

HERALD CLASSIFIED LINERS

Under more than one hundred special headings, The Herald offers its classified advertisers real value in the way of publicity.

You want something that classified liners will get for you, others want something that you have for sale.

If you are seeking a position in any honest field of endeavor The Herald will publish your request free of charge.

In placing your classified advertising you should consider quality of circulation as well as quantity.

The Herald does not claim the largest circulation in the city, but it does claim, and can prove to you, that as an advertising medium it is second to none.

ADVERTISERS The Herald reserves the right to refuse advertisements and to reject or omit and refund the amount paid.

ADVERTISERS should read receipts given by The Herald in payment for "liners," as no mistakes can be rectified without them.

Rates for Classified Ads. 1 cent per word each insertion. 3 insertions for price of two.

You Are Missing Something

If You Are Not an Advertiser in The Herald The average actual circulation of The Herald for the past six months was 24,209

The average circulation for the past thirty days

26,391

You want to reach that many Los Angeles homes, don't you?

Why Don't You Do It?

If you are not a Herald advertiser you are missing that many homes in Los Angeles and its environs.

If you are a live business man, no further argument is necessary other than to say the circulation of The Herald is growing every day, due to the fact that The Herald publishes more lines of general news than any other newspaper in Los Angeles.

That's Why It is Popular. That's Why It Should Appeal to You as an Advertising Medium.
