the title role.

The sale of seats for Henry Miller's engagement next week at the Mason opera house begins at the box office this morning at 9 o'clock. Mr. Miller is bringing to Los Angeles for the first time his latest success, "Her Husband's Wife," one of the emphatic hits of last season in New York and Chicago.

With William Rock and Maude Fulton as its headliners, the Orpheum bill for next week, beginning Monday, ought to be one of the most delightful in its recent history.

The Orpheum road show is making its annual preparations for touring, and as formerly, will be here along in January. It will, by all say, the best road show ever.

The local hotel men will entertain their wives and women friends with a big theater party at the Orpheum tonight followed by supper at the Angelus grill. It is their first entertainment taking in the gentler sex.

Martin Beck has refused an offer by Gaby Deslys, the danseuse friend of ex-King Manuel. She wished an Orpheum tour and sought the foreign floors in a cable to Beck.

Demand for seats for "The Eternal Three," the new Eldridge-Houlis play, has been so tremendous that Manager Oliver Morosco has decided to run it another week at the Burbank theater.

Seats for the engagement of Max Figman, who will appear at the Majestic in his most successful comedy, "Mary Jane's Pa," will be placed on sale at the Majestic theater box office this morning.

A wild west show in tabloid form will be the feature attraction at Pantages next week. The act is the Arizona Joe company in a western skit called "A Glimpse of Prairie Life" and it is in truth a pocket edition of Buffalo Bill on the stage instead of under canvas.

"The Blue Mouse" seems to be holding the fancy of Los Angeles theatergoers to a most satisfying extent and nightly the Belasco theater is crowded with people who want to see the Blue Mouse, which had such a long record in the metropolis and which Mr. Stone and his associates are this week offering for the first time by a stock company.

The Sullivan & Considine vaudeville bill for next week at the Los Angeles theater will be headed by Martin and Maxwellian, the burlesque illusionists. Other features will be Mme. Jenny's miniature circus, Hughes' Musical Trio of versatile instrumental virtuosi, the athletic collegians, Leonard, Louie and Gillette, in the acrobatic act called "College Days"; Halten and Hayes, comedy specialists; Lester and Moore in laughable quips and timely song hits, and new comedy pieces.

There is only one King Dodo, and although Ferris Hartman is causing hundreds of people to leave the Grand Opera house every night with one side, Mr. Hartman will on Saturday night leave the throne and on Sunday afternoon will be seen in another of Society

Mrs. Mary H. Banning of North Hill street will entertain with a reception this afternoon at the Hotel Alexandria. Mrs. Banning will be assisted in receiving by Mrs. G. H. Burton, Mrs. William W. Stilson, Mrs. W. F. Edgar, Mrs. M. E. Boschke and Miss Francis Willis.

Mrs. Willoughby Rodman of Orchard street will be hostess with a bridge party this afternoon, this being the first of a series with which Mrs. Rodman will entertain this season. The second will be tomorrow afternoon.

Mrs. George Bagley of Seventh avenue has issued invitations for a card party on Tuesday afternoon, November 1.

M. Ross, of 2638 Menlo avenue. Fifty invitations have been issued.

Among the charming visitors in Los Angeles this summer are Mrs. Daniel W. Gill of Cheyenne, Wyo., and Miss Catherine Maddox of Mayville, Ky., who have been the guests of Mrs. Gregory Nast in Calhouna boulevard, Mrs. Gill, who is the daughter of Mrs. Nast, has been in Los Angeles since June 1. She is the wife of the mayor of Cheyenne, and will return home the last of the week. Miss Maddox and Miss Gregory Nast will accompany her and remain until after the holidays in Cheyenne.

Mrs. Sam Rothwell will entertain with a Dixie tea on Saturday evening in honor of Miss Leola Somers and Mrs. Horace Lansing.

Miss Annie Willis of Lake Vineyard entertained with a beautifully appointed luncheon at the California club yesterday afternoon in honor of Miss Lucile Clark, the wife of Mr. Clark, of two of the season's debutantes. The table was dainty with a centerpiece of forget-me-nots and lilies of the valley which afterward were found to be corsage bouquets for Mrs. Clark. The place cards were gold monogrammed cards of the hostess and the favors were tiny Dresden affairs. Covers were laid for the mayor, Miss Marion Macnell, Lois Chamberlain, Clarice Stevens, Sally McFarland, Lita Marietta, Elizabeth Hicks, Ann Patton, Sally Under, Marjorie Gray, Bonnie Bonner, Pattie Phillips, Mabel Murray, Virginia Murray, Virginia Nourse, Katherine Bashford, Elizabeth Helm, Annie Brown, Kate Van Noy, Katherine Melius, Carmelita Rosecrans, Elizabeth Wood, Florence Wood, Josephine McMillan, Rebecca McMillan, Carolyn E. Robb, The Marjorie Severance and Harriet Severance.

The marriage of Miss Star Irish, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Carlin of Fletcher avenue, to George L. Pitchoff was solemnized last evening at the home of Mrs. Pitchoff, 1919 Oxley avenue. The bride was attended by Mrs. Frank Maddox and Miss Helen Mills sang "O Promise Me" and "Because."

The bride was attired in a gown of white marquisette with hand-embroidery and lace. Her veil was held in place by a spray of orange blossoms and she carried a shower of lilies of the valley and bride roses. Misses Rachelle Walters and Viola Koney, in white lingerie gowns over yellow satin, assisted as bridesmaids. They carried arm bouquets of yellow and white chrysanthemums. Little Frances May Maddox, a white frock, carried a ring in a great white chrysanthemum. Mr. Pitchoff was served by Carter McLaurin as best man. The house was heated by the organ, and great clusters of white and yellow chrysanthemums, potted plants and ferns. A reception and supper followed the ceremony. In the dining room white chrysanthemums and ferns were combined and the mantels and stairway were banked with palms. The bride and groom were attended by the bridesmaids and the bridesmaids and the bridesmaids and the bridesmaids.

Another wedding of interest was that of Miss Hazel Sale, daughter of Judge and Mrs. Henry Thomas of North Grand avenue, and Charles Liesner Horemann of Kern, Cal., which was solemnized last evening at the residence of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Charles Witherspoon Carruth, in Kenwood avenue. The house was beautifully decorated with roses, ferns and palms, white roses and white chrysanthemums, and ferns were used in the living room where the ceremony was performed by the Rev. Baker P. Lee, and in the halls and library Cecil Bruner, roses and ferns were used. In the dining room white chrysanthemums and ferns were combined and the mantels and stairway were banked with palms. The bride and groom were attended by the bridesmaids and the bridesmaids and the bridesmaids.

Announcement is made by Mr. and Mrs. H. Seligman of Texas of the engagement of their daughter, Miss Florence Seligman, to Mr. C. W. Carver, of Los Angeles. No date is set as yet for the wedding.

Mrs. Sidney N. Heave of Roxbury street has issued invitations for a card party Thursday afternoon. Places will be arranged for thirty.

Miss Clara Wavler, who has been passing the summer traveling through the east, visiting in Michigan, Chicago and New York, is at home again. Her route from Chicago she stopped in Bakersfield as guest of her sister, Mrs. Charles E. Ball.

In honor of friends from Leavenworth, Kas., Mrs. C. C. Barnett of San Francisco entertained with a luncheon Friday afternoon. Covers were laid for Mrs. Thomas Maulty, Mrs. J. Mulvenon, Mrs. Edward Koffner, Mrs. Bert Anson, Mrs. W. W. Young, Mrs. Bretweiser, Mrs. Peterson, Mrs. Augustus Bretschneider and daughters of San Pedro.

Richard Carle's long run musical comedy successes, "The Maid and the Mummy,"

Although Manuel Roman, the minstrel singer, who is one of the features of the Sullivan & Considine Road show at the Los Angeles theater this week, has announced a fortune during his twenty-four years on the stage, he has also in recent years made another small fortune through his singing act at the Edison Phonograph company, and yesterday he signed a contract for his exclusive services to this company for the next five years.

VISITOR FROM NORTH WHO RETURNS HOME LAST OF THE WEEK

MRS. DANIEL W. GILL

OPEN PURSES IN BEHALF OF WIDOW

Mayor Receives Subscriptions to Save Little Home of Mrs. Dolores Vidal!

Subscriptions to assist Mrs. Dolores Vidal, 626 Mission road, whose home may be taken from her to pay assessments for the opening of Mission road, have been turned in to the mayor's office to the amount of $70. The mayor has announced that he will be glad to receive subscriptions for this purpose and urges Los Angeles citizens to help as much as they can.

The subscriptions the mayor has announced so far are $50 from William Elmers, contingent on the raising of the full amount; $10 from Mrs. C. M. Sterry, $5 from Dr. B. A. Kierluff and $5 from Frank G. Henderson.

Mrs. Bradley of the Bethlehem institute reported to the mayor yesterday that she had examined the case and found it a most worthy one. She said she had known Mrs. Vidal several years and that Mrs. Vidal had struggled valiantly against poverty.

With accrued penalties the assessment against Mrs. Vidal's little home has reached about $12, and the longer it is delayed in paying the amount the more the accrued penalties pile up. Mrs. Vidal has tried to mortgage her place, but no one will lend her enough to sell it, but cannot get $100 over the assessment, and unless the money is raised the little home Mrs. Vidal has been struggling for so long will be taken from her to pay the amount.

J. Niederer, 3409 South Main street, has sent $5 to The Herald to be added to the fund. He says that the case merits the support of all good citizens. One who signs himself "Justice" encloses a contribution of $2. He declares that as Mission road was converted into a boulevard for the benefit of motorists, an extra tax should be levied on automobiles to pay the cost of the improvement, so that homes of widows need not be sacrificed for wealthy men who want a smooth road to Pasadena.

Subscriptions received by The Herald to date to aid Mrs. Vidal follow: A. Friend.....$5.00 Justice.....2.00 T. H. E.....2.00 C. A. N.....2.00 F. Friend.....1.50 J. Niederer Co.....5.00

CHARGE ATTACK ON GIRL R. Nuez, charged with an attack on a 15-year-old Mexican girl, was arrested at Compton yesterday by Deputy Constable Bell and lodged in the county jail.

Club News

The November program for the Friday Morning club promises many interesting things. Hobart Bosworth took the month with a talk upon the educational possibilities of the moving pictures. This will be given November 4, and E. Tempier Allen, in a recital of Strauss songs, with Mrs. Gertrude Ross at the piano, will give the program November 15.

Memorial day for Julia Ward Howe is announced for November 25, and this is to be made notable by the celebration of the centennial of the most distinguished woman, "Reminiscences," written by Madame Caroline Severance, will be read by Mrs. Sidney Budgett (Elizabeth Dejeans), and the "Mistletoe" by Mrs. Robert L. Kempson.

Two other features of interest are the reception of charter members, to be given November 1, and the meeting of the dramatic committee in memory of a great poet, William Vaughn Moody, in which tributes will be offered by Mrs. Richard Lovey, Miss Abby Morgan and Miss Olive Percival. Hostesses for the afternoon will be Miss Florence Moore and Miss Henrietta Mossbacher.

The ninth birthday anniversary of the O'Byle Heights Entre Nous club was celebrated yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Shaffer, 2123 Brooklyn avenue. Canadian authors were studied and quotations from the works of Ralph Connor were used.

Delegates appointed to represent Los Angeles chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy at the national convention in Little Rock, Ark., next month, are: Mrs. A. M. Stephens, Mrs. C. Q. Stanton, Mrs. J. D. Bethune, Mrs. Harry Purdon, Mrs. Ada B. Stocker, Mrs. A. F. Keyer and Mrs. Matthew S. Robertson.

Owing to the proposed absence of Mrs. Erasmus Wilson, who has gone for a prolonged tour of the world, W. S. Bartlett has been elected to the position of president of this chapter, and will serve the coming year. Her election took place at the annual meeting of the chapter held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. H. Hance in West Twenty-third street. Other officers elected were: Mrs. Matthew S. Robertson, first vice president; Mrs. John W. Wolfskill, second vice president; Miss Agnes Bethune, secretary; Miss Cora Matthews, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Ada B. Stocker, treasurer; Mrs. Harry Purdon, historian; Mrs. J. W. McKinnon, registrar, and Mrs. C. H. Hance, custodian of the cross. The chapter will give its annual ball in January.

The Los Angeles Travel club will meet Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Samuel Barnes Smith, 3515 Vermont avenue. Roll call will be followed by book reviews by Mrs. H. A. Gilman and Mrs. J. A. Zimmerman. Mrs. K. K. K. will furnish the music for the afternoon. A discussion of current events will conclude the program.

Dr. Robert J. Burdette was the speaker at the Cosmos club meeting yesterday afternoon. His subject, "Jack the Giant Killer," proved to be an interesting one, as he handled it with reference to the many giants of present day life.

"The giants of olden times were soon killed off," said the speaker, "but at present one must meet and conquer giants of a different sort. These are the worries, both big and the best 'giant killer' of these days is that, one known as 'Commonsense.' Political, religious and economic difficulties Dr. Burdette characterized as the great giants of our times and he suggested that club women, through their effective organization, may do much to bring about the complete subjugation of these enemies to mankind.

Mrs. Fred A. Stephenson sang an aria from "The Barber of Seville," by Rossini, and for an encore, "The Summer Night" by T. Thomas. Mrs. George Simpson was at the piano. The resignation of Mrs. P. W. Garn as secretary was read and accepted with regret by the members of the club, and notice of the vacancy was given. The election of a successor for Mrs. Garn will be held at the next meeting.

Dry Your Clothes on a Wet Washday

With a New Perfection Oil Heater

When clothes can't be hung outside, and must be dried in a room or cellar, the New Perfection Oil Heater quickly does the work of sun and air. You can hang up the wet clothes, light your Perfection Oil Heater, open the damper top, and the heat rises and quickly dries the clothes.

Do not put off washing to await a sunny day in order to avoid mildew. Dry your washing any day with hot air from a PERFECTION OIL HEATER. Absolutely smokeless and odorless.

It gives just as much heat as you desire. It is safe, odorless and smokeless.

It has an automatic-locking flame spreader, which prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back, so the wick can be quickly cleaned. Burner body or gallery cannot become wedged, because of a new device in construction, and can always be easily unscrewed for reworking.

An indicator shows the amount of oil in the font. Filter-cap does not need to be screwed down, but is put in like a cork in a bottle, and is attached to the font by a chain. Finished in Japan or nickel, strong and durable, well-made, built for service and yet light and ornamental. It has a cool handle and a damper top.
