AROUND TOWN

STUDENTS HOLD PAJAMARINE
 The students of the University of Southern California held a "pajamarine" rally on the campus last night. A brass band and numerous cowbells provided the musical accompaniment.

SECTION LABORER INJURED
 Leno Andra, a section laborer employed at camp No. 4 at Saugus, was run over by a Southern Pacific train near that place yesterday and his foot was amputated. The injured man was brought to Los Angeles last night and taken to the receiving hospital, where the police surgeons amputated all the toes of the injured foot.

PROF. LIGHTLY TO LECTURE
 Prof. E. J. Lightly will lecture before members of the Royal Arcanum tomorrow evening in Symphony hall, 232 South Hill street. Prof. Lightly, who has charge of the compulsory education work in connection with the city's schools, will take his subject "Juvenile Crime."

WILL GIVE HALLOWEEN BALL
 A Halloween ball will be given in Lincoln hall in the Walker theater building tonight by Mrs. Ada Davis. The ball is given every year by Mrs. Davis to her pupils in dancing and is one of the big dance events of the city. A full orchestra will furnish the music and a large attendance is expected.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS BALL
 Under the auspices of Helmet company 7 of the Knights of Pythias a grand ball will be given at the Glendeborg-Bosley assembly hall Tuesday evening, November 15. There are more than 5000 members of the order in Los Angeles, and a large attendance is expected. The proceeds will be devoted to the purchase of uniforms and other equipment for a company to represent Los Angeles in the national lodge competitive drill.

PAINTER IS RUN OVER
 BY L. P. FREIGHT TRAIN

P. C. Chamberlain, 65 years old, a painter living at 417 Sunset boulevard, was run over by a Los Angeles-Pacific freight train in front of his home last night and incurred injuries that probably will result in his death. Both legs were crushed by the wheels and he was bruised on the face and body. He was taken to the receiving hospital, where the police surgeons amputated the mangled limbs. Chamberlain was on his way home and attempted to cross ahead of the oncoming train. He evidently misjudged the distance of the cars and the speed of the wheels stepped on the track and was struck. He was knocked down and fell on the rails, the wheels passing over his legs. Because of his age it is probable that the victim will die as the result of his injuries.

JOHNSON IS WELCOMED BY SANTA MARIA REPUBLICANS

SANTA MARIA, Cal., Nov. 1.—The campaign of Hiram W. Johnson, Republican candidate for governor, in the southern part of the state, was ended tonight when he addressed a large audience in Ricard's opera house. Johnson reached Los Angeles early this morning from San Diego, and took a coast train for Santa Maria. He was met by a delegation of party adherents, and at Guadalupe a reception committee met the party, escorted Johnson to a meeting in the evening in the closing of the campaign outside of San Francisco.

UNION LABOR TEMPLE DIRECTORS ARE ELECTED

Stockholders in the Union Labor Temple association at a meeting held Monday night elected directors and decided to issue bonds to pay off the indebtedness on the structure at Sunset boulevard and North Broadway. The tracks cut diagonally across the sidewalk on Sunset boulevard a few yards from the home of Chamberlain. The latter, on his way home and attempted to cross ahead of the oncoming train. He evidently misjudged the distance of the cars and the speed of the wheels stepped on the track and was struck. He was knocked down and fell on the rails, the wheels passing over his legs. Because of his age it is probable that the victim will die as the result of his injuries.

HANDLEY AROUSES GREAT INTEREST

Congressional Nominee Says Battle on Again to Redeem Inherited Liberties

WANTS TARIFF COMMISSION

Federal Ship Line on the Pacific Coast and Lower Freight Rates Demanded

Prof. Lorin A. Handley, Democratic nominee for congress from the seventh district, delivered an address on the tariff and other issues of national importance in Macabees hall, Pasadena, last evening. Prof. Handley said in part:

"Making a tariff law which embodies justice to our whole citizenship is well nigh an impossible task, but we can level down the mountainous inequalities that now exist. The Payne-Aldrich bill only enhanced the taxing power of a few great corporations in this country. There was no effort to have an equitable distribution of the benefits of a tariff. Its passage was a violation of a solemn pledge to the people's majority both parties to raise the downward trend in the interests of the consumer. This bill has actually increased the Dingley schedules 2 percent, and not only this, but the tariff was not suitably measured according to the needs of our industries and for the best interests of the masses of our people."

"In order to raise revenue for our government we have placed a tariff duty upon certain imports into this country. As long as there is a tariff impossible of justice, it is our problem is the distribution of this benefit for the good of the greatest number. Experience has taught us that our present system of tariff making is impossible of justice. It has taught us that a bartering statesmanship can never serve a people well but we must devise some plan whereby honest tariff legislation can be made."

TAKE TARIFF FROM POLITICS

"We ought to take the tariff out of politics, create a non-partisan tariff commission to revise this tariff, schedule by schedule, and let every commodity rest upon its own merits. Our difference in production at home and abroad is the natural and normal basis of a tariff. This measure a real difference in our commerce and rests upon a basis of justice and this is the only way to do away with our bartering statesmanship and secure wholesome legislation in other aspects of our life."

"The tariff commission would put American industrial life on a sound basis. Congressional and presidential elections then would not hurt industrial life in panic every two and four years. It is a scandal and a shame to American business that every time we have an election affecting industrial life the whole of our industrial life is hurled into paralysis. When we take the tariff from the realm of partisan juggle and place it upon a safe, sane and just basis we have no real tariff. Life rest upon a firm foundation."

"Moreover, the seventh district of California should seek such a commission and such a tariff law. Our difference in production at home and abroad is the natural and normal basis of a tariff. This measure a real difference in our commerce and rests upon a basis of justice and this is the only way to do away with our bartering statesmanship and secure wholesome legislation in other aspects of our life."

"This is no time for uncertainties—no time for hedging and trimming—a man must speak out plainly before the people. They must know where they stand. I invited my opponent to go before the people with me and discuss these questions on the same platform. I wanted him to take a stand in one camp or the other. He deserted the regulars and ran on an insurgent platform. He then deserted the insurgents and is now trying to support regulars. Cannon for speaker. Everybody is saying that. What I want to know and what the people of this district want to know is whether Mr. Cannon will vote against all other standpatters for speaker of the house. Cannon is only an incident, any other standpatter is just as bad. Will the people in this district know that he will vote against every standpatter for speaker of the house?"

"We are fighting over again the battle of freedom. Property power has trampled down human rights, and we must redeem our inherited liberties. I have confidence in the virility and courage of our citizenship, and I know we will win this battle, and we will rehabilitate our American institutions with the spirit and the principles that are fundamentally American."

JOHNSON IS WELCOMED BY SANTA MARIA REPUBLICANS

SANTA MARIA, Cal., Nov. 1.—The campaign of Hiram W. Johnson, Republican candidate for governor, in the southern part of the state, was ended tonight when he addressed a large audience in Ricard's opera house. Johnson reached Los Angeles early this morning from San Diego, and took a coast train for Santa Maria. He was met by a delegation of party adherents, and at Guadalupe a reception committee met the party, escorted Johnson to a meeting in the evening in the closing of the campaign outside of San Francisco.

WOOLWINE MAKES STIRRING APPEAL FOR EQUALITY OF ALL BEFORE LAW

Crowded Houses Applaud Democratic Candidate Who Traces Civic Corruption to Legal Immunity Granted Those with Wealth and Political Influence

Crowded houses greeted Thomas Lee Woolwine at the two meetings at which he spoke last night, one in Wells hall, Central avenue near Vernon, and the other at the meeting at John D. Fredericks' home at Glendora at which he threatened to arrest a man who questioned him, provoked much laughter.

Mr. Woolwine outlined the manner in which he intends to conduct the office of district attorney, if elected, and his declaration in favor of impartial justice was vociferously applauded. He entered into details regarding charges he has made against Fredericks, which, he declared, are substantiated by the records and have not been disproved.

In opening Mr. Woolwine stated that it is his conviction that the American people will always vote right on any question, if only the message can be carried to them, and that is what he is trying to do, that is, to carry the message to every voter in the county of Los Angeles, and that his cause is a just one they will meet the issues and meet them in a just and fair way. In part he said:

"When we started to uncover the corruption in the higher administration the cry was raised that we were ruining the Democratic party. The answer was 'if that means the ruin of the party let it be ruined,' and when we started in to support Alexander for mayor the cry was raised that he was a Republican."

"The people of this country are getting wise and they are demanding to know the principles a man stands for rather than the political label he bears. They are searching the hearts of men and are asking the question: Whether they stand for justice and equality before the law, and in measuring men they are learning to disregard the party label, so the man who is standing for good and efficient government rallied around the present city government and elected them regardless of their views upon national questions."

DEFINES PRINCIPLES

"They thought that this candidate was efficient until he started for those who were corrupting the government of the city, and then he became ineffectual in the minds of those who would grant immunity to persons in high places. We have no fight against those who are prosperous; there is nothing that should be said against them, and because he is prosperous. Prosperity should be encouraged. I would like to

Voters of Precinct 163 Say Best Interests of County Demand Nominee's Defeat

Forty-six Republican voters of precinct 163 have sent to Russ Avery, chairman of the Republican county central committee, a communication in which they declare that the best interests of the county demand the defeat of John D. Fredericks, machine district attorney, who is seeking reelection. The communication follows:

"We, the undersigned Republican voters of precinct No. 163 in the city of Los Angeles, believe that the best interests of the county of Los Angeles demand the defeat of John D. Fredericks as candidate for the office of district attorney at the coming election, Nov. 8, 1910.

BOOK TRUST WORK IS SHOWN VOTERS

Circular Tells How California School Children Are Forced to Pay Tribute

That California's school children are compelled to pay thousands of dollars tribute to the book trust is the statement contained in a circular which has been sent out to the voters of California. It contains a comparison between the prices school children pay for their textbooks in California and those paid in Kansas, which state has no dealings with the book trust. The official prices, compiled from the records in the offices of the superintendent of instruction of the two states, follow:

Book—	California price.	Kansas price.
First reader .....	24 cents	10 cents
Second reader .....	28 cents	17 cents
Third reader .....	42 cents	23 cents
Fourth reader .....	42 cents	23 cents
Speller .....	19 cents	10 cents
First arithmetic .....	28 cents	20 cents
Grammar school arithmetic .....	50 cents	35 cents
English lessons, book 1 .....	28 cents	20 cents
English lessons, book 2 .....	28 cents	20 cents
Brief school history .....	87 cents	50 cents
Introductory geography .....	55 cents	30 cents
Physiology and Hygiene .....	44 cents	50 cents
All writing books .....	6 cents	5 cents
Old speller .....	19 cents	10 cents

The state pays to the book trust heavy royalties on the school books it publishes. The book trust is the copyright of the books. Some of the contracts with these publishing companies are for four years and some for eight years. The royalty is paid during the life of the contract.

The total amount of royalty paid the respective publishing houses from which the state secures plates is as follows, according to figures furnished by the department of public instruction:

From July 1, 1905, to June 30, 1910:
Ginn & Co. ....	$4,855.00
American Book company .....	14,855.44
D. C. Heath & Co. ....	8,626.96
Macmillan company .....	14,854.90
Total number of books sold, 554,175.30

Edward Hyatt, state superintendent of public instruction, who is a candidate for re-election, has stated over his own signature that "the number of pupils that are furnished with free textbooks is not in any way a matter of record in this state." The political possibilities in such a system of distribution are instantly apparent.

Prof. Thomas H. Kirk, one of the best known and most successful educators in the United States, who is a candidate to succeed Superintendent Hyatt, is being supported by instructors and progressive men generally throughout California, chiefly because of his pledges to reform the department and his recognized ability to carry out such pledges. He stands for "the best textbooks at the lowest prices, and I am strongly opposed to frequent changes of books."

The election of Prof. Kirk would mean the complete elimination of the book trust from the educational system of this state.

Democratic Ticket

Just to remind our readers of their duty at the coming election on November 8, we publish below the state and county tickets presented by the Democratic party for the election of voters, and the non-partisan judicial ticket nominated by the Good Government organization of this county.

In presenting this ticket we believe that the fact cannot be denied that it is, taking it from top to bottom, possibly the cleanest and most unobjectionable ticket and freest from all taint of the Southern Pacific machine that has been presented by any party in the state of California in over a quarter of a century.
