LONDON, Dec. 5.—The position of the parties tonight after the second day's polling in the general election is: Government coalition—Liberals, 87; Labor, 14; Nationalists, 16; total, 117. Opposition—Unionists, 116.
The results merely confirm the opinion formed that as the result of Saturday's contests the Unionists now have no possible hope of replacing the Liberal government in power. The only question remaining is whether the Liberals will return with a larger or a smaller majority.
To gain a bare majority in the new parliament the Unionists must make a net gain of sixty-two seats. This far—with 130 pollings—they have a net gain of only 10 seats. They have gained eleven and the Liberals six seats.

The gain by the Unionists on Saturday was seven, while the Liberals gained four. Today the Unionists gained four and the Liberals two. A continuation of this ratio would fulfill the Unionist prediction that the Asquith cabinet would be more than ever dependent on the Irish and labor allies.

LIBERALS MAY MAKE GAINS
It must be remembered, however, that the Liberals lost at the January elections many seats through "cross-voting." Such contests are largely eliminated in the present elections, and this may give them sufficient gains to balance those of the Unionists. On the whole, it seems likely the new house of commons will meet with the position of the parties practically unchanged. The question will then arise whether the king will feel justified in giving guarantees for the creation of Liberal peers to force the veto bill through the house of lords.
In Liverpool the strong campaign of the Unionist P. F. Smith, had the result of greatly improving the Unionist position. The Unionists gained the seat for the Exchange division of Liverpool, as well as that for the city of Liverpool. In the latter case the Liberal defeat was attributed to the recent absence of I. P. Vivian on a free trade mission in Canada.
The two seats the Liberals lost in London today—Islington north and St. Pancras west—were held by very small majorities in the previous parliament. Apparently, therefore, the metropolises much the same as in January in its attitude toward the contending parties.
London tonight is displaying much enthusiasm, and the successful candidates are being borne in torchlight processions through the streets. As returns come in, showing the closeness of the contest, interest is growing in Fleet street, Trafalgar square and other places where the results were shown, cheering and booing according to their political affiliations.
There were similar scenes in Liverpool, Leeds and other towns where elections were held. The weather is greatly improved during the afternoon. The evening, so far as the crowds were enabled to watch the returns without discomfort.
The political clubs were filled. At the Carlton and other Unionist gathering places much disappointment was expressed at the smallness of the gains, which were expected to be treble.
In Liberal quarters the greatest enthusiasm prevailed, for it had been predicted, even among the staunchest supporters of the government, that the Unionists would make a net gain of eight seats in today's pollings.

TWO WOMEN SUE: ONE SAYS MAN DESERTED FOR THIRD

SAN JOSE, Dec. 5.—Richard C. Waits, town marshal of Mountain View, is in a peculiar matrimonial mixup, according to suits brought in the superior court of this county. He is cross-complainant in one divorce suit, the defendant in another, and stands accused by the second wife of leaving her for a third woman. A suit was brought today by the second wife for divorce. Mrs. Ella Denney of Mountain View being named as co-respondent. Mrs. Charlotte E. Waits, the second wife, also has started suit for damages against Mrs. Denney.
A few months ago Waits was in court on a demand for maintenance made by a woman who for twenty-two years thought he was dead. Waits was married to Mrs. Waits No. 1 in 1887 in Holt county, Missouri. After eighteen months it is said he deserted her and her child. On a trial before Judge Welch it was found that his wife was the deserter. Waits was given an interlocutory decree September 28, 1910, and the first wife's suit was not pressed. Waits today resigned as town marshal.

LACK OF FUNDS DELAYS BATTLESHIP BUILDING

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—Finding it impossible to build the new battleship "New York" at the New York navy yard within the authorized $6,000,000, Secretary Meyers today announced the work would not begin until the situation had been called to the attention of congress and the amount increased.
It is said it will be necessary to increase the authorization $1,300,000 to $7,300,000.

SOCIALISTS POLL BIG VOTE

OLYMPIA, Wash., Dec. 5.—A remarkable Socialist vote is revealed by the return of the canvassing board to day. The highest Socialist vote was 25,000, for W. E. Richardson, for supreme judge, a gain of over 12,000 over 1908. In the congressional elections, the Socialists polled three times as many votes as they did a year ago.

JUDGE FREES MAN WHO GIVES UP CIGARETTES

DENVER, Dec. 5.—"If you solemnly swear that you will smoke no more cigarettes I shall suspend your fine," said Judge Stapleton today in the municipal court to Robert Watkins, who had been fined for experimenting with Graham smoking, who is 30 years old, took the pledge and left the court room a free man.

Glover Thinks Body Will Rest Beside Husband's—Others Say in Mother Church

(Associated Press)
BOSTON, Dec. 5.—That the body of Mary Baker Glover Eddy, founder and head of the Christian Science church, who died Saturday night, will find its last resting place in the crypt under the altar of the First, or M-her, church in Boston is the belief tonight of many leaders in the denomination.
No official intimation to that effect could be had, but as far as learned no arrangements have been made to take the body to Mrs. Eddy's birthplace at Bow, N. H., or to Concord, N. H., where she long resided.
When it was known, at the time the new church was built, that a crypt was built in its foundation walls, it was generally reported it would eventually hold the body of the founder of Christian Science.
Arrangements have been completed for the funeral on Thursday morning at 11 o'clock at the late home of Mrs. Eddy at Chestnut Hill. The services will be simple and the attendance limited to the family, the household of Mrs. Eddy and leading officials of the church.

MESSAGES FROM ALL OVER WORLD

Telegrams have been flowing in from all parts of the world seeking verification of the news of the death of Mrs. Eddy and containing many tributes. No crowd gathered in the vicinity of the house today.
The retention of the Christian Science leaders and officials as well as nearly all members of the denomination to comment on the death of Mrs. Eddy continued today, and no official statement followed those given out yesterday when the first announcement of her passing was made.
The fact that her last words, "God is my life," were written by her on a pad of paper Thursday was confirmed today, and also that her son, George W. Glover, had started east from Los Angeles, and probably would arrive here Wednesday morning.
The church will continue to be managed by a board of directors, which at present consists of A. B. Stewart, Archibald McLellan, Stephen B. Chase, John Dittmore and Adam H. Dickey. These men are members of the church. Mrs. Eddy, but the bylaws of the church provide for the filling of any vacancies by the board itself. There will be no successor to Mrs. Eddy.

BURIAL PLACE IN DOUBT

"Only her relatives, members of the household and the members of the church are invited to attend the burial," said Alfred Parlow of the Christian Science publishing committee, who made the public announcements concerning the death.
Before leaving his home in South Dakota Mr. Glover said he believed his mother's burial would be at Tilton, N. H., where her husband, George W. Glover, is buried.
A woman in high standing in the Christian Science church in Concord, N. H., who refused to consent to the use of her name, voiced what has been understood by many Scientists here that Mrs. Eddy's remains would be buried in the Mother church.
"We of the Concord church had expected Mrs. Eddy to return to Concord and pass her last days here. Now, however, it is improbable even that her remains will rest here, as there seems to be a general understanding among the church at large that her body may rest in the crypt of the Mother church at Boston."

NON-TO SUCCEED HER

"I don't know that any one will succeed her. Everything will go on as usual."
The statement given out by Eugene H. Cox for twelve churches of this city says the work will go on smoothly.
"Mrs. Eddy," said Mr. Cox, "never preached that there was no material death, although she had predicted the ultimate conquest of death in times to come, and there need be no difficulty in the minds of Christian Scientists in reconciling the physical fact of her death with their disbelief in death itself. The church of Christian Science in this city and elsewhere will run on smoothly on its own momentum. Mrs. Eddy gave it such an impulse and placed it on such an enduring basis that it can adequately guide itself."
"There can be no question of who is to succeed Mrs. Eddy. She can have no successor. Christian Scientists the world over universally regard her as the discoverer and founder of the religion she taught, and there cannot be two founders of a religion."

DISCUSS CHANGES IN CITY CHARTER

Revision Commission and Council Members Decide on Several Amendments

Important features of the proposed charter amendments were given a thorough thrashing out last night at an executive conference between the charter revision commission and members of the city council in the aqueduct offices.
The conference was called so that the members of the council could have a thorough understanding of the amendments before they are called to act on them. But there are so many important features in the amendments that not half the subject was even touched last night, and President Anderson of the commission said that it would require two more meetings before the council could have all the data. Only five members of the council were present at last night's meeting. They were Washburn, Stewart, Gregory, Andrews and O'Brien. C. O. Wellborn, a member of the council, was absent because he had to be present at an important meeting of the police commission.
The meeting was harmonious, and exuberant opinion was not developed. But the councilmen were not in an argumentative mood. They attended the meeting to secure information and before passing on the subjects.
RECALL DISCUSSION DEFERRED
The recall to apply to appointive as well as elective officers, one of the most important of the changes proposed did not come up for consideration. Portions of section 2 that relate to a future meeting. Some of the members of the charter commission itself do not entirely favor this radical idea.
Portions of section 2 that relate to the powers of the municipality and give Los Angeles the right to engage in any kind of municipal ownership project it chooses were discussed. This amendment would permit the city to own and operate gas, electric, telephone and power plants; railroads; steamships or electric streetcars; and everything else in which the city could possibly care to engage. The scope is unlimited, and if it chooses the city can build a transcontinental railroad, or run an interurban to Bisbee, Ariz.
The meeting last night was executive as President Anderson explained, so that the members of the council might feel freer to express their opinions of the measure advocated. The commission is to consider whether future meetings shall be open to the public.
ELECTION MAY BE HURRIED
The amendments must soon go to the council for adoption, for if they are to be presented to the legislature during this winter's session they must be voted on by the people not later than the last of February. In order to have an election on the subject by the last of February, the council must be through with consideration of the amendments and prepared to pass an ordinance the last of this month calling the election. The revisionists would like to have the election a little earlier than the last of February, and are explaining the amendments to the council so that they need not take so much time in considering them.

ENTIRE EAST IN GRIP OF STORM

Some Places Snowbound by Wintry Blasts Extending from Rocky Mountains

(Special to The Herald)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—With a snowstorm raging over practically the entire country north of the Ohio river and east of the Rocky mountains and extending south of the Dixie line in some places, the weather bureau tonight declared that the first real blast of winter would continue throughout tomorrow.
Not only that, but the official forecast declared the storm that reached New England, New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, West Virginia, Western Maryland and the extreme western part of Virginia today would increase in intensity and extend over virtually all the districts east of the Mississippi during the next thirty-six hours.
In New York city the snow marked the real advent of winter as the storm that began here this afternoon was the first severe snowstorm of the winter. Reports say that it was a typical New York winter day, as more than twenty persons were taken to hospitals suffering injuries as the result of falls, the pavements presenting a menace to life.
Up New York state there had been previous falls of snow this winter, and a few inches were on the ground when today's storm set in. Late tonight the storm had assumed the proportions of a blizzard in the region of the Great Lakes and in the mountains, and large areas are being cut off from communication with the outside world.
The same was true of the southwestern limits of the storm on the weather maps, and official reports from there stated that a veritable blizzard was raging, with the temperature hurrying toward the frigid mark.
Through Kansas and Missouri the storm kept up all last night, and after a steady fall of snow today it continued tonight. The storm of unusual severity for this time of the year in those states. There was an absence of wind and the storm was just the kind to be of benefit to the winter wheat.
It was the first real snowstorm of the winter in Iowa and continued twenty-four hours, leaving a blanket of snow from three to six inches deep over the northern part of the state. The same conditions prevailed over the northern part of Nebraska and the southern part of South Dakota.

FLEEING CHINESE CAPTURED

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 5.—After escaping late last night from the trans-Pacific liner Manchuria, fifteen Chinese were recaptured early today by four customs officers. According to the immigration authorities, who are preparing an official report, the blame for the escape may be laid at the door of the steamship company's officials.

SUICIDE CLAUSE IS VOID

DENVER, Dec. 5.—The state supreme court today upheld the constitutionality of the statute prohibiting insurance organizations from including "suicide clauses" in their policies.

LOUIS PHILIPPE'S GRANDSON, DUKE OF CHARTRES, DEAD

Former Exile Was with the Union Armies During Civil War

PARIS, Dec. 5.—The Duke of Chartres, a grandson of King Louis Philippe of France, died today. He was born in this city in 1840.
Robert Philippe Louis Eugene Ferdinand Orleans, the duke of Chartres, was the youngest son of the late duke of Orleans and in childhood was driven into exile by the second French revolution. He served in the Italian army in 1859 and in the federal army in the first campaign of the American Civil War.
Following the revolution of 1870 he returned to France and served incognito in General Chanzy's army. When the national assembly, the following year, revoked the law of banishment against the Orleans family, he was appointed a major in the army.

HOLDS THROTTLE; AVERTS TRAGEDY

Panic Stricken Engineer Leaps from Limited—Many Injured in Collision

Panic stricken at the sight of a Santa Fe freight train moving slowly toward him as his engine swung around a short curve north of Victorville station, seven miles east of San Bernardino, at 12:50 yesterday afternoon, W. E. Hill, engineer of the Los Angeles Limited on the Salt Lake road, leaped from his cab.
The engineer of the Santa Fe freight train, with unusual presence of mind reversed his engine and sought to back away and avert a collision. But the momentum of the onrushing limited had not been stayed and there was no one at the throttle to check its speed. It struck the freight engine. The impact knocked the freight engine back some distance and an instant later there was a second collision. Probably a score of passengers were injured, none seriously.
Only the presence of mind of the engineer on the freight averted a tragedy. His action lessened the shock. Hill's left leg was broken and he suffered internal injuries. He was brought to Los Angeles last night, arriving at 7:30 and removed to the California hospital.

CLARK CHEERED AT FAREWELL DEPARTING P.F.C.P. CONGRESS

Democrats Hail Missourian as
Next Speaker but Join Applause for Uncle Joe

FEW BILLS ARE INTRODUCED

Early Adjournment in Honor of Dead Members Taken by
House and Senate

(Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—The closing session of the sixty-first congress opened at noon today. No business was transacted, both branches meeting merely to appoint a joint committee formally to apprise the president that the legislative branch of the government was ready to proceed to call the rolls and to adjourn after adopting resolutions to the memory of members who had died since congress last met.
The usual animation marked the opening in both the senate and house, but the reunion of old friends was tinged with sadness because of the heavy toll death had taken in the last few months. In consequence the senate was in session only a quarter of an hour, while the house was in session fifty minutes. More than usual interest was manifested in the opening because of the passing of the balance of political power with the session.
Speaker Cannon received a remarkable ovation when he took up the gavel to announce the opening of the session in the house. The applause lasted several minutes, and the Democrats joined with the Republicans in acclaiming the veteran legislator. Representative Champ Clark was given a similar ovation when he entered at the conclusion of prayer, then Democrats hailing him as the speaker of the next house. Both houses adjourned almost immediately after the formal assembling, roll calls and the adoption of the resolution on the passing of those members who have died since the last session.

REPORT DEATHS OF SENATORS

Vice President Sherman was prompt in entering the senate chamber and bringing the senate to order just as the hands of the clock indicated the noon hour.
Immediately after came the opening prayer of Dr. Ulysses Grant Pierce, who referred to the unusual number of deaths which had taken place since the adjournment of the previous session, and that followed disclosed eighty senators present, only eight falling to respond.
Senator Martin of Virginia broke the official news of the death of Senator Daniel of the state of Senator Bacon announced that of Senator Clay of Georgia; Senator Foster performed a like service for Senator McHenry of Louisiana; Senator Burdick with an announcement of the death of Senator Dooliver of Iowa, by Senator Cummings. All spoke in feeling terms of the departure of those members whose case was confined to a few words, as later the senate will listen to extended eulogies of each.

RESOLUTIONS EXPRESSING THE PROFOUND MOURNMENT OF THE SENATE

Called to order by Speaker Cannon promptly at 12 o'clock the session remained in session long enough only to hear a prayer, the roll call, to adopt resolutions of sympathy on the death of Representatives of Pennsylvania, Tennessee, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, Massachusetts and Gilmore of Louisiana, and the members of the other house who have died since the adjournment of the previous session, and to have the oath of office administered to three new members.
Representatives Tawney, Calderhead and Clark were sworn in by Speaker Cannon as the joint committee to call upon the president and notify him congress had assembled.
The new members were John J. Mitchell of Massachusetts, to succeed the late Charles H. Turrell; R. M. Lively of Texas, to succeed Gordon Russell, who resigned to become a federal judge; and S. D. Massey of Tennessee, to succeed the late W. P. Brownlow.

OF THE 391 MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE 348 ANSWERED THE ROLL CALL

and resolutions were introduced in the house today that is usual on the opening day. There were 36 public bills and resolutions. As an outcrop of the house committee investigation of Indian claims Mr. Burke of South Dakota, chairman of that committee, introduced a measure requiring the approval of congress in order to establish the validity of future contracts and agreements made by persons with Indians or Indian tribes concerning litigation or demand predicated on any claim against the United States involving title and possession and the right to annuities.
Other measures introduced were:
By Mr. Loud of Michigan: Appropriating $25,000 for completing and furnishing the crypt of the Annapolis Naval academy chapel as a permanent resting place for John Paul Jones.
By Mr. Burdick of Missouri: Appropriating $2500 as the United States share of the maintenance of the inter-parliamentary union bureau for the promotion of international arbitration at Brussels.
By Mr. Madden of Illinois: To incorporate the commandery in chief of the Sons of G. A. R.
By Mr. Randal of Texas: To change the date of opening of congress to March 4.
By Mr. Henry of Texas: To make Columbus day, October 12, a public holiday.
By Mr. Sheppard of Texas: Requiring heads of departments to submit their reports more promptly for the information of congress.

TEN THOUSAND AMERICAN DOLLARS FOR NATIONALISTS

BOSTON, Dec. 5.—Ten thousand "American dollars," the seventh remittance, making a total of $70,000, was cabled to the Irish parliamentary leader, John E. Redmond, today, by Thomas B. Fitzpatrick, national treasurer of the United Irish League of America, to aid the Nationalists' cause in the parliamentary election now being held in Great Britain.
